This latest redesign follows the renovation of 672 guest rooms and suites on the south side of the tower in 2016, resulting in a completely refreshed Valley Tower at the beloved Caesars Entertainment (NASDAQ: CZR) resort. The easily accessible Harrah's Las Vegas is steps away from various Las Vegas landmarks and attractions and is a stop on the Las Vegas Monorail line.

"Harrah's is one of the most recognized gaming brands in the country and Harrah's Las Vegas offers a great value in the heart of the Strip," says Dan Walsh, general manager of Harrah's Las Vegas. "The renovated Valley Tower combined with non-stop entertainment and distinct dining options further elevate the dynamic guest experience that can only be found at Harrah's."

Designed by Marnell Architecture, the stylish interiors of the reimagined Valley Tower guest rooms consist of bold yet sophisticated décor with warm tones of gray and purple accents. Bold, purple fabric and blue sitting chairs complement the room's cream décor, dark wood accents and contemporary fixtures. Oversized vanities offer backlit mirrors and bars, while suites feature ceramic dark plank tile. Rates start at $52 per night.

Located on the ground floor of the Valley Tower, the resort now offers a new lobby bar with a sleek design that features 12 gaming stations, seating with charging stations and an Instagram-worthy image of the iconic "Welcome to Las Vegas" sign. The resort's recent renovations also include a completely remodeled casino floor and a new Starbucks near the Carnival Court Bar.

Guest rooms and suites design highlights include the following:

- Valley Tower Room: The new Valley Tower Room features one king or two queen beds with luxury bedding, a vanity with a backlit mirror and an electronic device docking station. Additional amenities include a bathroom vanity and rain shower.
- Valley Executive Suite: The new Valley Executive Suite measures 680 square feet and offers a separate bedroom with one king bed, dining area and living room. The luxurious bathrooms feature ceramic dark plank tile, a vanity, makeup mirror, rain shower and large tub.
- Valley Presidential Suite: Measuring 1,700 square feet, the stylish new Valley Presidential Suite includes an open living space and high-end bathroom features like a walk-in rain shower, creating a spa-like experience for guests. This suite comes with the option of adding a connecting room with one king bed.
- Valley Penthouse: The new Valley Penthouse measures more than 2,000 square feet. The spacious living area features a double-sided ottoman and a full-sized bar. Pops of teal and purple combined with metallic accents give this superstar suite a bold, stylish kick. Other features include a game table and back-to-back bathroom sinks separated by a two-way mirror.

As part of Caesars Entertainment's Code Green initiative, which aims to reduce landfill waste by 50 percent by 2020, much of the furniture from the renovated guest rooms and suites was donated to charitable organizations such as Habitat for Humanity in Las Vegas.

Harrah's Las Vegas offers free live entertainment, seven days a week at a number of venues. Toby Keith's 'I Love this Bar & Grill' features live country music acts, hand-picked by Toby Keith, played nightly. Carnaval Court is an open-air street party with music from live bands and DJs played day and night while flair bartenders prepare drinks. The Piano Bar, which debuted a new patio last spring, offers 12 hours of live, interactive shows daily. Entertainment includes Big Elvis, The Saxmen Duo, Rusty's All Star Karaoke and the Dueling Piano Twins.

Harrah's pays tribute to active military and veterans with military discounts year-round. Toby Keith's offers one free Soldier Burger for active military members and 20 percent off a single entrée for veterans or active military.

This year the Harrah's brand celebrates its rich, 80-year history as a preeminent leader in gaming. William F. Harrah opened his first bingo parlor in Reno, Nevada in 1937, followed by his first hotel in the city's downtown, beginning the classic Harrah's brand. Harrah's Las Vegas opened its doors in 1992 and is one of 16 Harrah's resorts worldwide.

The new Valley Tower suites are part of the Caesars Suites program, where guests can conveniently book more than 2,000 suites and villas within Caesars Entertainment's Las Vegas portfolio on one comprehensive website, caesarssuites.com.
