

Caesars Business Partners Support "Caesars Cares" Assistance Fund

May 27, 2020

Caesars Foundation also supporting charitable organizations across the country fighting COVID-19

LAS VEGAS, May 27, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Caesars Entertainment ("Caesars Entertainment" or the "Company") (NASDAQ: CZR) today recognized several of its long-time business partners who have generously contributed to Caesars Cares. Caesars Cares is an assistance fund established to support the Company's team members across the U.S. who suffer unanticipated hardships, including during the closure of Caesars Entertainment's properties as a result of the COVID-19 public health emergency. The fund is comprised of donations from the Company's Board of Directors, Management Team and business partners. The fund is in addition to the numerous donations made by Caesars Foundation across the country to organizations fighting COVID-19 in communities where Caesars Entertainment operates. Additionally, the Company recently made a grant to the Culinary Academy of Las Vegas, which services displaced union workers and their families.
