

Eldorado Resorts and Caesars Entertainment Announce Preliminary Results of Elections Made by Caesars Stockholders in Connection With the Proposed Merger

July 17, 2020

RENO & LAS VEGAS, Nev.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 17, 2020-- Eldorado Resorts, Inc. (NASDAQ: ERI) ("Eldorado" or the "Company") and Caesars Entertainment Corporation (NASDAQ: CZR) ("Caesars" or "Caesars Entertainment") today announced the preliminary results of the elections made by Caesars stockholders as to the form of consideration they wish to receive in connection with the previously announced merger (the "Merger") of Caesars with a subsidiary of Eldorado pursuant to the parties' Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of June 24, 2019 (as amended on August 15, 2019, the "Merger Agreement").

As previously announced, Caesars stockholders were permitted to elect to receive in exchange for each issued and outstanding share of Caesars common stock (other than shares of Caesars common stock that are (a) owned or held in treasury by Caesars or owned by Eldorado or any of its subsidiaries or (b) held by a holder of record who did not vote in favor of the Merger and is entitled pursuant to, and who complies in all respects with, Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporation Law) consideration payable in either cash (the "Cash Election Consideration") or common stock, par value $0.00001 per share, of Eldorado (the "Stock Election Consideration"), each as more fully described in the Merger Agreement. Caesars stockholders whose election materials were not received in proper form by the exchange agent by 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on July 16, 2020 (the "Election Deadline") were deemed to have made no election and will have their Caesars shares converted into the right to receive the Cash Election Consideration, Stock Election Consideration or a combination of both depending on the elections made by other Caesars stockholders according to the proration procedures specified in the Merger Agreement. Caesars stockholders are urged to consult their tax advisors for a full understanding of the tax consequences of exchanging Caesars shares for the Cash Election Consideration and/or Stock Election Consideration.

All such elections were subject to the proration procedures described in the Merger Agreement and in the joint proxy statement/prospectus, dated October 11, 2019 (the "Joint Proxy Statement/Prospectus") prepared in connection with the Merger.

Based on the information available as of the Election Deadline, the preliminary results for the election of merger consideration were as follows:

- Holders of 382,608,319 shares of Caesars common stock (which includes 81,320,835 shares that remain subject to guaranteed delivery procedures), or approximately 55.25% of the shares deemed outstanding for purposes of the election, elected to receive the Cash Election Consideration;
- Holders of 271,242,689 shares of Caesars common stock (which includes 73,765,316 shares that remain subject to guaranteed delivery procedures), or approximately 39.17% of the shares deemed outstanding for purposes of the election, elected to receive the Stock Election Consideration; and
- Holders of 38,592,472 shares of Caesars common stock, or approximately 5.57% of the shares deemed outstanding for purposes of the election, either did not submit valid elections or submitted an election expressing no preference.

The foregoing results are preliminary only and are subject to a notice of guaranteed delivery procedure. The final election results may therefore differ materially from the preliminary election results and are not expected to be available until following the closing of the Merger. Based on the preliminary results described above, it is expected that Caesars stockholders who elected to receive the Stock Consideration will be subject to proration. After the final merger consideration election results are determined, the final allocation and proration of merger consideration will be calculated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement.

Caesars stockholders are reminded that until the consummation of the Merger, Caesars stockholders will not be able to transfer (including by sale) shares of Caesars common stock for which a properly completed election form has been submitted unless the election is revoked prior to the transfer of such shares of Caesars common stock. Caesars stockholders are not entitled to revoke or change their elections following the Election Deadline. As a result, Caesars stockholders will be unable to sell their shares of Caesars common stock during the period between the Election Deadline and the effective time of the Merger.
