"We are so excited to be expanding in Las Vegas, and Vanderpump à Paris has been a passion project of ours for a long time. Vanderpump Cocktail Garden has been such a huge success and working with Caesars has been a wonderful experience; we can't wait to bring another concept to life under their umbrella," said Lisa Vanderpump. "After living in France for many years, it has been such an incredible journey to make our ideas a reality and, working with our extraordinary design partner Nick Alain, we have created a design unlike anything we've ever seen, with epic visual statements – it is our hope to bring the stunning visuals of Paris into the heart of Las Vegas. The food will be sexy and delicious, the cocktails exquisite and unique, and the overall experience will be one that is unforgettable! It's really been a labor of love and we can't wait to share it with you."

"The power and magic of Lisa Vanderpump can be felt through the excitement we continue to see after 2.5 years of Vanderpump Cocktail Garden at Caesars Palace, and we are thrilled to extend our partnership with her to open a second Las Vegas location at the Paris Las Vegas," said Jason Gregorec, Senior Vice President and General Manager of Paris Las Vegas. "Vanderpump à Paris will bring Lisa's charm and flair to the resort that will attract fans and guests looking for an unparalleled night out filled with picturesque cocktails and bites."

Vanderpump and husband Ken Todd are partnering once again with designer Nick Alain to bring their version of Paris to life. As soon as guests enter, they are transported to the "City of Light" with ornate awnings and signature light fixtures with the entrance flanked by impressive statues. Vanderpump and Alain have both lived for years in France and, as usual, create the unexpected, with original creations that combine elements of the unique ambiance that Paris has to offer. The space will feature approximately 200 seats with multiple seating areas, all with plush fabrics and intricate details, as well as light fixtures and bespoke furniture from Vanderpump and Alain's celebrated design line Vanderpump Alain.

Like Vanderpump's other locations, the cocktail menu will feature the unique and never-before-seen. Each cocktail will be carefully crafted, with cheeky nods to Paris and presented in playful ways with incredibly visual garnishes and presentations. The wine list will also reflect France with a vast variety of selections, as well as the Vanderpump Family's signature branded Rosé, Chardonnay and Cabernet.

Featuring reimagined Parisian classics, as well as unique and decadent light bites, the Vanderpump à Paris menu will delight guests with its ingenuity, delicious flavors and presentations. Sumptuous dessert cocktails will be the perfect ending to the meal or the beginning of an unforgettable night on the town.

Vanderpump à Paris joins Vanderpump's lineup of hot spots including Vanderpump Cocktail Garden at Caesars Palace in Las Vegas, as well as SUR, Pump and Tom Tom in Los Angeles. Vanderpump à Paris will be located adjacent to the Paris Las Vegas front desk.
