We couldn’t be happier to partner with the Arizona Diamondbacks as the state makes this shift into legal sports betting,” said Eric Hession, Co-President of Caesars Digital. “Arizona is the first state where our brand-new Caesars Sportsbook app will be live right as sports betting becomes legalized. We believe our app is the best in the industry, and we are thrilled to launch with a series of exciting offers that Arizonans can trust.”

In addition to mobile wagering, sports bettors in Arizona can place in-person bets on Sept. 9 at Chase Field where a temporary retail sportsbook will be operational at box office ticket windows 21-25, marking the first and only sportsbook at an MLB stadium. As previously announced, Caesars’ partnership with the D-backs includes plans to build a two-story sportsbook and sports bar in the space formerly occupied by Game 7 Grill on the plaza. Leading up to the grand opening of Caesars Sportsbook at Chase Field in early 2022, five walk-up betting kiosks will also be installed on the north side of the plaza to offer another way to wager.

“Today marks a significant advancement in the process of legalized sports betting in Arizona and we couldn’t be prouder to enter this new venture with Caesars,” said Derrick Hall, D-backs President & CEO. “Caesars, like the D-backs, has been a Valley resident for over 25 years, and we look forward to a successful partnership and celebrating the first sportsbook to open at a Major League stadium.”

Caesars Sportsbook’s easy-to-navigate app integrates mobile sports betting with Caesars’ industry-leading loyalty program, Caesars Rewards, where every bet, win or lose, rewards the bettor with credits and tier status that can be used to unlock unbeatable experiences within the Caesars portfolio of properties and partnerships.
