“The new Colosseum Presidential Villas and Octavius Sky Villas at Caesars Palace reflect our commitment to elevate the standard of luxury on the Las Vegas Strip,” said Sean McBurney, Chief Commercial Officer and Regional President of Caesars Entertainment. “As we commemorate our 60th anniversary, we’re proud to unveil these extraordinary spaces, meticulously designed with thoughtful details to deliver an unparalleled guest experience.”

Colosseum Presidential Villas

The new Colosseum Presidential Villas offer a bold take on contemporary luxury – architectural, atmospheric and distinctly elevated. The villas are a modern residential palace with a design that pays homage to heritage while presenting luxury with clarity, balance and intentionality.

The Presidential Villas take their name from the distinguished guests who have stayed in them. Over the years, presidents, world leaders, dignitaries and renowned celebrities have enjoyed these exclusive accommodations, which offer unmatched privacy, sophisticated design and dedicated butler service with personalized amenities.

With similar layouts, the 8,060-square-foot villa features brushed gold accents and soft lighting, while the 8,370-square-foot villa showcases bold lines and darker tones. The two villas can also connect, spanning more than 19,000 square feet of indoor and outdoor space together. Each rooftop villa features a 1,700-square-foot terrace with sweeping views of the Las Vegas skyline.

Highlights of each villa include:

- Private elevator through a grand vestibule inspired by Roman gardens
- Floor-to-ceiling windows with panoramic Las Vegas views
- Custom chandeliers crafted from metal, glass and crystal that serve as art pieces
- Double-sided glass fireplace, a centerpiece that seamlessly connects the living and entertainment areas
- Entertainment lounge with a feature bar and a midnight marble billiard table
- Formal dining room with mirror-lined ceilings and a 10-seat Calacatta Oro marble table
- Courtyard lounge that offers an intimate, tranquil setting, with skylight and terrace views
- Outdoor terrace with a fluted travertine bar and dark timber dining ensemble – perfect for sunset gatherings with panoramic views
- Primary bedroom that serves as a private sanctuary, featuring a spa-inspired bathroom and bespoke furnishings that create a deeply residential feel
- The 1,350-square-foot, additional grand primary bedroom in between the two villas boasts curved floor-to-ceiling windows and a glamorous bathroom with a Calacatta marble tub and Nero Marquina marble floors

Octavius Sky Villas

Perched on the 68th and 69th floors of the Octavius Tower, the 29 new Sky Villas introduce a contemporary design with clean architectural lines, a refined palette and sweeping views of Las Vegas. Created to appeal to a new generation of high-end travelers, the Sky Villas have been reimagined to reflect how modern guests live, entertain and unwind in a space that feels current and unmistakably design-forward. Bold material contrasts, including marble and metal, velvet and leather and crystal and stone, soaring ceilings, sculptural lighting and curated art compositions also foster a feeling of airiness and exclusivity. Additional highlights include a TV feature wall in the living room and ribbed glass panels in the bathroom that enhance the marble. The Octavius Sky Villas showcase a new standard of modern luxury at Caesars Palace, offering a sophisticated residential experience shaped for today's most discerning guests.

This luxurious new room product follows the recent AAA Five Diamond designations awarded to THE VILLAS Caesars Palace and Restaurant Guy Savoy, reinforcing a consistent level of excellence across the resort. Additionally, Caesars Palace has transformed itself in recent years with many large-scale investments to the resort, including a complete overhaul of the resort's main entrance and iconic crystal-cloaked casino dome, the addition of the Flavian Sky Suites, Palace Court Slots and Aureus Lounge – two upscale high-limit gaming areas, Celebrity Food Hall, Caspian's Cocktails & Caviar and a renovation of Qua Bath & Spa and fitness center. Looking ahead, even more exciting changes are coming for guests.

Enhancements include:

- OMNIA Dayclub – Tao Group Hospitality's OMNIA Dayclub will command 46,000 square feet, featuring two expansive pools and performances from top global DJs – coming pool season 2026
- Augustus Tower – nearly 1,000 suites will receive a full renovation designed by Peter Silling & Associates, setting a new standard for luxury in the market – coming 2026
- VIP Check-in Lounge – a luxurious and reimagined check-in experience for the most discerning hospitality and gaming guests – coming 2026
- Julius Tower – more than 500 rooms will receive a full renovation – coming 2027
- Palace Tower – nearly 1,200 rooms will receive a full renovation – coming 2027
