

1. Why are Eldorado and Caesars combining?

- The planned acquisition of Caesars substantially broadens Eldorado's scale and further strengthens our foundation, bringing geographic diversification, including Las Vegas Strip assets, and iconic brands to our existing operations and presenting us with significant financial and operating synergies. As a result, we expect the combination to enhance our competitive position and our ability to achieve consistent long-term success for the benefit of all of our stakeholders, including our team members and public shareholders.
- The combined company will be the nation's premier gaming company with approximately 60 casino-resorts and gaming facilities across 16 states.
- Over the last five years we have successfully increased Eldorado's scale and geographic footprint and our proposed acquisition of Caesars Entertainment represents a transformational growth opportunity for our Company. This is a significant positive change from the two and a half properties we owned in two states a little more than five years ago.

2. Who is Caesars?

- Caesars is the world's most geographically diversified casino-entertainment company with 34 domestic casino properties in nine states.
- The Caesars property portfolio features approximately 48,000 slot machines and VLTs, approximately 3,000 table games, and approximately 39,000 hotel rooms.
- Caesars has several iconic brands in their operations including Caesars, Caesars Rewards, Harrah's, Bally's, World Series of Poker and Horseshoe.
- The Caesars Reward program is the largest in the world with approximately 55 million members in its database and represents a valuable addition to Eldorado's customer base.

3. What will be the management structure of the combined company?

- Eldorado's Gary Carano, Executive Chairman of the Board of Directors, Tom Reeg, Chief Executive Officer, Anthony Carano, President and Chief Operating Officer and Bret Yunker, Chief Financial Officer, will continue to serve in their current positions upon completion of the transaction and Eldorado's corporate and operating management teams will retain their current roles and responsibilities post the closing of the transaction.
- Our senior management leadership structure will not change as a result of this transaction.

4. What does the combination of Eldorado and Caesars mean for me?

- This combination is about diversification and growth.
 - Together, Eldorado and Caesars will have a number of key competitive advantages that we believe will drive significant benefits for our customers, team members and shareholders.
 - We look forward to creating the leading national, multi-brand gaming and entertainment platform that will benefit from multiple iconic brands, growth driving initiatives with industry leading partners and a strong commitment to customer service.
- We are committed to communicating important updates to you as we work through the process.

5. Why is Eldorado's name going to change to Caesars Entertainment?

- Beyond the iconic Caesars Palace Las Vegas Strip property, the name Caesars Entertainment is known worldwide.
 - We will assume the Caesars name after the completion of the transaction to leverage the value of this iconic global brand and its legacy of leadership in the global gaming industry.
- While we have built a lot of equity over the years in the Eldorado brand and it will continue to be used at several of our properties, we will seek to leverage the Caesars brand to continue to grow recognition of our company around the world.
- While the name will change, we will not change our approach to property operations and how we interact with guests and provide them service. On the contrary, we intend to apply our core operating philosophy across the Caesars property portfolio following the completion of the transaction.

6. What are the plans to integrate the two companies?

- The integration process will take some time, and over the coming weeks we plan to assemble a transition team comprised of leaders from both Eldorado and Caesars that will formulate a plan on how to best integrate the companies following completion of the transaction.
- We have had great success over the recent years in integrating other acquired entities and all Eldorado team members have been critical to this record of success which we expect to be the case again as we integrate the Caesars properties once the transaction closes.
- It is still early in the process, but we will continue to update you regularly as we move forward.

7. When will the combination be completed?

- We expect the transaction to be completed in the first half of 2020, subject to shareholder and regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions.
- Until that time, Eldorado and Caesars will continue to operate and compete as two separate companies.
- During this period, it is imperative that we remain focused on our operations and customers in a manner that supports our property and corporate goals and our commitment to delivering superior service to our guests.

8. What happens next?

- Until the transaction closes, which we expect in the first half of 2020, Eldorado and Caesars will continue to operate and compete as independent companies.
- There are several transaction approvals that we will be working on, but today's announcement will have no immediate impact on our day-to-day operations. In short, it is business as usual.
- We expect you to continue to deliver the superior guest service that our customers have come to value and trust.

9. Where can I find additional information? How can I learn more about Caesars?

- After today, we will continue to update you regularly with additional information as the process moves forward.
- You can learn more about Caesars at their website: <https://www.caesars.com/>.

10. Who can I contact if I have any more questions?

- If you have any more questions, please do not hesitate to contact your manager.

11. What do I do if I am asked about the transaction?

- If you receive inquiries from the media or the investment community, please contact Anthony Carano, President and Chief Operating Officer at acarano@eldoradoresorts.com
