(e) any defense based upon any statute or rule of law which provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal:

(f) any duty on the part of Landlord to disclose to Guarantor any facts Landlord may now or hereafter know about Tenant, regardless of whether Landlord has reason to believe that any such facts materially increase the risk beyond that which Guarantor intends to assume or has reason to believe that such facts are unknown to Guarantor or has a reasonable opportunity to communicate such facts to Guarantor, it being understood and agreed that Guarantor is fully responsible for being and keeping informed of the financial condition of Tenant and of all circumstances bearing on the risk of non-payment or non-performance of any Obligations or indebtedness hereby guaranteed;

6. Enforcement.

(a) The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of the obligations of Tenant under the Lease. This Guaranty may be enforced by Landlord without the necessity at any time of resorting to or exhausting any other security (such as. for example, any security deposit of Tenant held by Landlord) or collateral and without the necessity at any time of having recourse to the remedy provisions of the Lease (such as. for example, terminating the Lease) or otherwise, and Guarantor hereby expressly waives the right to require Landlord to proceed against Tenant or any other Person, to exercise its rights and remedies under the Lease, or to pursue any other remedy whatsoever against any Person, security or collateral or enforce any other right at law or in equity. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, it shall not be necessary for Landlord (and Guarantor hereby waives any rights which it may have to require Landlord), in order to enforce any Obligation against Guarantor, first to institute suit or exhaust its remedies against any other Person, security or collateral or resort to any other means of obtaining payment of any Obligation. Nothing herein shall prevent Landlord from suing any Person to enforce the terms of the Lease or from exercising any other rights available to Landlord under the Lease or any other instrument or agreement, and the exercise of any of the aforesaid rights shall not affect the obligations of Guarantor hereunder. Guarantor understands that the exercise, or any forbearance from exercising, by Landlord of certain rights and remedies contained in the Lease may affect or eliminate Guarantor's right of subrogation against Tenant and that Guarantor may therefore incur liability hereunder that is not subject to reimbursement; nevertheless Guarantor hereby authorizes and empowers Landlord to exercise, in its sole discretion, any rights and remedies, or any combination thereof, which may then be available, it being the purpose and intent of Guarantor that its Obligations hereunder shall be absolute, independent and unconditional, in each case in accordance with its terms hereunder.

(b) No failure or delay on the part of Landlord in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Guaranty shall operate as a waiver of or otherwise affect any such right, power or privilege, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

(c) It is understood that Landlord, without impairing this Guaranty, may, subject to the terms of the Lease, apply payments from Tenant or any subtenant of the Leased Property or from any reletting of the Leased Property upon a Tenant Event of Default or from or in connection with any exercise of rights or remedies, to any due and unpaid rent or other charges or to such other Obligations owed by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to the Lease in such amounts and in such order as Landlord, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines: provided that any amount so paid and applied reduces the aggregate outstanding liabilities of Tenant under the Lease by such amount as required under the Lease.

7. Information. Guarantor (a) assumes all responsibility for being and keeping itself informed of the financial condition and assets of Tenant and its Affiliates and any other guarantor, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Obligations and the nature, scope and extent of the risks that Guarantor assumes and incurs hereunder, and (b) agrees that Landlord will not have any duty to advise Guarantor of information regarding such circumstances or risks.

8. No Subrogation. Until the Guaranty Termination Date (as defined in Section 14), Guarantor shall have no right of subrogation and waives (a) any right to enforce any remedy which Guarantor now has or may hereafter have against Tenant or any of Tenant's assets (including any such remedy of Landlord) and any benefit of, and any right to participate in. any security now or hereafter held by Landlord with respect to the Lease, (b) any rights of reimbursement, indemnity or subrogation against Tenant arising from any payment of Obligations by Guarantor, and (c) any right of contribution Guarantor may have against any other Person that is liable under the Lease arising from such payment or otherwise in connection with the Lease or this Guaranty.

9. Agreement to Comply with terms of Lease. Guarantor hereby agrees (a) to comply with all terms of the Lease applicable to it. (b) that it shall take no action, and that it shall not omit to take any action, which action or omission, as applicable, would cause a breach of the terms of the Lease, and (c) that it shall not commence an involuntary proceeding or file an involuntary petition in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking (i) relief in respect of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries, or of a substantial part of the property or assets of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries, under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law. or (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries.

10. Agreement to Pay; Contribution; Subordination. Without limitation of any other provision of this Guaranty, including, without limitation. Section 8 above, or any other right of Landlord at law or in equity, upon the failure of Tenant to pay any Obligation when and as the same shall become due. Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably promises to and will forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, to Landlord in cash the amount of such unpaid Obligation. Upon payment by Guarantor of any sums to Landlord as provided above, all rights of Guarantor against Tenant arising as a result thereof by way of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise shall be subject to the limitations set forth in Section 8 above and this Section 10. Guarantor further agrees that any rights of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise which Guarantor may have against Tenant or against any collateral or security, and any rights of contribution Guarantor may have against any other Person, in connection with any payment of Obligations or otherwise under this Guaranty or the Lease by Guarantor shall be junior and subordinate to any rights Landlord may have against Tenant or any such other Person, to all right, title and interest Landlord may have in any such collateral or security, and to any rights Landlord may have against Tenant or any such other Person. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of any such reimbursement, indemnity, subrogation or contribution rights at any time prior to the Guaranty Termination Date when a Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such amount shall be held in trust for Landlord and shall forthwith be paid over to Landlord to be credited and applied against the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of the Lease or any applicable security agreement. If for any reason whatsoever Tenant now or hereafter becomes indebted to Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor, such indebtedness and all interest thereon shall at all times be junior and subordinate to Tenant's obligation to Landlord to pay and perform as and when due in accordance with the terms of the Lease the guaranteed Obligations, it being understood that Guarantor and each Affiliate of Guarantor shall be permitted to receive payments from Tenant on account of such indebtedness (but subject in all events to the preceding provisions of this Section 10). except during any period that any Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing. During any such period. Guarantor agrees to make no claim for such indebtedness that does not recite that such claim is expressly junior and subordinate to Landlord's rights and remedies under the Lease. Furthermore, in the event of receivership, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, debtor's relief, or other insolvency proceedings involving Tenant as debtor. Guarantor hereby assigns to Landlord any right it may have to prove its claim in any such proceeding so as to establish its rights hereunder and receive directly from receiver, trustee or other court custodian dividends and payments which would otherwise be payable to Guarantor with respect to debts and liability owing by Tenant to Guarantor up to the amounts owed to Landlord hereunder.

11. Application of Payments. With respect to the Lease, and with or without notice to Guarantor. Landlord, in Landlord's sole discretion and at any time and from time to time and in such manner and upon such terms as Landlord deems appropriate, may (a) following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default, apply any or all payments or recoveries from Tenant or from any other guarantor under any other instrument or realized from any security, in such manner and order of priority as Landlord may determine, to any indebtedness or other obligation of Tenant with respect to the Lease and whether or not such indebtedness or other obligation is guaranteed hereby or is otherwise secured, and (b) refund to Tenant any payment received by Landlord under the Lease.

12. Guaranty Default. Upon the failure of Guarantor to pay the amounts required to be paid hereunder when due following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default under the Lease. Landlord shall have the right to bring such actions at law or in equity, including, without limitation, appropriate injunctive relief, as it deems appropriate to compel compliance, payment or deposit, and among other remedies to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees in any proceeding, including any appeal therefrom and any post judgment proceedings.

13. Maximum Liability. Each of Guarantor and. by its acceptance of the guarantees provided herein. Landlord, hereby confirms that it is the intention of such Person that the guarantees provided herein and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law. the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act. the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar foreign, federal or state law to the extent applicable to the guarantees provided herein and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder. To effectuate the foregoing intention. Landlord hereby irrevocably agrees that the obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty shall be limited to the maximum amount as will result in such obligations not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

14. Release. Guarantor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder upon the earlier to occur of either of the following: (x) (other than with respect to amounts then due and payable by Guarantor) upon the consummation of a Lease Foreclosure Transaction pursuant to clause (i) of Section 22.2 of the Lease, and (y) upon the irrevocable satisfaction and discharge in full of all of the Obligations (the date upon which such release occurs, the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided (in the case of clause (x)) that Landlord shall have received a Replacement Guaranty from a Qualified Replacement Guarantor in accordance with clause (i) of Section 22.2 of the Lease (and. in the case of such a Replacement Guaranty delivered in connection with a New Lease obtained pursuant to Section 17.1(f) of the Lease, such New Lease shall satisfy the requirements for a New Lease contained in the last sentence of Section 17.1(f). including that it be at the rent and additional rent, and upon the terms, covenants and conditions of. the Lease; it being understood that (i) the Obligations hereunder shall in no event include the obligations of the tenant under a New Lease, and (ii) the preceding clause (i) shall in no event be deemed to vitiate the Obligations hereunder in respect of the Lease).

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 31.1 of the Lease, Tenant has agreed to deliver this Agreement and will subordinate the Lease to the Mortgage and to the lien thereof and. in consideration of Tenant's delivery of this Agreement, Agent has agreed not to disturb Tenant's possessory rights in the Property under the Lease on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

NOW. THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Tenant covenants, stipulates and agrees that the Lease and all of Tenant's right, title and interest in and to the Property thereunder (including but not limited to any option to purchase, right of first refusal to purchase or right of first offer to purchase the Property or any portion thereof) is hereby, and shall at all times continue to be, subordinated and made secondary and inferior in each and every respect to the Mortgage and the lien thereof, to all of the terms, conditions and provisions thereof and to any and all advances made or to be made thereunder, so that at all times the Mortgage shall be and remain a lien on the Property prior to and superior to the Lease for all purposes, subject to the provisions set forth herein. Subordination is to have the same force and effect as if the Mortgage and such renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions had been executed, acknowledged, delivered and recorded prior to the Lease, any amendments or modifications thereof and any notice thereof.

2. Agent agrees that if Agent exercises any of its rights under the Mortgage, including entry or foreclosure of the Mortgage or exercise of a power of sale under the Mortgage, Agent, or any person who acquires any portion of the Property in a foreclosure or similar proceeding or in a transfer in lieu of any such foreclosure, (a) will not terminate or disturb Tenant's right to use, occupy and possess the Property, nor any of Tenant's rights, privileges and options under the terms of the Lease, so long as there is no continuing Tenant Event of Default (as defined in the Lease) (or. if there is a continuing Tenant Event of Default, this clause (a) shall be subject to the rights granted to a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (as defined in the Lease) as expressly set forth in the Lease) and (b) will be bound by the provisions of Article XVII of the Lease for the benefit of each Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (as defined in the Lease). In addition, Agent or any person prosecuting such rights and remedies agrees that, so long as the Lease has not been terminated on account of a Tenant Event of Default. Agent or such other person, as the case may be. shall not name or join Tenant as a defendant in any exercise of Agent's or such person's rights and remedies arising upon a default under the Mortgage unless applicable law requires Tenant to be made a party thereto as a condition to proceeding against Landlord. In the latter case. Agent or any person prosecuting such rights and remedies may join Tenant as a defendant in such action only for such purpose and not to terminate the Lease or otherwise adversely affect Tenant's rights under the Lease or this Agreement in such action. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if a Tenant Event of Default has occurred and is continuing at such time that a Successor Landlord (defined below) takes ownership and leasehold title to the Property, such Successor Landlord shall be subject to the terms and provisions in the Lease concerning the exercise of rights and remedies upon such Tenant Event of Default, including the provisions of Articles XVI. XVII and XXXVI.

3. If. at any time Agent (or any person, or such person's successors or assigns, who acquires the interest of Landlord under the Lease through foreclosure of the Mortgage, transfer in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) shall succeed to the rights of Landlord under the Lease as a result of a default or event of default under the Mortgage. Tenant shall attorn to and recognize such person so succeeding to the rights of Landlord under the Lease (herein sometimes called "Successor Landlord") as Tenant's landlord under the Lease, said attornment to be effective and self-operative without the execution of any further instruments.

4. Landlord authorizes and directs Tenant to honor any written demand or notice from Agent instructing Tenant to pay rent or other sums to Agent rather than Landlord (a "Payment Demand"), regardless of any other or contrary notice or instruction which Tenant may receive from Landlord before or after Tenant's receipt of such Payment Demand. Tenant may rely upon any notice, instruction. Payment Demand, certificate, consent or other document from, and signed by. Agent and shall have no duty to investigate the same or the circumstances under which the same was given. Any payment made by Tenant to Agent or in response to a Payment Demand shall be deemed proper payment by Tenant of such sum pursuant to the Lease.

5. (a) If Agent shall become the owner of the Property or the Property shall be sold by reason of foreclosure or other proceedings brought to enforce the Mortgage or if the Property shall be transferred by deed in lieu of foreclosure. Agent or any Successor Landlord shall be deemed to have assumed all terms and covenants of the Lease to be observed or performed by Landlord from and after the date on which such Agent or such Successor Landlord (as the case may be) succeeds to Landlord's interests under the Lease: provided, however, such Agent or Successor Landlord (as the case may be) shall not be:

(i) liable for any act or omission of any prior landlord (including Landlord) or bound by any obligation to make any payment to Tenant which was required to be made prior to the time Agent or such Successor Landlord succeeded to any prior landlord (including Landlord); or

(ii) obligated to cure any defaults of any prior landlord (including Landlord) which occurred, or to make any payment to Tenant which was required to be paid by any prior landlord (including Landlord), prior to the time that Agent or such Successor Landlord succeeded to the interest of such landlord under the Lease; or

(iii) obligated to perform any construction obligations of any prior landlord (including Landlord) under the Lease or liable for any defects (latent, patent or otherwise) in the design, workmanship, materials, construction or otherwise with respect to improvements and buildings constructed on the Property; or

(iv) subject to any offsets, defenses or counterclaims which Tenant may be entitled to assert against any prior landlord (including Landlord); or

(v) bound by any payment of rent or additional rent by Tenant to any prior landlord (including Landlord) for more than one (1) month in advance; or

(vi) bound by any amendment, modification, termination or surrender of the Lease made without the written consent of Agent (except for any amendment or modification entered into pursuant to and in accordance with the Credit Agreement which does not require the consent of Agent, so long as a copy of such amendment or modification is promptly delivered to Agent).

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, (x) Tenant reserves any right it may have to any and all claims or causes of action (i) against Landlord for prior losses or damages arising prior to. and (ii) against the Successor Landlord for all losses or damages arising from and after, the date that such Successor Landlord takes title to the Property, and (y) if (i) at any time Agent (or any person, or such person's successors or assigns, who acquires the Property or the interest of Landlord under the Lease through foreclosure of the Mortgage, transfer in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) shall acquire the Property or succeed to the rights of Landlord under the Lease as a result of a default or event of default under the Mortgage and (ii) the Successor Landlord or the successor party that acquires the Property acquires fewer than all of the other Facilities (as such term is defined in the Lease) under the Lease, then (A) such party, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand, will enter into a Severance Lease (as defined in the Lease) in accordance with Article XVIII of the Lease (a "Severance Lease"), and references herein to the Lease shall refer to such Severance Lease from and after the time such Severance Lease is executed, and (B) such Severance Lease will constitute a Severance Lease for all purposes of the Lease (including Section 18.2 of the Lease).

6. Tenant hereby represents, warrants, covenants and agrees to and with Agent:

(a) to use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver to Agent, by certified mail, return receipt requested, a duplicate of each notice of default delivered by Tenant to Landlord at the same time as such notice is given to Landlord and no such notice of default shall be deemed given by Tenant under the Lease unless and until a copy of such notice shall have been so delivered to Agent. Agent shall have the right (but shall not be obligated) to cure such default. Tenant shall accept performance by Agent or its designee of any term, covenant, condition or agreement to be performed by Landlord under the Lease with the same force and effect as though performed by Landlord. Tenant further agrees to afford Agent or the designee a period of thirty (30) days beyond any period afforded to Landlord or its designee for the curing of such default during which period Agent or its designee may elect (but shall not be obligated) to seek to cure such default, or, if such default cannot be cured within that time, then such additional time as may be necessary to pure such default (including but not limited to commencement of foreclosure proceedings) but in no event more than ninety (90) days, during which period Agent or its designee may elect (but shall not be obligated) to seek to pure such default, prior to taking any action to terminate the Lease;

(b) that Tenant is the sole owner of the leasehold estate created by the Lease; and

(c) to promptly certify, to Tenant's knowledge, in writing to Agent, in connection with any proposed assignment of the Mortgage, whether or not any default on the part of Landlord then exists under the Lease and to deliver to Agent any tenant estoppel certificates required under the Lease.

7. Tenant acknowledges that the interest of Landlord under the Lease is assigned to Agent solely as security for the obligations of the Borrower pursuant to the Credit Agreement, and Agent shall have no duty, liability or obligation under the Lease or any extension or renewal thereof, unless Agent shall specifically undertake such liability in writing or Agent becomes and then only with respect to periods in which Agent becomes, the owner and leasehold owner of the Property.

NOW, THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I

DEMISE; TERM

1.1 Leased Property. Upon and subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, Landlord demises and leases to Tenant and Tenant accepts and leases from Landlord all of Landlord's rights and interest in and to the following (collectively, the "Leased Property"):

(a) the real property described in Exhibit B attached hereto, together with any ownership interests in adjoining roadways, alleyways, strips, gores and the like appurtenant thereto (collectively, the "Land");

(b) the Ground Leases (as defined below), together with the leasehold estates in the Ground Leased Property (as defined below), as to which this Lease will constitute a sublease;

(c) all buildings, structures, Fixtures and improvements of every kind now or hereafter located on the Land or the improvements located thereon or permanently affixed to the Land or the improvements located thereon, including, but not limited to, alleyways and connecting tunnels, sidewalks, utility pipes, conduits and lines appurtenant to such buildings and structures (collectively, the "Leased Improvements"), provided, however, that the foregoing shall not affect or contradict the provisions of this Lease which specify that Tenant shall be entitled to certain rights with respect to or benefits of the Tenant Capital Improvements as expressly set forth herein; and

(d) all easements, development rights and other rights appurtenant to the Land or the Leased Improvements.

The Leased Property is leased subject to all covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements and other matters of any nature affecting the Leased Property or any portion thereof as of the Commencement Date and such subsequent covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements and other matters as may thereafter arise in accordance with the terms of this Lease or as may otherwise be agreed to in writing by Landlord and Tenant, whether or not of record, including any matters which would be disclosed by an inspection or accurate survey of the Leased Property or any portion thereof.

To the extent Landlord's ownership of any Leased Property or any portion thereof (including any improvement (including any Capital Improvement) or other property) that does not constitute "real property" within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.856-3(d), which would otherwise be owned by Landlord and leased to Tenant pursuant to this Lease, could cause Landlord REIT to fail to qualify as a REIT, then a portion of Landlord REIT's (or its subsidiary's) direct ownership interest in Landlord shall instead automatically be owned by Propco TRS, which is a "taxable REIT subsidiary" (within the meaning of Section 856(l) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto) of Landlord REIT, to the extent necessary such that Landlord's ownership of such Leased Property does not cause Landlord REIT to fail to qualify as a REIT, provided, there shall be no adjustment in the Rent as a result of the foregoing.

1.2 Single, Indivisible Lease. This Lease constitutes one indivisible lease of the Leased Property and not separate leases governed by similar terms. The Leased Property constitutes one economic unit, and the Rent and all other provisions have been negotiated and agreed upon based on a demise of all of the Leased Property to Tenant as a single, composite, inseparable transaction and would have been substantially different had separate leases or a divisible lease been intended. Except as expressly provided in this Lease for specific, isolated purposes (and then only to the extent expressly otherwise stated), all provisions of this Lease apply equally and uniformly to all components of the Leased Property collectively as one unit. The Parties intend that the provisions of this Lease shall at all times be construed, interpreted and applied so as to carry out their mutual objective to create an indivisible lease of all of the Leased Property and, in particular but without limitation, that, for purposes of any assumption, rejection or assignment of this Lease under 11 U.S.C. Section 365, or any successor or replacement thereof or any analogous state law, this is one indivisible and non-severable lease and executory contract dealing with one legal and economic unit and that this Lease must be assumed, rejected or assigned as a whole with respect to all (and only as to all) of the Leased Property. The Parties may elect to amend this Lease from time to time to modify the boundaries of the Land, to exclude one or more components or portions thereof, and/or to include one or more additional components as part of the Leased Property, and any such future addition to the Leased Property shall not in any way change the indivisible and nonseverable nature of this Lease and all of the foregoing provisions shall continue to apply in full force. For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge and agree that this Section 1.2 is not intended to and shall not be deemed to limit, vitiate or supersede anything contained in Section 41.16 hereof.

1.3 Term. The "Term" of this Lease shall commence on the Commencement Date and expire on the Expiration Date (i.e., the Term shall consist of the Initial Term plus all Renewal Terms, to the extent exercised as set forth in Section 1.4 below, subject to any earlier termination of the Term pursuant to the terms hereof). The initial stated term of this Lease (the "Initial Term") shall commence on October 6, 2017 (the "Commencement Date") and expire on July 31, 2035 (the "Initial Stated Expiration Date"). The "Stated Expiration Date" means the Initial Stated Expiration Date or the expiration date of the most recently exercised Renewal Term, as the case may be.

1.4 Renewal Terms. The Term of this Lease may be extended for four (4) separate "Renewal Terms" of five (5) years each if (a) at least twelve (12), but not more than eighteen (18), months prior to the then current Stated Expiration Date, Tenant (or, pursuant to Section 17.1(e), a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee) delivers to Landlord a "Renewal Notice" stating that it is irrevocably exercising its right to extend this Lease for one (1) Renewal Term; and (b) no Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date Landlord receives the Renewal Notice or on the last day of the then current Term (other than a Tenant Event of Default that is in the process of being cured by a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee in compliance in all respects with Section 17.1(d) and Section 17.1(e)). Subject to the provisions, terms and conditions of this Lease, upon Tenant's timely delivery to Landlord of a Renewal Notice, the Term of this Lease shall be extended for the then applicable Renewal Term. During any such Renewal Term, except as specifically provided for herein, all of the provisions, terms and conditions of this Lease shall remain in full force and effect. After the last Renewal Term, Tenant shall have no further right to renew or extend the Term. If Tenant fails to validly and timely exercise any right to extend this Lease, then all subsequent rights to extend the Term shall terminate.

1.5 Maximum Fixed Rent Term. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Term with respect to the Leased Property shall expire as of the end of the Renewal Term immediately prior to the Renewal Term that would cause the Term to extend beyond the expiration of the Maximum Fixed Rent Term (after taking into account Maximum Fixed Rent Term extensions, if any, pursuant to clause (c)(iv) of the definition of "Rent"), in which event the Leased Property shall revert to Landlord and all Tenant's Property relating thereto (including any Gaming Licenses relating thereto) shall remain owned by Tenant.

“Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B”: An amount equal to Four Hundred Twenty-Seven Million Seven Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($427,700,000.00); provided, however, that for purposes of calculating the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B, Capital Expenditures during the applicable Triennial Period shall not include any of the following (without duplication): (a) Capital Expenditures by any subsidiaries of Tenant that are non-U.S. subsidiaries or are “unrestricted subsidiaries” as defined under Tenant’s debt documentation, (b) any Capital Expenditures of Tenant related to gaming equipment, (c) any Capital Expenditures of Tenant related to corporate shared services, nor (d) any Capital Expenditures with respect to properties that are not included in the Leased Property or Other Leased Property. The Triennial

Minimum Cap Ex Amount B shall be decreased from time to time (t) in the event Regional Tenant elects to cease "Continuous Operations" (as defined in the Regional Lease) of a Regional Facility that is not a "Continuous Operation Facility" (as defined in the Regional Lease) for at least twelve (12) consecutive months, (u) upon the execution of a "Severance Lease" (as defined in the Regional Lease) in accordance with Section 18.2 of the Regional Lease or the execution of a "Severance Lease" (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) with respect to the Leased Property (CPLV) in accordance with Section 18.2 of the Las Vegas Lease, (v) upon the occurrence of an L1/L2 Transfer or an "L1/L2 Transfer" (as defined in the Regional Lease), (w) upon any transfer or other conveyance of the Leased Property to an Acquirer that is not an Affiliate of Landlord in accordance with Section 18.1 hereof, (x) in the event of any termination or partial termination of this Lease, the Regional Lease or the Las Vegas Lease (with respect to the Leased Property (CPLV)) in connection with any Condemnation, Casualty Event or "Casualty Event" (as defined in the applicable Other Lease), or in the event of the expiration of any applicable Maximum Fixed Rent Term or "Maximum Fixed Rent Term" (as defined in an Other Lease), in any case in accordance with the express terms of this Lease or the Other Leases (as applicable), and in any case that results in the removal of Material Leased Property from, or the termination of, this Lease, the Regional Lease or the Las Vegas Lease (with respect to the Leased Property (CPLV)) (as applicable), and (y) in connection with any disposition of all of the Other Leased Property under any Other Lease in accordance with Article XVIII of such Other Lease and the assignment of such Other Lease to a third party Acquirer (as defined in such Other Lease); with such decrease, in each case of clause (t), (u), (v), (w), (x) or (y) above, being equal to the applicable Minimum Cap Ex Reduction Amount. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary but subject to the next sentence, fifty percent (50%) of all Capital Expenditures and Other Capital Expenditures constituting Material Capital Improvements or Other Material Capital Improvements shall be credited toward the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B applicable to the Triennial Period during which such Capital Expenditures or Other Capital Expenditures were incurred and the other fifty percent (50%) of such Capital Expenditures and Other Capital Expenditures constituting Material Capital Improvements or Other Material Capital Improvements shall not be credited toward the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B. Without limitation of anything set forth in the foregoing, it is acknowledged and agreed that any Capital Expenditures with respect to any one or more of the London Clubs shall not be included in the calculation of the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B. Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) in no event shall any "Capital Expenditures" (as defined in the Regional Lease) expended in connection with the "HNO License Extension Improvements" (as defined in the Regional Lease) be credited towards the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B and (ii) one hundred percent (100%) of all "Capital Expenditures" (as defined in the Regional Lease) expended in connection with the "Southern Indiana Redevelopment Project" (as defined in the Regional Lease) in an aggregate amount not to exceed Eighty-Five Million and No/100 Dollars ($85,000,000.00) shall be credited in full toward the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B. "Capital Expenditures" (as defined in the Regional Lease) expended in connection with the "Southern Indiana Redevelopment Project" (as defined in the Regional Lease) were: (a) approximately Nineteen Million One Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($19,100,000.00) in the Fiscal Year that commenced on January 1, 2018; and (b) approximately Fifty-Eight Million Seven Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($58,700,000.00) in the Fiscal Year that commenced on January 1, 2019. As of the Second Amendment Date, it is anticipated that "Capital Expenditures" (as defined in the Regional Lease) made in connection with the "Southern Indiana Redevelopment Project" (as defined in the Regional Lease) will be Seven Million Two Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($7,200,000.00) in the Fiscal Year that commenced on January 1, 2020.

ARTICLE III

RENT

3.1 Payment of Rent.

(a) Generally. During the Term, Tenant will pay to Landlord the Rent and Additional Charges in lawful money of the United States of America and legal tender for the payment of public and private debts, in the manner provided in Section 3.4.

(b) Payment of Rent until Commencement of Variable Rent. On the Commencement Date, a prorated portion of the first monthly installment of Rent shall be paid by Tenant for the period from the Commencement Date until the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs, based on the number of days during such period. Thereafter, for the first seven (7) Lease Years, Rent shall be payable by Tenant in consecutive monthly installments equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the Rent amount for the applicable Lease Year on the first (1st) day of each calendar month (or the immediately preceding Business Day if the first (1st) day of the month is not a Business Day), in advance for such calendar month, during that Lease Year. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing sentence, (i) on the First Amendment Date, the amount of each remaining monthly installment of Rent in the Lease Year in which the First Amendment Date occurs (i.e., each installment of Rent payable in such Lease Year after the First Amendment Date) shall be recalculated to give effect to the changes to Rent effectuated by the amendments to this Lease on the First Amendment Date and (ii) on the First Amendment Date, if the First Amendment Date occurs after the first (1st) day of the second (2nd) Lease Year, a "catch-up" Rent payment in the amount of the product of (1) Five Hundred Ninety-Four Thousand Three Hundred Seventy-Five and No/100 Dollars ($594,375.00) multiplied by (2) a fraction, (I) the numerator of which is the number of calendar days that have commenced from and after the beginning of the second (2nd) Lease Year and (II) the denominator of which is three hundred sixty-five (365), shall be paid by Tenant, which "catch-up" payment represents incremental Rent that would have been due had the changes to the definition of Rent effectuated by the amendments to this Lease on the First Amendment Date been effective on the first (1st) day of the second (2nd) Lease Year.

(c) Payment of Rent following Commencement of Variable Rent. From the commencement of the eighth (8th) Lease Year and continuing until the Expiration Date, both Base Rent and Variable Rent during any Lease Year shall be payable in consecutive monthly installments equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the Base Rent and Variable Rent amounts for the applicable Lease Year on the first (1st) day of each calendar month (or the immediately preceding Business Day if the first (1st) day of the month is not a Business Day), in advance for such calendar month, during that Lease Year; provided, however, that for each month where Variable Rent is payable but the amount thereof depends upon calculation of Net Revenue not yet known (e.g., the first few months of the eighth (8th) Lease Year, the eleventh (11th) Lease Year, the sixteenth (16th) Lease Year and (if applicable) the first (1st) Lease Year of each Renewal Term), the amount of the Variable Rent payable monthly in advance shall remain the same as in the immediately preceding month, and provided, further, that Tenant shall make a payment to Landlord (or be entitled to set off against its Rent payment due, as applicable) on the first (1st) day of the calendar month (or the immediately preceding Business Day if the first (1st) day of the month is not a Business Day) following the completion of such calculation in the amount necessary to "true-up" any underpayments or overpayments of Variable Rent for such interim period. Tenant shall complete such calculation of Net Revenue as provided in Section 3.2 of this Lease.

(d) Proration for Partial Lease Year. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing, Rent and applicable Additional Charges shall be prorated on a per diem basis as to any Lease Year containing less than twelve (12) calendar months, and with respect to any installment thereof due for any partial months at the beginning and end of the Term.

(e) Rent Allocation. From and after the Second Amendment Date, Rent shall be recognized for federal income tax purposes according to Section 467 of the Code without a specific allocation of fixed rent within the meaning of Treasury Regulation § 1.467-1(c)(2)(ii)(A). As prior versions of the Lease (including the Lease, as in effect immediately prior to giving effect to the Second Amendment) incorporated a specific rent allocation, for avoidance of doubt, Landlord and Tenant hereby agree to terminate the prior rent allocation effective as of the Second Amendment Date.

3.2 Variable Rent Determination.

(a) Variable Rent Statement. Tenant shall, no later than ninety (90) days after the end of each Variable Rent Determination Period during the Term, furnish to Landlord a statement (the "Variable Rent Statement"), which Variable Rent Statement shall (i) set forth the sum of the Net Revenue realized with respect to the Facility and the Regional Facilities (so long as a Regional Facility is being leased to Regional Tenant by Regional Landlord pursuant to the Regional Lease) during each of (x) such just-ended Variable Rent Determination Period and (y) except with respect to the first (1st) Variable Rent Statement, the Variable Rent Determination Period immediately preceding such just-ended Variable Rent Determination Period, (ii) except with respect to the first (1st) Variable Rent Statement, set forth Tenant's calculation of the per annum Variable Rent payable hereunder during the next Variable Rent Payment Period, (iii) be accompanied by reasonably appropriate supporting data and information, and (iv) be certified by a senior financial officer of Tenant and expressly state that such officer has examined the reports of Net Revenue therein and the supporting data and information accompanying the same, that such examination included such tests of Tenant's books and records as reasonably necessary to make such determination, and that such statement accurately presents in all material respects the Net Revenue for the applicable periods covered thereby, so that Tenant shall commence paying the applicable Variable Rent payable during each Variable Rent Payment Period hereunder (in accordance with the calculation set forth in each such Variable Rent Statement) no later than the first (1st) day of the fourth (4th) calendar month during such Variable Rent Payment Period (or the immediately preceding Business Day if the first (1st) day of such month is not a Business Day).

(b) Maintenance of Records Relating to Variable Rent Statement. Tenant shall maintain, at its corporate offices, for a period of not less than six (6) years following the end of each Lease Year, adequate records which shall evidence the Net Revenue realized by the Facility and the Regional Facilities (so long as a Regional Facility is being leased to Regional Tenant by Regional Landlord pursuant to the Regional Lease) during each Lease Year, together with all such records that would normally be examined by an independent auditor pursuant to GAAP in performing an audit of Tenant's Variable Rent Statements. The provisions and covenants of this Section 3.2(b) shall survive the expiration of the Term or sooner termination of this Lease.

(c) Audits. At any time within two (2) years of receipt of any Variable Rent Statement, Landlord shall have the right to cause to be conducted an independent audit of the matters covered thereby, conducted by a nationally-recognized independent public accounting firm mutually reasonably agreed to by the Parties. Such audit shall be limited to items necessary to ascertain an accurate determination of the calculation of the Variable Rent payable hereunder, and shall be conducted during normal business hours at the principal executive office of Tenant. If it shall be determined as a result of such audit (i) that there has been a deficiency in the payment of Variable Rent, such deficiency shall become due and payable by Tenant to Landlord, within thirty (30) days after such determination, or (ii) that there has been an excess payment of Variable Rent, such excess shall become due and payable by Landlord to Tenant, within thirty (30) days after such determination. In addition, if any Variable Rent Statement shall be found to have understated the per annum Variable Rent payable during any Variable Rent Payment Period by more than two and one-half percent (2.5%), and Landlord is entitled to any additional Variable Rent as a result of such understatement, then (x) Tenant shall pay to Landlord all reasonable, out-of-pocket costs and expenses which may be incurred by Landlord in determining and collecting the understatement or underpayment, including the cost of the audit (if applicable) and (y) interest at the Overdue Rate on the amount of the deficiency from the date when said payment should have been made until paid. If it shall be determined as a result of such audit that the applicable Variable Rent Statement did not understate the per annum Variable Rent payable during any Variable Rent Payment Period by more than two and one-half percent (2.5%), then Landlord shall pay to Tenant all reasonable, out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Tenant in making such determination, including the cost of the audit. In addition, if any Variable Rent Statement shall be found to have willfully and intentionally understated the per annum Variable Rent by more than five percent (5%), such understatement shall, at Landlord's option, constitute a Tenant Event of Default under this Lease. Any audit conducted pursuant to this Section 3.2(c) shall be performed subject to and in accordance with the provisions of Section 23.1(c) hereof. The receipt by Landlord of any Variable Rent Statement or any Variable Rent paid in accordance therewith for any period shall not constitute an admission of the correctness thereof.

3.3 Late Payment of Rent or Additional Charges. Tenant hereby acknowledges that the late payment by Tenant to Landlord of any Rent or Additional Charges will cause Landlord to incur costs not contemplated hereunder, the exact amount of which is presently anticipated to be extremely difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, if any installment of Rent or Additional Charges payable directly to Landlord shall not be paid within four (4) days after its due date, Tenant shall pay to Landlord on demand a late charge equal to the lesser of (a) five percent (5%) of the amount of such installment or Additional Charges and (b) the maximum amount permitted by law. The Parties agree that this late charge represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Landlord will incur by reason of the late payment by Tenant. The Parties further agree that any such late charge constitutes Rent, and not interest, and such assessment does not constitute a lender or borrower/creditor relationship between Landlord and Tenant. If any installment of Rent (or Additional Charges payable directly to Landlord) shall not be paid within nine (9) days after its due date, the amount unpaid, including any late charges previously accrued and unpaid, shall bear interest at the Overdue Rate (from such ninth (9th) day after the due date of such installment until the date of payment thereof) (including interest accruing during the pendency of any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or other similar proceeding, whether or not a claim for such interest is allowed or allowable in such proceeding), and Tenant shall pay such interest to Landlord on demand. The payment of such late charge or such interest shall not constitute a waiver of, nor excuse or cure, any default under this Lease, nor prevent Landlord from exercising any other rights and remedies available to Landlord. No failure by Landlord to insist upon strict performance by Tenant of Tenant's obligation to pay late charges and interest on sums overdue shall constitute a waiver by Landlord of its right to enforce the provisions, terms and conditions of this Section 3.3. No payment by Tenant nor receipt by Landlord of a lesser amount than may be required to be paid hereunder shall be deemed to be other than on account of any such payment, nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check tendered as payment be deemed an accord and satisfaction and Landlord, in its sole discretion, may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Landlord's right to recover the balance of such payment due or pursue any other right or remedy in this Lease provided.

3.4 Method of Payment of Rent. Rent and Additional Charges to be paid to Landlord shall be paid by electronic funds transfer debit transactions through wire transfer, ACH or direct deposit of immediately available federal funds and shall be initiated by Tenant for settlement on or before the applicable Payment Date in each case (or, in respect of Additional Charges, as applicable, such other date as may be applicable hereunder); provided, however, if the Payment Date is not a Business Day, then settlement shall be made on the preceding Business Day.

Landlord shall provide Tenant with appropriate wire transfer, ACH and direct deposit information in a Notice from Landlord to Tenant. If Landlord directs Tenant to pay any Rent or any Additional Charges to any party other than Landlord, Tenant shall send to Landlord, simultaneously with such payment, a copy of the transmittal letter or invoice and a check whereby such payment is made or such other evidence of payment as Landlord may reasonably require.

3.5 Net Lease. Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that (i) this Lease is and is intended to be what is commonly referred to as a "net, net, net" or "triple net" lease, and (ii) the Rent (including, for the avoidance of doubt, following commencement of the obligation to pay Variable Rent hereunder, the Base Rent and Variable Rent components of the Rent) and Additional Charges shall be paid absolutely net to Landlord, without abatement, deferment, reduction, defense, counterclaim, claim, demand, notice, deduction or offset of any kind whatsoever, so that this Lease shall yield to Landlord the full amount or benefit of the installments of Rent (including, for the avoidance of doubt, following commencement of the obligation to pay Variable Rent hereunder, the Base Rent and Variable Rent components of the Rent) and Additional Charges throughout the Term, all as more fully set forth in Article V and except and solely to the extent expressly provided in Article XIV (in connection with a Casualty Event), in Article XV (in connection with a Condemnation), in Section 3.1 (in connection with the "true-up", if any, applicable to the onset of a Variable Rent Payment Period) and in Section 41.16. If Landlord commences any proceedings for non-payment of Rent, Tenant will not interpose any defense, offset, claim, counterclaim or cross complaint or similar pleading of any nature or description in such proceedings unless Tenant would lose or waive such claim by the failure to assert it. This shall not, however, be construed as a waiver of Tenant's right to assert such claims in a separate action brought by Tenant. The covenants to pay Rent and Additional Charges hereunder are independent covenants, and Tenant shall have no right to hold back, deduct, defer, reduce, offset or fail to pay any such amounts for default by Landlord or for any other reason whatsoever, except solely as and to the extent provided in Section 3.1 and this Section 3.5.

ARTICLE IV

ADDITIONAL CHARGES

4.1 Impositions.

(a) Subject to Article XII relating to permitted contests, Tenant shall pay, or cause to be paid, all Impositions before they become delinquent (other than any payments with respect to (x) Ground Leases required to be made by Tenant pursuant to Section 7.3(a) or (y) Property Documents required to be made by Tenant pursuant to Section 7.2(f), which Tenant shall pay or cause to be paid when such payments are due and payable, as required under the applicable Ground Lease or Property Document) during the Term to the applicable taxing authority or other party imposing the same before any fine, penalty, premium or interest may be added for non-payment (provided, (i) such covenant shall not be construed to require early or advance payments that would reduce or discount the amount otherwise owed and (ii) Tenant shall not be required to pay any Impositions that under the terms of any applicable Ground Lease or Property Document are required to be paid by the Ground Lessor or counterparty thereunder). Tenant shall make such payments directly to the taxing authorities where feasible, and on a monthly basis furnish to Landlord a summary of such payments, together, upon the request of Landlord, with copies of official receipts or other reasonably satisfactory proof evidencing such payments. If Tenant is not permitted to, or it is otherwise not feasible for Tenant to, make such payments directly to the taxing authorities or other applicable party, then Tenant shall make such payments to Landlord at least ten (10) Business Days prior to such payments becoming delinquent (except in the case of any such payments with respect to (x) Ground Leases required to be made by Tenant pursuant to Section 7.3(a) or (y) Property Documents required to be made by Tenant pursuant to Section 7.2(f), which Tenant shall pay or cause to be paid to Landlord at least ten (10) Business Days prior to such payments becoming due and payable under the applicable Ground Lease or Property Document), and Landlord shall make such payments to the taxing authorities or other applicable party prior to delinquency (or, in the case of any such payments with respect to (x) Ground Leases required to be made by Tenant pursuant to Section 7.3(a) or (y) Property Documents required to be made by Tenant pursuant to Section 7.2(f), the date that such payments are due and payable under the applicable Ground Lease or Property Document). Landlord shall deliver to Tenant any bills received by Landlord for Impositions, promptly following Landlord's receipt thereof. Tenant's obligation to pay Impositions shall be absolutely fixed upon the date such Impositions become a lien upon the Leased Property or any part thereof to the extent payable during the Term, subject to Article XII. Notwithstanding anything in the first sentence of this Section 4.1 to the contrary, if any Imposition may, at the option of the taxpayer, lawfully be paid in installments, whether or not interest shall accrue on the unpaid balance of such Imposition, Tenant may pay the same, and any accrued interest on the unpaid balance of such Imposition, in installments before the same respectively become delinquent and before any fine, penalty, premium or further interest may be added thereto.

(b) Landlord, Landlord REIT or their Affiliate shall prepare and file all tax returns and reports as may be required by Legal Requirements with respect to Landlord's net income, gross receipts, franchise taxes and taxes on its capital stock and any other returns required to be filed by or in the name of Landlord (the "Landlord Tax Returns") (irrespective of whether the same comprise Impositions payable by Tenant hereunder or otherwise payable by Landlord, Landlord REIT or any of their Affiliates), and Tenant or Tenant's applicable direct or indirect parent shall prepare and file all other tax returns and reports as may be required by Legal Requirements with respect to or relating to the Leased Property (including all Capital Improvements) and Tenant's Property. If any property covered by this Lease is classified as personal property for tax purposes, Tenant shall file all required personal property tax returns in such jurisdictions where it is required to file pursuant to applicable Legal Requirements and provide copies to Landlord upon request.

(c) Any refund due from any taxing authority in respect of any Imposition paid by or on behalf of Tenant shall be paid over to or retained by Tenant, and any refund due from any taxing authority in respect of any Imposition paid by or on behalf of Landlord, if any, shall be paid over to or retained by Landlord.

(d) Landlord and Tenant shall, upon request of the other, provide such data as is maintained by the Party to whom the request is made with respect to the Leased Property as may be necessary to prepare any required tax returns and reports. Landlord, to the extent it possesses the same, and Tenant, to the extent it possesses the same, shall provide the other Party, upon request, with cost and depreciation records necessary for filing returns for any property classified as personal property. Where Landlord is legally required to file personal property tax returns, Landlord shall provide Tenant with copies of assessment notices indicating a value in excess of the reported value in sufficient time for Tenant to file a protest.

(e) Billings for reimbursement by Tenant to Landlord of personal property or real property taxes and any taxes due under the Landlord Tax Returns, if and to the extent Tenant is responsible for such taxes under the terms of this Section 4.1 (subject to Article XII), shall be accompanied by copies of any applicable Landlord Tax Returns (together with copies of all underlying supporting documentation for any such Landlord Tax Returns), a bill therefor and payments thereof, which shall identify in reasonable detail the personal property or real property or other tax obligations of Landlord with respect to which such payments are made.

(f) Impositions imposed or assessed in respect of the tax-fiscal period during which the Expiration Date occurs shall be adjusted and prorated between Landlord and Tenant; provided, that, Tenant's obligation to pay its prorated share of Impositions imposed or assessed before the Expiration Date in respect of a tax-fiscal period during the Term shall survive the Expiration Date (and its right to contest the same pursuant to Article XII shall survive the Stated Expiration Date). Landlord will not enter into agreements that will result in, or consent to the imposition of, additional Impositions without Tenant's consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed; provided, (i) in each case, Tenant is given reasonable opportunity to participate in the process leading to such agreement and (ii) this sentence shall not restrict entry into agreements with Persons other than governmental or similar authorities or bodies on the basis that such agreements may have the effect of increasing franchise, capital stock or similar taxes that are required to be paid by Tenant hereunder. Impositions imposed or assessed in respect of any tax-fiscal period occurring (in whole or in part) prior to the Commencement Date, if any, shall be Tenant's obligation to pay or cause to be paid.

4.2 Utilities and Other Matters. Tenant shall pay or cause to be paid all charges for electricity, power, gas, oil, water and other utilities used in the Leased Property. Tenant shall also pay or reimburse Landlord for all costs and expenses of any kind whatsoever which at any time with respect to the Term hereof may be imposed against Landlord by reason of any Property Documents, or with respect to easements, licenses or other rights over, across or with respect to any adjacent or other property which benefits the Leased Property or any Capital Improvement, including any and all costs and expenses associated with any utility, drainage and parking easements relating to the Leased Property (but excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any costs and expenses under any Fee Mortgage Documents).

4.3 Compliance Certificate. Landlord shall deliver to Tenant, promptly following Landlord's receipt thereof, any bills received by Landlord for items required to be paid by Tenant hereunder, including, without limitation, Impositions, utilities and insurance. Promptly upon request of Landlord (but, so long as no Tenant Event of Default is continuing, no more frequently than one (1) time per Fiscal Quarter), Tenant shall furnish to Landlord a certification stating that all or a specified portion of Impositions, utilities, insurance premiums or, to the extent specified by Landlord, any other amounts payable by Tenant hereunder that have, in each case, come due prior to the date of such certification have been paid (or that such payments are being contested in good faith by Tenant in accordance herewith) and specifying the portion of the Leased Property to which such payments relate.

4.4 Impound Account. At Landlord's option following the occurrence and during the continuation of a monetary Tenant Event of Default (to be exercised by thirty (30) days' written notice to Tenant), Tenant shall be required to deposit, at the time of any payment of Rent, an amount equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the sum of (i) Tenant's estimated annual real and personal property taxes required pursuant to Section 4.1 hereof (as reasonably determined by Landlord), and (ii) Tenant's estimated annual insurance premium costs pursuant to Article XIII hereof (as reasonably determined by Landlord). Such amounts shall be applied to the payment of the obligations in respect of which said amounts were deposited, on or before the respective dates on which the same or any of them would become due. The reasonable cost of administering such impound account shall be paid by Tenant. Nothing in this Section 4.4 shall be deemed to affect any other right or remedy of Landlord hereunder.

ARTICLE V

NO TERMINATION, ABATEMENT, ETC.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, Tenant shall remain bound by this Lease in accordance with its terms. The obligations of Landlord and Tenant hereunder shall be separate and independent covenants and agreements and the Rent and all other sums payable by Tenant hereunder shall continue to be payable in all events unless the obligations to pay the same shall be terminated pursuant to the express provisions of this Lease or by termination of this Lease as to all or any portion of the Leased Property other than by reason of a Tenant Event of Default. Without limitation of the preceding sentence, the respective obligations of Landlord and Tenant shall not be affected by reason of, except as expressly set forth in Articles XIV and XV, (i) any damage to or destruction of the Leased Property, including any Capital Improvement or any portion thereof from whatever cause, or any Condemnation of the Leased Property, including any Capital Improvement or any portion thereof or, discontinuance of any service or utility servicing the same; (ii) the lawful or unlawful prohibition of, or restriction upon, Tenant's use of the Leased Property, including any Capital Improvement or any portion thereof or the interference with such use by any Person or by reason of eviction by paramount title; (iii) any claim that Tenant has or might have against Landlord by reason of any default or breach of any warranty by Landlord hereunder or under any other agreement between Landlord and Tenant or to which Landlord and Tenant are parties; (iv) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, consolidation, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, winding up or other proceedings affecting Landlord or any assignee or transferee of Landlord; or (v) for any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing. Tenant hereby specifically waives all rights arising from any occurrence whatsoever which may now or hereafter be conferred upon it by law (a) to modify, surrender or terminate this Lease or quit or surrender the Leased Property or any portion thereof, or (b) which may entitle Tenant to any abatement, deduction, reduction, suspension or deferment of or defense, counterclaim, claim or set-off against the Rent or other sums payable by Tenant hereunder, except in each case as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Article V shall preclude Tenant from bringing a separate action against Landlord for any matter described in the foregoing clauses (ii), (iii) or (v) and Tenant is not waiving other rights and remedies not expressly waived herein. Tenant's agreement that, except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Lease, any eviction by paramount title as described in clause (ii) above shall not affect Tenant's obligations under this Lease, shall not in any way discharge or diminish any obligation of any insurer under any policy of title or other insurance, and, to the extent the recovery thereof is not necessary to compensate Landlord for any damages incurred by any such eviction, Tenant shall be entitled to a credit for any sums recovered by Landlord under any such policy of title or other insurance in respect of any such eviction up to the maximum amount paid by Tenant to Landlord under this Article V and Article XIV hereof in respect of any such eviction or the duration thereof, and Landlord, upon request by Tenant, shall assign Landlord's rights under such policies to Tenant provided such assignment does not adversely affect Landlord's rights under any such policy and provided further, that Tenant shall indemnify, defend, protect and save Landlord harmless from and against any liability, cost or expense of any kind that may be imposed upon Landlord in connection with any such assignment except to the extent such liability, cost or expense arises from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord.

ARTICLE VI

OWNERSHIP OF REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY

6.1 Ownership of the Leased Property.

(a) Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that they have executed and delivered this Lease with the understanding that (i) the Leased Property is the property of Landlord, (ii) Tenant has only the right to the possession and use of the Leased Property upon the terms and conditions of this Lease, (iii) this Lease is a "true lease," is not a financing lease, mortgage, equitable mortgage, deed of trust, trust agreement, security agreement or other financing or trust arrangement, and the economic realities of this Lease are those of a true lease, (iv) the business relationship created by this Lease and any related documents is and at all times shall remain that of landlord and tenant, (v) this Lease has been entered into by each Party in reliance upon the mutual covenants, conditions and agreements contained herein, and (vi) none of the agreements contained herein is intended, nor shall the same be deemed or construed, to create a partnership between Landlord and Tenant, to make them joint venturers, to make Tenant an agent, legal representative, partner, subsidiary or employee of Landlord, or to make Landlord in any way responsible for the debts, obligations or losses of Tenant.

(b) Each of the Parties covenants and agrees, subject to Section 6.1(d), not to (i) file any income tax return or other associated documents, (ii) file any other document with or submit any document to any governmental body or authority, or (iii) enter into any written contractual arrangement with any Person, in each case that takes a position other than that this Lease is a "true lease" with Landlord as owner of the Leased Property (except as expressly set forth below) and Tenant as the tenant of the Leased Property. For U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, Landlord and Tenant agree that (x) Landlord shall be treated as the owner of the Leased Property eligible to claim depreciation deductions under Sections 167 or 168 of the Code with respect to the Leased Property excluding the Leased Property described in clauses (y) and (z) below, (y) Tenant shall be treated as owner of, and eligible to claim depreciation deductions under Sections 167 or 168 of the Code with respect to, all Tenant Capital Improvements (including, for the avoidance of doubt and for purposes of this sentence, Tenant Material Capital Improvements) and Material Capital Improvements funded by Landlord pursuant to a Landlord MCI Financing that is treated as a loan for such income tax purposes, and (z) Tenant shall be treated as owner of, and eligible to claim depreciation deductions under Sections 167 and 168 of the Code with respect to, any Leased Improvements (related to any capital improvement projects ongoing as of the Commencement Date for which fifty percent (50%) or less of the costs of such projects have been paid or accrued as of the Commencement Date (the completion of such capital improvement projects being an obligation of Tenant at no cost or expense to Landlord). For the avoidance of doubt, Landlord shall be treated as having received from the Debtors on the Commencement Date, as a capital contribution together with the transfer of the Leased Property to Landlord pursuant to the Bankruptcy Plan, an obligation of Tenant (at no cost or expense to Landlord) to complete any Leased Improvements related to any capital improvement projects ongoing as of the Commencement Date for which more than fifty percent (50%) of the costs of such projects have been paid or accrued as of the Commencement Date.

(c) If, notwithstanding (i) the form and substance of this Lease, (ii) the intent of the Parties, and (iii) the language contained herein providing that this Lease shall at all times be construed, interpreted and applied to create an indivisible lease of all of the Leased Property, any court of competent jurisdiction finds that this Lease is a financing arrangement, then this Lease shall be considered a secured financing agreement and Landlord's title to the Leased Property shall constitute a perfected first priority lien in Landlord's favor on the Leased Property to secure the payment and performance of all the obligations of Tenant hereunder (and to that end, Tenant hereby grants, assigns and transfers to Landlord a security interest in all right, title and interest in or to any and all of the Leased Property, as security for the prompt and complete payment and performance when due of Tenant's obligations hereunder). In such event, Tenant (and each Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee) authorizes Landlord, at the expense of Tenant, to make any filings or take other actions as Landlord reasonably determines are necessary or advisable in order to effect fully this Lease or to more fully perfect or renew the rights of Landlord, and to subordinate to Landlord the lien of any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, with respect to the Leased Property (it being understood that nothing in this Section 6.1(c) shall affect the rights of a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee under Article XVII hereof). At any time and from time to time upon the request of Landlord, and at the expense of Tenant, Tenant shall promptly execute, acknowledge and deliver such further documents and do such other acts as Landlord may reasonably request in order to effect fully this Section 6.1(c) or to more fully perfect or renew the rights of Landlord with respect to the Leased Property as described in this Section 6.1(c). If Tenant should reasonably conclude that, as a result of a change in law or GAAP accounting standards, or a change in agency interpretation thereof, GAAP or the SEC require treatment different from that set forth in Section 6.1(b) for applicable non-tax purposes, then (x) Tenant shall promptly give prior Notice to Landlord, accompanied by a written statement that references the applicable pronouncement that controls such treatment and contains a brief description and/or analysis that sets forth in reasonable detail the basis upon which Tenant reached such conclusion, and (y) notwithstanding Section 6.1(b) and this Section 6.1(c), Tenant may comply with such requirements.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Parties acknowledge that, as of the Commencement Date, for GAAP purposes this Lease is not expected to be treated as a "true lease" and that the Parties will prepare Financial Statements consistent with GAAP (and for purposes of any SEC or other similar governmental filing purposes), as applicable.

(e) Landlord and Tenant acknowledge and agree that the Rent is the fair market rent for the use of the Leased Property and was agreed to by Landlord and Tenant on that basis, and the execution and delivery of, and the performance by Tenant of its obligations under, this Lease does not constitute a transfer of all or any part of the Leased Property, but rather the creation of the Leasehold Estate subject to the terms and conditions of this Lease.

(f) Tenant waives any claim or defense based upon the characterization of this Lease as anything other than a true lease of the Leased Property. Tenant stipulates and agrees (1) not to challenge the validity, enforceability or characterization of this Lease of the Leased Property as a true lease, and (2) not to assert or take or omit to take any action inconsistent with the agreements and understandings set forth in Section 1.2, Section 3.5 or this Section 6.1. The expressions of intent, the waivers, the representations and warranties, the covenants, the agreements and the stipulations set forth in this Section 6.1 are a material inducement to Landlord entering into this Lease.

6.2 Ownership of Tenant's Property. Tenant shall, during the entire Term, (a) own (or lease) and maintain (or cause its Subsidiaries, if any, to own (or lease) and maintain) on the Leased Property adequate and sufficient Tenant's Property and (b) maintain (or cause its Subsidiaries, if any, to maintain) all of such Tenant's Property in good order, condition and repair, in all cases as shall be necessary and appropriate in order to operate the Leased Property for the Primary Intended Use in material compliance with all applicable licensure and certification requirements and in material compliance with all applicable Legal Requirements, Insurance Requirements and Gaming Regulations. If any of Tenant's Property requires replacement in order to comply with the foregoing, Tenant shall replace (or cause a Subsidiary to replace) it with similar property of the same or better quality at Tenant's (or such Subsidiary's) sole cost and expense. Subject to the foregoing and the other express terms and conditions of this Lease, Tenant and its Subsidiaries, if any, may sell, transfer, convey or otherwise dispose of Tenant's Property in their discretion in the ordinary course of their business and Landlord shall thereafter have no rights to such sold, transferred, conveyed or otherwise disposed of Tenant's Property. In the case of any such Tenant's Property that is leased (rather than owned) by Tenant (or its Subsidiaries, if any), Tenant shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any agreements entered into after the Commencement Date pursuant to which Tenant (or its Subsidiaries, if any) leases such Tenant's Property are assignable to third parties in connection with any transfer by Tenant (or its Subsidiaries, if any) to a replacement lessee or operator at the end of the Term. To the extent not transferred to a Successor Tenant pursuant to Article XXXVI hereof (and subject to the rights of any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee under Article XVII), Tenant shall remove all of Tenant's Property from the Leased Property at the end of the Term. Any Tenant's Property left on the Leased Property at the end of the Term whose ownership was not transferred to a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee or its designee or assignee that entered into or succeeded to a New Lease pursuant to the terms hereof or to a Successor Tenant pursuant to Article XXXVI hereof shall be deemed abandoned by Tenant and shall become the property of Landlord. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, but without limitation of Tenant's express rights to effect replacements, make dispositions or grant liens with respect to Tenant's Property under this Section 6.2, Tenant shall own, hold and/or lease, as applicable, all of the material Tenant's Property relating to the Leased Property.

ARTICLE VII

PRESENT CONDITION & PERMITTED USE

7.1 Condition of the Leased Property. Tenant acknowledges receipt and delivery of possession of the Leased Property and confirms that Tenant has examined and otherwise has knowledge of the condition of the Leased Property prior to and as of the execution and delivery of this Lease and has found the same to be satisfactory for its purposes hereunder, it being understood and acknowledged by Tenant that, immediately prior to Landlord's acquisition of the Leased Property and contemporaneous entry into this Lease, Tenant (or its Affiliates) was the owner of all of Landlord's interest in and to the Leased Property and, accordingly, Tenant is charged with, and deemed to have, full and complete knowledge of all aspects of the condition and state of the Leased Property as of the Commencement Date. Without limitation of the foregoing and regardless of any examination or inspection made by Tenant, and whether or not any patent or latent defect or condition was revealed or discovered thereby, Tenant is leasing the Leased Property "as is" in its present condition. Without limitation of the foregoing, Tenant waives any claim or action against Landlord in respect of the condition of the Leased Property including any defects or adverse conditions not discovered or otherwise known by Tenant as of the Commencement Date. LANDLORD MAKES NO WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IN RESPECT OF THE LEASED PROPERTY OR ANY PART THEREOF, INCLUDING AS TO ITS FITNESS FOR USE, DESIGN OR CONDITION FOR ANY PARTICULAR USE OR PURPOSE OR OTHERWISE, OR AS TO THE NATURE OR QUALITY OF THE MATERIAL OR WORKMANSHIP THEREIN, OR THE STATUS OF TITLE TO THE LEASED PROPERTY OR THE PHYSICAL CONDITION OR STATE OF REPAIR THEREOF, OR THE ZONING OR OTHER LAWS, ORDINANCES, BUILDING CODES, REGULATIONS, RULES AND ORDERS APPLICABLE THERETO OR TO ANY CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS WHICH MAY BE NOW OR HEREAFTER CONTEMPLATED, THE IMPOSITIONS LEVIED IN RESPECT OF THE LEASED PROPERTY OR ANY PART THEREOF, OR THE USE THAT MAY BE MADE OF THE LEASED PROPERTY OR ANY PART THEREOF, THE INCOME TO BE DERIVED FROM THE FACILITY OR THE EXPENSE OF OPERATING THE SAME, OR THE EXISTENCE OF ANY HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE, IT BEING AGREED THAT ALL SUCH RISKS, LATENT OR PATENT, ARE TO BE BORNE SOLELY BY TENANT INCLUDING ALL RESPONSIBILITY AND LIABILITY FOR ANY ENVIRONMENTAL REMEDIATION AND COMPLIANCE WITH ALL ENVIRONMENTAL LAWS. This Section 7.1 shall not be construed to limit Landlord's express indemnities made hereunder.

7.2 Use of the Leased Property.

(a) Tenant shall not use (or cause or permit to be used) the Facility, including the Leased Property, or any portion thereof, including any Capital Improvement, for any use other than the Primary Intended Use without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent Landlord may withhold in its sole discretion. Landlord acknowledges that operation of the Leased Property for its Primary Intended Use generally may require a Gaming License under applicable Gaming Regulations and that without such a license, if applicable, neither Landlord nor Landlord REIT may operate, control or participate in the conduct of the gaming operations at the Facility. Tenant acknowledges that operation of the Facility for its Primary Intended Use generally may require a Gaming License under applicable Gaming Regulations and that without such a license, if applicable, Tenant may not operate, control or participate in the conduct of the gaming operations at the Facility.

(b) Tenant shall not commit or suffer to be committed any waste with respect to the Facility, including on or to the Leased Property (and, without limitation, to the Capital Improvements) or cause or permit any nuisance thereon or, except as required by law, knowingly take or suffer any action or condition that will diminish in any material respect, the ability of the Leased Property to be used as a Gaming Facility (or otherwise for the Primary Intended Use) after the Expiration Date.

(c) Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, (i) initiate or support any limiting change in the permitted uses of the Leased Property (or to the extent applicable, limiting zoning reclassification of the Leased Property); (ii) seek any variance under existing land use restrictions, laws, rules or regulations (or, to the extent applicable, zoning ordinances) applicable to the Leased Property or the use of the Leased Property in any manner that adversely affects (other than to a de minimis extent) the value or utility of the Leased Property for the Primary Intended Use; (iii) execute or file any subdivision plat or condominium declaration affecting the Leased Property or any portion thereof, or institute, or permit the institution of, proceedings to alter any tax lot comprising the Leased Property or any portion thereof; or (iv) knowingly permit or suffer the Leased Property or any portion thereof to be used by the public or any Person in such manner as might make possible a claim of adverse usage or possession or of any implied dedication or easement (provided that the proscription in this clause (iv) is not intended to and shall not restrict Tenant in any way from complying with any obligation it may have under applicable Legal Requirements, including, without limitation, Gaming Regulations, to afford to the public access to the Leased Property or any portion thereof). Without limiting the foregoing, (1) Tenant will not impose or permit the imposition of any restrictive covenants, easements or other encumbrances upon the Leased Property (including, subject to the last paragraph of Section 16.1, any restrictive covenant, easement or other encumbrance which Tenant may otherwise impose or permit to be imposed pursuant to the provisions of any Permitted Exception Document) without Landlord's consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, provided, that, Landlord is given reasonable opportunity to participate in the process leading to such restrictive covenant, easement or other encumbrance, and (2) other than any liens or other encumbrances granted to a Fee Mortgagee, Landlord will not enter into, amend or otherwise modify agreements that encumber the Leased Property (including the Property Documents) without Tenant's consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, provided, that, Tenant is given reasonable opportunity to participate in the process leading to such agreement, amendment or other modification. Landlord agrees it will not withhold consent to utility easements and other similar encumbrances made in the ordinary course of Tenant's business conducted on the Leased Property in accordance with the Primary Intended Use, provided the same does not adversely affect in any material respect the use or utility of the Leased Property for the Primary Intended Use. Nothing in the foregoing is intended to vitiate or supersede Tenant's right to enter into Permitted Leasehold Mortgages or Landlord's right to enter into Fee Mortgages in each case as and to the extent provided herein.

(d) Intentionally Omitted.

(e) Subject to Article XII regarding permitted contests, Tenant, at its sole cost and expense, shall promptly (i) comply in all material respects with all Legal Requirements and Insurance Requirements affecting the Facility and the business conducted thereat, including those regarding the use, operation, maintenance, repair and restoration of the Leased Property or any portion thereof (including all Capital Improvements) and Tenant's Property whether or not compliance therewith may require structural changes in any of the Leased Improvements or interfere with the use and enjoyment of the Leased Property or any portion thereof, and (ii) procure, maintain and comply in all material respects with all Gaming Regulations and Gaming Licenses, and other authorizations required for the use of the Leased Property (including all Capital Improvements) and Tenant's Property for the applicable Primary Intended Use and any other use of the Leased Property (and Capital Improvements then being made) and Tenant's Property, and for the proper erection, installation, operation and maintenance of the Leased Property and Tenant's Property. In an emergency involving an imminent threat to human health and safety or damage to property, or in the event of a breach by Tenant of its obligations under this Section 7.2 which is not cured within any applicable cure period set forth herein, Landlord or its representatives (and any Fee Mortgagee) may, but shall not be obligated to, enter upon the Leased Property (and, without limitation, all Capital Improvements) (upon reasonable prior written notice to Tenant, except in the case of emergency, and Tenant shall be permitted to have Landlord or its representatives accompanied by a representative of Tenant) and take such reasonable actions and incur such reasonable costs and expenses to effect such compliance as it deems advisable to protect its interest in the Leased Property, and Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for all such reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses actually incurred by Landlord in connection with such actions.

(f) Without limitation of any of the other provisions of this Lease, Tenant shall comply with all Property Documents (i) that are listed on the title policies described on Exhibit I attached hereto, or (ii) made after the Commencement Date in accordance with the terms of this Lease or as may otherwise be entered into or agreed to in writing by Tenant.

(g) Tenant shall operate the Facility under one or more Brands, provided, that, (i) Tenant shall have the right, subject to receipt of any required approval from any governmental authority, body or agency, to change the Brand under which the Facility is operated to any other Brand, with the costs of such rebranding borne by Tenant, (ii) Tenant shall give Landlord prior notice of any change to the top-level Brand of the Facility, and (iii) the Facility shall in all events continue to be operated under all other System-wide IP. If any Brand is replaced by another Brand pursuant to the preceding sentence, Landlord and Tenant shall cooperate with one another to make such changes to this Lease as are necessary to give effect to such new Brand.

7.3 Ground Leases.

(a) This Lease, to the extent affecting and solely with respect to the Ground Leased Property, is and shall be subject and subordinate to all of the terms and conditions of the Ground Leases and to all liens, rights and encumbrances to which the Ground Leases are subject or subordinate. Tenant hereby acknowledges that Tenant has reviewed and agreed to all of the terms and conditions of the Ground Leases in effect as of the Commencement Date as listed on Schedule 2 attached hereto. Tenant hereby agrees that (x) Tenant shall comply with all provisions, terms and conditions of the Ground Leases in effect as of the Commencement Date as listed on Schedule 2 and, subject to Section 7.3(g) and Section 7.3(h), any amendments or modifications thereto and any new Ground Leases, in each case except to the extent such provisions, terms and conditions (1) apply solely to Landlord, (2) are not susceptible of being performed (or if breached, are not capable of being cured) by Tenant, and (3) in the case of the Ground Leases in effect as of the Commencement Date, are expressly set forth in the copies of such Ground Leases that were furnished to Landlord by Tenant on or prior to the Commencement Date (provisions, terms and conditions satisfying clauses (1) through (3), "Landlord Specific Ground Lease Requirements"), and (y) Tenant shall not do, or (except with respect to Landlord Specific Ground Lease Requirements) fail to do, anything that would cause any violation of the Ground Leases. Without limiting the foregoing, (i) Tenant acknowledges that it shall be obligated to (and shall) pay, as part of Tenant's obligations under this Lease, all monetary obligations imposed upon Landlord as the lessee under any and all of the Ground Leases as and when due thereunder, including, without limitation, any rent and additional rent payable thereunder and shall, upon request, provide satisfactory proof evidencing such payments to Landlord, (ii) to the extent Landlord is required to obtain the written consent of the lessor under any applicable Ground Lease (in each case, the "Ground Lessor") to alterations of or the subleasing of all or any portion of the Ground Leased Property pursuant to any Ground Lease, Tenant shall likewise obtain the applicable Ground Lessor's written consent to alterations of or the sub-subleasing of all or any portion of the Ground Leased Property (in each case, to the extent the same is permitted hereunder), and (iii) (without limitation of the Insurance Requirements hereunder) Tenant shall carry and maintain general liability, automobile liability, property and casualty, worker's compensation, employer's liability insurance and such other insurance, if any, in amounts and with policy provisions, coverages and certificates as required of Landlord as tenant under any applicable Ground Lease. The foregoing is not intended to vitiate or supersede Landlord's rights as lessee under any Ground Lease, and, without limitation of the preceding portion of this sentence or of any other rights or remedies of Landlord hereunder, in the event Tenant fails to comply with its obligations with respect to Ground Leases as described herein (without giving effect to any notice or cure periods thereunder), Landlord shall have the right (but without any obligation to Tenant or any liability for failure to exercise such right), following written notice to Tenant and the passage of a reasonable period of time (except to the extent the failure is of a nature such that it is not practicable for Landlord to provide such prior written notice, in which event Landlord shall provide written notice as soon as practicable) to cure such failure, in which event Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Landlord's reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with curing such failure. The parties acknowledge that the Ground Leases on the one hand, and this Lease on the other hand, constitute separate contractual arrangements among separate parties and nothing in this Lease shall vitiate or otherwise affect the obligations of the parties to the Ground Leases, and nothing in the Ground Leases shall vitiate or otherwise affect the obligations of the parties hereto pursuant to this Lease (except as specifically set forth in this Section 7.3).

(b) Subject to Section 7.3(c) below, in the event of cancellation or termination of any Ground Lease for any reason whatsoever whether voluntary or involuntary (by operation of law or otherwise) prior to the expiration date of this Lease, including extensions and renewals granted hereunder (other than the cancellation or termination of a Ground Lease entered into in connection with a sale-leaseback transaction by Landlord (other than if such cancellation or termination resulted from Tenant's default under this Lease), which cancellation or termination results in the Leased Property leased under such Ground Lease no longer being subject to this Lease), then, this Lease and Tenant's obligation to pay the Rent and Additional Charges hereunder and all other obligations of Tenant hereunder (other than such obligations of Tenant hereunder that concern solely the applicable Ground Leased Property demised under the affected Ground Lease) shall continue unabated; provided that if Landlord (or any Fee Mortgagee) enters into a replacement lease with respect to the applicable Ground Leased Property on substantially similar terms to those of such cancelled or terminated Ground Lease, then such replacement lease shall automatically become a Ground Lease hereunder and such Ground Leased Property shall remain part of the Leased Property hereunder. Nothing contained in this Lease shall create, or be construed as creating, any privity of contract or privity of estate between Ground Lessor and Tenant.

(c) With respect to any Ground Leased Property, the Ground Lease for which has an expiration date (taking into account any renewal options exercised thereunder or hereafter exercised) prior to the expiration of the Term (taking into account any exercised renewal options hereunder), this Lease shall expire solely with respect to such Ground Leased Property concurrently with such Ground Lease expiration date (taking into account the terms of the following sentences of this Section 7.3(c)). There shall be no reduction in Rent nor Required Capital Expenditures by reason of such expiration with respect to, and the corresponding removal from this Lease of, any such Ground Leased Property. Landlord (as ground lessee) shall exercise all renewal options contained in each Ground Lease so as to extend the term thereof (provided, that, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord written notice of the outside date by which any such renewal option must be exercised in order to validly extend the term of any such Ground Lease; such notice shall be delivered no earlier than one hundred twenty (120) days prior to the earliest date any such option may be validly exercised and no later than forty-five (45) days prior to the outside date by which such option must be validly exercised, which notice shall be followed by a second notice from Tenant to Landlord of such outside date, such notice to be furnished to Landlord no later than fifteen (15) days prior to the outside date), and Landlord shall provide Tenant with a copy of Landlord's exercise of such renewal option. With respect to any Ground Lease that otherwise would expire during the Term, Tenant, on Landlord's behalf, shall have the right to negotiate for a renewal or replacement of such Ground Lease with the third party ground lessor, on terms satisfactory to Tenant (subject, (i) to Landlord's reasonable consent with respect to the provisions, terms and conditions thereof which would reasonably be expected to materially and adversely affect Landlord, and (ii) in the case of any such renewal or replacement that would extend the term of such Ground Lease beyond the Term, to Landlord's sole right to approve any such provisions, terms and conditions that would be applicable beyond the Term).

(d) Nothing contained in this Lease amends, or shall be construed to amend, any provision of the Ground Leases.

(e) Tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Landlord Indemnified Parties, the Ground Lessor, any master lessor to Ground Lessor and any other party entitled to be indemnified by Landlord pursuant to the terms of any Ground Lease from and against any and all claims arising from or in connection with the Facility and/or this Lease with respect to which such party is entitled to indemnification by Landlord pursuant to the terms of any Ground Lease, and from and against all costs, attorneys' fees, expenses and liabilities incurred in the defense of any such claim or any action or proceeding brought thereon to the extent provided in the applicable Ground Lease; and in case any such action or proceeding be brought against any of the Landlord Indemnified Parties, any Ground Lessor or any master lessor to Ground Lessor or any such party by reason of any such claim, Tenant, upon notice from Landlord or any of its Affiliates or such other Landlord Indemnified Party, such Ground Lessor or such master lessor to Ground Lessor or any such party, shall defend the same at Tenant's expense by counsel reasonably satisfactory to the party or parties indemnified pursuant to this paragraph or the Ground Lease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Tenant be required to indemnify, defend or hold harmless the Landlord Indemnified Parties, the Ground Lessor, any master lessor to Ground Lessor or any other party from or against any claims to the extent resulting from (i) the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Landlord, or (ii) the actions of Landlord except if such actions are the result of Tenant's failure, in violation of this Lease, to act.

(f) To the extent required under the applicable Ground Lease, Tenant hereby waives any and all rights of recovery (including subrogation rights of its insurers) from the applicable Ground Lessor, its agents, principals, employees and representatives for any loss or damage, including consequential loss or damage, covered by any insurance policy maintained by Tenant, whether or not such policy is required under the terms of the Ground Lease.

(g) Landlord shall not enter into any new ground leases with respect to the Leased Property or any portion thereof (except as provided by Section 7.3(h)), or amend, modify or terminate any existing Ground Leases (except as provided by Section 7.3(b) or Section 7.3(c)), in each case without Tenant's prior written consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, provided, that, Landlord may amend or modify Ground Leases in a manner that will not adversely affect Tenant (e.g., an amendment relating to a period following the end of the Term), and Landlord may acquire the fee interest in the property leased pursuant to any Ground Lease, so long as Tenant's rights and obligations hereunder are not adversely affected thereby.

(h) Landlord may enter into new Ground Leases with respect to the Leased Property or any portion thereof (including pursuant to a sale-leaseback transaction) or amend or modify any such Ground Leases, provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary (other than replacement Ground Lease(s) made pursuant to Section 7.3(b) or Ground Lease(s) made pursuant to the final sentence of Section 7.3(c)), Tenant shall not be obligated to comply with any additional or more onerous obligations under such new ground lease or amendment or modification thereof with which Tenant is not otherwise obligated to comply under this Lease (and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Tenant shall not be required to incur any additional monetary obligations (whether for payment of rents under such new Ground Lease or otherwise) in connection with such new Ground Lease) (except to a de minimis extent), unless Tenant approves such additional obligations in its sole and absolute discretion.

7.4 Third Party Reports. Upon Landlord's reasonable request from time to time, Tenant shall provide Landlord with copies of any third party reports obtained by Tenant with respect to the Leased Property, including, without limitation, copies of surveys, environmental reports and property condition reports.

7.5 Operating Standard. Tenant shall, throughout the Term, cause the Facility to be operated, managed, used, maintained and repaired in all material respects in accordance with the Applicable Standards, as applicable to the Facility, in each case except to the extent the failure to do so does not result in, and would not reasonably be expected to have, a material adverse effect on Landlord (taken as a whole with Regional Landlord) or the Facility (taken as a whole with the Regional Facilities).

ARTICLE VIII

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Each Party represents and warrants to the other that as of the Commencement Date, as of the First Amendment Date and as of the Second Amendment Date: (i) this Lease (as in effect on such date) and all other documents executed, or to be executed, by it in connection herewith (as each such document is in effect on such date) have been duly authorized and shall be binding upon it; (ii) it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its formation and is duly authorized and qualified to perform this Lease within the State of Illinois; and (iii) neither this Lease nor any other document executed or to be executed in connection herewith violates the terms of any other agreement of such Party.

ARTICLE IX

MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR

9.1 Tenant Obligations. Subject to the provisions of Sections 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3 relating to Landlord's approval of certain Alterations, Capital Improvements and Material Capital Improvements, Tenant, at its expense and without the prior consent of Landlord, shall maintain the Leased Property, and every portion thereof, including all of the Leased Improvements and the structural elements and the plumbing, heating, ventilating, air conditioning, electrical, lighting, sprinkler and other utility systems thereof, all fixtures and all appurtenances to the Leased Property including any and all private roadways, sidewalks and curbs appurtenant to the Leased Property, and Tenant's Property, in each case in good order and repair whether or not the need for such repairs occurs as a result of Tenant's use, any prior use, the elements or the age of the Leased Property, and, with reasonable promptness, make all reasonably necessary and appropriate repairs thereto of every kind and nature, including those necessary to ensure continuing compliance with all Legal Requirements (including, without limitation, all Gaming Regulations and Environmental Laws) (to the extent required hereunder), Insurance Requirements, the Ground Leases and the Property Documents whether now or hereafter in effect (other than any Ground Leases or Property Documents (or modifications to Ground Leases or Property Documents) entered into after the Commencement Date that impose obligations on Tenant (other than de minimis obligations) to the extent (x) in the case of Property Documents, entered into by Landlord without Tenant's consent pursuant to Section 7.2(c) or (y) in the case of Ground Leases, Tenant is not required to comply therewith pursuant to Section 7.3(b), Section 7.3(g) or Section 7.3(h)) and, with respect to any Fee Mortgages, the applicable provisions of such Fee Mortgage Documents as and to the extent Tenant is required to comply therewith pursuant to Article XXXI hereof, in each case except to the extent otherwise provided in Article XIV or Article XV of this Lease, whether interior or exterior, structural or non-structural, ordinary or extraordinary, foreseen or unforeseen or arising by reason of a condition existing prior to or first arising after the Commencement Date.

9.2 No Landlord Obligations. Landlord shall not under any circumstances be required to (i) build or rebuild any improvements on the Leased Property; (ii) make any repairs, replacements, alterations, restorations or renewals of any nature to the Leased Property, whether ordinary or extraordinary, structural or non-structural, foreseen or unforeseen, or to make any expenditure whatsoever with respect thereto; or (iii) maintain the Leased Property in any way.

Tenant hereby waives, to the extent permitted by law, the right to make repairs at the expense of Landlord pursuant to any law in effect at the time of the execution of this Lease or hereafter enacted. This Section 9.2 shall not be construed to limit Landlord's express indemnities, if any, made hereunder.

9.3 Landlord's Estate. Nothing contained in this Lease and no action or inaction by Landlord shall be construed as (i) constituting the consent or request of Landlord, expressed or implied, to any contractor, subcontractor, laborer, materialman or vendor to or for the performance of any labor or services or the furnishing of any materials or other property for the construction, alteration, addition, repair or demolition of or to the Leased Property, or any part thereof, or any Capital Improvement; or (ii) giving Tenant any right, power or permission to contract for or permit the performance of any labor or services or the furnishing of any materials or other property in such fashion as would permit the making of any claim against Landlord in respect thereof or to make any agreement that may create, or in any way be the basis for, any right, title, interest, lien, claim or other encumbrance upon the estate of Landlord in the Leased Property, or any portion thereof or upon the estate of Landlord in any Capital Improvement.

9.4 End of Term. Subject to Sections 17.1(f) and 36.1, Tenant shall, upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Term, vacate and surrender and relinquish in favor of Landlord all rights to the Leased Property (together with all Capital Improvements, including all Tenant Capital Improvements, except to the extent provided in Section 10.4 in respect of Tenant Material Capital Improvements), in each case, in the condition in which such Leased Property was originally received from Landlord and, in the case of Capital Improvements (other than Tenant Material Capital Improvements to the extent provided in Section 10.4), when such Capital Improvements were originally introduced to the Facility, except as repaired, rebuilt, restored, altered or added to as permitted or required by the provisions of this Lease and except for ordinary wear and tear and subject to any Casualty Event or Condemnation as provided in Articles XIV and XV.

ARTICLE X

ALTERATIONS

10.1 Alterations, Capital Improvements and Material Capital Improvements. Tenant shall not be required to obtain Landlord's consent or approval to make any Alterations or Capital Improvements (including any Material Capital Improvement) to the Leased Property; provided, however, that all such Alterations and Capital Improvements (i) shall be of equal quality to or better quality than the applicable portions of the existing Facility, as applicable, except to the extent Alterations or Capital Improvements of lesser quality would not, in the reasonable opinion of Tenant, result in any diminution of value of the Leased Property (or applicable portion thereof), (ii) shall not have an adverse effect on the structural integrity of any portion of the Leased Property, and (iii) shall not otherwise result in a diminution of value to the Leased Property (except to a de minimis extent). If any Alteration or Capital Improvement would not or does not meet the standards of the preceding sentence, then such Alteration or Capital Improvement shall be subject to Landlord's written approval, which written approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Further, if any Alteration or Capital Improvement (or the aggregate amount of all related Alterations or Capital Improvements) has a total budgeted cost (as reasonably evidenced to Landlord) in excess of Seventy-Five Million and No/100 Dollars ($75,000,000.00) (the "Alteration Threshold"), then such Alteration or Capital Improvement (or series of related Alterations or Capital Improvements) shall be subject to the approval of Landlord and, if applicable, subject to Section 31.3, any Fee Mortgagee, in each case which written approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Landlord shall have the right (in addition to any construction consultant engaged by Tenant, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, to satisfy any applicable Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirement) to also select and engage, at Landlord's cost and expense, construction consultants to conduct inspections of the Leased Property during the construction of any Material Capital Improvements, provided that (x) such inspections shall be conducted in a manner as to not unreasonably interfere with such construction or the operation of the Facility, (y) prior to entering the Leased Property, such consultants shall deliver to Tenant evidence of insurance reasonably satisfactory to Tenant and (z) (irrespective of whether the consultant was engaged by Landlord, Tenant or otherwise) Landlord and Tenant shall be entitled to receive copies of such consultants' work product and shall have direct access to and communication with such consultants.

10.2 Landlord Approval of Certain Alterations and Capital Improvements. If Tenant desires to make any Alteration or Capital Improvement for which Landlord's approval is required pursuant to Section 10.1 above, Tenant shall submit to Landlord in reasonable detail a general description of the proposal, the projected cost of the applicable Work and such plans and specifications, permits, licenses, contracts and other information concerning the proposal as Landlord may reasonably request. Such description shall indicate the use or uses to which such Alteration or Capital Improvement will be put and the impact, if any, on current and forecasted gross revenues and operating income attributable thereto. Landlord may condition any approval of any Alteration or Capital Improvement (including any Material Capital Improvement), to the extent required pursuant to Section 10.1 above, upon any or all of the following terms and conditions, to the extent reasonable under the circumstances:

(a) the Work shall be effected pursuant to detailed plans and specifications approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed;

(b) the Work shall be conducted under the supervision of a licensed architect or engineer selected by Tenant (the "Architect") and, for purposes of this Section 10.2 only, approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed;

(c) Landlord's receipt from the general contractor and, if reasonably requested by Landlord, any major subcontractor(s) of a performance and payment bond for the full value of such Work, which such bond shall name Landlord as an additional obligee and otherwise be in form and substance and issued by a Person reasonably satisfactory to Landlord;

(d) Landlord's receipt of reasonable evidence of Tenant's financial ability to complete the Work without materially and adversely affecting its cash flow position or financial viability; and

(e) such Alteration or Capital Improvement will not result in the Leased Property becoming a "limited use" within the meaning of Revenue Procedure 2001-28 property for purposes of United States federal income taxes.

10.3 Construction Requirements for Alterations and Capital Improvements. For any Alteration or Capital Improvement having a budgeted cost in excess of Fifteen Million and No/100 Dollars ($15,000,000.00) (and as otherwise expressly required under subsection (g) below), Tenant shall satisfy the following:

(a) If and to the extent plans and specifications typically would be (or, in accordance with applicable Legal Requirements, are required to be) obtained in connection with a project of similar scope and nature to such Alteration or Capital Improvement, Tenant shall, prior to commencing any Work in respect of the same, provide Landlord copies of such plans and specifications. Tenant shall also supply Landlord with related documentation, information and materials relating to the Property or such Work in Tenant's possession or control, including, without limitation, surveys, property condition reports and environmental reports, as Landlord may reasonably request from time to time;

(b) No Work shall be commenced until Tenant shall have procured and paid for all municipal and other governmental permits and authorizations required to be obtained prior to such commencement (if any), including those permits and authorizations required pursuant to any Gaming Regulations (if any), and, upon Tenant's request, Landlord shall join in the application for such permits or authorizations whenever such action is necessary; provided, however, that (i) any such joinder shall be at no cost or expense to Landlord; and (ii) any plans required to be filed in connection with any such application which require the approval of Landlord as hereinabove provided shall have been so approved by Landlord;

(c) Such Work shall not, and, if an Architect has been engaged for such Work, the Architect shall certify to Landlord that such Architect is of the opinion that construction will not, impair the structural strength of any component of the Facility or overburden the electrical, water, plumbing, HVAC or other building systems of any such component or otherwise violate applicable building codes or prudent industry practices;

(d) If an Architect has been engaged for such Work and if plans and specifications have been obtained in connection with such Work, the Architect shall certify to Landlord that such Architect is of the opinion that the plans and specifications conform to, and comply with, in all material respects, all applicable building, subdivision and zoning codes, laws, ordinances and regulations imposed by all governmental authorities having jurisdiction over the Leased Property;

(e) During and following completion of such Work, the parking and other amenities which are located on or at the Leased Property shall remain adequate for the operation of the Facility for its Primary Intended Use and not be less than that which is required by law (including any variances with respect thereto) and any applicable Property Documents; provided, however, with Landlord's prior consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, and at no additional expense to Landlord, (i) to the extent sufficient additional parking is not already a part of an Alteration or Capital Improvement, Tenant may construct additional parking on or at the Leased Property; or (ii) Tenant may acquire off-site parking to serve the Leased Property as long as such parking shall be reasonably proximate to, and dedicated to, or otherwise made available to serve, the Leased Property;

(f) All Work done in connection with such construction shall be done promptly and using materials and resulting in Work that is at least as good product and condition as the remaining areas of the Leased Property and in conformity with all Legal Requirements, including, without limitation, any applicable minority or women owned business requirement; and

(g) If applicable in accordance with customary and prudent industry standards, promptly following the completion of such Work, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord "as built" plans and specifications with respect thereto, certified as accurate by the Architect supervising such Work, and copies of any new or revised certificates of occupancy or other licenses, permits and authorizations required in connection therewith. In addition, with respect to any Alteration or Capital Improvement having a budgeted cost equal to or less than Fifteen Million and No/100 Dollars ($15,000,000.00), Tenant shall endeavor in good faith to (and upon Landlord's request will) deliver to Landlord any "as-built" plans and specifications actually obtained by Tenant in connection with such Alteration or Capital Improvement.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, at any time during the Term that Tenant is not a Controlled Subsidiary of ERI, this Section 10.3 shall be deemed modified by replacing all references therein to "Fifteen Million and No/100 Dollars ($15,000,000.00)" to "Five Million and No/100 Dollars ($5,000,000.00)".

10.4 Landlord's Right of First Offer to Fund Material Capital Improvements.

(a) Landlord's Right to Submit Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal. In advance of commencing any Work in connection with any Material Capital Improvement (provided, for purposes of clarification, that preliminary planning, designing, budgeting, evaluating (including environmental and integrity testing and the like) (collectively, "Preliminary Studies"), permitting and demolishing in preparation for such Material Capital Improvement shall not be considered "commencing" for purposes hereof), Tenant shall provide written notice ("Tenant's MCI Intent Notice") of Tenant's intent to do so. Upon Landlord's request, such notice shall be followed by (i) a reasonably detailed description of the proposed Material Capital Improvement, (ii) the then-projected cost of construction of the proposed Material Capital Improvement, (iii) copies of the plans and specifications, permits, licenses, contracts and Preliminary Studies concerning the proposed Material Capital Improvement, to the extent then-available, (iv) reasonable evidence that such proposed Material Capital Improvement will, upon completion, comply with all applicable Legal Requirements, and (v) reasonably detailed information regarding the terms upon which Tenant is considering seeking financing therefor, if any. To the extent in Tenant's possession or control, Tenant shall provide to Landlord any additional information about such proposed Material Capital Improvements which Landlord may reasonably request. Landlord (or, with respect to financing structured as a loan rather than as ownership of the real property by Landlord with a lease back to Tenant, Landlord's Affiliate) may, but shall be under no obligation to, provide all (but not less than all) of the financing necessary to fund the applicable Material Capital Improvement (along with related fees and expenses, such as title fees, costs of permits, legal fees and other similar transaction costs) by complying with the option exercise requirements set forth below. Within thirty (30) days of receipt of Tenant's MCI Intent Notice, Landlord shall notify Tenant in writing as to whether Landlord (or, if applicable, its Affiliate) is willing to provide financing for such proposed Material Capital Improvement and, if so, the terms and conditions upon which Landlord (or, if applicable, its Affiliate) is willing to do so in reasonable detail, in the form of a proposed term sheet (such terms and conditions, "Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal"). Upon receipt, Tenant shall have ten (10) days to accept, reject or commence negotiating Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal.

(b) If Tenant Accepts Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal. If Tenant accepts Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal (either initially or, after negotiation, a modified version thereof) (an "Accepted MCI Financing Proposal") and such financing is actually consummated between Tenant and Landlord (or, if applicable, its Affiliate) as more particularly provided in Section 10.4(f) below (a "Landlord MCI Financing"), then, with respect to the applicable Material Capital Improvements, as and when constructed, such Material Capital Improvement shall be deemed part of the Leased Property for all purposes except as specifically provided in Section 6.1(b) hereof (and, without limitation, such Material Capital Improvements shall be surrendered to (and all rights therein shall be relinquished in favor of) Landlord upon the Expiration Date).

(c) If Landlord Declines to Make Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal. If Landlord declines or fails to timely submit Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal, Tenant shall be permitted to either (1) use then-existing available financing or, subject to Article XVII, enter into financing arrangements with any lender, preferred equity holder and/or other third party financing source (a "Third-Party MCI Financing") for such Material Capital Improvement or (2) use Cash to pay for such Material Capital Improvement, provided, that, if Tenant has not used then-existing, or entered into a new, Third-Party MCI Financing (or commenced such Material Capital Improvement utilizing Cash) by the date that is nine (9) months following delivery of Tenant's MCI Intent Notice, then, prior to entering into any such Third-Party MCI Financing and/or commencing such Material Capital Improvement, Tenant shall again be required to send Tenant's MCI Intent Notice seeking financing from Landlord (on the terms contemplated by this Section 10.4).

(d) If Tenant Declines Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal. If Landlord timely submits Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal and Tenant rejects or fails to accept or commence negotiating Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal within the applicable ten (10)-day period (or, following commencing negotiating said proposal, Tenant notifies Landlord of Tenant's decision to cease such discussions), then, subject to the remaining terms of this paragraph, Tenant shall be permitted to either (1) use then-existing, or, subject to Article XVII, enter into a new, Third-Party MCI Financing for such Material Capital Improvement (subject to the following proviso) or (2) use Cash to pay for such Material Capital Improvement, provided, that Tenant may not use then-existing, or enter into a new, Third-Party MCI Financing for such Material Capital Improvement, except in each case on terms that are, taken as a whole, economically more advantageous to Tenant than those offered under Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal. In determining if financing is economically more advantageous, consideration may be given to, among other items, (x) pricing, amortization, length of term and duration of commitment period of such financing; (y) the cost, availability and terms of any financing sufficient to fund such Material Capital Improvement and other expenditures which are material in relation to the cost of such Material Capital Improvement (if any) which are intended to be funded in connection with the construction of such Material Capital Improvement and which are related to the use and operation of such Material Capital Improvement and (z) other customary considerations. Tenant shall provide Landlord with reasonable evidence of the terms of any such financing. If Tenant has not used then-existing, or entered into a new, Third-Party MCI Financing (or commenced such Material Capital Improvement utilizing Cash) by the date that is nine (9) months following receipt of Landlord's MCI Financing Proposal, then, prior to entering into any such Third-Party MCI Financing and/or commencing such Material Capital Improvement after such nine (9) month period, Tenant shall again be required to send Tenant's MCI Intent Notice seeking financing from Landlord (on the terms contemplated by this Section 10.4). For purposes of clarification, Tenant may use Cash to finance any applicable Material Capital Improvement (subject to the express terms and conditions hereof, including, without limitation, Tenant's obligation to provide Tenant's MCI Intent Notice).

(e) Ownership of Material Capital Improvements Not Financed by Landlord. If Tenant constructs a Material Capital Improvement utilizing Third-Party MCI Financing or Cash in accordance with Sections 10.4(c) or (d) (such Material Capital Improvement being sometimes referred to in this Lease as a "Tenant Material Capital Improvement"), then, (A) as and when constructed, such Tenant Material Capital Improvement shall be deemed part of the Leased Property for all purposes except as specifically provided in Section 6.1(b) hereof, (B) upon any termination of this Lease prior to the Stated Expiration Date as a result of a Tenant Event of Default (except in the event a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee has exercised its right to obtain a New Lease and complies in all respects with Section 17.1(f) and any other applicable provisions of this Lease), such Tenant Material Capital Improvements shall be owned by Landlord without any reimbursement by Landlord to Tenant, and (C) upon the Stated Expiration Date, such Tenant Material Capital Improvements shall be transferred to Tenant; provided, however, upon written notice to Tenant at least one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the Stated Expiration Date, Landlord shall have the option to reimburse Tenant for such Tenant Material Capital Improvements in an amount equal to the Fair Market Ownership Value thereof, and, if Landlord elects to reimburse Tenant for such Tenant Material Capital Improvements, any amount due to Tenant for such reimbursement shall be credited against any amounts owed by Tenant to Landlord under this Lease as of the Stated Expiration Date and any remaining portion of such amount shall be paid by Landlord to Tenant on the Stated Expiration Date. If Landlord fails to deliver such written notice electing to reimburse Tenant for such Tenant Material Capital Improvements at least one hundred eighty (180) days prior to the Stated Expiration Date, or otherwise does not consummate such reimbursement at least sixty (60) days prior to the Stated Expiration Date (other than as a result of Tenant's acts or omissions in violation of this Lease), then Landlord shall be deemed to have elected not to reimburse Tenant for such Tenant Material Capital Improvements. If Landlord elects or is deemed to have elected not to reimburse Tenant for such Tenant Material Capital Improvements in accordance with the foregoing sentence, Tenant shall have the option to either (1) prior to the Stated Expiration Date, remove such Tenant Material Capital Improvements and restore the affected Leased Property to the same or better condition existing prior to such Tenant Material Capital Improvement being constructed, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, in which event such removed Tenant Material Capital Improvements shall be owned by Tenant, or (2) leave the applicable Tenant Material Capital Improvements at the Leased Property on the Stated Expiration Date, at no cost to Landlord, in which event such Tenant Material Capital Improvements shall be owned by Landlord. For the avoidance of doubt, Tenant Material Capital Improvements not funded by Landlord pursuant to Section 10.4 and not removed by Tenant in accordance herewith shall be included in the "Leased Property" under any lease entered into with a Successor Tenant pursuant to Article XXXVI, and shall be taken into account in determining Successor Tenant Rent.

(f) Landlord MCI Financing. In the event of an Accepted MCI Financing Proposal, Tenant shall provide Landlord with the following prior to any advance of funds under such Landlord MCI Financing:

(i) any information, certificates, licenses, permits or documents reasonably requested by Landlord which are necessary and obtainable to confirm that Tenant will be able to use the applicable Material Capital Improvements upon completion thereof in accordance with the Primary Intended Use, including all required federal, state or local government licenses and approvals;

(ii) an officer's certificate and, if requested, a certificate from Tenant's Architect providing appropriate backup information, setting forth in reasonable detail the projected or actual costs related to such Material Capital Improvements;

(iii) except to the extent covered by the amendment referenced in clause (iv) below, a construction loan and/or funding agreement (and such other related instruments and agreements), in a form reasonably agreed to by Landlord and Tenant, reflecting the terms of the Landlord MCI Financing, setting forth the terms of the Accepted MCI Financing Proposal, and without additional requirements on Tenant (including, without limitation, additional bonding or guaranty requirements) except those which are reasonable and customary and consistent in all respects with this Section 10.4 and the terms of the Accepted MCI Financing Proposal;

(iv) except to the extent covered by the construction loan and/or funding agreement referenced in clause (iii) above, an amendment to this Lease, in a form reasonably agreed to by Landlord and Tenant, which may include, among other things, an increase in the Rent (in amounts as agreed upon by the Parties pursuant to the Accepted MCI Financing Proposal), and other provisions as may be necessary or appropriate;

(v) a deed conveying title to Landlord to any additional Land acquired for the purpose of constructing the applicable Material Capital Improvement, free and clear of any liens or encumbrances except those approved by Landlord, and accompanied by (x) an owner's policy of title insurance insuring the Fair Market Ownership Value of fee simple or leasehold (as applicable) title to such Land and any improvements thereon, free of any exceptions other than liens and encumbrances that do not materially interfere with the intended use of the Leased Property or are otherwise approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, and (y) an ALTA survey thereof;

(vi) if Landlord obtains a lender's policy of title insurance in connection with such Landlord MCI Financing, for each advance, endorsements to any such policy of title insurance reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to Landlord (i) updating the same without any additional exception except those that do not materially affect the value of such land and do not interfere with the intended use of the Leased Property, or as may otherwise be permitted under this Lease, or as may be approved by Landlord, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed, and (ii) increasing the coverage thereof by an amount equal to the then-advanced cost of the applicable Material Capital Improvement; and

(vii) such other billing statements, invoices, certificates, endorsements, opinions, site assessments, surveys, resolutions, ratifications, lien releases and waivers and other instruments and information which are reasonable and customary and consistent in all respects with this Section 10.4 and the terms of the Accepted MCI Financing Proposal.

In the event that (1) Tenant is unable, for reasons beyond Tenant's reasonable control, to satisfy any of the requirements set forth in this Section 10.4(f) (and Landlord is unable or unwilling to waive the same), (2) Landlord and Tenant are unable (despite good faith efforts continuing for at least sixty (60) days after agreement on the Accepted MCI Financing Proposal) to agree on any of the requirements of, or the form of any document required under, this Section 10.4(f), or (3) Landlord fails or refuses to consummate the Landlord MCI Financing and/or advance funds thereunder, then, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 10.4, Tenant shall be entitled to use then-existing, or, subject to Article XVII, enter into a new, Third-Party MCI Financing for such Material Capital Improvement or use Cash to pay for such Material Capital Improvement, without any requirement to send a further Tenant's MCI Intent Notice to Landlord, provided, that, such Material Capital Improvement shall be treated hereunder as a Tenant Material Capital Improvement, unless the circumstances described in clause (1) shall have occurred.

10.5 Minimum Capital Expenditures.

(a) Minimum Capital Expenditures.

(i) Annual Minimum Cap Ex Requirement. During each full Fiscal Year during the Term, commencing upon the first (1st) full Fiscal Year during the Term, measured as of the last day of each such Fiscal Year, on a collective basis for CEOC, Tenant, Other Tenants and their respective subsidiaries (excluding HLV Tenant), Tenant and Other Tenants (excluding HLV Tenant) shall expend Capital Expenditures and Other Capital Expenditures in an aggregate amount equal to no less than the Annual Minimum Cap Ex Amount (the "Annual Minimum Cap Ex Requirement"); provided, however, with respect to the 2020 Fiscal Year, the Annual Minimum Cap Ex Amount shall be equal to (x) the Annual Minimum Cap Ex Amount determined without giving effect to this proviso, minus (y) the product of (I) Twenty Million Nine Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($20,900,000.00) and (II) a fraction, expressed as a percentage, the numerator of which is the number of days occurring from and including January 1, 2020 until and excluding the Second Amendment Date, and the denominator of which is three hundred sixty-five (365).

(ii) Annual Minimum Per-Lease B&I Cap Ex Requirement. During each full Fiscal Year during the Term, commencing upon the first (1st) full Fiscal Year during the Term, measured as of the last day of each such Fiscal Year, Tenant shall expend Capital Expenditures with respect to the Leased Property in an aggregate amount that, when combined with the amount of Regional Capital Expenditures expended with respect to the Regional Leased Property, is equal to at least one percent (1%) of the sum of (a) the Net Revenue from the Facility for the prior Fiscal Year plus (b) the "Net Revenue" (as defined in the Regional Lease) from the Regional Facility for the prior Fiscal Year, on Capital Expenditures and Regional Capital Expenditures that, in each case, constitute installation or restoration and repair or other improvements of items with respect to (x) the Leased Property under this Lease and (y) the Regional Leased Property under the Regional Lease (the "Annual Minimum Per-Lease B&I Cap Ex Requirement"). In the event of expiration, cancellation or termination of any Ground Lease for any reason whatsoever whether voluntary or involuntary (by operation of law or otherwise), except for a cancellation or termination due to Landlord's failure to extend the term thereof where Landlord was required to do so hereunder, prior to the expiration date of this Lease, including extensions and renewals granted thereunder, then, for purposes of calculating the amount of Net Revenue from the Facility for determining the Annual Minimum Per-Lease B&I Cap Ex Requirement, the Net Revenue attributable to the portion of the Leased Property subject to such Ground Lease for the Lease Year immediately prior to such expiration, cancellation or termination of such Ground Lease thereafter shall continue to be included in the calculation of Net Revenue (except to the extent such Ground Lease is replaced by a replacement Ground Lease for all or substantially all of such portion of the Leased Property). For purposes of calculating the amount of "Net Revenue" (as defined in the Regional Lease) from the "Fifth Amendment Additional Property" (as defined in the Regional Lease) for determining the Annual Minimum Per-Lease B&I Cap Ex Requirement with respect to the Fiscal Year in which the Second Amendment Date occurs, the "Net Revenue" (as defined in the Regional Lease) attributable to the "Fifth Amendment Additional Property" (as defined in the Regional Lease) from and after the Second Amendment Date until the end of such Fiscal Year shall be used as such amount of Net Revenue.

(iii) Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Requirement A. During each full Triennial Period during the Term, commencing upon the first (1st) full Triennial Period during the Term, measured as of the last day of each such Triennial Period, on a collective basis for CEOC, Tenant, Other Tenants and their respective subsidiaries (excluding HLV Tenant), Tenant and Other Tenants (other than HLV Tenant) shall expend Capital Expenditures and Other Capital Expenditures (other than HLV/CC Capital Expenditures) in an aggregate amount equal to no less than the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount A (the "Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Requirement A"); provided, however, with respect to the Triennial Periods ending December 31, 2020, December 31, 2021 and December 31, 2022, respectively (each, an "Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period") (it being understood that the duration of the Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period ending December 31, 2020 shall be adjusted pursuant to Section 10.5(a)(v)), the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount A shall be equal to (x) the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount A for such Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period determined without giving effect to this proviso, minus (y) the product of (I) One Hundred Three Million Four Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($103,400,000.00) (which amount set forth in this clause (I), for purposes of determining the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount A for the Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period ending December 31, 2020, shall be increased by the same percentage as the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount A was increased pursuant to Section 10.5(a)(v)) and (II) a fraction, expressed as a percentage, the numerator of which is the number of days occurring from and including the first day of the Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period until and excluding the Second Amendment Date, and the denominator of which is the number of days in the Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period (such percentage, with respect to any Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period, the "Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period Multiplier").

(iv) Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Requirement B. During each full Triennial Period during the Term, commencing upon the first (1st) full Triennial Period during the Term, measured as of the last day of each such Triennial Period, Tenant shall expend Capital Expenditures in an aggregate amount that, when combined with the amount of Regional Capital Expenditures expended by Other Tenants under the Regional Lease, is equal to no less than the greater of (a) the amount which, (x) when added to the amount of Other Capital Expenditures (other than Regional Capital Expenditures and, for the avoidance of doubt, HLV/CC Capital Expenditures) expended by Other Tenants (other than Other Tenants under the Regional Lease and, for the avoidance of doubt, HLV Tenant) toward the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Requirement B (as defined in the Other Leases) during the same time period, equals the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B, but (y) is in no event more than the Triennial Allocated Minimum Cap Ex Amount B Ceiling, and (b) the Triennial Allocated Minimum Cap Ex Amount B Floor (the "Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Requirement B"); provided, however, with respect to each Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period, (x) the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B shall be equal to (I) the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B for such Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period determined without giving effect to this proviso, minus (II) the product of (1) Seventy-Seven Million Seven Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($77,700,000.00) (which amount set forth in this clause (1), for purposes of determining the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B for the Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period ending December 31, 2020, shall be increased by the same percentage as the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B was increased pursuant to Section 10.5(a)(y)) and (2) the Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period Multiplier with respect to such Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period and (y) the Triennial Allocated Minimum Cap Ex Amount B Floor shall be equal to (I) the Triennial Allocated Minimum Cap Ex Amount B Floor for such Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period determined without giving effect to this proviso, minus (II) the product of (1) Seventy-Eight Million Six Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($78,600,000.00) and (2) the Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period Multiplier with respect to such Applicable Triennial Cap Ex Period.

(v) Partial Periods. Subject to further adjustment as set forth in the provisos in Sections 10.5(a)(iii) and 10.5(a)(iv) with respect to the applicable Minimum Cap Ex Requirements for the Triennial Period ending December 31, 2020, if the initial or final portion of the Term of this Lease is a partial calendar year (i.e., the Commencement Date of this Lease is other than January 1 or the Expiration Date is other than December 31, as applicable; any such partial calendar year, a "Stub Period"), then the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount A and Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B shall be adjusted as follows: (a) the initial (or final, as applicable) Triennial Period under this Lease shall be expanded so that it covers both the Stub Period and the first (1st) (or final, as applicable) full period of three (3) calendar years during the Term, (b) the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount A for such expanded initial (or final, as applicable) Triennial Period shall be equal to (x) Five Hundred Ninety-Eight Million Four Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($598,400,000.00), plus (y) the product of the Stub Period Multiplier (as defined below) multiplied by One Hundred Ninety-Nine Million Four Hundred Sixty-Six Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Six and 67/100 Dollars ($199,466,666.67) (and the Capital Expenditures in respect of the London Clubs during such expanded initial (or final, as applicable) Triennial Period shall not exceed (x) Twelve Million and No/100 Dollars ($12,000,000.00) plus (y) the product of the Stub Period Multiplier multiplied by Four Million and No/100 Dollars ($4,000,000.00)), (c) the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B for such expanded initial (or final, as applicable) Triennial Cap Ex Calculation Period shall be equal to (x) Four Hundred Twenty-Seven Million Seven Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($427,700,000.00), plus (y) the product of the Stub Period Multiplier multiplied by One Hundred Forty-Two Million Five Hundred Sixty-Six Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Six and 67/100 Dollars ($142,566,666.67), and (d) the Triennial Allocated Minimum Cap Ex Amount B Floor for such expanded initial (or final, as applicable) Triennial Period shall remain unchanged from the amounts then in effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that (1) the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount A is reduced in accordance with the definition thereof, then (A) the Five Hundred Ninety-Eight Million Four Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($598,400,000.00) in the foregoing clause (b)(x) shall be modified to reflect the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount A then in effect at the time of determination and (B) the One Hundred Ninety-Nine Million Four Hundred Sixty-Six Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Six and 67/100 Dollars ($199,466,666.67) in the foregoing clause (b)(y) shall be modified to reflect the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount A then in effect divided by three (3), and (2) the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B is reduced in accordance with the definition thereof, then (A) the Four Hundred Twenty-Seven Million Seven Hundred Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($427,700,000.00) in the foregoing clause (c)(x) shall be modified to reflect the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B then in effect at the time of determination and (B) the One Hundred Forty-Two Million Five Hundred Sixty-Six Thousand Six Hundred Sixty-Six and 67/100 Dollars ($142,566,666.67) in the foregoing clause (c)(y) shall be modified to reflect the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Amount B then in effect divided by three (3). The term "Stub Period Multiplier" means a fraction, expressed as a percentage, the numerator of which is the number of days occurring in a Stub Period, and the denominator of which is three hundred sixty-five (365). For the avoidance of doubt, if the Expiration Date of this Lease is other than the last day of a Fiscal Year, then Tenant's compliance with each of the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements during the applicable periods preceding such Expiration Date that would otherwise end after such Expiration Date shall be measured as of such Expiration Date and be subject to the prorations set forth above.

(vi) Acquisitions of Material Property. If any real property having a value greater than Fifty Million and No/100 Dollars ($50,000,000.00) (other than the Chester Property, the "Leased Property (Octavius)" (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) or the Leased Property (HLV)) is acquired by Landlord or its Affiliate and included in this Lease or an Other Lease as part of the Leased Property or Other Leased Property (as applicable) after the Second Amendment Date, then the applicable Minimum Cap Ex Requirements shall be adjusted as may be agreed upon by Landlord and Tenant in connection with such acquisition and the inclusion of such property as Leased Property or Other Leased Property hereunder or thereunder.

(vii) Dispositions of Material Property. In the event of a partial or total termination of this Lease or partial or total termination of the Regional Lease or the Las Vegas Lease (with respect to the Leased Property (CPLV) only) or the disposition of any Material Leased Property (except with respect to the Leased Property (HLV)) or Material London Property, in each case for which the Minimum Cap Ex Amounts are to be decreased in accordance herewith, and such termination or disposition occurs on any day other than the first (1st) day of a Fiscal Year, then, for purposes of determining Required Capital Expenditures and adjusting the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements, as applicable, such termination or disposition and the associated reduction in the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements each shall be deemed to have occurred on the first (1st) day of the then-current Fiscal Year, such that Capital Expenditures with respect to the applicable terminated or disposed property shall not be counted toward the calculation of Required Capital Expenditures for such entire Fiscal Year, and the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements shall be adjusted (as applicable) to reflect such termination or disposition as applicable and the associated reduction in the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements for such entire Fiscal Year.

(viii) Application of Capital Expenditures. For the avoidance of doubt: (A) Required Capital Expenditures counted toward satisfying one of the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements also shall count (to the extent applicable) toward satisfying the other Minimum Cap Ex Requirements except to the extent otherwise provided herein; (B) expenditures with respect to any property that is not included as Leased Property or Other Leased Property under this Lease or an Other Lease (as applicable) shall not constitute "Capital Expenditures" nor count toward the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements for purposes of the Leased Property Tests; (C) expenditures with respect to any property acquired by CEOC, Tenant, any Other Tenants or their respective subsidiaries after the Commencement Date which is not included as Leased Property or Other Leased Property under this Lease or an Other Lease (as applicable) shall not constitute "Capital Expenditures" nor count toward the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements for purposes of the Leased Property Tests or the All Property Tests; (D) expenditures with respect to any property (other than the London Clubs) which is not included as Leased Property or Other Leased Property under this Lease or an Other Lease (as applicable) shall not constitute "Capital Expenditures" or count towards the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements for purposes of the All Property Tests; and (E) expenditures with respect to any property that is included as Leased Property (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) under the Las Vegas Lease, other than the Leased Property (CPLV), shall not constitute "Capital Expenditures" nor count toward the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements for purposes of the Leased Property Tests or the All Property Tests.

(ix) Unavoidable Delays. In the event an Unavoidable Delay occurs during any full Fiscal Year or full Triennial Period during the Term that delays Tenant's or CEOC's ability to perform Capital Expenditures prior to the expiration of such period, the applicable period for satisfying the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements applicable to such Fiscal Year or Triennial Period (as applicable) during which such Unavoidable Delay occurred shall be extended, on a day-for-day basis, for the same amount of time that such Unavoidable Delay affects Tenant's or CEOC's ability to perform the Capital Expenditures, up to a maximum extension in each instance of one (1) Fiscal Year (for the Annual Minimum Cap Ex Requirement and the Annual Minimum Per-Lease B&I Cap Ex Requirement) or one (1) Triennial Period (for the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Requirement A and the Triennial Minimum Cap Ex Requirement B). For the avoidance of doubt, Tenant's obligation to satisfy the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements during any period during which an Unavoidable Delay did not occur shall not be extended as a result of the occurrence of an Unavoidable Delay during a prior period.

(x) Certain Remedies. The Parties acknowledge that Tenant's agreement to satisfy the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements as required in this Lease is a material inducement to Landlord's agreement to enter into this Lease and, accordingly, if Tenant fails to expend Capital Expenditures (or deposit funds into the Cap Ex Reserve) as and when required by this Lease and then, further, fails to cure such failure within sixty (60) days of receipt of written notice of such failure from Landlord, then the same shall be a Tenant Event of Default hereunder, and without limitation of any of Landlord's other rights and remedies, Landlord shall have the right to seek the remedy of specific performance to require Tenant to expend the Required Capital Expenditures (or deposit funds into the Cap Ex Reserve). Furthermore, for the avoidance of doubt, and without limitation of Guarantor's obligations under the Guaranty (and as more particularly provided therein), Tenant acknowledges and agrees that the obligation of Tenant to expend the Required Capital Expenditures (or deposit funds into the Cap Ex Reserve) as provided in this Lease in each case constitutes a part of the monetary obligations of Tenant that are guaranteed by Guarantor under the Guaranty and, with respect to Required Capital Expenditures required to be spent during the Term, shall survive termination of this Lease.

(b) Cap Ex Reserve.

(i) Deposits in Lieu of Expenditures. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Lease, if Tenant and Other Tenants (other than HLV Tenant) do not expend Capital Expenditures and Other Capital Expenditures (other than HLV/CC Capital Expenditures) sufficient to satisfy the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements, then, (subject to the last sentence of this Section 10.5(b)(i)), so long as, as of the last date when such Minimum Cap Ex Requirements may be satisfied hereunder, there are Cap Ex Reserve Funds (as defined below) and Cap Ex Reserve Funds (as defined in each Other Lease) on deposit in the Cap Ex Reserve (as defined below) or in the Cap Ex Reserve (as defined in each Other Lease) in an aggregate amount at least equal to such deficiency, then Tenant shall not be deemed to be in breach or default of its obligations hereunder to satisfy the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements, provided that Tenant (or Other Tenants, as applicable), shall spend such amounts so deposited in the Cap Ex Reserve (as defined herein or in an Other Lease, as applicable) within six (6) months after the last date when the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements to which such amounts relate may be satisfied hereunder (subject to extension in the event of an Unavoidable Delay during such six (6) month period, on a day-for-day basis, for the same amount of time that such Unavoidable Delay affects Tenant's ability to perform the Capital Expenditures). For the avoidance of doubt, any funds disbursed from the Cap Ex Reserve and spent on Capital Expenditures as described in this Section shall be applied to the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements for the period for which such funds were deposited (and shall be deemed to be the funds that have been in the Cap Ex Reserve for the longest period of time) and shall not be applied to the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements for the subsequent period in which they are actually spent. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in no event shall any "Cap Ex Reserve Funds" (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) deposited in respect of the "Minimum Cap Ex Requirements (HLV)" (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) (or, if the "Convention Center Facility" (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) is incorporated as a part of the "HLV Facility" (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) under the Las Vegas Lease, in respect of any "Capital Expenditure" (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) requirements pertaining to the "Convention Center Property" (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease)) (x) be taken into consideration to satisfy any requirement under, and/or otherwise be disbursed or spent as set forth in, this clause (i), or (y) be restricted hereby or be retained or applied by Landlord or any Fee Mortgagee hereunder or be subject to any security interest granted herein.

(ii) Deposits into Cap Ex Reserve. Tenant may, at its election, at any time, deposit funds (the "Cap Ex Reserve Funds") into an Eligible Account held by Tenant (the "Cap Ex Reserve"). If required by Fee Mortgagee or Landlord, Landlord and Tenant shall enter into a customary and reasonable control agreement for the benefit of Fee Mortgagee and Landlord with respect to the Cap Ex Reserve. Tenant shall not commingle Cap Ex Reserve Funds with other monies held by Tenant or any other party. All interest on Cap Ex Reserve Funds shall be for the benefit of Tenant and added to and become a part of the Cap Ex Reserve and shall be disbursed in the same manner as other monies deposited in the Cap Ex Reserve. Tenant shall be responsible for payment of any federal, state or local income or other tax applicable to the interest earned on the Cap Ex Reserve Funds credited or paid to Tenant.

(iii) Disbursements from Cap Ex Reserve. Tenant shall be entitled to use Cap Ex Reserve Funds solely for the purpose of paying for (or reimbursing Tenant for) the cost of Capital Expenditures. Subject to compliance by Tenant with the provisions of the Fee Mortgage Documents to the extent Tenant is required to comply therewith pursuant to Article XXXI hereof, Landlord shall permit disbursements to Tenant of Cap Ex Reserve Funds from the Cap Ex Reserve to pay for Capital Expenditures or to reimburse Tenant for Capital Expenditures, within ten (10) days following written request from Tenant, which request shall specify the amount of the requested disbursement and a general description of the type of Capital Expenditures to be paid or reimbursed using such Cap Ex Reserve Funds. Tenant shall not make a request for disbursement from the Cap Ex Reserve (x) more frequently than once in any calendar month nor (y) in amounts less than Fifty Thousand and No/100 Dollars ($50,000.00). Any Cap Ex Reserve Funds remaining in the Cap Ex Reserve on satisfaction of the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements for which such Cap Ex Reserve Funds were deposited or on the Expiration Date shall be returned by Landlord to Tenant, provided that Landlord shall have the right to apply Cap Ex Reserve Funds remaining on the Expiration Date against any amounts owed by Tenant to Landlord as of the Expiration Date and/or the sum of any remaining Required Capital Expenditures required to have been incurred prior to the Expiration Date.

(iv) Security Interest in Cap Ex Reserve Funds. Tenant grants to Landlord a first-priority security interest in the Cap Ex Reserve and all Cap Ex Reserve Funds, as additional security for performance of Tenant's obligations under this Lease. Landlord shall have the right to collaterally assign the security interest granted to Landlord in the Cap Ex Reserve and Cap Ex Reserve Funds to any Fee Mortgagee. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything herein to the contrary, (i) Landlord may not foreclose upon the lien on the Cap Ex Reserve and Cap Ex Reserve Funds, and Fee Mortgagee may not apply the Cap Ex Reserve Funds against the Fee Mortgage, in each case prior to the occurrence of both (x) the Landlord's Enforcement Condition and (y) the termination of this Lease by Landlord pursuant to Section 16.2(x) hereof, (ii) any time during which a Tenant Event of Default is continuing, Fee Mortgagee may apply Cap Ex Reserve Funds toward the payment of Capital Expenditures incurred by Tenant, and (iii) Landlord shall have the right to use Cap Ex Reserve Funds as provided in Section 10.5(e) (in which event, such expenditures of Cap Ex Reserve Funds shall be deemed Capital Expenditures of Tenant for purposes of the Required Capital Expenditures). Landlord acknowledges that a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee may have a Lien on the Cap Ex Reserve; provided no such Lien in favor of a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall be granted unless such Lien is subject and subordinate to the first priority lien thereon in favor of Landlord on terms substantially similar to the "Intercreditor Agreement" (as defined in the Regional Lease).

(c) Capital Expenditures Report. Within thirty (30) days after the end of each calendar month during the Term, Tenant shall submit to Landlord a report, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C setting forth, with respect to such month, on an unaudited, Facility-by-Facility basis, (A) revenues for the Leased Property and the Other Leased Property, (B) Capital Expenditures with respect to the Leased Property and (C) Other Capital Expenditures with respect to the Other Leased Property. Landlord shall keep each such report confidential in accordance with Section 41.22 of this Lease.

(d) Annual Capital Budget. Tenant shall furnish to Landlord, for informational purposes only, a copy of the annual capital budget for the Facility for each Fiscal Year, in each case (x) contemporaneously with Other Tenant's delivery to the applicable landlord of the applicable annual capital budget for such Fiscal Year pursuant to the Other Lease, and (y) not later than fifty-five (55) days following the commencement of the Fiscal Year to which such annual capital budget relates. For the avoidance of doubt, without limitation of Tenant's Capital Expenditure requirements pursuant to Section 10.5(a), Tenant shall not be required to comply with such annual capital budget and it shall not be a breach or default by Tenant hereunder in the event Tenant deviates from such annual capital budget.

(e) Self Help. In order to facilitate Landlord's completion of any work, repairs or restoration of any nature that are required to be performed by Tenant in accordance with any provisions hereof, upon the occurrence of the earlier of (i) a Tenant Event of Default by Tenant hereunder, and (ii) any default by Tenant in the performance of such work under this Lease or as required by any applicable Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirement, then, so long as (x) Landlord has provided Tenant thirty (30) days' prior written notice thereof and Tenant has not cured such default within such thirty day period) and (y) an "Event of Default" has occurred under the Fee Mortgage Documents, Landlord shall have the right, from and after the occurrence of a default beyond applicable notice and cure periods under any applicable Fee Mortgage Documents, to enter onto the Leased Property and perform any and all such work and labor necessary as reasonably determined by Landlord to complete any work required by Tenant hereunder or expend any sums therefor and/or employ watchmen to protect the Leased Property from damage (collectively, the "Landlord Work"). In connection with the foregoing, Landlord shall have the right: (i) to use any funds in the Cap Ex Reserve for the purpose of making or completing such Landlord Work; (ii) to employ such contractors, subcontractors, agents, architects and inspectors as shall be required for such purposes; (iii) to pay, settle or compromise all existing bills and claims which are or may become Liens against the Leased Property, or as may be necessary or desirable for the completion of such Landlord Work, or for clearance of title; (iv) to execute all applications and certificates in the name of Tenant which may be required by any of the contract documents; (v) to prosecute and defend all actions or proceedings in connection with the Leased Property or the rehabilitation and repair of the Leased Property; and (vi) to do any and every act which Tenant might do on its own behalf to complete the Landlord Work. Nothing in this Lease shall: (1) make Landlord responsible for making or completing any Landlord Work; (2) require Landlord to expend funds in addition to the Cap Ex Reserve to make or complete any Landlord Work; (3) obligate Landlord to proceed with any Landlord Work; or (4) obligate Landlord to demand from Tenant additional sums to make or complete any Landlord Work.

ARTICLE XI

LIENS

Subject to the provisions of Article XII relating to permitted contests, Tenant will not directly or indirectly create or allow to remain and will promptly discharge at its expense any lien, encumbrance, attachment, title retention agreement or claim upon the Leased Property or any portion thereof or any attachment, levy, claim or encumbrance in respect of the Rent, excluding, however, (i) this Lease; (ii) the matters that existed as of the Commencement Date with respect to the Leased Property or any portion thereof (it being understood that nothing in this clause (ii) shall be deemed to vitiate or supersede Tenant's obligations under Sections 4.2, 7.2(f), 9.1 and 10.3(e) with respect to the Property Documents to the extent provided herein); (iii) restrictions, liens and other encumbrances which are consented to in writing by Landlord (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed); (iv) liens for Impositions which Tenant is not required to pay hereunder (if any); (v) Subleases permitted by Article XXII and any other lien or encumbrance expressly permitted under the provisions of this Lease; (vi) liens for Impositions not yet delinquent or being contested in accordance with Article XII, provided that Tenant has provided appropriate reserves to the extent required under GAAP and any foreclosure or similar remedies with respect to such Impositions have not been instituted and no notice as to the institution or commencement thereof has been issued except to the extent such institution or commencement is stayed no later than twenty (20) days after such notice is issued; (vii) liens of mechanics, laborers, materialmen, suppliers or vendors for sums either disputed or not yet due, provided that (1) the payment of such sums shall not be postponed under any related contract for more than sixty (60) days after the completion of the action giving rise to such lien unless being contested in accordance with Article XII and such reserve or other appropriate provisions as shall be required by law or GAAP shall have been made therefor and no foreclosure or similar remedies with respect to such liens has been instituted and no notice as to the institution or commencement thereof have been issued except to the extent such institution or commencement is stayed no later than twenty (20) days after such notice is issued; (2) any such liens are in the process of being contested as permitted by Article XII; or (3) in the event any foreclosure action is commenced under any such lien, Tenant shall immediately remove, discharge or bond over such lien; (viii) any liens created by Landlord; (ix) liens related to equipment leases or equipment financing for Tenant's Property which are used or useful in Tenant's business on the Leased Property or any portion thereof, provided that the payment of any sums due under such equipment leases or equipment financing shall either (1) be paid as and when due in accordance with the terms thereof, or (2) be in the process of being contested as permitted by Article XII (and provided that a lienholder's removal of any such Tenant's Property from the Leased Property shall be subject to all applicable provisions of this Lease, and, without limitation, Tenant or such lienholder shall restore the Leased Property from any damage effected by such removal); (x) (1) liens granted as security for the obligations of Tenant and its Affiliates under a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage (and the documents relating thereto) or (2) liens granted as security for the obligations of Subtenant under a financing arrangement that would be a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage (disregarding for this purpose, however, the requirement that the liens created by a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage encumber the entirety of Tenant's Leasehold Estate, so long as the applicable subleasehold mortgage covers all of the applicable Subtenant's subleasehold estate (other than items that are not capable of being mortgaged and that, in the aggregate, are de minimis)) if entered into by Tenant (and the documents relating thereto); provided, however, in no event shall the foregoing be deemed or construed to permit Tenant to encumber the Leasehold Estate (or a Subtenant to encumber its subleasehold interest) in the Leased Property or any portion thereof (other than, in the case of Tenant, to a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, or in the case of Subtenant, to a lender or other provider of financing under a financing arrangement that would be a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage (disregarding for this purpose, however, the requirement that the liens created by a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage encumber the entirety of Tenant's Leasehold Estate, so long as the applicable subleasehold mortgage covers all of the applicable Subtenant's subleasehold estate (other than items that are not capable of being mortgaged and that, in the aggregate, are de minimis)) if entered into by Tenant (provided that no such lien granted by a Subtenant to a lender or other provider of financing shall encumber Landlord's fee interest in the Leased Property, including by operation of law or otherwise), or otherwise to the extent expressly permitted hereunder), without the prior written consent of Landlord, which consent may be granted or withheld in Landlord's sole discretion; and provided further that upon request Tenant shall be required to provide Landlord with fully executed copies of any and all Permitted Leasehold Mortgages; and (xi) except as otherwise expressly provided in this Lease, easements, rights-of-way, restrictions (including zoning restrictions), covenants, encroachments, protrusions and other similar charges or encumbrances, and minor title deficiencies on or with respect to the Leased Property or any portion thereof, in each case whether now or hereafter in existence, not individually or in the aggregate materially interfering with the conduct of the business on the Leased Property for the Primary Intended Use, taken as a whole. For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge and agree that Tenant has not granted any liens in favor of Landlord as security for its obligations hereunder except as otherwise expressly provided under this Lease, and nothing contained herein shall be deemed or construed to prohibit the issuance of a lien on the Equity Interests in Tenant (it being agreed that any foreclosure by a lien holder on such interests in Tenant shall be subject to the restrictions on transfers of interests in Tenant and Change of Control set forth in Article XXII) or to prohibit Tenant from pledging (A) its Accounts and other Tenant's Property as collateral (1) in connection with financings of equipment and other purchase money indebtedness or (2) to secure Permitted Leasehold Mortgages, or (B) its Accounts and other property of Tenant (other than Tenant's Property); provided that, Tenant shall in no event pledge to any Person that is not granted a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage hereunder any of Tenant's Property to the extent that such Tenant's Property cannot be removed from the Leased Property without (I) damaging or impairing the Leased Property (other than in a de minimis manner), (II) impairing in any material respect the operation of the Facility for its Primary Intended Use, or (III) impairing in any material respect Landlord's or any Successor Tenant's ability to acquire the Gaming Assets at the expiration or termination of the Term in accordance with Section 36.1 (after giving effect to the repayment of any indebtedness encumbering the Gaming Assets and release of any liens thereon as required by such Section 36.1).

ARTICLE XII

PERMITTED CONTESTS

Tenant, upon prior written notice to Landlord (except that no such notice shall be required to be given by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to this Article XII with respect to matters not exceeding Five Million and No/100 Dollars ($5,000,000.00)), on its own or in Landlord's name, at Tenant's expense, may contest, by appropriate legal proceedings conducted in good faith and with due diligence, the amount, validity or application, in whole or in part, of any licensure or certification decision (including pursuant to any Gaming Regulation), imposition of any disciplinary action, including both monetary and nonmonetary, pursuant to any Gaming Regulation, Imposition, Legal Requirement, Insurance Requirement, lien, attachment, levy, encumbrance, charge or claim; provided, that, (i) in the case of an unpaid Imposition, lien, attachment, levy, encumbrance, charge or claim, the commencement and continuation of such proceedings shall suspend the collection thereof from Landlord and from the Leased Property; (ii) neither the Leased Property or any portion thereof, the Rent therefrom nor any part or interest in either thereof would be in any danger of being sold, forfeited, attached or lost pending the outcome of such proceedings; (iii) in the case of a Legal Requirement, neither Landlord nor Tenant would be in any imminent danger of criminal or material civil liability for failure to comply therewith pending the outcome of such proceedings; (iv) in the case of a Legal Requirement, Imposition, lien, encumbrance or charge, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord security in the form of cash, cash equivalents or a Letter of Credit, if and as may be reasonably required by Landlord to insure ultimate payment of the same and to prevent any sale or forfeiture of the Leased Property or any portion thereof or the Rent by reason of such non-payment or noncompliance; (v) in the case of an Insurance Requirement, the coverage required by Article XIII shall be maintained; (vi) upon Landlord's request, Tenant shall keep Landlord reasonably informed as to the status of the proceedings; and (vii) if such contest be finally resolved against Landlord or Tenant, Tenant shall promptly pay the amount required to be paid, together with all interest and penalties accrued thereon, or comply with the applicable Legal Requirement or Insurance Requirement. Landlord, at Tenant's expense, shall execute and deliver to Tenant such authorizations and other documents as may reasonably be required in any such contest, and, if reasonably requested by Tenant or if Landlord so desires, Landlord shall join as a party therein. The provisions of this Article XII shall not be construed to permit Tenant to contest the payment of Rent or any other amount (other than Impositions or Additional Charges contested in accordance herewith) payable by Tenant to Landlord hereunder. Tenant shall indemnify, defend, protect and save Landlord harmless from and against any liability, cost or expense of any kind that may be imposed upon Landlord in connection with any such contest and any loss resulting therefrom, except to the extent resulting from actions independently taken by Landlord (other than actions taken by Landlord at Tenant's direction or with Tenant's consent).

ARTICLE XIII

INSURANCE

13.1 General Insurance Requirements. During the Term, Tenant shall, at its own cost and expense, maintain the minimum kinds and amounts of insurance described below. Such insurance shall apply to the ownership, maintenance, use and operations related to the Leased Property and all property located in or on the Leased Property (including Capital Improvements and Tenant's Property). Except for policies insured by Tenant's captive insurers, all policies shall be written with insurers authorized to do business in all states where Tenant operates and shall maintain A.M Best ratings of not less than "A-" "VII" or better in the most recent version of Best's Key Rating Guide. In the event that any of the insurance companies' ratings fall below the requirements set forth above, Tenant shall have one hundred eighty (180) days within which to replace such insurance company with an insurance company that qualifies under the requirements set forth above. It is understood that Tenant may utilize so called Surplus lines companies and will adhere to the standard above.

(a) Property Insurance.

(i) Property insurance shall be maintained on the Leased Property (including barges and vessels used for gaming), Capital Improvements and Tenant's Property against loss or damage under a policy with coverage not less than that found on Insurance Services Office (ISO) "Causes of Loss – Special Form" and ISO "Building and Personal Property Form" or their equivalent forms (e.g., an "all risk" policy), in a manner consistent with the commercially reasonable practices of similarly situated companies engaged in the same or similar businesses operating in the same or similar location. Such property insurance shall be in an amount not less than Two Billion and No/100 Dollars ($2,000,000,000.00) and shall apply on a replacement cost basis; provided, that, Tenant shall have the right (i) to limit maximum insurance coverage for loss or damage by earthquake (including earth movement) to a minimum amount of the projected ground up loss with a 500-year return period (as determined annually by an independent firm using RMS, AIR or equivalent catastrophe modeling software, and taking into account all locations insured under Tenant's property insurance, including other locations owned, leased or managed by Tenant), less the applicable deductible, (ii) to limit maximum insurance coverage for loss or damage by named windstorms per occurrence to a minimum amount of the projected ground up loss (including storm surge) with a 500-year return period (as determined annually by an independent firm using RMS, AIR or equivalent catastrophe modeling software, and taking into account all locations insured under Tenant's property insurance, including other locations owned, leased or managed by Tenant), less the applicable deductible, and (iii) to limit maximum insurance coverage for loss or damage by flood to a minimum amount of Two Hundred Fifty Million and No/100 Dollars ($250,000,000.00), to the extent commercially available; provided, further, that in the event the premium cost of any earthquake, flood, named windstorm or terrorism peril (as required by Section 13.1(b)) coverages are available only for a premium that is more than two and one-half (2.5) times the premium paid by Tenant for the third (3rd) year preceding the date of determination for the insurance policy contemplated by this Section 13.1(a), then Tenant shall be entitled and required to purchase the maximum amount of insurance coverage it reasonably deems most efficient and prudent to purchase for such peril and Tenant shall not be required to spend additional funds to purchase additional coverages insuring against such risks; and provided, further, that certain property coverages other than earthquake, flood and named windstorm may be sub-limited as long as each sub-limit is commercially reasonable and prudent as determined by Tenant and to the extent that the amount of such sub-limit is less than the amount of such sub-limit in effect as of the Second Amendment Date, such sub-limit is approved by Landlord, such approval not to be unreasonably withheld.

(ii) Such property insurance policy shall include, subject to Section 13.1(a)(i) above: (i) agreed amount coverage and/or a waiver of any co-insurance; (ii) building ordinance coverage (ordinance or law) including loss of the undamaged portions, the cost of demolishing undamaged portions, and the increased cost of rebuilding; and also including, but not limited to, any non-conforming structures or uses; (iii) equipment breakdown coverage (boiler and machinery coverage); (iv) debris removal; and (v) business interruption coverage in an amount not less than two (2) years of Rent and containing an Extended Period of Indemnity endorsement for an additional minimum six months period. Subject to Section 13.1(a)(i), the property policy shall cover: wind/windstorm, earthquake/earth movement and flood and any sub-limits applicable to wind (e.g. named storms), earthquake and flood are subject to the approval of Landlord and Fee Mortgagee. Except as otherwise set forth herein, any property insurance loss adjustment settlement associated with the Leased Property shall require the written consent of Landlord, Tenant, and each Fee Mortgagee (to the extent required under the applicable Fee Mortgage Documents) unless the amount of the loss net of the applicable deductible is less than One Hundred Million and No/100 Dollars ($100,000,000.00) in which event no consent shall be required.

(b) Property Terrorism Insurance. Property Insurance shall be maintained for acts of terrorism certified by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2015 ("TRIPRA") and acts of terrorism and sabotage not certified by TRIPRA, with limits no less than (i) One Billion Five Hundred Million and No/100 Dollars ($1,500,000,000.00) per occurrence for acts of terrorism certified by TRIPRA and (ii) Two Hundred Twenty-Five Million and No/100 Dollars ($225,000,000.00) for acts of terrorism and sabotage not certified by TRIPRA. Both coverages shall apply to property damage and business interruption. For the avoidance of doubt, Tenant may maintain an insurance policy with a single limit of coverage for both acts of terrorism certified by TRIPRA and acts of terrorism and sabotage not certified by TRIPRA and, if Tenant maintains such an insurance policy, the full amount of the single limit thereunder shall be applied toward each of the limits required under clauses (i) and (ii) of this Section 13.1(b). If Tenant uses one or more of its captive insurers to provide this insurance coverage, the captive(s) must secure and maintain reinsurance from one or more reinsurers for those amounts which are not insured by the Federal Government, and which are in excess of a commercially reasonable policy deductible. Such reinsurers are subject to the same minimum financial ratings set forth in Section 13.1. In the event TRIPRA is not extended or renewed, Landlord and Tenant shall mutually agree (in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 13.6) upon replacement insurance requirements applicable to terrorism related risks.

(c) Flood Insurance. With respect to any portion of the Leased Property that is security under a Fee Mortgage, if at any time the area in which such Leased Property is located is designated a "Special Flood Hazard Area" as designated by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (or any successor agency), Tenant shall obtain separate flood insurance through the National Flood Insurance Program to the extent such insurance is required by the terms of the applicable Fee Mortgage Documents. Such flood insurance may be provided as part of Section 13.1(a) Property Insurance above.

(d) Workers Compensation and Employers Liability Insurance. Workers compensation insurance as required by applicable state statutes and Employers Liability. This insurance shall include endorsements applicable to (i) Longshore and Harbor Workers Compensation Act; and (ii) Maritime Coverage (including transportation, wages, maintenance and cure, if not otherwise covered by Section 13.1(g) Marine Liability Insurance).

(e) Commercial General Liability Insurance. For bodily injury, personal injury, advertising injury and property damage on an occurrence form with coverage no less than ISO Form CG 0001 or equivalent. This policy shall include the following coverages: (i) Liquor Liability; (ii) Named Peril/Time Element Pollution, to the extent commercially available to operators of properties similar to the subject Leased Property; (iii) Non-owned Watercraft Liability, to the extent commercially available to operators of properties similar to the subject Leased Property; (iv) Terrorism Liability; and (v) a Separation of Insureds clause.

(f) Business Auto Liability Insurance. For bodily injury and property damage arising from the ownership, maintenance or use of owned, hired and non-owned vehicles (ISO Form CA 00 01 or equivalent).

(g) Marine Liability Insurance. If Tenant utilizes watercraft in its operations or special events, for bodily injury and property damage (Protection and Indemnity) on an occurrence form. If not covered by the other insurance policies required by this Article XIII, this policy shall include the following coverages: (i) Liquor Liability; (ii) Pollution Liability; and (iii) injuries to captains and crew. To the extent commercially available at a reasonable price, this policy shall contain a Separation of Insureds clause. This coverage may be met through the combination of primary marine liability and excess liability coverage.

(h) Excess Liability Insurance. Excess Liability coverage shall be maintained over the required Employers Liability, Commercial General Liability, Business Auto Liability and Marine Liability policies in an amount not less than Three Hundred Fifty Million and No/100 Dollars ($350,000,000.00) per occurrence and in the aggregate annually (where applicable). The annual aggregate limit applicable to Commercial General Liability shall apply per location. Tenant will use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain coverage as broad as the underlying insurance, including Terrorism Liability coverage, so long as such coverage is available at a commercially reasonable price.

(i) Pollution Liability Insurance. For claims arising from the discharge, dispersal, release or escape of any irritant or contaminant into or upon land, any structure, the atmosphere, watercourse or body of water, including groundwater. This shall include on and off-site clean up and emergency response costs and claims arising from above ground and below ground storage tanks. If this policy is provided on a “claims made” basis (i) the retroactive date shall remain as June 26, 1998 for legal liability; and (ii) coverage shall be maintained for two (2) years after the Term.

(j) Employment Practices Liability. Employment Practices Liability insurance in an amount not less than Ten Million and No/100 Dollars ($10,000,000.00).

(k) Crime. Crime insurance coverage in an amount not less than Eight Million and No/100 Dollars ($8,000,000.00).

13.2 Name of Insureds. Except for the insurance required pursuant to Section 13.1(d), Section 13.1(j) and Section 13.1(k), all insurance provided by Tenant as required by this Article XIII shall include Landlord (including specified Landlord related entities as directed by Landlord) and, to the extent required by the applicable Fee Mortgage Documents, each applicable Fee Mortgagee (i) with respect to the insurance required pursuant to Section 13.1(a), Section 13.1(b) and Section 13.1(c), as a loss payee and as additional named insured or additional insured without restrictions beyond the restrictions that apply to Tenant and (ii) with respect to the other insurance maintained by Tenant, as an additional named insured or additional insured without restrictions beyond the restrictions that apply to Tenant; provided, however, the insurance required pursuant to Section 13.1(i) and Section 13.1(g) shall be permitted to include Landlord (including specified Landlord related entities as directed by Landlord) and, to the extent required by the applicable Fee Mortgage Documents, each applicable Fee Mortgagee as an additional insured without the requirement that such policy expressly include language that such coverage is without restrictions beyond the restrictions that apply to Tenant. In addition, the insurance required pursuant to Section 13.1(a) and Section 13.1(b) shall include a New York standard mortgagee clause (or its equivalent) in favor of each applicable Fee Mortgagee. All insurance provided by Tenant as required by this Article XIII may include any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee as an additional insured, and may include a New York standard mortgagee clause (or its equivalent) in favor of any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee. The coverage provided to the additional insureds by Tenant's insurance policies must be at least as broad as that provided to the first named insured on each respective policy. For the avoidance of doubt, Landlord looks exclusively to Tenant's insurance policies to protect itself from claims arising from the Leased Property and Capital Improvements. The required insurance policies shall protect Landlord against Landlord's acts with respect to the Leased Property in the same manner that they protect Tenant against its acts with respect to the Leased Property. Except for the insurance required pursuant to Section 13.1(d), Section 13.1(j) and Section 13.1(k), the required insurance policies shall include others as additional insureds consistent with clause (ii) of this Section 13.2, as required by Landlord and/or the Fee Mortgage Documents. The insurance protection afforded to all insureds (whether named insureds or additional insureds) shall be primary and shall not contribute with any insurance or self-insurance programs maintained by such insureds (including deductibles and self-insured retentions).

13.3 Deductibles or Self-Insured Retentions. Tenant may self-insure such risks that are customarily self-insured by companies of established reputation engaged in the same general line of business in the same general area. All increases in deductibles and self-insured retentions (collectively referred to as "Deductibles" in this Article XIII) that apply to the insurance policies required by this Article XIII are subject to approval by Landlord, with such approval not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. Tenant is solely responsible for all Deductibles related to its insurance policies. The Deductibles Tenant has in effect as of the Second Amendment Date satisfy the requirements of this Section as of the Second Amendment Date.

13.4 Waivers of Subrogation. Landlord shall not be liable for any loss or damage insured by the insurance policies required to be maintained under this Article XIII and policies issued by Tenant's captive insurers (including related Deductibles), it being understood that (i) Tenant shall look solely to its insurance for the recovery of such loss or damage; and (ii) such insurers shall have no rights of subrogation against Landlord. Each insurance policy shall contain a clause or endorsement which waives all rights of subrogation against Landlord, Fee Mortgagees and other entities or individuals as reasonably requested by Landlord.

13.5 Limits of Liability and Blanket Policies. The insured limits of liability maintained by Tenant shall be selected by Tenant in a manner consistent with the commercially reasonable practices of similarly situated tenants engaged in the same or similar businesses operating in the same or similar location as the Leased Property. The limits of liability Tenant has in effect as of the Second Amendment Date satisfy the requirements of this Section as of the Second Amendment Date. The insurance required by this Article XIII may be effected by a policy or policies of blanket insurance and/or by a combination of primary and excess insurance policies (all of which may insure additional properties owned, operated or managed by Tenant or its Affiliates), provided each policy shall be satisfactory to Landlord, acting reasonably, including, the form of the policy, provided such policies comply with the provisions of this Article XIII.

13.6 Future Changes in Insurance Requirements.

(a) In the event one or more additional locations become Leased Property or Capital Improvements during the Term, whether through acquisition, lease, new construction or other means, Landlord may reasonably amend the insurance requirements set forth in this Article XIII to properly address new risks or exposures to loss, in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 13.6(a). For example, for construction projects, different forms of insurance may be required, such as builders risk, and Landlord and Tenant shall mutually agree upon insurance requirements applicable to the construction contractors. Tenant and Landlord shall work together in good faith to exchange information (including proposed construction agreements) and ascertain appropriate insurance requirements prior to Tenant being required to amend its insurance under this Section 13.6(a); provided, however, that any revision to insurance shall only be required if the revised insurance would be customarily maintained by similarly situated tenants engaged in the same or similar businesses operating in the same or similar location as the Leased Property. If Tenant and Landlord are unable to reach a resolution within thirty (30) days of the original notice of requested revision, the arbitration provisions set forth in Section 34.2 shall control.

(b) In the event that (1) the operations of Tenant change in the future, and Tenant believes adjustments in Deductibles, insured limits or coverages are warranted, (2) Tenant desires to increase one or more Deductibles, reduce limits of liability below those in place as of the Second Amendment Date or materially reduce coverage, or (3) not more than once during any twelve (12) month period (or more frequently in connection with a financing or refinancing of a Fee Mortgage), Landlord reasonably determines that the insurance carried by Tenant is not, for any reason (whether by reason of the type, coverage, deductibles, insured limits, the reasonable requirements of Fee Mortgagees, or otherwise) commensurate with insurance customarily maintained by similarly situated tenants engaged in the same or similar businesses operating in the same or similar location, the party seeking the change will advise the other party in writing of the requested insurance revision. Tenant and Landlord shall work together in good faith to determine whether the requested insurance revision shall be made; provided, however, that any revision to insurance shall only be made if the revised insurance would be customarily maintained by similarly situated tenants engaged in the same or similar businesses operating in the same or similar location as the Leased Property. If Tenant and Landlord are unable to reach a resolution within thirty (30) days of the original notice of requested revision, the arbitration provisions set forth in Section 34.2 shall control. Solely with respect to the insurance required by Section 13.1(h) above, in no event shall the outcome of an insurance revision pursuant to this Section 13.6 require Tenant to carry insurance in an amount which exceeds the sum of (i) the amounts set forth in Section 13.1(h) hereof plus (ii) the product of (x) the amounts set forth in Section 13.1(h) hereof, and (y) the CPI Increase.

13.7 Notice of Cancellation or Non-Renewal. Each required insurance policy shall contain an endorsement requiring thirty (30) days prior written notice to Landlord, Fee Mortgagees and Leasehold Mortgagees of any cancellation or non-renewal. Ten (10) days' prior written notice shall be required for cancellation for non-payment of premium. Tenant shall secure replacement coverage to comply with the stated insurance requirements and provide new certificates of insurance to Landlord and others as directed by Landlord.

13.8 Copies of Documents. Tenant shall provide (i) binders evidencing renewal coverages no later than the applicable renewal date of each insurance policy required by this Article XIII; and (ii) copies of all insurance policies required by this Article XIII (including policies issued by Tenant's captive insurers which are in any way related to the required policies, including policies insuring Deductibles), within one hundred and twenty days (120) after inception date of each, and if additionally required, within ten (10) days of written request by Landlord. In addition, Tenant will supply documents that are related to the required insurance policies on January 1 of each calendar year during the Term and three (3) years afterwards, and as otherwise requested in writing by Landlord. Such documents shall be in formats reasonably acceptable to Landlord and include, but are not limited to, (a) statements of property value by location, (b) risk modeling reports (e.g., named storms and earthquake), (c) actuarial reports, (d) loss/claims reports and (e) detailed summaries of Tenant's insurance policies and, as respects Tenant's captive insurers, the most recent audited financial statements (including notes therein) and reinsurance agreements. Landlord shall hold the contents of the documents provided by Tenant as confidential; provided that Landlord shall be entitled to disclose the contents of such documents (I) to its insurance consultants, attorneys, accountants and other agents in connection with the administration and/or enforcement of this Lease, (II) to any Fee Mortgagees, Permitted Leasehold Mortgagees and potential lenders and their respective representatives, and (III) as may be required by applicable laws. Landlord shall utilize commercially reasonable efforts to cause each such person or entity to enter into a written agreement to maintain the confidentiality thereof for the benefit of Landlord and Tenant.

13.9 Certificates of Insurance. Certificates of insurance, evidencing the required insurance, shall be delivered to Landlord on the Commencement Date, annually thereafter, and upon written request by Landlord. If required by any Fee Mortgagee, Tenant shall provide endorsements and written confirmations that all premiums have been paid in full.

13.10 Other Requirements. Tenant shall comply with the following additional provisions:

(a) In the event of a catastrophic loss or multiple losses at multiple properties owned or leased directly or indirectly by ERI and that are insured by ERI, then in the case (x) that at least one such property affected by the catastrophic loss(es) or multiple losses is the Facility or an Other Facility (in either case, a "Subject Facility") and (y) at least one other such property affected by the catastrophic loss(es) or multiple losses is not a Subject Facility, (A) if such catastrophic loss or multiple losses exhaust any per occurrence or aggregate insurance limits under the property or terrorism insurance policies required by this Article XIII and any such property that is not a Subject Facility is (w) directly or indirectly managed but not directly or indirectly owned by ERI, (x) not wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by ERI, (y) subject to a ground lease with a landlord party that is neither Landlord nor its affiliates, or (z) is financed on a stand-alone basis, then the insurance proceeds received in connection with such catastrophic loss or multiple losses shall be allocated pro-rata based on the insured values of the impacted properties, with no property receiving an allocation exceeding the loss suffered by such property, and (B) if such catastrophic loss or multiple losses exhaust any per occurrence or aggregate insurance limits under the property or terrorism insurance policies required by this Article XIII and no property that is not a Subject Facility is a property described in clauses (w) through (z) above, the property(ies) that is a Subject Facility shall have first priority to insurance proceeds from the property policy or terrorism policy in connection with such catastrophic loss or multiple losses up to the reasonably anticipated amount of loss with respect to the Subject Facility. Any property or terrorism insurance proceeds allocable to a Subject Facility pursuant to clause (B) above shall be paid to Landlord (or the landlord under the Other Lease, as applicable) and applied in accordance with the terms of this Lease (or the Other Lease, as applicable).

(b) In the event Tenant shall at any time fail, neglect or refuse to insure the Leased Property (including barges and vessels used for gaming) and Capital Improvements, or is not in full compliance with its obligations under this Article XIII, Landlord may, at its election, procure replacement insurance. In such event, Landlord shall disclose to Tenant the terms of the replacement insurance. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for the cost of such replacement insurance within thirty (30) days after Landlord pays for the replacement insurance. The cost of such replacement insurance shall be reasonable considering the then-current market.

ARTICLE XIV

CASUALTY

14.1 Property Insurance Proceeds. All proceeds (except business interruption not allocated to rent expenses, if any) payable by reason of any property loss or damage to the Leased Property, or any portion thereof, under any property policy of insurance required to be carried hereunder shall be paid to Fee Mortgagee or to an escrow account held by a third party depositary reasonably acceptable to Landlord, Tenant and, if applicable, the Fee Mortgagee (in each case pursuant to an escrow agreement reasonably acceptable to the Parties and the Fee Mortgagee and intended to implement the terms hereof), and made available to Tenant upon request for the reasonable costs of preservation, stabilization, restoration, reconstruction and repair, as the case may be, of any damage to or destruction of the Leased Property, or any portion thereof; provided, however, that the portion of any such proceeds that are attributable to Tenant's obligation to pay Rent shall be applied against Rent due by Tenant hereunder; and provided, further, that if the total amount of proceeds payable net of the applicable deductibles is Twenty Million and No/100

Dollars ($20,000,000.00) or less, and, if no Tenant Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the proceeds shall be paid to Tenant and, subject to the limitations set forth in this Article XIV used for the repair of any damage to or restoration or reconstruction of the Leased Property in accordance with Section 14.2. For the avoidance of doubt, any insurance proceeds payable by reason of (i) loss or damage to Tenant's Property and/or Tenant Material Capital Improvements, or (ii) business interruption shall be paid directly to and belong to Tenant. Any excess proceeds of insurance remaining after the completion of the restoration or reconstruction of the Leased Property in accordance herewith shall be provided to Tenant. So long as no Tenant Event of Default is continuing, Tenant shall have the right to prosecute and settle insurance claims, provided that, in connection with insurance claims exceeding Twenty Million and No/100 Dollars ($20,000,000.00), Tenant shall consult with and involve Landlord in the process of adjusting any insurance claims under this Article XIV and any final settlement with the insurance company for claims exceeding Twenty Million and No/100 Dollars ($20,000,000.00) shall be subject to Landlord's consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

14.2 Tenant's Obligations Following Casualty

(a) In the event of a Casualty Event with respect to the Leased Property or any portion thereof (to the extent the proceeds of insurance in respect thereof are made available to Tenant as and to the extent required under the applicable escrow agreement), (i) Tenant shall restore such Leased Property (or any applicable portion thereof, excluding, at Tenant's election, any Tenant Material Capital Improvement, unless such Tenant Material Capital Improvement is integrated into the Facility such that the Facility could not practically or safely be operated without restoring such Tenant Material Capital Improvement, provided that with respect to such Tenant Material Capital Improvement that Tenant is not required to rebuild or restore, Tenant shall repair and thereafter maintain the portions of the Leased Property affected by the loss or damage of such Tenant Material Capital Improvement in a condition commensurate with the quality, appearance and use of the balance of the Facility and satisfying the Facility's parking requirements) to substantially the same condition as existed immediately before such damage or otherwise in a manner reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, and (ii) the damage caused by the applicable Casualty Event shall not terminate this Lease; provided, however, that if the applicable Casualty Event shall occur not more than two (2) years prior to the then-Stated Expiration Date and the cost to restore the Leased Property (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any affected Tenant Material Capital Improvements that Tenant is not required to restore) to the condition immediately preceding the Casualty Event, as determined by a mutually approved contractor or architect, would equal or exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the Fair Market Ownership Value of the Facility immediately prior to the time of such damage or destruction, then each of Landlord and Tenant shall have the option, exercisable in such Party's sole and absolute discretion, to terminate this Lease, upon written notice to the other Party hereto delivered to such other Party within thirty (30) days of the determination of the amount of damage and the Fair Market Ownership Value of the Facility and, if such option is exercised by either Landlord or Tenant, this Lease shall terminate and Tenant shall not be required to restore the Facility and any insurance proceeds payable as a result of the damage or destruction shall be payable in accordance with Section 14.2(c). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if a Casualty Event occurs (and/or if the determination of the amount of damage and/or the thirty (30) day period referred to in the preceding sentence is continuing) at a time when Tenant could send a Renewal Notice (provided, for this purpose, Tenant shall be permitted to send a Renewal Notice under Section 1.4 not more than twenty-four (24) months (rather than not more than eighteen (18) months) prior to the then current Stated Expiration Date), if Tenant has elected or elects to exercise the same at any time following Tenant's receipt of such notice of termination from Landlord, neither Landlord nor Tenant may terminate this Lease under this Section 14.2(a).

(b) If the cost to restore the affected Leased Property exceeds the amount of proceeds received from the insurance required to be carried hereunder, then (i) Tenant's restoration obligations, to the extent required hereunder, shall continue unimpaired, and (ii) Tenant shall provide Landlord with evidence reasonably acceptable to Landlord that Tenant has (or is reasonably expected to have) available to it any excess amounts needed to restore the Leased Property to the condition required hereunder. Such excess amounts shall be paid by Tenant.

(c) In the event neither Landlord nor Tenant is required or elects to repair and restore the Leased Property, all insurance proceeds (except business interruption), other than proceeds reasonably attributed to any Tenant Material Capital Improvements (or other property owned by Tenant), which proceeds shall be and remain the property of Tenant, shall be paid to and retained by Landlord (after reimbursement to Tenant for any reasonably-incurred expenses in connection with the subject Casualty Event) free and clear of any claim by or through Tenant except as otherwise specifically provided below in this Article XIV.

(d) If Tenant fails to complete the restoration of the Facility and gaming operations do not recommence substantially in the same manner as prior to the applicable Casualty Event by the date that is the fourth (4th) anniversary of the date of any Casualty Event (subject to extension in the event of an Unavoidable Delay during such four (4) year period, on a day-for-day basis, for the same amount of time that such Unavoidable Delay delays Tenant's ability to perform such restoration in accordance with this Section 14.2), then, without limiting any of Landlord's rights and remedies otherwise, all remaining insurance proceeds shall be paid to and retained by Landlord free and clear of any claim by or through Tenant, provided, that, so long as no Tenant Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, Landlord agrees to use such remaining proceeds for repair and restoration with respect to such Casualty Event.

(e) If, and solely to the extent that, the damage resulting from any applicable Casualty Event is not an insured event under the insurance policies required to be maintained by Tenant under this Lease, then Tenant shall not be obligated to restore the Leased Property in respect of the damage from such Casualty Event.

14.3 No Abatement of Rent. Except as expressly provided in this Article XIV, this Lease shall remain in full force and effect and Tenant's obligation to pay Rent and all Additional Charges required by this Lease shall remain unabated during any period following a Casualty Event.

14.4 Waiver. Tenant waives any statutory rights of termination which may arise by reason of any damage or destruction of the Leased Property but such waiver shall not affect any contractual rights granted to Tenant under this Lease.

14.5 Insurance Proceeds and Fee Mortgagee. Notwithstanding anything herein (including, without limitation, Article XXXI hereof) or in any Fee Mortgage Documents to the contrary, Landlord shall require that any Fee Mortgage Documents (including, without limitation, with respect to the Existing Fee Mortgage) shall permit Tenant to rebuild in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Lease (and any such Fee Mortgage Documents shall expressly provide that Tenant or Landlord, as applicable, is entitled to the applicable insurance proceeds in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Lease).

ARTICLE XV

EMINENT DOMAIN

15.1 Condemnation. Tenant shall promptly give Landlord written notice of the actual or threatened Condemnation or any Condemnation proceeding affecting the Leased Property of which Tenant has knowledge and shall deliver to Landlord copies of any and all papers served in connection with the same.

(a) Total Taking. If all of the Leased Property is subject to a total and permanent Taking, this Lease shall automatically terminate as of the day before the date of such Taking or Condemnation.

(b) Partial Taking. If a portion (but not all) of the Leased Property (and, without limitation, any Capital Improvements with respect thereto) is subject to a permanent Taking ("Partial Taking"), this Lease shall remain in effect so long as the Facility is not thereby rendered Unsuitable for its Primary Intended Use, and Rent shall be adjusted in accordance with the Rent Reduction Amount with respect to the subject portion; provided, however, that if the remaining portion of the Facility is rendered Unsuitable for Its Primary Intended Use, this Lease shall terminate as of the day before the date of such Taking or Condemnation.

(c) Restoration. If there is a Partial Taking and this Lease remains in full force and effect, Landlord shall make available to Tenant the Award to be applied first to the restoration of the Leased Property in accordance with this Lease and, to the extent required hereby, any affected Tenant Material Capital Improvements, and thereafter as provided in Section 15.2. In such event, subject to receiving such Award, Tenant shall accomplish all necessary restoration in accordance with the following sentence (whether or not the amount of the Award received by Tenant is sufficient) and the Rent shall be adjusted in accordance with the Rent Reduction Amount. Tenant shall restore the Leased Property (excluding any Tenant Material Capital Improvement, unless such Tenant Material Capital Improvement is integrated into the Facility such that the Facility could not practically or safely be operated without restoring such Tenant Material Capital Improvement) as nearly as reasonably possible under the circumstances to a complete architectural unit of the same general character and condition as the Leased Property existing immediately prior to such Taking.

15.2 Award Distribution. Except as set forth below and in Section 15.1(c) hereof, the Award resulting from the Taking shall be paid as follows: (i) first, to Landlord to the extent of the Fair Market Ownership Value of Landlord's interest in the Leased Property subject to the Taking (excluding any Tenant Material Capital Improvements), (ii) second, to Tenant to the extent of the Fair Market Property Value of Tenant's Property and any Tenant Material Capital Improvements subject to the Taking (but for the avoidance of doubt, not including any amount for any unexpired portion of the Term), and (iii) third, any remaining balance shall be paid to Landlord. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall be entitled to pursue its own claim with respect to the Taking for Tenant's lost profits value and moving expenses and, the portion of the Award, if any, allocated to any Tenant Material Capital Improvements and Tenant's Property, shall be and remain the property of Tenant free of any claim thereto by Landlord.

15.3 Temporary Taking. The taking of the Leased Property, or any part thereof, shall constitute a Taking by Condemnation only when the use and occupancy by the taking authority has continued for longer than one hundred eighty (180) consecutive days. During any shorter period, which shall be a temporary taking, all the provisions of this Lease shall remain in full force and effect and the Award allocable to the Term shall be paid to Tenant.

15.4 Condemnation Awards and Fee Mortgagee. Notwithstanding anything herein (including, without limitation, Article XXXI hereof) or in any Fee Mortgage Documents to the contrary, Landlord shall require that any Fee Mortgage Documents (including, without limitation, with respect to the Existing Fee Mortgage) shall permit Tenant to rebuild in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Lease (and any such Fee Mortgage Documents shall expressly provide that Tenant or Landlord, as applicable, is entitled to the applicable Award in accordance with the terms and provisions of this Lease).

ARTICLE XVI

DEFAULTS & REMEDIES

16.1 Tenant Events of Default. Any one or more of the following shall constitute a "Tenant Event of Default":

(a) Tenant shall fail to pay any installment of Rent when due and such failure is not cured within ten (10) days after written notice from Landlord of Tenant's failure to pay such installment of Rent when due (and such notice of failure from Landlord may be given any time after such installment of Rent is one (1) day late);

(b) Tenant shall fail to pay any Additional Charge (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt the Minimum Cap Ex Amount) within ten (10) days after written notice from Landlord of Tenant's failure to pay such Additional Charge when due (and such notice of failure from Landlord may be given any time after such payment of any Additional Charge is one (1) day late);

(f) Tenant shall fail to comply with Section 7.5, which failure is not cured within thirty (30) days following notice thereof from Landlord to Tenant; provided that, if: (i) such failure is not susceptible of cure within such thirty (30) day period; and (ii) such failure would not expose Landlord to an imminent and material risk of criminal liability or of material damage to its business reputation, such thirty (30) day cure period shall be extended for such time as is necessary (but in no event longer than ninety (90) days) to cure such failure so long as Tenant commences to cure such failure or other breach within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter proceeds with reasonable diligence to complete such cure);

(g) the estate or interest of Tenant in the Leased Property or any part thereof shall be levied upon or attached in any proceeding relating to more than Twenty-Five Million and No/100 Dollars ($25,000,000.00), and the same shall not be vacated, discharged or stayed pending appeal (or paid or bonded or otherwise similarly secured payment) within the later of ninety (90) days after commencement thereof or thirty (30) days after receipt by Tenant of notice thereof from Landlord; provided, however, that such notice shall be in lieu of and not in addition to any notice required under applicable law;

(h) if Tenant or Guarantor shall fail to pay, bond, escrow or otherwise similarly secure payment of one or more final judgments aggregating in excess of the amount of Seventy-Five Million and No/100 Dollars ($75,000,000.00), which judgments are not discharged or effectively waived or stayed for a period of forty-five (45) consecutive days;

(i) Guarantor (A) shall fail to satisfy any of the Obligations (as defined in the Guaranty) of a monetary nature or (B) shall otherwise fail to satisfy any other Obligations or shall otherwise fail to perform or comply with any other term, covenant or condition under the Guaranty, and, in any case under this clause (B), such failure is not cured within ten (10) days following notice of such failure from Landlord to Guarantor;

(j) intentionally omitted;

(k) intentionally omitted;

(l) if a Licensing Event with respect to Tenant under clause (a) of the definition of Licensing Event shall occur and is not resolved in accordance with Section 41.13 within the later of (i) thirty (30) days or (ii) such additional time period as may be permitted by the applicable Gaming Authorities;

(m) Tenant fails to comply with any Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements, which default is not cured within the applicable cure period set forth in the Fee Mortgage Documents, if the effect of such default is to cause, or to permit the holder or holders of the applicable Fee Mortgage (or a trustee or agent on behalf of such holder or holders) to cause, such Fee Mortgage to become or be declared due and payable (or redeemable) prior to its stated maturity;

(n) a transfer of Tenant's interest in this Lease (including pursuant to a Change of Control) shall have occurred without the consent of Landlord to the extent such consent is required under Article XXII or Tenant is otherwise in default of the provisions set forth in Section 22.1 below;

(o) if Tenant shall fail to observe or perform any other term, covenant or condition of this Lease and such failure is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Landlord, provided, however, if such failure cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period and Tenant shall have commenced to cure such failure within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently proceeds to cure the same, such thirty (30) day period shall be extended for such time as is reasonably necessary for Tenant in the exercise of due diligence to cure such failure, provided that, with respect to any failure to perform (i) that is still continuing on or after the first (1st) day of the sixth (6th) Lease Year such cure period shall not extend beyond the later of such first (1st) day of the sixth (6th) Lease Year or one hundred and eighty (180) days in the aggregate, and (ii) that is first arising on or after the first (1st) day of the sixth (6th) Lease Year, such cure period shall not exceed one hundred and eighty (180) days in the aggregate, provided, further however, that no Tenant Event of Default under this clause (o) or under clause (q) below shall be deemed to exist under this Lease during any time the curing thereof is prevented by an Unavoidable Delay, provided that upon the cessation of the Unavoidable Delay, Tenant remedies the default within the time periods otherwise required hereunder;

(p) (i) A "Tenant Event of Default" (as defined in the Regional Lease) shall occur under the Regional Lease or (ii) so long as the Existing Original Fee Financing has not been replaced with replacement financing, a "Tenant Event of Default" (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) shall occur under the Las Vegas Lease;

(q) the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default pursuant to Section 10.5(a)(x); and

(r) if Guarantor shall, in any judicial or quasi-judicial case, action or proceeding, contest (or collude with or otherwise affirmatively assist any other Person, or solicit or cause to be solicited any other Person to contest) the validity or enforceability of Guarantor's obligations under the Guaranty (or any Qualified Replacement Guarantor's obligations under a Replacement Guaranty).

Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, (x) Landlord shall deliver all notices required pursuant to Section 16.1 concurrently to Tenant and Guarantor and (y) a default by Tenant under any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage shall not in and of itself be a Tenant Event of Default hereunder (it being understood that if the circumstances that cause such default independently comprise a default hereunder that continues beyond all applicable notice and cure periods hereunder then such circumstances would cause a Tenant Event of Default hereunder).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) Tenant shall not be in breach of this Lease solely as a result of the exercise by the party (other than Tenant, ERI, CEOC or any of their respective Affiliates) to any of the Permitted Exception Documents of such party's rights thereunder so long as Tenant undertakes commercially reasonable efforts to cause such party to comply or otherwise minimize such breach, and (ii) in the event that Tenant is required, under the express terms of any Permitted Exception Document(s), to take or refrain from taking any action, and taking or refraining from taking such action would result in a default under this Lease, then Tenant shall advise Landlord of the same, and Tenant and Landlord shall reasonably cooperate in order to address the same in a mutually acceptable manner, and so as to minimize any harm or liability to Landlord and to Tenant. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall a Permitted Exception Document excuse Tenant from its obligation to pay Rent or Additional Charges.

16.2 Landlord Remedies. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of a Tenant Event of Default but subject to the provisions of Article XVII, Landlord may, subject to the terms of Section 16.3 below, do any one or more of the following: (x) terminate this Lease by giving Tenant no less than ten (10) days' notice of such termination and the Term shall terminate and all rights and obligations of Tenant under this Lease shall cease, subject to any provisions that expressly survive the Expiration Date, (y) seek damages as provided in Section 16.3 hereof or (z) except to the extent expressly otherwise provided under this Lease, exercise any other right or remedy hereunder, at law or in equity available to Landlord as a result of any Tenant Event of Default. Tenant shall pay as Additional Charges all costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of Landlord, including reasonable and documented attorneys' fees and expenses, as a result of any Tenant Event of Default hereunder. Subject to Article XIX, Article XXXVI and Section 17.1(f) hereof, at any time upon or following the Expiration Date, Tenant shall, if required by Landlord to do so, immediately surrender to Landlord possession of the Leased Property and quit the same and Landlord may enter upon and repossess such Leased Property by reasonable force, summary proceedings, ejectment or otherwise, and may remove Tenant and all other Persons and any of Tenant's Property therefrom.

(a) None of (i) the termination of this Lease, (ii) the repossession of the Leased Property, (iii) the failure of Landlord to relet the Leased Property or any portions thereof, (iv) the reletting of all or any portion of the Leased Property, or (v) the inability of Landlord to collect or receive any rentals due upon any such reletting, shall relieve Tenant of its liabilities and obligations hereunder, all of which shall survive any such termination, repossession or reletting. Landlord and Tenant agree that Landlord shall have no obligation to mitigate Landlord's damages under this Lease.

(b) If this Lease shall terminate pursuant to Section 16.2(x) or if Landlord shall obtain a court order permitting reentry following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default that is continuing, then, in any such event, Landlord or Landlord's agents and employees may immediately or at any time thereafter reenter the Leased Property to the extent permitted by law (including applicable Gaming Regulations), either by summary dispossess proceedings or by any suitable action or proceeding at law, without being liable to indictment, prosecution or damages therefor, and may repossess the same, and may remove any Person therefrom, to the end that Landlord may have, hold and enjoy the Leased Property. The words "enter," "reenter," "entry" and "reentry," as used herein, are not restricted to their technical legal meanings.

16.3 Damages.

(a) If Landlord elects to terminate this Lease in writing upon a Tenant Event of Default during the Term, Tenant shall forthwith (x) pay to Landlord all Rent due and payable under this Lease to and including the date of such termination (together with interest thereon at the Overdue Rate from the date the applicable amount was due), and (y) pay on demand all damages to which Landlord shall be entitled at law or in equity, provided, however, Landlord's damages with regard to unpaid Rent from and after the date of termination shall equal, as liquidated and agreed current damages in respect thereof, the sum of: (A) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Rent that (if the Lease had not been terminated) would have been payable hereunder after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Rent loss that Tenant proves could have been reasonably avoided; plus (B) (x) the Rent which (if the Lease had not been terminated) would have been payable hereunder from the time of award until the then Stated Expiration Date, discounted to present value by applying a discount rate equal to the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York at the time of award, plus one percent (1%), less (y) the Rent loss from the time of the award until the then Stated Expiration Date that Tenant proves could be reasonably avoided, discounted to present value by applying a discount rate equal to the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York at the time of award, plus one percent (1%). As used in clause (A), the "worth at the time of award" shall be computed by allowing interest at the Overdue Rate from the date the applicable amount was due. As used in clauses (A) and (B), Variable Rent that would have been payable after termination for the remainder of the Term shall be determined based on: (1) if the date of termination occurs during a Variable Rent Payment Period, the Variable Rent amount payable during such Variable Rent Payment Period (if the Lease had not been terminated), and (2) if the date of termination occurs prior to the commencement of any Variable Rent Payment Period, the Variable Rent that (if the Lease had not been terminated) would be payable after termination for the remainder of the Term, assuming Net Revenue for the balance of the Term equals Net Revenue for the Fiscal Period ending immediately prior to the date of termination (it being understood the foregoing calculation of damages for unpaid Rent applies only to the amount of unpaid Rent damages owed to Landlord pursuant to Tenant's obligation to pay Rent hereunder and does not prohibit or otherwise shall not limit Landlord from seeking damages for any indemnification or any other obligations of Tenant hereunder, with all such rights of Landlord reserved).

(b) Notwithstanding anything otherwise set forth herein, if Landlord chooses not to terminate Tenant's right to possession of the Leased Property (whether or not Landlord terminates this Lease) and has not been paid damages in accordance with Section 16.3(a), then each installment of Rent and all other sums payable by Tenant to or for the benefit of Landlord under this Lease shall be payable as the same otherwise becomes due and payable, together with, if any such amount is not paid when due, interest at the Overdue Rate from the date when due until paid, and Landlord may enforce, by action or otherwise, any other term or covenant of this Lease (and Landlord may at any time thereafter terminate Tenant's right to possession of the Leased Property and seek damages under Section 16.3(a), to the extent not already paid for by Tenant under Section 16.3(a) or this Section 16.3(b)).

(c) If, as of the date of any termination of this Lease pursuant to Section 16.2(x), the Leased Property shall not be in the condition in which Tenant has agreed to surrender the same to Landlord at the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease, then Tenant, shall pay, as damages therefor, the cost (as estimated by an independent contractor reasonably selected by Landlord) of placing the Leased Property in the condition in which Tenant is required to surrender the same hereunder.

16.4 Receiver. Subject to the rights of Permitted Leasehold Mortgagees hereunder, upon the occurrence and continuance of a Tenant Event of Default, and upon commencement of proceedings to enforce the rights of Landlord hereunder, but subject to any limitations of applicable law (including Gaming Regulations), Landlord shall be entitled, as a matter of right, to the appointment of a receiver or receivers acceptable to Landlord of the Leased Property and of the revenues, earnings, income, products and profits thereof, pending the outcome of such proceedings, with such powers as the court making such appointment shall confer.

16.5 Waiver. If Landlord initiates judicial proceedings or if this Lease is terminated by Landlord pursuant to this Article XVI, Tenant waives, to the extent permitted by applicable law, (i) any right of redemption, re-entry or repossession or similar laws for the benefit of Tenant; and (ii) the benefit of any laws now or hereafter in force exempting property from liability for rent or for debt.

16.6 Application of Funds. Any payments received by Landlord under any of the provisions of this Lease during the existence or continuance of any Tenant Event of Default which are made to Landlord rather than Tenant due to the existence of a Tenant Event of Default shall be applied to Tenant's obligations in the order which Landlord may reasonably determine or as may be prescribed by applicable Legal Requirements.

16.7 Landlord's Right to Cure Tenant's Default. If Tenant shall fail to make any payment or to perform any act required to be made or performed hereunder when due, including, without limitation, if Tenant fails to expend any Required Capital Expenditures as required hereunder or fails to complete any work or restoration or replacement of any nature as required hereunder, or if Tenant shall take any action prohibited hereunder, or if Tenant fails to comply with any Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements, in all cases, after the expiration of any cure period provided for herein, Landlord, without waiving or releasing any obligation or default, may, but shall be under no obligation to, make such payment or perform such act for the account and at the expense of Tenant, and may, to the extent permitted by law, enter upon the Leased Property for such purpose and take all such action thereon as, in Landlord's reasonable opinion, may be necessary or appropriate therefor. All sums so paid by Landlord and all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, so incurred, together with interest thereon at the Overdue Rate from the date on which such sums or expenses are paid or incurred by Landlord, shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord on demand as an Additional Charge.

16.8 Miscellaneous.

(a) Suit or suits for the recovery of damages, or for any other sums payable by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to this Lease, may be brought by Landlord from time to time at Landlord's election, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require Landlord to await the date whereon this Lease and the Term would have expired by limitation had there been no Tenant Event of Default, reentry or termination.

(b) No failure by either Party to insist upon the strict performance of any agreement, term, covenant or condition of this Lease or to exercise any right or remedy consequent upon a breach thereof, and no acceptance by Landlord of full or partial Rent during the continuance of any such breach, shall constitute a waiver of any such breach or of such agreement, term, covenant or condition. No agreement, term, covenant or condition of this Lease to be performed or complied with by either Party, and no breach thereof, shall be or be deemed to be waived, altered or modified except by a written instrument executed by the Parties. No waiver of any breach shall affect or alter this Lease, but each and every agreement, term, covenant and condition of this Lease shall continue in full force and effect with respect to any other then existing or subsequent breach thereof. In the event Landlord claims in good faith that Tenant has breached any of the agreements, terms, covenants or conditions contained in this Lease, Landlord shall be entitled to seek to enjoin such breach or threatened breach and shall have the right to invoke any rights and remedies allowed at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise as though reentry, summary proceedings or other remedies were not provided for in this Lease.

(c) Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided in this Lease, each right and remedy of a Party provided for in this Lease shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this Lease.

(d) Nothing contained in this Article XVI or otherwise shall vitiate or limit Tenant's obligation to pay Landlord's attorneys' fees as and to the extent provided in Article XXXVII hereof, or any indemnification obligations under any express indemnity made by Tenant of Landlord or of any Landlord Indemnified Parties as contained in this Lease.

ARTICLE XVII

TENANT FINANCING

17.1 Permitted Leasehold Mortgagees.

(a) Tenant May Mortgage the Leasehold Estate. On one or more occasions, without Landlord's consent, Tenant may mortgage or otherwise encumber Tenant's estate in and to the Leased Property (the "Leasehold Estate") (or encumber the direct or indirect Equity Interests in Tenant) to one or more Permitted Leasehold Mortgagees under one or more Permitted Leasehold Mortgages and pledge its right, title and interest under this Lease as security for such Permitted Leasehold Mortgages or any related agreement secured thereby, provided, however, that, (i) in order for a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee to be entitled to the rights and benefits pertaining to Permitted Leasehold Mortgagees pursuant to this Article XVII, such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee must hold or benefit from a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage encumbering all of Tenant's Leasehold Estate granted to Tenant under this Lease (subject to exclusions with respect to items that are not capable of being mortgaged and that, in the aggregate, are de minimis) or at least eighty percent (80%) of the direct or indirect Equity Interests in Tenant at any tier of ownership, and (ii) no Person shall be deemed to be a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee hereunder unless and until (a) such Person delivers a written agreement to Landlord providing that in the event of a termination of this Lease by Landlord pursuant to Section 16.2(x) hereof, such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee and any Persons for whom it acts as representative, agent or trustee, will not use or dispose of any Gaming License for use at a location other than at the Facility to which such Gaming License relates as of the date of the closing of a Lease Foreclosure Transaction (or, in the case of any additional facility added to this Lease after such date, as of the date that such additional facility is added to the Lease), (b) the applicable Permitted Leasehold Mortgage shall include an express acknowledgement that any exercise of remedies thereunder that would affect the Leasehold Estate shall be subject and subordinate to the terms of this Lease and (c) in the case of any subleasehold mortgage granted by a Subtenant after the First Amendment Date that is to be treated as a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage hereunder, such subleasehold mortgage shall include an express acknowledgement that any exercise of remedies thereunder that would affect the Leasehold Estate shall be subject and subordinate to Landlord's interest and estate in the applicable Leased Property, as well as the interest of any Fee Mortgagee whose Fee Mortgage is senior to this Lease, whether now or hereafter existing, in the applicable Leased Property. Furthermore, as a condition to being deemed a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee hereunder, each Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee is deemed to acknowledge and agree (and hereby does acknowledge and agree) that any foreclosure or realization by any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee pursuant to a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage or upon Tenant's interest under this Lease or that would result in a transfer of all or any portion of Tenant's interest in the Leased Property or this Lease shall in any case be subject to the applicable provisions, terms and conditions of Article XXII hereof.

(b) Notice to Landlord.

(i) If Tenant shall, on one or more occasions, mortgage Tenant's Leasehold Estate pursuant to a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage and if the holder of such Permitted Leasehold Mortgage shall provide Landlord with written notice of such Permitted Leasehold Mortgage (which notice with respect to any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage not evidenced by a recorded security instrument, in order to be effective, shall also state (or be accompanied by a notice of Tenant stating) the relative priority of all then-effective Permitted Leasehold Mortgages noticed to Landlord under this Section and shall be consented to in writing by all then-existing Permitted Leasehold Mortgagees) together with a true copy of such Permitted Leasehold Mortgage and the name and address of the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord and Tenant agree that, following receipt of such written notice by Landlord (which notice shall be accompanied by any items required pursuant to Section 17.1(a) above), the provisions of this Section 17.1 shall apply to each such Permitted Leasehold Mortgage. In the event of any assignment of a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage or in the event of a change of address of a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee or of an assignee of such Permitted Leasehold Mortgage, written notice of such assignment or change of address and of the new name and address shall be provided to Landlord, and the provisions of this Section 17.1 shall continue to apply, provided such assignee is a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee.

(ii) Landlord shall reasonably promptly following receipt of a communication purporting to constitute the notice provided for by subsection (b)(i) above (and such additional items requested by Landlord pursuant to the first sentence of Section 17.1(b)(iii)) acknowledge by written notice receipt of such communication as constituting the notice provided for by subsection (b)(i) above and confirming the status of the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee as such or, in the alternative, notify Tenant and the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee of the rejection of such communication and any such items as not conforming with the provisions of this Section 17.1 and specify the specific basis of such rejection.

(iii) After Landlord has received the notice provided for by subsection (b)(i) above, Tenant, upon being requested to do so by Landlord, shall with reasonable promptness provide Landlord with copies of the note or other obligations secured by such Permitted Leasehold Mortgage and any other documents pertinent to the applicable Permitted Leasehold Mortgage reasonably requested by Landlord. With respect to any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage documents not publicly filed or upon Landlord's request, Tenant shall, with reasonable promptness, provide Landlord from time to time with a copy of each material amendment or other modification or supplement to such documents. All recorded documents shall be accompanied by the appropriate recording stamp or other certification of the custodian of the relevant recording office as to their authenticity as true and correct copies of official records and all nonrecorded documents shall be accompanied by a certification by Tenant that such documents are true and correct copies of the originals. From time to time upon being requested to do so by Landlord, Tenant shall also notify Landlord of the date and place of recording and other pertinent recording data with respect to such instruments as have been recorded.

(iv) Notwithstanding the requirements of this Section 17.1(b), it is agreed and acknowledged that Tenant's Initial Financing (and the mortgages, security agreements and/or other loan documents in connection therewith) as of the Commencement Date, as of the First Amendment Date and as of the Second Amendment Date shall be deemed a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage (with respect to which notice has been properly provided to Landlord pursuant to Section 17.1(b)(i)) without the requirement that Tenant or Landlord comply with the initial requirements set forth in clauses (i) through (iii) above, (but, for the avoidance of doubt, Tenant's Initial Financing is not relieved of the requirement that it satisfy the requirements of Section 17.1(a) or the last sentence of Section 17.1(b)(i)). In addition, for the avoidance of doubt, the Parties confirm that Tenant shall not be relieved of the requirement to comply with Section 17.1(b)(iii) with respect to Tenant's Initial Financing or any other financing with a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee.

(c) Default Notice to Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee. Landlord, upon providing Tenant any notice of default under this Lease, shall at the same time provide a copy of such notice to every Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee for which notice has been properly provided to Landlord pursuant to Section 17.1(b)(i) hereof. No such notice by Landlord to Tenant shall be deemed to have been duly given unless and until a copy thereof has been sent, in the manner prescribed in Article XXXV of this Lease, to every such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee for which notice has been properly provided to Landlord pursuant to Section 17.1(b)(i) hereof. From and after the date such notice has been sent to a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall have the same period, with respect to its remedying any default or acts or omissions which are the subject matter of such notice or causing the same to be remedied, as is given Tenant after the giving of such notice to Tenant, plus in each instance, the additional periods of time specified in subsections (d) and (e) of this Section 17.1 to remedy or cause to be remedied the defaults or acts or omissions which are the subject matter of such notice specified in any such notice. Landlord shall accept such performance by or at the instigation of such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee as if the same had been done by Tenant. Tenant authorizes each such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (to the extent such action is authorized under the applicable loan documents to which it acts as a lender, noteholder, investor, agent, trustee or representative) to take any such action at such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee's option and does hereby authorize entry upon the Leased Property by the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee for such purpose.

(d) Right to Terminate Notice to Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee. Anything contained in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, if any Tenant Event of Default shall occur which entitles Landlord to terminate this Lease, Landlord shall have no right to terminate this Lease on account of such Tenant Event of Default unless Landlord shall notify every Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee for which notice has been properly provided to Landlord pursuant to Section 17.1(b) hereof that the period of time given Tenant to cure such default or act or omission has lapsed and, accordingly, Landlord has the right to terminate this Lease ("Right to Terminate Notice"). The provisions of subsection (e) below of this Section 17.1 shall apply if, during (x) the thirty (30) day period following Landlord's delivery of the Right to Terminate Notice if such Tenant Event of Default is capable of being cured by the payment of money, or (y) the ninety (90) day period following Landlord's delivery of the Right to Terminate Notice, if such Tenant Event of Default is not capable of being cured by the payment of money, any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall:

(i) notify Landlord of such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee's desire to nullify such Right to Terminate Notice;

(ii) pay or cause to be paid all Rent, Additional Charges, and other payments (A) then due and in arrears as specified in the Right to Terminate Notice to such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, and (B) which may become due during such thirty (30) or ninety (90) day (as the case may be) period (as and when the same may become due);

(iii) comply with or in good faith, with reasonable diligence and continuity, commence to comply with all nonmonetary requirements of this Lease then in default and reasonably susceptible of being complied with by such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (e.g., defaults that are not personal to Tenant hereunder); provided, however, that such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall not be required during such ninety (90) day period to cure or commence to cure any default consisting of Tenant's failure to satisfy and discharge any lien, charge or encumbrance against Tenant's interest in this Lease or the Leased Property or any of Tenant's other assets that is/are (x) junior in priority to the lien of the mortgage or other security documents held by such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee and (y) would be extinguished by the foreclosure of the Permitted Leasehold Mortgage that is held by such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee; and

(iv) during such thirty (30) or ninety (90) day period, the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall respond, with reasonable diligence, to requests for information from Landlord as to the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee's (and related lender's) intent to pay such Rent and other charges and comply with this Lease.

If the applicable default shall be cured pursuant to the terms and within the time periods allowed in this Section 17.1(d), this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as if Tenant had not defaulted under the Lease. If a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall fail to take all of the actions described in this Section 17.1(d) with respect to a specific Tenant Event of Default for which the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee was provided notice prior to the deadlines set forth herein, such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall have no further rights under this Section 17.1(d) or Section 17.1(e) with respect to such Tenant Event of Default.

(e) Procedure on Default.

(i) If Landlord shall elect to terminate this Lease by reason of any Tenant Event of Default that has occurred and is continuing and a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall have proceeded in the manner provided for by subsection (d) of this Section 17.1, the applicable cure periods available pursuant to Section 17.1(d) above shall continue to be extended so long as during such continuance:

(1) such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall pay or cause to be paid the Rent, Additional Charges and other monetary obligations of Tenant under this Lease as the same become due, and continue its good faith efforts to perform or cause to be performed all of Tenant's other obligations under this Lease, excepting (A) obligations of Tenant to satisfy or otherwise discharge any lien, charge or encumbrance against Tenant's interest in this Lease or the Leased Property or any of Tenant's other assets that is/are (x) junior in priority to the lien of the mortgage or other security documents held by such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee and (y) would be extinguished by the foreclosure of the Permitted Leasehold Mortgage that is held by such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee and (B) past non-monetary obligations then in default and not reasonably susceptible of being cured by such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee; and

(2) subject to and in accordance with Section 22.2(i), if not enjoined or stayed pursuant to a bankruptcy or insolvency proceeding or other judicial order, such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall diligently continue to pursue acquiring or selling Tenant's interest in this Lease and the Leased Property (or, to the extent applicable, the direct or indirect interests in Tenant) by foreclosure of the Permitted Leasehold Mortgage or other appropriate means and diligently prosecute the same to completion.

(ii) Without limitation of Tenant's right to deliver a Renewal Notice, it is agreed that a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee also shall have the right to deliver a Renewal Notice on behalf of Tenant during any period in which such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee is complying with Section 17.1(d) or 17.1(e).

(iii) If a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee is complying with subsection (e)(i) of this Section 17.1, upon the acquisition of Tenant's Leasehold Estate (or, to the extent applicable, the direct or indirect interests in Tenant) herein by such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee or an assignee thereof permitted by Section 22.2(i) hereof, this Lease shall continue in full force and effect as if Tenant had not defaulted under this Lease provided that such successor cures all outstanding defaults that can be cured through the payment of money and all other defaults that are reasonably susceptible of being cured as provided in said subsection (e)(i).

(iv) No Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall be deemed to be an assignee or transferee of this Lease or of the Leasehold Estate hereby created by virtue of the Permitted Leasehold Mortgage so as to require such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, as such, to assume the performance of any of the terms, covenants or conditions on the part of Tenant to be performed hereunder; but the purchaser at any sale of this Lease (or, to the extent applicable, the purchaser of the direct or indirect interests in Tenant) (including a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee if it is the purchaser at foreclosure) and of the Leasehold Estate hereby created in any proceedings for the foreclosure of any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage, or the assignee or transferee of this Lease and of the Leasehold Estate hereby created (or, to the extent applicable, the assignee or transferee of the direct or indirect interests in Tenant) under any instrument of assignment or transfer in lieu of the foreclosure of any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage, shall be subject to all of the provisions, terms and conditions of this Lease including, without limitation, Section 22.2(i) hereof.

(v) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Lease, any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee or other acquirer of the Leasehold Estate of Tenant (or, to the extent applicable, the direct or indirect interests in Tenant) in accordance with the requirements of Section 22.2(i) of this Lease pursuant to foreclosure, assignment in lieu of foreclosure or other similar proceedings of this Lease may, upon acquiring Tenant's Leasehold Estate (or, to the extent applicable, the direct or indirect interests in Tenant), without further consent of Landlord, (x) sell and assign interests in the Leasehold Estate (or, to the extent applicable, the direct or indirect interests in Tenant) as and to the extent provided in this Lease, and (y) enter into Permitted Leasehold Mortgages in the same manner as the original Tenant, as and to the extent provided in this Lease, in each case under clause (x) or (y), subject to the terms of this Lease, including Article XVII and Section 22.2(i) hereof.

(vi) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Lease, any sale of this Lease and of the Leasehold Estate hereby created (or, to the extent applicable, the direct or indirect interests in Tenant) in any proceedings for the foreclosure of any Permitted

Leasehold Mortgage, or the assignment or transfer of this Lease and of the Leasehold Estate hereby created (or, to the extent applicable, the direct or indirect interests in Tenant) in lieu of the foreclosure of any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage, shall, solely if and to the extent such sale, assignment or transfer complies with the requirements of Section 22.2(i) hereof, be deemed to be a permitted sale, transfer or assignment of this Lease; provided, that, the foreclosing Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee or purchaser at foreclosure sale or successor purchaser must satisfy the requirements set forth in Section 22.2(i)(1) through (4).

(f) New Lease. In the event that this Lease is rejected in any bankruptcy, insolvency or dissolution proceeding or is terminated by Landlord following a Tenant Event of Default other than due to a default that is subject to cure by a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee under Section 17.1(d) and Section 17.1(e) above, Landlord shall provide each Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee with written notice that this Lease has been rejected or terminated ("Notice of Termination"), and, for the avoidance of doubt, upon delivery of such Notice of Termination, no Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall have the rights as described in Section 17.1(d) and Section 17.1(e) above, but rather such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee instead shall have the rights described in this Section 17.1(f)). Following any such rejection or termination, Landlord agrees to enter into a new lease ("New Lease") of the Leased Property with such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee or its Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee for the remainder of the term of this Lease, effective as of the date of termination, at the rent and additional rent, and upon the terms, covenants and conditions (including all then-remaining options to renew but excluding requirements which have already been fulfilled) of this Lease, provided:

(i) such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee or its Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee shall comply with the applicable terms of Section 22.2;

(ii) such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee or its Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee shall make a binding, written, irrevocable commitment to Landlord for such New Lease within thirty (30) days after the date such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee receives Landlord's Notice of Termination of this Lease given pursuant to this Section 17.1(f);

(iii) such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee or its Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee shall pay or cause to be paid to Landlord at the time of the execution and delivery of such New Lease, any and all sums which would at the time of execution and delivery thereof be due pursuant to this Lease but for such rejection or termination (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any amounts that become due prior to and remain unpaid as of the date of the Notice of Termination) and, in addition thereto, all reasonable expenses, including reasonable documented attorney's fees, which Landlord shall have incurred by reason of such rejection or such termination and the execution and delivery of the New Lease and which have not otherwise been received by Landlord from Tenant or other party in interest under Tenant; and

(iv) such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee or its Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee shall agree to remedy any of Tenant's defaults of which said Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee was notified by Landlord's Notice of Termination (or in any other written notice of Landlord) and which can be cured through the payment of money or, if such defaults cannot be cured through the payment of money, are reasonably susceptible of being cured by Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee or its Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee.

(g) New Lease Priorities. If more than one Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee shall request a New Lease pursuant to subsection (f)(i) of this Section 17.1, Landlord shall enter into such New Lease with the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee whose mortgage is senior in lien, or with its Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee acting for the benefit of such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee prior in lien foreclosing on Tenant's interest in this Lease. Landlord, without liability to Tenant or any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee with an adverse claim, may rely upon (i) with respect to any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage evidenced by a recorded security instrument, a title insurance policy (or, if elected by Landlord in its sole discretion, a title insurance commitment, certificate of title or other similar instrument) issued by a reputable title insurance company as the basis for determining the appropriate Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee who is entitled to such New Lease or (ii) with respect to any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage not evidenced by a recorded security instrument, the statement with respect to relative priority of Permitted Leasehold Mortgages contained in the applicable notice delivered pursuant to Section 17.1(b)(i), provided that any such statement that provides that any such Permitted Leasehold Mortgage described in this clause (ii) is senior or prior to any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage evidenced by a recorded security instrument shall only be effective to the extent it is consented to in writing by the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee in respect of such Permitted Leasehold Mortgage evidenced by a recorded security instrument.

(h) Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Need Not Cure Specified Defaults. Nothing herein contained shall require any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee to cure any Incurable Default in order to comply with the provisions of Sections 17.1(d) and 17.1(e), or as a condition of entering into the New Lease provided for by Section 17.1(f). For the avoidance of doubt, upon such foreclosure and/or the effectuation of such a New Lease in accordance with the provisions, terms and conditions hereof, any such defaults are automatically deemed waived through the effective date of such foreclosure or New Lease as to any such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee or its Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee, as the new tenant hereunder or under the New Lease, as applicable (it being understood that the provisions of this sentence shall not be deemed to relieve such new tenant of its obligations to comply with this Lease or such New Lease from and after the effective date of such foreclosure or New Lease).

(i) Casualty Loss. A standard mortgagee clause naming each Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee for which notice has been properly provided to Landlord pursuant to Section 17.1(b) hereof may be added to any and all insurance policies required to be carried by Tenant hereunder on condition that (and, in all events, Tenant agrees that) the insurance proceeds are to be applied in the manner specified in this Lease and the Permitted Leasehold Mortgage shall so provide; except that the Permitted Leasehold Mortgage may provide a manner for the disposition of such proceeds, if any, otherwise payable directly to Tenant (but not such proceeds, if any, payable jointly to Landlord and Tenant or to Landlord, to the Fee Mortgagee or to a third party escrowee) pursuant to the provisions of this Lease.

(j) Arbitration; Legal Proceedings. Landlord shall give prompt notice to each Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (for which notice has been properly provided to Landlord pursuant to Section 17.1(b) hereof) of any arbitration (including a determination of Fair Market Ownership Value or Fair Market Base Rental Value) or legal proceedings between Landlord and Tenant involving obligations under this Lease.

(k) Notices. Notices from Landlord to the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee for which notice has been properly provided to Landlord pursuant to Section 17.1(b) hereof shall be provided in the method provided in Article XXXV hereof to the address furnished Landlord pursuant to subsection (b) of this Section 17.1, and those from the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee to Landlord shall be mailed to the address designated pursuant to the provisions of Article XXXV hereof. Such notices, demands and requests shall be given in the manner described in this Section 17.1 and in Article XXXV and shall in all respects be governed by the provisions of those sections.

(l) Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof to the contrary, (i) Landlord agrees that any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee's liability to Landlord in its capacity as Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee hereunder howsoever arising shall be limited to and enforceable only against such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee's interest in the Leasehold Estate and the other collateral granted to such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee to secure the obligations under the loan secured by the applicable Permitted Leasehold Mortgage, and (ii) each Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee agrees that Landlord's liability to such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee hereunder howsoever arising shall be limited to and enforceable only against Landlord's interest in the Leased Property, and no recourse against Landlord shall be had against any other assets of Landlord whatsoever.

(m) Sale Procedure. If this Lease has been terminated, the Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee for which notice has been properly provided to Landlord pursuant to Section 17.1(b) hereof with the most senior lien on the Leasehold Estate shall have the right to make the determinations and agreements on behalf of Tenant under Article XXXVI, in each case, in accordance with and subject to the terms and provisions of Article XXXVI.

(n) Third Party Beneficiary. Each Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (for so long as such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee holds a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage) is an intended third party beneficiary of this Article XVII entitled to enforce the same as if a party to this Lease.

(o) The fee title to the Leased Property and the Leasehold Estate of Tenant therein created by this Lease shall not merge but shall remain separate and distinct, notwithstanding the acquisition of said fee title and said Leasehold Estate by Landlord or by Tenant or by a third party, by purchase or otherwise.

17.2 Landlord Cooperation with Permitted Leasehold Mortgage. If, in connection with granting any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage or entering into an agreement relating thereto, Tenant shall request in writing (i) reasonable cooperation from Landlord or (ii) reasonable amendments or modifications to this Lease, in each case required to comply with any reasonable request made by Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, Landlord shall reasonably cooperate with such request, so long as (a) no Tenant Event of Default is continuing, (b) all reasonable documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Landlord, including, but not limited to, its reasonable documented attorneys' fees, shall be paid by Tenant, and (c) any requested action, including any amendments or modification of this Lease, shall not (i) increase Landlord's monetary obligations under this Lease by more than a de minimis extent, or increase Landlord's non-monetary obligations under this Lease in any material respect or decrease Tenant's obligations in any material respect, (ii) diminish Landlord's rights under this Lease in any material respect, (iii) adversely impact the value of the Leased Property by more than a de minimis extent or otherwise have a more than de minimis adverse effect on the Leased Property, Tenant or Landlord, (iv) adversely impact Landlord's (or any Affiliate of Landlord's) tax treatment or position, (v) result in this Lease not constituting a "true lease", or (vi) result in a default under the Fee Mortgage Documents.

ARTICLE XVIII

TRANSFERS BY LANDLORD

18.1 Transfers Generally. Landlord may sell, assign, transfer or convey, without Tenant's consent, the Leased Property, in whole (subject to exclusions for assets that may not be transferred and that, in the aggregate, are de minimis) but not in part (unless in part due to a transaction in which multiple Affiliates of a single Person (collectively, "Affiliated Persons") will own the Leased Property as tenants in common, but only if this Lease remains as a single, indivisible Lease and all such Affiliated Persons execute a joinder to this Lease as "Landlord", on a joint and several basis, the form and substance of which joinder shall be reasonably satisfactory to Tenant and Landlord) to a single transferee (or multiple Affiliated Persons, as applicable) (such transferee, such tenants in common or any other permitted transferee of this Lease, in each case, an "Acquirer") and, in connection with such transaction, if the Acquirer is not an Affiliate of Landlord, (a) Landlord shall amend the minimum capital expenditure requirements hereunder (such amendment to be limited solely to the amount of such minimum capital expenditure requirements) such that, in the aggregate such minimum capital expenditure requirements hereunder (taken together with the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements under and as defined in the Other Leases, after taking into consideration applicable reductions of the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements under and as defined in the Other Leases in the amount of the Minimum Cap Ex Reduction Amount), shall be no greater than the Minimum Cap Ex Requirements under this Lease and the Other Leases prior to such sale, assignment, transfer or conveyance; and (b) such minimum capital expenditure requirements shall be calculated on an individual, standalone basis under this Lease and under the Other Leases; except, however, the foregoing clauses (a) and (b) shall not apply to any transaction described in clause (iii) below. If Landlord (including any permitted successor Landlord) shall convey the Leased Property in accordance with the terms of this Lease, other than as security for a debt, and the applicable Acquirer expressly assumes all obligations of Landlord arising after the date of the conveyance, Landlord shall thereupon be released from all future liabilities and obligations of Landlord under this Lease arising or accruing from and after the date of such conveyance or other transfer and all such future liabilities and obligations shall thereupon be binding upon such applicable Acquirer. Without limitation of the preceding provisions of this Section 18.1, any or all of the following shall be freely permitted to occur: (i) any transfer of the Leased Property, in whole but not in part (subject to exclusions for assets that may not be transferred and that, in the aggregate, are de minimis), to a Fee Mortgagee in accordance with the terms of this Lease (including any transfer of the direct or indirect equity interests in Landlord), which transfer may include, without limitation, a transfer by foreclosure brought by the Fee Mortgagee or a transfer by a deed in lieu of foreclosure, assignment in lieu of foreclosure or other transaction in lieu of foreclosure; (ii) a merger transaction or other similar disposition affecting Landlord REIT or a sale by Landlord REIT directly or indirectly involving the Leased Property (so long as (x) upon consummation of such transaction, all of the Leased Property (subject to exclusions for assets that may not be transferred and that, in the aggregate, are de minimis) is owned by a single Person (or multiple Affiliated Persons as tenants in common) and (y) such surviving Person(s) execute(s) an assumption of this Lease and all Lease Related Agreements to which Landlord is a party, assuming all obligations of Landlord hereunder and thereunder (if any) (in the case of multiple Affiliated Persons, on a joint and several basis), the form and substance of which assumption shall be reasonably satisfactory to Tenant and Landlord); (iii) a sale/leaseback transaction by Landlord with respect to the entire Leased Property (subject to exclusions for assets that may not be transferred and that, in the aggregate, are de minimis) (provided (x) the overlandlord under the resulting overlease agrees that, in the event of a termination of such overlease, this Lease shall continue in effect as a direct lease between such overlandlord and Tenant and (y) the overlease shall not impose any new, additional or more onerous obligations on Tenant without Tenant's prior written consent in Tenant's sole discretion (and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the overlease shall not impose any additional monetary obligations (whether for payment of rents under such overlease or otherwise) on Tenant), subject to and in accordance with all of the provisions, terms and conditions of this Lease; (iv) any sale of any indirect interest in the Leased Property that does not change the identity of Landlord hereunder, including without limitation a participating interest in Landlord's interest under this Lease or a sale of Landlord's reversionary interest in the Leased Property so long as Landlord remains the only party with authority to bind Landlord under this Lease, or (v) a sale or transfer to an Affiliate of Landlord or a joint venture entity in which any Affiliate of Landlord is the managing member or partner, so long as (x) upon consummation of such transaction, all of the Leased Property (subject to exclusions for assets that may not be transferred and that, in the aggregate, are de minimis) is owned by a single Person or multiple Affiliated Persons as tenants in common and (y) such Person(s) execute(s) an assumption of this Lease and all Lease Related Agreements to which Landlord is a party, assuming all obligations of Landlord hereunder and thereunder (if any) (in the case of multiple Affiliated Persons, on a joint and several basis), the form and substance of which assumption shall be reasonably satisfactory to Tenant and Landlord. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Landlord shall not sell, assign, transfer or convey the Leased Property, or assign this Lease, to (I) a Tenant Prohibited Person or (II) any Person that is associated with a Person who has been found "unsuitable", denied a Gaming License or otherwise precluded from participation in the Gaming Industry by any Gaming Authority where such association would reasonably be expected to adversely affect, any of Tenant's or its Affiliates' Gaming Licenses or Tenant's or its Affiliates' then-current standing with any Gaming Authority. Any transfer by Landlord under this Article XVIII shall be subject to all applicable Legal Requirements, including any Gaming Regulations, and no such transfer shall be effective until any applicable approvals with respect to Gaming Regulations, if applicable, are obtained. Tenant shall attorn to and recognize any successor Landlord in connection with any transfer(s) permitted under this Article XVIII as Tenant's "landlord" with respect to the Facility.

18.2 Intentionally Omitted.

18.3 Intentionally Omitted.

18.4 Transfers to Tenant Competitors. In the event that, and so long as, Landlord is a Tenant Competitor, then, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the following shall apply:

(a) Without limitation of Section 23.1(c) of this Lease, Tenant shall not be required (1) to deliver the information required to be delivered to such Landlord pursuant to Section 23.1(b) hereof to the extent the same would give such Landlord a "competitive" advantage with respect to markets in which such Landlord and Tenant or ERI might be competing at any time (it being understood that such Landlord shall retain audit rights with respect to such information to the extent required to confirm Tenant's compliance with the terms of this Lease (and such Landlord shall be permitted to comply with Securities Exchange Commission, Internal Revenue Service and other legal and regulatory requirements with regard to such information) and provided that appropriate measures are in place to ensure that only such Landlord's auditors (which for this purpose shall be a "big four" firm designated by such Landlord) and attorneys (as reasonably approved by Tenant) (and not Landlord or any Affiliates of such Landlord or any direct or indirect parent company of such Landlord or any Affiliate of such Landlord) are provided access to such information) or (2) to provide information that is subject to the quality assurance immunity or is subject to attorney-client privilege or the attorney work product doctrine.

(b) Certain of Landlord's consent or approval rights set forth in this Lease shall be eliminated or modified, as follows:

(i) Clause (vi) of the definition of Primary Intended Use shall be deleted, and clause (v) of the definition of Primary Intended Use shall be modified to read as follows: "(v) such other ancillary uses (including convention center and related uses), but in all events consistent with the current use of the Leased Property or any portion thereof as of the Commencement Date or with then-prevailing or innovative or state-of-the-art hotel, resort and gaming industry use, and/or".

(ii) Without limitation of the other provisions of Section 10.1, the approval of Landlord shall not be required under (1) Section 10.1 for Alterations and Capital Improvements in excess of Seventy-Five Million and No/100 Dollars ($75,000,000.00), and (2) Section 10.2(b) for approval of the Architect thereunder.

(c) With respect to all consent, approval and decision-making rights granted to such Landlord under the Lease relating to competitively sensitive matters pertaining to the use and operation of the Leased Property and Tenant's business conducted thereat (other than any right of Landlord to grant waivers and amend or modify any of the terms of this Lease), such Landlord shall establish an independent committee to evaluate, negotiate and approve such matters, independent from and without interference from such Landlord's management or Board of Directors. Any dispute over whether a particular decision should be determined by such independent committee shall be submitted for resolution by an Expert pursuant to Section 34.2 hereof.

Tenant acknowledges and agrees that (x) as of the Commencement Date, Joliet Partner is a minority interest holder in Landlord and does not Control Landlord; and (y) for so long as the circumstances in clause (x) continue and the Joliet Partner continues to own no more than twenty percent (20%) of the interest in Landlord, neither Landlord nor any of its Affiliates shall be deemed to be a Tenant Competitor solely as a result of the circumstances in clause (x).

ARTICLE XIX

HOLDING OVER

If Tenant shall for any reason remain in possession of all or any portion of the Leased Property after the Expiration Date without the consent, or other than at the request, of Landlord, such possession shall be as a month-to-month tenant during which time Tenant shall pay as Rent each month an amount equal to (a) two hundred percent (200%) of the monthly installment of Rent applicable as of the Expiration Date, and (b) all Additional Charges and all other sums payable by Tenant pursuant to this Lease. During such period of month-to-month tenancy, Tenant shall be obligated to perform and observe all of the terms, covenants and conditions of this Lease, but shall have no rights hereunder other than the right, to the extent given by law to month-to-month tenancies, to continue its occupancy and use of the Leased Property. Nothing contained herein shall constitute the consent, express or implied, of Landlord to the holding over of Tenant after the Expiration Date. This Article XIX is subject to Tenant's rights and obligations under Article XXXVI below, and it is understood and agreed that any possession of the Leased Property after the Expiration Date pursuant to such Article XXXVI shall not constitute a hold over subject to this Article XIX.

ARTICLE XX

RISK OF LOSS

The risk of loss or of decrease in the enjoyment and beneficial use of the Leased Property or any part thereof as a consequence of the damage or destruction thereof by fire, the elements, casualties, thefts, riots, wars or otherwise, or in consequence of foreclosures, attachments, levies or executions (other than by Landlord and Persons claiming from, through or under Landlord) during the Term is assumed by Tenant, and except as otherwise expressly provided herein no such event shall entitle Tenant to any abatement of Rent.

ARTICLE XXI

INDEMNIFICATION

21.1 General Indemnification.

(i) In addition to the other indemnities contained herein, and notwithstanding the existence of any insurance carried by or for the benefit of Landlord or Tenant, and without regard to the policy limits of any such insurance, Tenant shall protect, indemnify, save harmless and defend Landlord and its principals, partners, officers, members, directors, shareholders, employees, managers, agents and servants (collectively, the "Landlord Indemnified Parties"; each individually, a "Landlord Indemnified Party"), from and against all liabilities, obligations, claims, damages, penalties, causes of action, costs and expenses, including reasonable documented attorneys', consultants' and experts' fees and expenses, imposed upon or incurred by or asserted against the Landlord Indemnified Parties (excluding any indirect, special, punitive or consequential damages as provided in Section 41.3) by reason of any of the following (in each case, other than to the extent resulting from Landlord's gross negligence or willful misconduct or default hereunder or the violation by Landlord of any Legal Requirement imposed against Landlord (including any Gaming Regulations, but excluding any Legal Requirement which Tenant is required to satisfy pursuant to the terms hereof or otherwise)): (i) any accident, injury to or death of Persons or loss of or damage to property occurring on or about the Facility (or any part thereof) or adjoining sidewalks under the control of Tenant or any Subtenant; (ii) any use, misuse, non-use, condition, maintenance or repair by Tenant of the Facility (or any part thereof); (iii) any failure on the part of Tenant to perform or comply with any of the terms of this Lease; (iv) any claim for malpractice, negligence or misconduct committed by Tenant or any Person on or from the Facility (or any part thereof); (v) the violation by Tenant of any Legal Requirement (including any Gaming Regulations) or Insurance Requirements; (vi) the non-performance of any contractual obligation, express or implied, assumed or undertaken by Tenant with respect to the Facility (or any part thereof) or any business or other activity carried on in relation to the Facility (or any part thereof) by Tenant; (vii) any lien or claim that may be asserted against the Facility (or any part thereof) arising from any failure by Tenant to perform its obligations hereunder or under any instrument or agreement affecting the Facility (or any part thereof); (viii) any third-party claim asserted against Landlord as a result of Landlord having been a party to the MLSA (as defined in the Amended Original Lease), so long as such claim does not result from Landlord's actions; and (ix) any matter arising out of Tenant's (or any Subtenant's) management, operation, use or possession of the Facility (or any part thereof) or any business or other activity carried on, at, from or in relation to the Facility (or any part thereof) (including any litigation, suit, proceeding or claim asserted against Landlord). Any amounts which become payable by Tenant under this Article XXI shall be paid within ten (10) days after liability therefor is determined by a final non appealable judgment or settlement or other agreement of the Parties, and if not timely paid shall bear interest at the Overdue Rate from the date of such determination to the date of payment. Tenant, with its counsel and at its sole cost and expense, shall contest, resist and defend any such claim, action or proceeding asserted or instituted against the Landlord Indemnified Parties. For purposes of this Article XXI, any acts or omissions of Tenant or any Subtenant or any Subsidiary, as applicable, or by employees, agents, assignees, contractors, subcontractors or others acting for or on behalf of Tenant or any Subtenant or any Subsidiary, as applicable (whether or not they are negligent, intentional, willful or unlawful), shall be strictly attributable to Tenant.

(ii) Notwithstanding the existence of any insurance carried by or for the benefit of Landlord or Tenant, and without regard to the policy limits of any such insurance, Landlord shall protect, indemnify, save harmless and defend Tenant and its principals, partners, officers, members, directors, shareholders, employees, managers, agents and servants (collectively, the "Tenant Indemnified Parties"; each individually, a "Tenant Indemnified Party") from and against all liabilities, obligations, claims, damages, penalties, causes of action, costs and expenses, including reasonable documented attorneys', consultants' and experts' fees and expenses, imposed upon or incurred by or asserted against the Tenant Indemnified Parties (excluding any indirect, special, punitive or consequential damages as provided in Section 41.3) by reason of (A) Landlord's gross negligence or willful misconduct hereunder, other than to the extent resulting from Tenant's gross negligence or willful misconduct or default hereunder, and (B) the violation by Landlord of any Legal Requirement imposed against Landlord (including any Gaming Regulations, but excluding any Legal Requirement which Tenant is required to satisfy pursuant to the terms hereof or otherwise). Any amounts which become payable by Landlord under this Section 21.1(ii) shall be paid within ten (10) days after liability therefor is determined by a final non appealable judgment or settlement or other agreement of the Parties, and if not timely paid shall bear interest at the Overdue Rate from the date of such determination to the date of payment. Landlord, with its counsel and at its sole cost and expense, shall contest, resist and defend any such claim, action or proceeding asserted or instituted against the Tenant Indemnified Parties. For purposes of this Article XXI, any acts or omissions of Landlord, or by employees, agents, contractors, subcontractors or others acting for or on behalf of Landlord (whether or not they are negligent, intentional, willful or unlawful), shall be strictly attributable to Landlord.

21.2 Encroachments, Restrictions, Mineral Leases, etc. If any of the Leased Improvements shall encroach upon any property, street or right-of-way, or shall violate any restrictive covenant or other similar agreement affecting the Leased Property, or any part thereof, or shall impair the rights of others under any easement or right-of-way to which the Leased Property is subject, or the use of the Leased Property or any portion thereof is impaired, limited or interfered with by reason of the exercise of the right of surface entry or any other provision of a lease or reservation of any oil, gas, water or other minerals, then, promptly upon the request of Landlord or any Person affected by any such encroachment, violation or impairment (collectively, a "Title Violation"), Tenant, subject to its right to contest the existence of any such encroachment, violation or impairment to the extent provided in this Lease, and without limitation of any of Tenant's obligations otherwise set forth in this Lease (to the extent applicable), shall (i) in the case of any third party claims (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, those made by Affiliates of Landlord) based on or resulting from such Title Violation, protect, indemnify, save harmless and defend the Landlord Indemnified Parties from and against, with respect to matters first arising from and after the Commencement Date, one hundred percent (100%) of, and with respect to matters existing as of the Commencement Date, fifty percent (50%) of, any and all losses, liabilities, obligations, claims, damages, penalties, causes of action, costs and expenses (including reasonable documented attorneys', consultants' and experts' fees and expenses) based on or arising by reason of any such third party claim based on or resulting from such Title Violation; provided, however, that Tenant shall be required to so protect, indemnify, save harmless and defend the Landlord Indemnified Parties only to the extent that the proceeds from Landlord's title insurance policies are not sufficient to cover such losses, liabilities, obligations, claims, damages, penalties, causes of action, costs and expenses (it being understood that if Tenant pays any such amounts that are contemplated hereunder to be covered by Landlord's title insurance policies, then Tenant shall be subrogated to all or fifty percent (50%) of (as applicable) the rights of Landlord against its title insurance carriers and shall be entitled to, with respect to matters first arising from and after the Commencement Date, one hundred percent (100%) of, and with respect to matters existing as of the Commencement Date, fifty percent (50%) of, the proceeds (net of Landlord's out-of-pocket costs incurred in obtaining such proceeds) from such title insurance policy related to such Title Violation; except, however, Tenant shall not be entitled to receive proceeds from any such title insurance policies in excess of amounts actually paid by Tenant in connection therewith) and (ii) to the extent that no third party makes a claim with respect to such Title Violation, Landlord shall not require Tenant to cure any of the foregoing matters unless it would have a material adverse effect on the Leased Property following expiration or termination of this Lease, and in the event Tenant so cures any such matters, (A) Tenant shall bear with respect to matters first arising from and after the Commencement Date, one hundred percent (100%) of, and with respect to matters existing as of the Commencement Date, fifty percent (50%) of, the cost of such cure (after giving effect to such title insurance proceeds), and (B) Tenant shall be subrogated to all or fifty percent (50%) of (as applicable) the rights of Landlord against its title insurance carriers and shall be entitled to, with respect to matters first arising from and after the Commencement Date, one hundred percent (100%) of, and with respect to matters existing as of the Commencement Date, fifty percent (50%) of, the proceeds (net of Landlord's out-of-pocket costs incurred in obtaining such proceeds) from such title insurance policy related to such Title Violation; except, however, Tenant shall not be entitled to receive proceeds from any such title insurance policies in excess of amounts actually paid by Tenant in connection therewith. In the event of an adverse final determination with respect to any such encroachment, violation or impairment, (a) either of Tenant or Landlord shall obtain valid and effective waivers or settlements of all claims, liabilities and damages resulting from each such encroachment, violation or impairment, or (b) Tenant shall make such changes in the Leased Improvements, and take such other actions, in each case reasonably acceptable to Landlord, as Tenant in the good faith exercise of its judgment deems reasonably practicable, to remove such encroachment or to end such violation or impairment, including, if necessary, the alteration of any of the Leased Improvements, and in any event take all such actions as may be necessary in order to be able to continue the operation of the applicable portion of the Leased Property for the Primary Intended Use substantially in the manner and to the extent the applicable portion of the Leased Property was operated prior to the assertion of such encroachment, violation or impairment; provided that, (i) unless required under an adverse final determination of a claim brought by a third party other than Landlord or any Affiliate of Landlord, Tenant shall not be required to obtain any such waivers or settlements, make any such changes or take any such other actions unless such encroachment, violation or impairment otherwise would have a material adverse effect on the Leased Property following expiration or termination of this Lease, and (ii) Tenant shall bear with respect to matters first arising from and after the Commencement Date, one hundred percent (100%) of, and with respect to matters existing as of the Commencement Date, fifty percent (50%) of, the cost of obtaining such waivers or settlements, making any such changes or taking any such other actions. Tenant's obligations under this Section 21.2 shall be in addition to and shall in no way discharge or diminish any obligation of any insurer under any policy of title or other insurance and, to the extent of any recovery under any title insurance policy, Tenant shall be entitled to, with respect to matters first arising from and after the Commencement Date, one hundred percent (100%) of, and with respect to matters existing as of the Commencement Date, fifty percent (50%) of any sums recovered by Landlord under any such policy of title or other insurance (net of Landlord's out-of-pocket costs incurred in seeking such recovery) up to the maximum amount paid by Tenant in accordance with this Section 21.2 and Landlord, upon request by Tenant, shall pay over to Tenant the applicable portion of such sum paid to Landlord in recovery on such claim. Landlord agrees to use reasonable efforts to seek recovery under any policy of title or other insurance under which Landlord is an insured party for all losses, liabilities, obligations, claims, damages, penalties, causes of action, costs and expenses (including reasonable documented attorneys', consultants' and experts' fees and expenses) based on or arising by reason of any such encroachment, violation or impairment as set forth in this Section 21.2; provided, however, that in no event shall Landlord be obligated to institute any litigation, arbitration or other legal proceedings in connection therewith unless Landlord is reasonably satisfied that Tenant has the financial resources needed to fund all or fifty percent (50%) (as applicable) of the expenses of such litigation and Tenant and Landlord have agreed upon the terms and conditions on which such funding will be made available by Tenant, including, but not limited to, the mutual approval of a litigation budget.

ARTICLE XXII

TRANSFERS BY TENANT

22.1 Subletting and Assignment. Other than as expressly provided herein (including in respect of Permitted Leasehold Mortgages under Article XVII, and the permitted Subleases and assignments described in this Article XXII), Tenant shall not, without Landlord's prior written consent (which, except as specifically set forth herein, may be withheld in Landlord's sole and absolute discretion), (x) voluntarily, by operation of law or otherwise assign (which term includes any transfer, sale, encumbering, pledge or other transfer or hypothecation), in whole or in part, this Lease or Tenant's Leasehold Estate, (y) let or sublet (or sub-sublet, as applicable) all or any part of the Facility, or (z) engage the services of any Person (other than a wholly owned Subsidiary of ERI) for the management of the Facility, nor shall Tenant cause, suffer or permit any of the foregoing to occur. Tenant acknowledges that Landlord is relying upon the expertise of Tenant in the operation of the Facility hereunder and that Landlord entered into this Lease with the expectation that Tenant would remain in and operate the Facility during the entire Term. Any Change of Control (including any Change of Control of Guarantor) (or, subject to Section 22.2 below, any transfer of direct or indirect interests in Tenant that results in a Change of Control, including any Change of Control of Guarantor) shall constitute an assignment of Tenant's interest in this Lease within the meaning of this Article XXII and the provisions requiring consent contained herein shall apply thereto. Notwithstanding anything set forth herein, except as expressly provided in Section 22.2(i) or Section 14 of the Guaranty, no assignment or direct or indirect transfer (nor any Change of Control) of any nature (whether or not permitted hereunder) shall result in the termination, release, reduction or limitation of any of Guarantor's obligations or liabilities under the Guaranty, it being understood that, except as expressly provided in Section 14 of the Guaranty, all of Guarantor's obligations and liabilities in respect of the Guaranty shall continue unabated and in full force and effect in accordance with the terms of the Guaranty, notwithstanding any such transfer, and shall not terminate or be released or reduced in any respect.

22.2 Permitted Assignments and Transfers. Subject to compliance with the provisions of Section 22.4, as applicable, and Article XL, Tenant, without the consent of Landlord, may:

(i) (a) subject to and in accordance with Section 17.1, assign this Lease (and/or permit the assignment of direct or indirect interests in Tenant), in whole, but not in part, to a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee for collateral purposes pursuant to a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage, (b) assign this Lease (and/or permit the assignment of direct or indirect interests in Tenant) to such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, its Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee Designee or any other purchaser following any foreclosure or transaction in lieu of foreclosure of the Permitted Leasehold Mortgage, and (c) assign this Lease (and/or direct or indirect interests in Tenant) to any subsequent purchaser thereafter (provided such subsequent purchaser is not ERI, any Affiliate of ERI or any other Prohibited Leasehold

(iii) transfer direct or indirect interests in Tenant or its direct or indirect parent(s) on a nationally-recognized exchange; provided, however, that, in the event of a Change of Control of ERI, then the qualifications, quality and experience of the management of Tenant, and the quality of the management and operation of the Facility (taken as a whole with the Regional Facilities) must in each case be generally consistent with or superior to that which existed prior to such Change of Control (it being agreed that Tenant shall give written notice to Landlord (x) no less than thirty (30) days' prior to any transaction or series of related transactions which would result in a Change of Control of ERI and Tenant shall furnish Landlord with such information and materials relating to the proposed transaction as Landlord may reasonably request in connection with making its determination under this clause (iii) (to the extent in Tenant's possession or reasonable control, and subject to customary and reasonable confidentiality restrictions in connection therewith), and if Landlord determines that the quality of the management and operation of the Leased Property will not meet such requirement, then such determination shall be resolved pursuant to Section 34.2 (except, however, for this purpose, the fifteen (15) day good faith negotiating period contemplated by Section 34.2 shall not apply), and (y) at the time of execution of any definitive agreement with respect to such Change of Control); control, subject to customary and reasonable confidentiality restrictions in connection therewith), and if Landlord determines that the quality of the management and operation of the Facility will not meet such requirement, then such determination shall be resolved pursuant to Section 34.2 (except, however, for this purpose, the fifteen (15) day good faith negotiating period contemplated by Section 34.2 shall not apply) and, for the avoidance of doubt, (1) in the case of a Change of Control of ERI, ERI shall remain Guarantor, and (2) in all events, all of Guarantor's obligations and liabilities in respect of the Guaranty shall continue unabated and in full force and effect in accordance with the terms thereof and shall not terminate or be released or reduced in any respect, except solely as and to the extent provided in Section 14 of the Guaranty, and (y) give notice to Landlord of the applicable transaction or series of transactions at the time of execution of any definitive agreement with respect to such Change of Control);

(A) the Board of Directors of Guarantor shall have determined that the qualifications, quality and experience of the management of Guarantor and the quality of the management and operation of the Facility (taken as a whole with the Regional Facilities) will, in each case, be generally consistent with or superior to that which existed prior to the applicable transaction(s) giving rise to such transfer (it being agreed that Guarantor shall give notice to Landlord of such proposed transfer in accordance with clause (C) below, and if Landlord determines that requirements in this clause (A) will not be satisfied, then such determination shall be resolved pursuant to Section 34.2 hereof; provided that, for purposes of this clause (A), the fifteen (15) day good faith negotiating period contemplated by Section 34.2 hereof shall not apply);

(B) the Board of Directors of Guarantor shall have determined that, following the occurrence of such transfer, the successor Guarantor shall be sufficiently creditworthy, and shall have sufficient wherewithal and ability, so as to be able to assume and satisfy all obligations of Guarantor in respect of the Guaranty;

(vii) transfer and sell the entire Leasehold Estate with respect to the Facility (inclusive of Tenant's rights in any related Tenant Material Capital Improvements) (any transfer in compliance with this Section 22.2(vii), an "L1 Transfer"); provided, however, that immediately upon giving effect to any L1 Transfer, the following conditions shall be satisfied, (1) subject to the last paragraph of this Section 22.2, (x) an L1 Qualified Transferee shall be the L1 Successor Tenant with respect to the Facility and (y) if such L1 Successor Tenant has a Parent Company, then the Parent Company of such L1 Successor Tenant shall have provided a Replacement Guaranty (L1 Transfer) with respect to the applicable L1/L2 Severance Lease; (2) such L1 Successor Tenant and the Landlord shall have entered into a L1/L2 Severance Lease in accordance with Section 22.9; (3) Tenant shall (i) have provided written notice to Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior to the closing of the applicable L1 Transfer, specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such L1 Transfer, which notice shall be accompanied by proposed forms of the L1/L2 Severance Lease and Replacement Guaranty (L1 Transfer) (if applicable), (ii) have furnished Landlord with the applicable information listed on Exhibit K hereto with respect to such L1 Transfer, (iii) have furnished Landlord with such additional information as Landlord may reasonably request in order to determine that the requirements of this Section 22.2(vii) are satisfied, and (iv) provide Landlord with a copy of all documents required under this Section 22.2(vii) as executed or delivered in connection with such closing promptly following such closing; (4) the transferee and any of its applicable Affiliates shall have obtained all necessary Gaming Licenses as required under applicable Legal Requirements (including Gaming Regulations) and all other licenses, approvals, and permits required for such transferee to be the tenant under the applicable L1/L2 Severance Lease; (5) such L1 Successor Tenant shall not be an Affiliate of Tenant; and (6) the applicable 2018 Facility EBITDAR of Tenant for the Facility, when taken together with the applicable 2018 Facility EBITDAR of Regional Tenant for each Regional Facility transferred by Regional Tenant in accordance with Section 22.2(vii) of the Regional Lease, shall not exceed the L1 Transfer Cap Amount; and/or

(viii) transfer and sell the entire Leasehold Estate with respect to the Facility (inclusive of Tenant's rights in any related Tenant Material Capital Improvements) (any transfer in compliance with this Section 22.2(viii), an "L2 Transfer"); provided, however, that immediately upon giving effect to any L2 Transfer, the following conditions shall be satisfied, (1) subject to the last paragraph of Section 22.2, (x) an L2 Qualified Transferee shall be the L2 Successor Tenant and (y) if such L2 Successor Tenant has a Parent Company, then the Parent Company of such L2 Successor Tenant shall have provided a Replacement Guaranty (L2 Transfer) or other credit support reasonably acceptable to Landlord with respect to the applicable L1/L2 Severance Lease; (2) the applicable L2 Successor Tenant and the Landlord shall have entered into a L1/L2 Severance Lease in accordance with Section 22.9; (3) Tenant shall (i) have provided written notice to Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior to the closing of the applicable L2 Transfer, specifying in reasonable detail the nature of such L2 Transfer, which notice shall be accompanied by proposed forms of the L1/L2 Severance Lease, (ii) have furnished Landlord with the applicable information listed on Exhibit K hereto with respect to such L2 Transfer, (iii) have furnished Landlord with such additional information as Landlord may reasonably request in order to determine that the requirements of this Section 22.2(viii) are satisfied, and (iv) provide Landlord with a copy of all documents required under this Section 22.2(viii) as executed or delivered in connection with such closing promptly following such closing; (4) the transferee and any of its applicable Affiliates shall have obtained all necessary Gaming Licenses as required under applicable Legal Requirements (including Gaming Regulations) and all other licenses, approvals, and permits required for such transferee to be the tenant under the applicable L1/L2 Severance Lease; (5) such L2 Successor Tenant shall not be an Affiliate of Tenant; and (6) the applicable 2018 Facility EBITDAR of Tenant for the Facility, when taken together with the applicable 2018 Facility EBITDAR of Regional Tenant for each Regional Facility transferred by Regional Tenant in accordance with Section 22.2(viii) of the Regional Lease, shall not exceed the L2 Transfer Cap Amount.

In connection with any transaction permitted pursuant to Section 22.2(i), the applicable Foreclosure Successor Tenant and Landlord shall make such amendments and other modifications to this Lease as are reasonably requested by either such party as needed to give effect to such transaction and such technical amendments as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate in connection with such transaction including technical changes in the provisions of this Lease regarding delivery of Financial Statements from Tenant, CEOC and ERI to reflect the changed circumstances of Tenant, any interest holders in Tenant or Guarantor (provided, that, in all events, any such amendments or modifications shall not increase any Party's monetary obligations under this Lease by more than a de minimis extent or any Party's non-monetary obligations under this Lease in any material respect or diminish any Party's rights under this Lease in any material respect; provided, further, it is understood that delivery by any applicable Qualified Replacement Guarantor or parent of a replacement Tenant of Financial Statements and other reporting consistent with the requirements of Article XXIII hereof shall not be deemed to increase Tenant's obligations or decrease Tenant's rights under this Lease). After giving effect to any such transaction, unless the context otherwise requires, references to Tenant shall be deemed to refer to the Foreclosure Successor Tenant permitted under this Section 22.2.

Notwithstanding anything otherwise contained in this Lease, Landlord and Tenant acknowledge that Landlord entered into this Lease with the expectation that, subject to Section 7.2(g), the Leased Property would be operated under the Brands and other Property Specific IP. Accordingly, absent Landlord's express written consent, no assignment or other transfer shall be permitted under Section 22.2(i) (unless, upon giving effect to such assignment or other transfer, the Leased Property continues to be operated under the Brands (subject to Section 7.2(g)) and other Property Specific IP).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any transfer of Tenant's interest in this Lease or the Leasehold Estate shall be subject to compliance with all Gaming Regulations, including receipt of all applicable Gaming Licenses by Tenant and/or the Qualified Transferee, the L1 Qualified Transferee or the L2 Qualified Transferee, as applicable (and their applicable Affiliates), and shall not result in the loss or violation of any Gaming License for the Leased Property.

22.3 Permitted Sublease Agreements. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 22.1, but subject to compliance with the provisions of this Section 22.3 and of Section 22.4 and Article XL, provided that no Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, Tenant may enter into any Sublease (including sub-subleases, license agreements and other occupancy arrangements) without the consent of Landlord, provided, that, (i) Tenant is not released from any of its obligations under this Lease, (ii) such Sublease is made for bona fide business purposes consistent with the Primary Intended Use, and is not designed with the intent to avoid payment of Variable Rent or otherwise avoid any of the requirements or provisions of this Lease, (iii) such transaction is not designed with the intent to frustrate Landlord's ability to enter into a new Lease of the Leased Property with a third party following the Expiration Date, (iv) such transaction shall not result in a violation of any Legal Requirements (including Gaming Regulations) relating to the operation of the Facility, including any Gaming Facilities, (v) any Sublease of all or substantially all of the Leased Property with respect to the Facility shall be subject to the consent of Landlord and the applicable Fee Mortgagee unless, subject to the further requirements set forth in the final paragraph of this Section 22.3, the 2018 Facility EBITDAR of Tenant generated by the Facility when taken together with the "2018 Facility EBITDAR" (as defined in the Regional Lease) of Regional Tenant for all Regional Facilities then subleased by Regional Tenant pursuant to Section 22.3(v) of the Regional Lease, in the aggregate, does not exceed the Permitted Facility Sublease Cap Amount (a Sublease permitted under this Section 22.3(v) without Landlord's consent is referred to as a "Permitted Facility Sublease"), and (vi) the Subtenant and any of its applicable Affiliates shall have obtained all necessary Gaming Licenses as required under applicable Legal Requirements (including Gaming Regulations) in connection with such Sublease; provided, further, that, notwithstanding anything otherwise set forth herein, the following are expressly permitted without such consent: (A) the Specified Subleases and any renewals or extensions in accordance with their terms, respectively, or non-material modifications thereto and (B) any Subleases to Affiliates of Tenant that are necessary or appropriate for the operation of the Facility, including any Gaming Facilities, in connection with licensing requirements (e.g., gaming, liquor, etc.) (provided the same are expressly subject and subordinate to this Lease); provided, further, however, that, notwithstanding anything otherwise set forth herein, the portion(s) of the Leased Property subject to any Subleases (other than the Specified Subleases, Subleases to Affiliates of ERI, a Permitted Facility Sublease and any Permitted Sportsbook Sublease) shall not be used for Gaming purposes or other core functions or spaces at the Facility (e.g., hotel room areas) (and any such Subleases to persons that are not Affiliates of ERI in respect of Leased Property used or to be used in whole or in part for Gaming purposes or other core functions or spaces (e.g., hotel room areas), other than Permitted Facility Subleases and Permitted Sportsbook Subleases, shall be subject to Landlord's prior written consent not to be unreasonably withheld). If reasonably requested by Tenant in respect of a Subtenant (including any sub-sublessee, as applicable) permitted hereunder that is neither a Subsidiary nor an Affiliate of Tenant or Guarantor, with respect to a Material Sublease, Landlord and any such Subtenant (or sub-sublessee, as applicable) shall enter into a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement with respect to such Material Sublease in a form reasonably satisfactory to Landlord, Tenant and the applicable Subtenant (or sub-sublessee, as applicable), which subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement shall, upon the request of Tenant, provide that, following a termination of the Lease, any lender or provider of financing to such Subtenant (or sub-sublessee, as applicable) that would be a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (disregarding for this purpose, however, the requirement that the liens created by a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage encumber the entirety of Tenant's Leasehold Estate, so long as the applicable subleasehold mortgage covers all of the applicable Subtenant's subleasehold estate (other than items that are not capable of being mortgaged and that, in the aggregate, are de minimis)) if such financing was incurred by Tenant shall be entitled to substantially similar rights and benefits (and be subject to substantially similar obligations) with respect to such Material Sublease as a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (disregarding for this purpose, however, the requirement that the liens created by a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage encumber the entirety of Tenant's Leasehold Estate, so long as the applicable subleasehold mortgage covers all of the applicable Subtenant's subleasehold estate (other than items that are not capable of being mortgaged and that, in the aggregate, are de minimis)) is entitled (and subject) with respect to this Lease under Article XVII (and if a Fee Mortgage is then in effect, Landlord shall use reasonable efforts to seek to cause the Fee Mortgagee to enter into a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement substantially in the form customarily entered into by such Fee Mortgagee at the time of request with similar subtenants (subject to adjustments and modifications arising out of the specific nature and terms of this Lease and/or the applicable Sublease, including the provisions described above relating to any lender or provider of financing to such Subtenant (or sub-sublessee, as applicable))). After a Tenant Event of Default has occurred and while it is continuing, Landlord may collect rents from any Subtenant and apply the net amount collected to the Rent, but no such collection shall be deemed (A) a waiver by Landlord of any of the provisions of this Lease, (B) the acceptance by Landlord of such Subtenant as a tenant or (C) a release of Tenant from the future performance of its obligations hereunder. Notwithstanding anything otherwise set forth herein, Landlord shall have no obligation to enter into a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement (or seek to cause a Fee Mortgagee to enter into a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement) with any Subtenant with respect to a Sublease (1) the term of which extends beyond the then Stated Expiration Date of this Lease, unless the applicable Sublease is on commercially reasonable terms at the time in question taking into consideration, among other things, the identity of the Subtenant, the extent of the Subtenant's investment into the subleased space, the term of such Sublease and Landlord's interest in such space (including the resulting impact on Landlord's ability to lease the Leased Property on commercially reasonable terms after the Term of this Lease), (2) that constitutes a management agreement or similar arrangement to operate but not occupy as a tenant any particular space (it being understood that a Permitted Facility Sublease shall not constitute such a management arrangement) or (3) that constitutes a Permitted Sportsbook Sublease. Tenant shall furnish Landlord with a copy of each Material Sublease that Tenant enters into promptly following the making thereof (irrespective of whether Landlord's prior approval was required therefor). In addition, promptly following Landlord's request therefor, Tenant shall furnish to Landlord (to the extent in Tenant's possession or under Tenant's reasonable control) copies of all other Subleases with respect to the Leased Property specified by Landlord. Without limitation of the foregoing, Tenant acknowledges it has furnished to Landlord a subordination agreement dated as of the Commencement Date that is binding on all Subtenants that are Subsidiaries or Affiliates of Tenant or Guarantor, pursuant to which subordination agreement, among other things, all such Subtenants have subordinated their respective Subleases to this Lease and all of the provisions, terms and conditions hereof. Further, Tenant hereby represents and warrants to Landlord that as of the Commencement Date, there exists no Sublease other than the Specified Subleases.

Tenant shall give Landlord at least six (6) Business Days prior written notice before entering into, amending or supplementing any Permitted Sportsbook Sublease, which notice shall be accompanied by the proposed form of such Permitted Sportsbook Sublease or amendment or supplement to any Permitted Sportsbook Sublease, as applicable. In addition, Tenant shall furnish Landlord reasonably promptly with such other materials as Landlord may reasonably request in order to determine that the requirements of this Lease with respect to such Permitted Sportsbook Sublease are satisfied. Reasonably promptly following entry into any such Permitted Sportsbook Sublease, Tenant shall provide Landlord with a copy of the executed Permitted Sportsbook Sublease. Additionally, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with copies of any amendments of, or supplements to, any Permitted Sportsbook Sublease with reasonable promptness after the execution thereof (it being understood that no such amendment or supplement shall be permitted unless, after giving effect thereto, the applicable Permitted Sportsbook Sublease continues to comply with all applicable provisions, terms and conditions of this Lease).

Tenant shall give Landlord at least thirty (30) days prior written notice before entering into a Permitted Facility Sublease, which notice shall be accompanied by the proposed form of such Permitted Facility Sublease. In addition, Tenant shall furnish Landlord reasonably promptly with (x) the applicable information listed on Exhibit K hereto with respect to such Permitted Facility Sublease transaction and (y) such other materials as Landlord may reasonably request in order to determine that the requirements of this Section 22.3 with respect to such Permitted Facility Sublease are satisfied. Reasonably promptly following entry into any such Permitted Facility Sublease, Tenant shall provide Landlord with a copy of the executed Sublease. Additionally, to the extent not publicly filed, Tenant shall furnish Landlord with copies of any amendments of, or supplements to, any Permitted Facility Sublease with reasonable promptness after the execution thereof. Neither the Sublessee under any Permitted Facility Sublease nor any successor or assignee or sublessee of such Sublessee shall be an Affiliate of Tenant, no Permitted Facility Sublease shall constitute a management agreement or similar arrangement to operate but not occupy as a tenant any particular space, and any Permitted Facility Sublease shall demise all of the Leased Property pertaining to the Facility (other than de minimis portions thereof that are not capable of being subleased).

22.4 Required Subletting and Assignment Provisions. Any Sublease permitted hereunder and entered into after the Commencement Date must provide that:

(i) the use of the Leased Property (or portion thereof) thereunder shall not conflict with any Legal Requirement or any other provision of this Lease;

(ii) in the event of cancellation or termination of this Lease for any reason whatsoever or of the surrender of this Lease (whether voluntary, involuntary or by operation of law) prior to the expiration date of such Sublease, including extensions and renewals granted thereunder without replacement of this Lease by a New Lease pursuant to Section 17.1(f), then, subject to Article XXXVI and without affecting the provisions of any subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement entered into between Landlord and such Subtenant, (a) upon the request of Landlord (in Landlord's discretion), the Subtenant shall make full and complete attornment to Landlord for the balance of the term of the Sublease, which attornment shall be evidenced by an agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Landlord and which the Subtenant shall execute and deliver within five (5) days after request by Landlord and the Subtenant shall waive the provisions of any law now or hereafter in effect which may give the Subtenant any right of election to terminate the Sublease or to surrender possession in the event any proceeding is brought by Landlord to terminate this Lease and (b) to the extent such Subtenant (and each subsequent subtenant separately permitted hereunder) is required to attorn to Landlord pursuant to subclause (a) above, the aforementioned attornment agreement shall recognize the right of the subtenant (and such subsequent subtenant) under the applicable Sublease and contain commercially reasonable, customary non-disturbance provisions for the benefit of such subtenant, so long as such Subtenant is not in default thereunder;

(iii) in the event the Subtenant receives a written notice from Landlord stating that this Lease has been cancelled, surrendered or terminated and not replaced by a New Lease pursuant to Section 17.1(f) or by a replacement lease pursuant to Article XXXVI, then the Subtenant shall thereafter be obligated to pay all rentals accruing under said Sublease directly to Landlord (or as Landlord shall so direct); all rentals received from the Subtenant by Landlord shall be credited against the amounts owing by Tenant under this Lease;

(iv) such Sublease (other than the Specified Subleases) shall be subject and subordinate to all of the terms and conditions of this Lease (subject to the terms of any applicable subordination, non-disturbance agreement made pursuant to Section 22.3);

(v) no Subtenant shall be permitted to further sublet all or any part of the Leased Property or assign its Sublease except insofar as the same would be permitted if it were a Sublease by Tenant under this Lease (it being understood that any Subtenant under Section 22.3 may pledge and mortgage its subleasehold estate (or allow the pledge of its equity interests) to its lenders or noteholders); and

(vi) the Subtenant thereunder will, upon request, furnish to Landlord and each Fee Mortgagee an estoppel certificate of the same type and kind as is required of Tenant pursuant to Section 23.1(a) hereof (as if such Sublease was this Lease).

Any assignment of the Leased Property permitted hereunder and entered into after the Commencement Date (it being understood that a Sublease shall not constitute an assignment) other than any L1 Transfer or L2 Transfer must provide that all of Tenant's rights in, to and under Property Specific IP and Property Specific Guest Data and, in the case of any assignment where the Leased Property continues to be operated by any other Affiliate of ERI, System-wide IP shall also be assigned to the applicable assignee, in each case, to the fullest extent applicable.

Any assignment, transfer or Sublease under this Article XXII shall be subject to all applicable Legal Requirements, including any Gaming Regulations, and no such assignment, transfer or Sublease shall be effective until any applicable approvals with respect to Gaming Regulations, if applicable, are obtained.

22.5 Costs. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Landlord's reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses actually incurred in conjunction with the processing and documentation of any assignment, subletting or management arrangement (including in connection with any request for a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement), including reasonable documented attorneys', architects', engineers' or other consultants' fees whether or not such Sublease, assignment or management agreement is actually consummated.

22.6 No Release of Tenant's Obligations; Exception. No assignment, subletting or management agreement shall relieve Tenant of its obligation to pay the Rent and to perform all of the other obligations to be performed by Tenant hereunder. The liability of Tenant and any immediate and remote successor in interest of Tenant (by assignment or otherwise), and the due performance of the obligations of this Lease on Tenant's part to be performed or observed, shall not in any way be discharged, released or impaired by any (i) stipulation which extends the time within which an obligation under this Lease is to be performed, (ii) waiver of the performance of an obligation required under this Lease that is not entered into by Landlord in a writing executed by Landlord and expressly stated to be for the benefit of Tenant or such successor, or (iii) failure to enforce any of the obligations set forth in this Lease provided that Tenant shall not be responsible for any additional obligations or liability arising as the result of any modification or amendment of this Lease by Landlord and any assignee of Tenant that is not an Affiliate of Tenant.

22.7 Bookings. Tenant may enter into any Bookings that do not cover periods after the expiration of the term of this Lease without the consent of Landlord. Tenant may enter into any Bookings that cover periods after the expiration of the term of this Lease without the consent of Landlord, provided, that, (i) such transaction is in each case made for bona fide business purposes in the normal course of the Primary Intended Use; (ii) such transaction shall not result in a violation of any Legal Requirements (including Gaming Regulations) relating to the operation of the Facility, including any Gaming Facilities, (iii) such Bookings are on commercially reasonable terms at the time entered into; and (iv) such transaction is not designed with the intent to frustrate Landlord's ability to enter into a new lease of the Leased Property or any portion thereof with a third party following the Expiration Date; provided, further, that, notwithstanding anything otherwise set forth herein, any such Bookings in effect as of the Commencement Date are expressly permitted without such consent. Landlord hereby agrees that in the event of a termination or expiration of this Lease, Landlord hereby recognizes and shall keep in effect such Booking on the terms agreed to by Tenant with such Person and shall not disturb such Person's rights to occupy such portion of the Leased Property in accordance with the terms of such Booking.

22.8 Merger of CEOC. The Parties acknowledge that, immediately following the execution of this Lease on the Commencement Date, Caesars Entertainment Operating Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation, merged into CEOC, LLC. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Landlord consents to such merger.

22.9 Permitted Transferee Lease. In the event Tenant desires to effectuate an L1 Transfer or an L2 Transfer (individually or collectively, an "L1/L2 Transfer"), Tenant shall cause the applicable L1 Successor Tenant or L2 Successor Tenant, as applicable, to enter into an L1/L2 Severance Lease with the Landlord (and cause to be delivered a Replacement Guaranty (L1 Transfer) or Replacement Guaranty (L2 Transfer), if applicable), in accordance with the following:

(a) At the closing of the applicable L1/L2 Transfer, the Landlord shall enter into such L1/L2 Severance Lease, as applicable, with the applicable L1 Successor Tenant or L2

Successor Tenant within the later of (x) thirty (30) days of being presented with the applicable L1/L2 Severance Lease and (y) five (5) days after Landlord and Tenant shall have agreed on the applicable terms and conditions of the applicable L1/L2 Severance Lease as provided in the definition thereof and the provisions of this Section 22.9. (The date of such closing and entry into such Permitted Transferee Lease in accordance with this Section 22.9, the "L1/L2 Transfer Date".)

(b) The term of such L1/L2 Severance Lease shall be the applicable L1/L2 Severance Lease Term determined in accordance with the definition thereof. 23.2 SEC Filings; Offering Information.

(a) Tenant specifically agrees that Landlord, PropCo 1, PropCo or Landlord REIT may file with the SEC or incorporate by reference the Financial Statements referred to in Section 23.1(b)(ii) and (iii) (and Financial Statements referred to in Section 23.1(b)(ii) and (iii) for any prior annual or quarterly periods as required by any Legal Requirements) in Landlord's, PropCo 1's PropCo's or Landlord REIT's filings made under the Securities Act or the Exchange Act to the extent it is required to do so pursuant to Legal Requirements. Landlord agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to provide a copy of the portion of any public disclosure containing the Financial Statements, or any cross-reference thereto or incorporation by reference thereof (other than cross-references to or incorporation by reference of Financial Statements that were previously publicly filed), or any other financial information or other information concerning the operation of the Leased Property received by Landlord under this Lease, at least two (2) Business Days in advance of any such public disclosure. Without vitiating any other provision of this Lease, the preceding sentence is not intended to restrict Landlord from disclosing such information to any Fee Mortgagee pursuant to the express terms of the Fee Mortgage Documents or in connection with other ordinary course reporting under the Fee Mortgage Documents.

(b) Tenant understands that, from time to time, Landlord, PropCo 1, PropCo or Landlord REIT may conduct one or more financings, which financings may involve the participation of placement agents, underwriters, initial purchasers or other persons deemed underwriters under applicable securities law. In connection with any such financings, Tenant shall, upon the request of Landlord, use commercially reasonable efforts to furnish to Landlord, to the extent reasonably requested or required in connection with any such financings, the information referred to in Section 23.1(b), as applicable (subject to Section 23.1(c) as and to the extent applicable) (it being understood that the disclosure of any such information to any such Persons by Landlord shall be subject to Section 41.22 hereof as if such Persons were Representatives hereunder) and in each case including for any prior annual or quarterly periods as required by any Legal Requirements, as promptly as reasonably practicable after the request therefor (taking into account, among other things, the timing of any such request and any Legal Requirements applicable to Tenant, CEOC or ERI at such time). In addition, Tenant shall, upon the request of Landlord, use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Landlord and its Representatives with such management representation letters, comfort letters and consents of applicable certified independent auditors to the inclusion of their reports in applicable financing disclosure documents as may be reasonably requested or required in connection with the sale or registration of securities by Landlord, PropCo 1, PropCo or Landlord REIT. Landlord shall reimburse Tenant, CEOC and ERI, their respective Subsidiaries and their respective Representatives as promptly as reasonably practicable after the request therefor, for any reasonable and actual, documented expenses incurred in connection with any cooperation provided pursuant to this Section 23.2(b) (and, unless any non-compliance with this Lease to more than a de minimis extent is revealed, any exercise by Landlord of audit rights pursuant to Section 23.1(c)) (including, without limitation, reasonable and documented fees and expenses of accountants and attorneys, but excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any such fees and expenses incurred in the preparation of the Financial Statements). In addition, Landlord shall indemnify and hold harmless Tenant, CEOC and ERI, their respective Subsidiaries and their respective Representatives from and against any and all liabilities, losses, damages, claims, costs, expenses, interest, awards, judgments and penalties suffered or incurred by them (collectively, "Losses") in connection with any cooperation provided pursuant to this Section 23.2(b), except to the extent (i) such Losses were suffered or incurred as a result of the bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct of any such indemnified person or (ii) such Losses were caused by any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Financial Statements delivered by Tenant to Landlord hereunder, or caused by any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact necessary to make the statements therein in the light of the circumstances under which they were made not misleading.

23.3 Landlord Obligations

(b) Landlord further understands and agrees that, from time to time, Tenant, CEOC, ERI or their respective Affiliates may conduct one or more financings, which financings may involve the participation of placement agents, underwriters, initial purchasers or other persons deemed underwriters under applicable securities law. In connection with any such financings, Landlord shall, upon the request of Tenant, use commercially reasonable efforts to furnish to Tenant, to the extent reasonably requested or required in connection with any such financings, the Financial Statements (and for any prior annual or quarterly periods as required by any Legal Requirements), other financial information and cooperation as promptly as reasonably practicable after the request therefor (taking into account, among other things, the timing of any such request and any Legal Requirements applicable to Landlord, PropCo 1, PropCo or Landlord REIT at such time) (it being understood that the disclosure of any such information to any such Persons by Tenant shall be subject to Section 41.22 hereof as if said Persons were Representatives of Tenant hereunder). In addition, Landlord shall, upon the request of Tenant, use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Tenant and its Representatives with such management representation letters, comfort letters and consents of applicable certified independent auditors to the inclusion of their reports in applicable financing disclosure documents as may be reasonably requested or required in connection with the sale or registration of securities by Tenant, CEOC, ERI or any of their respective Affiliates. Tenant shall reimburse Landlord, PropCo 1, PropCo, Landlord REIT, their respective Subsidiaries and their respective Representatives as promptly as reasonably practicable after the request therefor, for any reasonable and actual, documented expenses incurred in connection with any cooperation provided pursuant to this Section 23.3(b) (including, in each case, without limitation, reasonable and documented fees and expenses of accountants and attorneys and allocated costs of internal employees but excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, any such fees, expenses and allocated costs incurred in the preparation of the Financial Statements). In addition, Tenant shall indemnify and hold harmless Landlord, PropCo 1, PropCo, Landlord REIT, their respective Subsidiaries and their respective Representatives from and against any and all Losses in connection with any cooperation provided pursuant to this Section 23.3(b), except to the extent (i) such Losses were suffered or incurred as a result of the bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct of any such indemnified person or (ii) such Losses were caused by any untrue statement or alleged untrue statement of a material fact contained in any Financial Statements delivered by Landlord to Tenant hereunder, or caused by any omission or alleged omission to state therein a material fact necessary to make the statements therein in the light of the circumstances under which they were made not misleading.

(c) The Financial Statements provided pursuant to Section 23.3(b) shall be prepared in compliance with applicable federal securities laws, including Regulation S-X (and for any prior periods required thereunder), if and to the extent such compliance with federal securities laws, including Regulation S-X (and for any prior periods required thereunder), is required to enable Tenant, CEOC or ERI or their respective Affiliates to (x) file such Financial Statements with the SEC if and to the extent that Tenant, CEOC or ERI is required to file such Financial Statements with the SEC pursuant to Legal Requirements or (y) include such Financial Statements in an offering document if and to the extent that Tenant, CEOC or ERI or their respective affiliates is reasonably requested or required to include such Financial Statements in any offering document in connection with a financing contemplated by and to the extent required by Section 23.3(b).

To the extent permitted by law, each legal, equitable or contractual right, power and remedy of Landlord now or hereafter provided either in this Lease or by statute or otherwise shall be cumulative and concurrent and shall be in addition to every other right, power and remedy and the exercise or beginning of the exercise by Landlord of any one or more of such rights, powers and remedies shall not preclude the simultaneous or subsequent exercise by Landlord of any or all of such other rights, powers and remedies.

ARTICLE XXVII

No failure by Landlord to comply with the foregoing covenant shall give Tenant any right to cancel or terminate this Lease or abate, reduce or make a deduction from or offset against the Rent or any other sum payable under this Lease, or to fail to perform any other obligation of Tenant hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Tenant shall have the right, by separate and independent action to pursue any claim it may have against Landlord as a result of a breach by Landlord of the covenant of quiet enjoyment contained in this Article XXX.

31.1 Landlord's Financing.

(a) Without the consent of Tenant (but subject to the remainder of this Section 31.1), Landlord may from time to time, directly or indirectly, create or otherwise cause to exist any Fee Mortgage upon all of the Leased Property (other than de minimis portions thereof that are not capable of being assigned or transferred) (or upon interests in Landlord which are pledged pursuant to a mezzanine loan or similar financing arrangement). This Lease is and at all times shall be subordinate to any Existing Fee Mortgage and any other Fee Mortgage which may hereafter affect the Leased Property or any portion thereof or interest therein and in each case to all renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements, restatements and extensions thereof or any parts or portions thereof; provided, however, that the subordination of this Lease and Tenant's leasehold interest hereunder to any new Fee Mortgage hereafter made, shall be conditioned upon the execution and delivery to Tenant by the respective Fee Mortgagee of a commercially reasonable subordination, nondisturbance and attornment agreement, which will bind Tenant and such Fee Mortgagee and its successors and assigns as well as any Person who acquires any portion of the Leased Property in a foreclosure or similar proceeding or in a transfer in lieu of any such foreclosure or a successor owner of the Leased Property (each, a "Foreclosure Purchaser") and which shall provide, among other things, that so long as there is no outstanding and continuing Tenant Event of Default under this Lease (or, if there is a continuing Tenant Event of Default, subject to the rights granted to a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee as expressly set forth in this Lease), the holder of such Fee Mortgage, and any Foreclosure Purchaser shall not disturb Tenant's leasehold interest or possession of the Leased Property, subject to and in accordance with the terms hereof, and shall give effect to this Lease, including, but not limited to, the provisions of Article XVII which benefit any Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (as if such Fee Mortgagee or Foreclosure Purchaser were the landlord under this Lease (it being understood that if a Tenant Event of Default has occurred and is continuing at such time, such parties shall be subject to the terms and provisions hereof concerning the exercise of rights and remedies upon such Tenant Event of Default including the provisions of Articles XVI, XVII and XXVI)). In connection with the foregoing and at the request of Landlord, Tenant shall promptly execute a subordination, nondisturbance and attornment agreement that contains commercially reasonable provisions, terms and conditions, in all events complying with this Section 31.1 (it being understood that a subordination, non-disturbance and attornment agreement substantially in the form executed by Jazz Casino Company, L.L.C., Harrah's New Orleans LLC and the "Fee Mortgagee" (as defined in the Regional Lease) under the "Existing Fee Mortgage" (as defined in the Regional Lease) with respect to the "Leased Property (HNO)" (as defined in the Regional Lease) as of the Second Amendment Date (a copy of which is attached as Exhibit O hereto) shall be deemed to satisfy this Section).

(b) If, in connection with obtaining any Fee Mortgage or entering into any agreement relating thereto, Landlord shall request in writing (i) reasonable cooperation from Tenant or (ii) reasonable amendments or modifications to this Lease, in each case required to comply with any reasonable request made by Fee Mortgagee, Tenant shall reasonably cooperate with such request, so long as (I) no default in any material respect by Landlord beyond applicable cure periods is continuing, (II) all reasonable documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by Tenant in connection with such cooperation, including, but not limited to, its reasonable documented attorneys' fees, shall be paid by Landlord and (III) any requested action, including any amendments or modification of this Lease, shall not (a) increase Tenant's monetary obligations under this Lease by more than a de minimis extent, or increase Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease in any material respect or decrease Landlord's obligations in any material respect, (b) diminish Tenant's rights under this Lease in any material respect, (c) adversely impact the value of the Leased Property by more than a de minimis extent or otherwise have a more than de minimis adverse effect on the Leased Property, Tenant or Landlord, (d) result in this Lease not constituting a "true lease", or (e) result in a default under any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage. The foregoing is not intended to vitiate or supersede the provisions, terms and conditions of Section 31.1 hereof.

(c) To secure Landlord's obligations under any Fee Mortgage, including the Existing Fee Mortgage, Landlord shall have the right to collaterally assign to Fee Mortgagee, all rights title and interest of Landlord in and under this Lease.

31.2 Attornment. If either (a) Landlord's interest in the Leased Property or any portion thereof or interest therein is sold, conveyed or terminated upon the exercise of any remedy provided for in any Fee Mortgage Documents (or in lieu of such exercise) or (b) equity interests in Landlord are sold or conveyed upon the exercise of any remedy provided for in any Fee Mortgage Documents (or in lieu of such exercise), or otherwise by operation of law, then, at the request and option of the new owner or superior lessor, as the case may be, Tenant shall attorn to and recognize the new owner or superior lessor as Tenant's "landlord" under, and on the terms and conditions set forth in, this Lease.

31.3 Compliance with Fee Mortgage Documents.

(a) Tenant acknowledges that any Fee Mortgage Documents executed by Landlord or any Affiliate of Landlord may impose certain obligations on the "borrower" or other counterparty thereunder to comply with, or cause the operator and/or lessee of the Leased Property to comply with, certain reasonable covenants contained therein, including, without limitation, covenants relating to (i) the alteration, maintenance, repair and restoration of the Leased Property; (ii) maintenance and submission of financial records and accounts of the operation of the Leased Property and financial and other information regarding the operator and/or lessee of the Leased Property and the Leased Property itself; (iii) the procurement of insurance policies with respect to the Leased Property; (iv) removal of liens and encumbrances; (v) subleasing, management and related activities; and (vi) without limiting the foregoing, compliance with all applicable Legal Requirements (including Gaming Regulations) relating to the Leased Property and the operation of the business thereon or therein. From and after the date any Fee Mortgage encumbers the Leased Property (or any portion thereof or interest therein) and Landlord has provided Tenant with true and complete copies thereof and, if Landlord elects, of any applicable Fee Mortgage Documents (for informational purposes only, but not for Tenant's approval), accompanied by a written request for Tenant to comply with the Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements (hereinafter defined) (which request shall expressly reference this Section 31.3 and expressly identify the Fee Mortgage Documents and sections thereof containing the Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements), and continuing until the first to occur of (1) such Fee Mortgage Documents ceasing to remain in full force and effect by reason of satisfaction in full of the indebtedness thereunder or foreclosure or similar exercise of remedies or otherwise, (2) the Expiration Date, (3) such time as Tenant's compliance with the Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements would constitute or give rise to a breach or violation of (x) this Lease, not waived by Landlord, (y) Legal Requirements (including Gaming Regulations and Liquor Laws), or (z) any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage (not waived by the applicable Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee), provided, however, with respect to this clause (z), (I) Tenant shall not be relieved of its obligation to comply with (A) the terms of the Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements in effect as of the Commencement Date (whether embodied in the Existing Fee Mortgage or related Fee Mortgage Documents or in any future Fee Mortgage or related Fee Mortgage Documents containing the applicable corresponding terms), nor (B) unless the applicable terms of the Permitted Leasehold Mortgage were customary at the time entered into, any Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements (other than any Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements covered under the preceding clause (A)) in effect as of the time when the Permitted Leasehold Mortgage was obtained, and (II) such Permitted Leasehold Mortgage shall have been entered into by Tenant without any intent to vitiate or supersede the terms of any applicable Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements, and (4) Tenant receives written direction from Landlord, any Fee Mortgagee or any governmental authority requesting or instructing Tenant to cease complying with the Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements, (provided, prior to ceasing compliance with any Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements under the preceding clauses (3) and (4), Tenant shall first provide Landlord with prior written notice together with, (x) if acting pursuant to clause (3), reasonably detailed materials evidencing that such compliance constitutes such a breach, and (y) if acting pursuant to clause (4), a copy of the applicable communication(s) from such Fee Mortgagee or governmental authority, as applicable, and Tenant shall in such event only cease compliance with the specific Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements in question under clause (3) or that are covered by the written direction under clause (4), as applicable), Tenant covenants and agrees, at its sole cost and expense and for the express benefit of Landlord (and not, for the avoidance of doubt, any Fee Mortgagee, which shall not be construed to be a third party beneficiary of this Lease, provided, however, this parenthetical provision is not intended to vitiate Tenant's obligation to perform any or all of the Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements directly for the benefit of any Fee Mortgagee as and to the extent agreed to by Tenant in an agreement entered into directly between Tenant and such Fee Mortgagee), to operate the Leased Property (or cause the Leased Property to be operated) in compliance with the Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements of which it has received written notice. For the avoidance of doubt, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Tenant shall not be required to comply with and shall not have any other obligations with respect to any terms or conditions of, or amendments or modifications to, any Fee Mortgage or other Fee Mortgage Documents that do not constitute Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not be deemed to release Tenant from its obligations under this Lease that do not derive from the Fee Mortgage Documents, whether or not such obligations are duplicative of those set forth in the Fee Mortgage Documents.

(b) As used herein, "Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements" means those customary requirements as to the operation of the Leased Property and the business thereon or therein which the Fee Mortgage Documents impose (x) directly upon, or require Landlord (or Landlord's Affiliate borrower thereunder) to impose upon, the tenant(s) and/or operator(s) of the Leased Property or (y) directly upon Landlord, but which, by reason of the nature of the obligation(s) imposed and the nature of Tenant's occupancy and operation of the Leased Property and the business conducted thereupon, are not reasonably susceptible of being performed by Landlord and are reasonably susceptible of being performed by Tenant (excluding, for the avoidance of doubt, payment of any indebtedness or other obligations evidenced or secured thereby) and, except with respect to the Existing Fee Mortgage (of which Tenant is deemed to have received written notice (without giving effect to any amendments, modifications or supplements after the Second Amendment Date)) of which Tenant has received written notice; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements shall not include or impose on Tenant (and Tenant will not be subject to) obligations which (i) are not customary for the type of financing provided under the applicable Fee Mortgage Documents, (ii) increase Tenant's monetary obligations under this Lease to more than a de minimis extent (it being agreed that making payments otherwise payable to Landlord into a "lockbox" account designated by a Fee Mortgagee shall not be deemed to increase Tenant's monetary obligations under the Lease), (iii) increase Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease in any material respect (it being agreed that making payments otherwise payable to Landlord into a "lockbox" account designated by a Fee Mortgagee shall not be deemed to increase Tenant's non-monetary obligations under the Lease), (iv) diminish Tenant's rights under this Lease in any material respect or (v) restrict Tenant's ability to assign, sell, sublet, sub-sublet or transfer this Lease, Tenant's Leasehold Estate, the Facility or Tenant's Property, in each case, as otherwise expressly permitted under this Lease, to more than a de minimis extent, or restrict Tenant's ability to effectuate an L1/L2 Transfer and/or a Permitted Facility Sublease as otherwise expressly permitted under this Lease.

(c) Any proposed implementation of any additional financial covenants (i.e., a requirement that Tenant must meet certain specified performance tests of a financial nature, e.g., meeting a threshold EBITDAR, Net Revenue, financial ratio or similar test) that are imposed on Tenant shall not constitute Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements (it being understood that Landlord may agree to such financial covenants being imposed in any Fee Mortgage Documents so long as such financial covenants will not impose additional obligations on Tenant to comply therewith). For the avoidance of doubt, Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements may include (to the extent consistent with the foregoing definition of Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements) requirements of Tenant to:

(i) make Rent payments into "lockbox accounts" maintained for the benefit of Fee Mortgagee; and/or

(ii) subject to this Section 31.3, perform other actions consistent with the obligations described in the first sentence of this Section 31.3.

(d) In the event Tenant breaches its obligations to comply with Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements as described herein (without regard to any notice or cure period under the Fee Mortgage Documents and without regard to whether a default or event of default has occurred as a result thereof under the Fee Mortgage Documents), Landlord shall have the right, following the failure of Tenant to cure such breach within twenty (20) days from receipt of written notice to Tenant from Landlord of such breach (except to the extent the breach is of a nature such that it is not practicable for Landlord to provide such prior written notice, in which event Landlord shall provide written notice as soon as practicable), to cure such breach, in which event Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for Landlord's reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection with curing such breach.

(e) To the extent of any conflict between the terms and provisions of any agreement to which Landlord, Tenant and Fee Mortgagee are parties and the terms and provisions of this Section 31.3, the terms and provisions of such agreement shall govern and control in accordance with its terms.

ARTICLE XXXII

ENVIRONMENTAL COMPLIANCE

32.1 Hazardous Substances. Tenant shall not allow any Hazardous Substance to be located in, on, under or about the Leased Property or any portion thereof or incorporated into the Facility; provided however that Hazardous Substances may be (i) brought, kept, used or disposed of in, on or about the Leased Property in quantities and for purposes similar to those brought, kept, used or disposed of in, on or about similar facilities used for purposes similar to the Primary Intended Use or in connection with the construction of facilities similar to the Leased Property and (ii) disposed of in strict compliance with Legal Requirements (other than Gaming Regulations). Tenant shall not allow the Leased Property or any portion thereof to be used as a waste disposal site or for the manufacturing, handling, storage, distribution or disposal of any Hazardous Substance other than in the ordinary course of the business conducted at the Leased Property and in compliance with applicable Legal Requirements (other than Gaming Regulations).

32.2 Notices. Tenant or Landlord, as applicable, shall provide to the other party, as soon as reasonably practicable but in no event later than fifteen (15) days after Tenant's or Landlord's, as applicable, receipt thereof, a copy of any notice, notification or request for information with respect to, (i) any violation of a Legal Requirement (other than Gaming Regulations) relating to, or Release of, Hazardous Substances located in, on, or under the Leased Property or any portion thereof or any adjacent property; (ii) any enforcement, cleanup, removal, or other governmental or regulatory action instituted, completed or threatened in writing with respect to the Leased Property or any portion thereof; (iii) any material claim made or threatened in writing by any Person against Tenant, Landlord or the Leased Property or any portion thereof relating to damage, contribution, cost recovery, compensation, loss, or injury resulting from or claimed to result from any Hazardous Substance; and (iv) any reports made to any federal, state or local environmental agency arising out of or in connection with any Hazardous Substance in, on, under or removed from the Leased Property or any portion thereof, including any written complaints, notices, warnings or assertions of violations in connection therewith.

32.3 Remediation. If either Landlord or Tenant becomes aware of a violation of any Legal Requirement (other than Gaming Regulations) relating to any Hazardous Substance in, on, under or about the Leased Property or any portion thereof or any adjacent property, or if Tenant, Landlord or the Leased Property or any portion thereof becomes subject to any order of any federal, state or local agency to repair, close, detoxify, decontaminate or otherwise remediate the Leased Property, Landlord or Tenant, as applicable, shall promptly notify the other party of such event and, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, Tenant shall cure such violation or effect such repair, closure, detoxification, decontamination or other remediation. If Tenant fails to diligently pursue, implement and complete any such cure, repair, closure, detoxification, decontamination or other remediation, which failure continues after notice and expiration of applicable cure periods, Landlord shall have the right, but not the obligation, to carry out such action and to recover from Tenant all of Landlord's costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith.

32.4 Indemnity. Each of the Persons comprising Tenant shall jointly and severally indemnify, defend, protect, save, hold harmless, and reimburse Landlord or any Affiliate of Landlord for, from and against any and all actual out-of-pocket costs, losses (including, losses of use or economic benefit or diminution in value), liabilities, damages, assessments, lawsuits, deficiencies, demands, claims and expenses (collectively, "Environmental Costs") (whether or not arising out of third party claims and regardless of whether liability without fault is imposed, or sought to be imposed, on Landlord) incurred in connection with, arising out of, resulting from or incident to, directly or indirectly, in each case before or during (but not if first occurring after) the Term (i) the production, use, generation, storage, treatment, transporting, disposal, discharge, Release or other handling or disposition of any Hazardous Substances from, in, on or under the Leased Property or any portion thereof (collectively, "Handling"), including the effects of such Handling of any Hazardous Substances on any Person or property within or outside the boundaries of the Leased Property, (ii) the presence of any Hazardous Substances in, on or under the Leased Property and (iii) the violation of any Environmental Law. "Environmental Costs" include interest, costs of response, removal, remedial action, containment, cleanup, investigation, design, engineering and construction, damages (including actual and consequential damages) for personal injuries and for injury to, destruction of or loss of property or natural resources, relocation or replacement costs, penalties, fines, charges or expenses, reasonable attorney's fees, reasonable expert fees, reasonable consultation fees, and court costs, and all amounts paid in investigating, defending or settling any of the foregoing, as applicable. Tenant's indemnity hereunder shall survive the termination of this Lease, but in no event shall Tenant's indemnity apply to Environmental Costs incurred in connection with, arising out of, resulting from or incident to matters first occurring after the later of (x) the end of the Term and (y) the date upon which Tenant shall have vacated the Leased Property and surrendered the same to Landlord, in each case to the extent such matters are not or were not caused by the acts or omissions of Tenant in breach of this Lease.

Without limiting the scope or generality of the foregoing, Tenant expressly agrees that, in the event of a breach by Tenant in its obligations under Sections 32.1 through 32.3 that is not cured within any applicable cure period, Tenant shall reimburse Landlord for any and all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Landlord in connection with, arising out of, resulting from or incident to (directly or indirectly, before or during (but not if first occurring after) the Term) the following:

(a) investigating any and all matters relating to the Handling of any Hazardous Substances, in, on, from or under the Leased Property or any portion thereof;

(b) bringing the Leased Property into compliance with all Legal Requirements, and

(c) removing, treating, storing, transporting, cleaning-up and/or disposing of any Hazardous Substances used, stored, generated, released or disposed of in, on, from, under or about the Leased Property or off-site other than in the ordinary course of the business conducted at the Leased Property and in compliance with applicable Legal Requirements.

If any claim is made by Landlord for reimbursement for Environmental Costs incurred by it hereunder, Tenant agrees to pay such claim promptly, and in any event to pay such claim within sixty (60) calendar days after receipt by Tenant of written notice thereof and any amount not so paid within such sixty (60) calendar day period shall bear interest at the Overdue Rate from the date due to the date paid in full.

32.5 Environmental Inspections. In the event Landlord has a reasonable basis to believe that Tenant is in breach of its obligations under Sections 32.1 through 32.4, Landlord shall have the right, from time to time, during normal business hours and upon not less than five (5) Business Days written notice to Tenant (except in the case of an emergency that constitutes an imminent threat to human health or safety or damage to property, in which event Landlord shall undertake reasonable efforts to notify a representative of Tenant as soon as practicable under the circumstances), to conduct an inspection of the Leased Property or any portion thereof (and Tenant shall be permitted to have Landlord or its representatives accompanied by a representative of Tenant) to determine the existence or presence of Hazardous Substances on or about the Leased Property or any portion thereof. In the event Landlord has a reasonable basis to believe that Tenant is in breach of its obligations under Sections 32.1 through 32.4, Landlord shall have the right to enter and inspect the Leased Property or any portion thereof, conduct any testing, sampling and analyses it reasonably deems necessary and shall have the right to inspect materials brought into the Leased Property or any portion thereof. Landlord may, in its discretion, retain experts to conduct the inspection, perform the tests referred to herein, and to prepare a written report in connection therewith if Landlord has a reasonable basis to believe that Tenant is in breach of its obligations under Sections 32.1 through 32.4. All costs and expenses incurred by Landlord under this Section 32.6 shall be the responsibility of Landlord, except solely to the extent Tenant has breached its obligations under Sections 32.1 through 32.5, in which event such reasonable costs and expenses shall be paid by Tenant to Landlord as provided in Section 32.4. Failure to conduct an environmental inspection or to detect unfavorable conditions if such inspection is conducted shall in no fashion constitute a release of any liability for environmental conditions subsequently determined to be associated with or to have occurred during Tenant's tenancy. Tenant shall remain liable for any environmental condition related to or having occurred during its tenancy regardless of when such conditions are discovered and regardless of whether or not Landlord conducts an environmental inspection at the termination of this Lease. The obligations set forth in this Article XXXII shall survive the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease but in no event shall Article XXXII apply to matters first occurring after the later of (x) the end of the Term and (y) the date upon which Tenant shall have vacated the Leased Property and surrendered the same to Landlord, in each case to the extent such matters are not or were not caused by the acts or omissions of Tenant in breach of this Lease.

ARTICLE XXXIII

MEMORANDUM OF LEASE

Landlord and Tenant shall, promptly upon the request of either Party, enter into a short form memoranda of this Lease, in form suitable for recording in the county or other applicable location in which the Leased Property is located. Each Party shall bear its own costs in negotiating and finalizing such memoranda, but Tenant shall pay all costs and expenses of recording any such memorandum and shall fully cooperate with Landlord in removing from record any such memorandum upon the Expiration Date.

ARTICLE XXXIV

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

34.1 Expert Valuation Process. Whenever a determination of Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value is required pursuant to any provision of this Lease, and where Landlord and Tenant have not been able to reach agreement on such Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value either (i) with respect to Fair Market Base Rental Value applicable to a Renewal Term, within three hundred seventy (370) days prior to the commencement date of a Renewal Term or (ii) for all other purposes, after at least fifteen (15) days of good faith negotiations, then either Party shall each have the right to seek, upon written notice to the other Party (the "Expert Valuation Notice"), which notice clearly identifies that such Party seeks, to have such Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value determined in accordance with the following Expert Valuation Process:

(a) Within twenty (20) days of the receiving Party's receipt of the Expert Valuation Notice, Landlord and Tenant shall provide notice to the other Party of the name, address and other pertinent contact information, and qualifications of its selected appraiser (which appraiser must be an independent qualified MAI appraiser (i.e., a Member of the Appraisal Institute)).

(b) As soon as practicable following such notice, and in any event within twenty (20) days following their selection, each appraiser shall prepare a written appraisal of Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value (as the case may be) as of the relevant date of valuation, and deliver the same to its respective client. Representatives of the Parties shall then meet and simultaneously exchange copies of such appraisals. Following such exchange, the appraisers shall promptly meet and endeavor to agree upon Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value (as the case may be) based on a written appraisal made by each of them (and given to Landlord by Tenant). If such two (2) appraisers shall agree upon a Fair Market Ownership Value or Fair Market Base Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value, as applicable, such agreed amount shall be binding and conclusive upon Landlord and Tenant.

(c) If such two (2) appraisers are unable to agree upon a Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value (as the case may be) within five (5) Business Days after the exchange of appraisals as aforesaid, then such appraisers shall advise Landlord and Tenant of the same and, within twenty (20) days of the exchange of appraisals, select a third (3rd) appraiser (which third (3rd) appraiser, however selected, must be an independent qualified MAI appraiser) to make the determination of Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value. The selection of the third (3rd) appraiser shall be binding and conclusive upon Landlord and Tenant.

(d) If such two (2) appraisers shall be unable to agree upon the designation of a third (3rd) appraiser within the twenty (20) day period referred to in clause (c) above, or if such third (3rd) appraiser does not make a determination of Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value (as the case may be) within thirty (30) days after his or her selection, then such third (3rd) appraiser (or a substituted third (3rd) appraiser, as applicable) shall, at the request of either Party, be appointed by the Appointing Authority and such appointment shall be final and binding on Landlord and Tenant. The determination of Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value (as the case may be) made by the third (3rd) appraiser appointed pursuant hereto shall be made within twenty (20) days after such appointment.

(e) If a third (3rd) appraiser is selected, Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value (as the case may be) shall be the average of (x) the determination of Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value (as the case may be) made by the third (3rd) appraiser and (y) the determination of Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value (as the case may be) made by the appraiser (selected pursuant to Section 34.1(b)) whose determination of Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value (as the case may be) is nearest to that of the third (3rd) appraiser. Such average shall be binding and conclusive upon Landlord and Tenant as being the Fair Market Ownership Value, Fair Market Base Rental Value, Fair Market Rental Value or Fair Market Property Value (as the case may be).

(f) In determining Fair Market Ownership Value of the Leased Property or the Facility, the appraisers shall (in addition to taking into account the criteria set forth in the definition of “Fair Market Ownership Value”), add (i) the present value of the Rent for the remaining Term, assuming the Term has been extended for all Renewal Terms provided herein (with assumed increases in the CPI to be determined by the appraisers) using a discount rate (which may be determined by an investment banker retained by each appraiser) based on the credit worthiness of Tenant and any guarantor of Tenant's obligations hereunder and (ii) the present value of the Leased Property or Facility as of the end of such Term (assuming the Term has been extended for all Renewal Terms provided herein). The appraisers shall further assume that no default then exists under the Lease, that Tenant has complied (and will comply) with all provisions of the Lease, and that no default exists under any guaranty of Tenant's obligations hereunder.

(g) In determining Fair Market Base Rental Value, the appraisers shall (in addition to the criteria set forth in the definition thereof and of Fair Market Rental Value) take into account: (i) the age, quality and condition (as required by the Lease) of the Improvements; (ii) that the Leased Property or Facility will be leased as a whole or substantially as a whole to a single user; (iii) when determining the Fair Market Base Rental Value for any Renewal Term, a lease term of five (5) years together with such options to renew as then remains hereunder; (iv) an absolute triple net lease; and (v) such other items that professional real estate appraisers customarily consider.

(h) [reserved].

(i) If, by virtue of any delay, Fair Market Base Rental Value is not determined by the first (1st) day of the applicable Renewal Term, then until Fair Market Base Rental Value is determined, Tenant shall continue to pay Rent during the succeeding Renewal Term in the same amount which Tenant was obligated to pay prior to the commencement of the Renewal Term. Upon determination of Fair Market Base Rental Value, Rent shall be calculated retroactive to the commencement of the Renewal Term and Tenant shall either receive a refund from Landlord (in the case of an overpayment) or shall pay any deficiency to Landlord (in the case of an underpayment) within thirty (30) days of the date on which the determination of Fair Market Base Rental Value becomes binding.

(j) The cost of the procedure described in this Section 34.1 shall be borne equally by the Parties and the Parties will reasonably coordinate payment; provided, that, if Landlord pays such costs, fifty percent (50%) of such costs shall be Additional Charges hereunder and if Tenant pays such costs, fifty percent (50%) of such costs shall be a credit against the next Rent payment hereunder.

34.2 Arbitration. In the event of a dispute with respect to this Lease pursuant to an Arbitration Provision, or in any case when this Lease expressly provides for the settlement or determination of a dispute or question by an Expert pursuant to this Section 34.2 (in any such case, a "Section 34.2 Dispute") such dispute shall be determined in accordance with an arbitration proceeding as set forth in this Section 34.2.

(a) Any Section 34.2 Dispute shall be determined by an arbitration panel comprised of three members, each of whom shall be an Expert (the "Arbitration Panel"). No more than one panel member may be with the same firm and no panel member may have an economic interest in the outcome of the arbitration.

The Arbitration Panel shall be selected as set forth in this Section 34.2(b). If a Section 34.2 Dispute arises and if Landlord and Tenant are not able to resolve such dispute after at least fifteen (15) days of good faith negotiations, then either Party shall each have the right to submit the dispute to the Arbitration Panel, upon written notice to the other Party (the "Arbitration Notice"). The Arbitration Notice shall identify one member of the Arbitration Panel who meets the criteria of the above paragraph. Within five (5) Business Days after the receipt of the Arbitration Notice, the Party receiving such Arbitration Notice shall respond in writing identifying one member of the Arbitration Panel who meets the criteria of the above paragraph. Such notices shall include the name, address and other pertinent contact information, and qualifications of its member of the Arbitration Panel. If a Party fails to timely select its respective panel member, the other Party may notify such Party in writing of such failure, and if such Party fails to select its respective panel member within three (3) Business Days after receipt of such notice, then such other Party may select and identify to such Party such panel member on such Party's behalf. The third member of the Arbitration Panel will be selected by the two (2) members of the Arbitration Panel who were selected by Landlord and Tenant; provided, that, if, within five (5) Business Days after they are identified, they fail to select a third member, or if they are unable to agree on such selection, Landlord and Tenant shall cause the third member of the Arbitration Panel to be appointed by the managing officer of the American Arbitration Association.

(b) Within ten (10) Business Days after the selection of the Arbitration Panel, Landlord and Tenant each shall submit to the Arbitration Panel a written statement identifying its summary of the issues. Landlord and Tenant may also request an evidentiary hearing on the merits in addition to the submission of written statements. The Arbitration Panel shall make its decision within twenty (20) days after the later of (i) the submission of such written statements, and (ii) the conclusion of any evidentiary hearing on the merits. The Arbitration Panel shall reach its decision by majority vote and shall communicate its decision by written notice to Landlord and Tenant.

(c) The decision by the Arbitration Panel shall be final, binding and conclusive and shall be non-appealable and enforceable in any court having jurisdiction. All hearings and proceedings held by the Arbitration Panel shall take place in New York, New York unless otherwise mutually agreed by the Parties and the Arbitration Panel.

(d) The resolution procedure described herein shall be governed by the Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association and the Procedures for Large, Complex, Commercial Disputes in effect as of the Commencement Date.

(e) Landlord and Tenant shall bear equally the fees, costs and expenses of the Arbitration Panel in conducting any arbitration described in this Section 34.2.

END OF TERM GAMING ASSETS TRANSFER

36.1 Transfer of Tenant's Gaming Assets and Operational Control of the Leased Property. Upon the written request (an "End of Term Gaming Assets Transfer Notice") of Landlord either immediately prior to or in connection with the expiration or earlier termination of the Term (other than a termination resulting from an L1/L2 Transfer), or of Tenant in connection with the expiration or earlier termination of this Lease that occurs (i) either on the last date of the Initial Term or the last date of any Renewal Term, or (ii) in the event Landlord exercises its right to terminate this Lease or repossess the Leased Property in accordance with the terms of this Lease and, provided in each of the foregoing clauses (i) or (ii) that Tenant complies with the provisions of Section 36.4, Tenant shall transfer (or cause to be transferred) upon the expiration or termination of the Term, or as soon thereafter as Landlord shall request, the business operations (including, for the avoidance of doubt, all Tenant's Property relating to the Facility) (such assets, collectively, the "Gaming Assets") to a successor lessee or operator (or lessees or operators) of the Facility (collectively, the "Successor Tenant") designated by Landlord or, if applicable, pursuant to Section 36.3, for consideration to be received by Tenant from the Successor Tenant in an amount negotiated and agreed to by Tenant and the Successor Tenant or, if applicable, determined pursuant to Section 36.3 (the "Gaming Assets FMV"); provided, however, that in the event an End of Term Gaming Assets Transfer Notice is delivered hereunder, then notwithstanding the expiration or earlier termination of the Term, until such time that Tenant transfers the Gaming Assets to a Successor Tenant, Tenant shall (or shall cause its Subsidiaries to) continue to (and Landlord shall permit Tenant to maintain possession of the Leased Property to the extent necessary to) possess and operate the Facility in accordance with the applicable terms of this Lease and the course and manner in which Tenant (or its Subsidiaries) has operated the Facility prior to the end of the Term (including, but not limited to, the payment of Rent hereunder, which shall be calculated as provided in this Lease, except, that for any period following the last day of the calendar month in which the thirty-fifth (35th) anniversary of the Second Amendment Date occurs, the Rent shall be a per annum amount equal to the sum of (A) the amount of the Base Rent hereunder during the Lease Year in which the Expiration Date occurs, multiplied by the Escalator, and increased on each anniversary of the Expiration Date to be equal to the Base Rent payable for the immediately preceding year, multiplied by the Escalator, plus (B) the amount of the Variable Rent hereunder during the Lease Year in which the Expiration Date occurs). If Tenant, Landlord and/or a Successor Tenant designated by Landlord cannot agree on the Gaming Assets FMV within a reasonable time not to exceed thirty (30) days after receipt of an End of Term Gaming Assets Transfer Notice hereunder, then such Gaming Assets FMV shall be determined, and Tenant's transfer of the Gaming Assets to a Successor Tenant in consideration for a payment in such amount shall be determined and transferred, in accordance with the provisions of Section 36.3.

36.2 Transfer of Intellectual Property. The Gaming Assets shall include a two (2) year transition license for Property Specific IP used, or held for use, at or in connection with the Facility. Without limiting the foregoing, Tenant shall, within thirty (30) days after the delivery of an End of Term Gaming Assets Transfer Notice, deliver to Landlord a copy of all Property Specific Guest Data; provided, however, that Tenant shall have the right to retain and use copies of such data as required by Legal Requirements, including applicable Gaming Regulations.

36.3 Determination of Gaming Assets FMV.

If not effected pursuant to Section 36.1, then the determination of the Gaming Assets FMV and the transfer of the Gaming Assets to a Successor Tenant in consideration for the Gaming Assets FMV shall be effected by (i) first, determining in accordance with Section 36.3(a) the rent that Landlord would be entitled to receive from Successor Tenant assuming a lease term of the greater of (I) the remaining term of this Lease (assuming that this Lease will not have terminated prior to its natural expiration at the end of the final Renewal Term) and (II) the lesser of (x) ten (10) years and (y) eighty percent (80%) of the then remaining useful life of the Leased Property for the highest and best use of the Leased Property (the "Successor Tenant Rent") pursuant to a lease agreement containing substantially the same terms and conditions of this Lease (other than, in the case of a new lease at the end of the final Renewal Term, the terms of this Article XXXVI, which will not be included in such new lease), (ii) second, identifying and designating in accordance with the terms of Section 36.3(b), a pool of qualified potential Successor Tenants (each, a "Qualified Successor Tenant") prepared to lease the Facility at the Successor Tenant Rent and to bid for the Gaming Assets, and (iii) third, in accordance with the terms of Section 36.3(c), determining the highest price a Qualified Successor Tenant would agree to pay for the Gaming Assets, and setting such highest price as the Gaming Assets FMV in exchange for which Tenant shall be required to transfer the Gaming Assets and Landlord will enter into a lease with such Qualified Successor Tenant on substantially the same terms and conditions of this Lease (other than, in the case of a new lease at the end of the final Renewal Term, the terms of this Article XXXVI, which will not be included in such new lease) through (I) the remaining term of this Lease (assuming that this Lease will not have terminated prior to its natural expiration at the end of the final Renewal Term) or (II) the lesser of (x) ten (10) years and (y) eighty percent (80%) of the then remaining useful life of the Leased Property, whichever of (I) or (II) is greater, for a rent calculated pursuant to Section 36.3(a) hereof. Notwithstanding anything in the contrary in this Article XXXVI, the transfer of the Gaming Assets will be conditioned upon the approval of the applicable regulatory agencies of the transfer of the Gaming Licenses and any other gaming assets to the Successor Tenant and/or the issuance of new gaming licenses as required by applicable Gaming Regulations and the relevant regulatory agencies both with respect to operating and suitability criterion, as the case may be.

(a) Determining Successor Tenant Rent. Landlord and Tenant shall first attempt to agree on the amount of Successor Tenant Rent that it will be assumed Landlord will be entitled to receive for a term of the greater of (I) the remaining term of this Lease (assuming that this Lease will not have terminated prior to its natural expiration at the end of the final Renewal Term) and (II) the lesser of (x) ten (10) years and (y) eighty percent (80%) of the then remaining useful life of the Leased Property, and pursuant to a lease containing substantially the same terms and conditions of this Lease (other than, in the case of a new lease at the end of the final Renewal Term, the terms of this Article XXXVI, which will not be included in such new lease). If Landlord and Tenant cannot agree on the Successor Tenant Rent amount within a reasonable time not to exceed sixty (60) days after receipt of an End of Term Gaming Assets Transfer Notice hereunder, then the Successor Tenant Rent shall be set as follows:

(i) for the period preceding the last day of the calendar month in which the thirty-fifth (35th) anniversary of the Second Amendment Date occurs, then the annual Successor Tenant Rent shall be an amount equal to the annual Rent that would have accrued under the terms of this Lease for such period (assuming the Lease will have not been terminated prior to its natural expiration); and

(ii) for the period following the last day of the calendar month in which the thirty-fifth (35th) anniversary of the Second Amendment Date occurs, then the Successor Tenant Rent shall be calculated in the same manner as Rent is calculated under this Lease, provided that if Tenant or an Affiliate of Tenant shall be the Successor Tenant, the Rent shall not be less than the Fair Market Rental Value.

(b) Designating Potential Successor Tenants. Landlord will select one and Tenant will select three (3) (for a total of up to four (4)) potential Qualified Successor Tenants prepared to lease the Facility for the Successor Tenant Rent, each of whom must meet the criteria established for a L1 Qualified Transferee (as if the lease of the Facility to the Qualified Successor Tenant was an L1 Transfer) (and none of whom may be Tenant or an Affiliate of Tenant (it being understood and agreed that there shall be no restriction on Landlord or any Affiliate of Landlord from being a potential Qualified Successor Tenant), except in the case of expiration of the Lease on the last day of the calendar month in which the thirty-fifth (35th) anniversary of the Second Amendment Date occurs). Landlord and Tenant must designate their proposed Qualified Successor Tenants within ninety (90) days after receipt of an End of Term Gaming Assets Transfer Notice hereunder. In the event that Landlord or Tenant fails to designate such Party's allotted number of potential Qualified Successor Tenants, the other Party may designate additional potential Qualified Successor Tenants such that the total number of potential Qualified Successor Tenants does not exceed four; provided that, in the event the total number of potential Qualified Successor Tenants is less than four (4), the transfer process will still proceed as set forth in Section 36.3(c) below.

(c) Determining Gaming Assets FMV. Tenant will have a three (3) month period to negotiate an acceptable sales price for the Gaming Assets, with one of the Qualified Successor Tenants, which three (3) month period will commence immediately upon the conclusion of the steps set forth above in Section 36.3(b). If Tenant does not reach an agreement prior to the end of such three (3) month period, Landlord shall conduct an auction for the Gaming Assets among the four potential successor lessees, and Tenant will be required to transfer the Gaming Assets to the highest bidder.

36.4 Operation Transfer. Upon designation of a Successor Tenant by Landlord (pursuant to this Article XXXVI), Tenant shall reasonably cooperate and take all actions reasonably necessary (including providing all reasonable assistance to Successor Tenant) to effectuate the transfer of the Gaming Assets and operational control of the Facility to Successor Tenant in an orderly manner so as to minimize to the maximum extent feasible any disruption to the continued orderly operation of the Facility for its Primary Intended Use. Concurrently with the transfer of the Gaming Assets to Successor Tenant, (i) Tenant shall assign to Successor Tenant (and Successor Tenant shall assume) any then-effective Subleases or other agreements (to the extent such other agreements are assignable) relating to the Leased Property (provided, that, Tenant shall not assign, and neither Landlord nor any Successor Tenant shall have any obligation to assume, any Permitted Sportsbook Sublease unless it elects, in its sole and absolute discretion, to permit Tenant to assign any Permitted Sportsbook Sublease to it), and (ii) Tenant shall vacate and surrender the Leased Property to Landlord and/or Successor Tenant in the condition required under this Lease. Notwithstanding the expiration or earlier termination of the Term and anything to the contrary herein, to the extent that this Article XXXVI applies, unless Landlord consents to the contrary, until such time that Tenant transfers the Gaming Assets and operational control of the Facility to a Successor Tenant in accordance with the provisions of this Article XXXVI, Tenant shall (or shall cause its Subsidiaries to) continue to (and Landlord shall permit Tenant to maintain possession of the Leased Property to the extent necessary to) operate the Facility in accordance with the applicable terms of this Lease and the course and manner in which Tenant (or its Subsidiaries) has operated the Facility prior to the end of the Term (including, but not limited to, the payment of Rent hereunder at the rate provided in Section 36.1 (and not subject to Article XIX)); provided, however, that Tenant shall have no obligation (unless specifically agreed to by Tenant) to operate the Facility (or pay any such Rent) under such arrangement for more than two (2) years after the Expiration Date. The period of time following the Expiration Date during which Tenant continues to operate the Facility as described in the preceding sentence is referred to in the Guaranty as a "Transition Period."

ARTICLE XXXVII

ATTORNEYS' FEES

If Landlord or Tenant brings an action or other proceeding against the other to enforce or interpret any of the terms, covenants or conditions hereof or any instrument executed pursuant to this Lease, or by reason of any breach or default hereunder or thereunder, the Party substantially prevailing in any such action or proceeding and any appeal thereupon shall be paid all of its costs and reasonable documented outside attorneys' fees incurred therein. In addition to the foregoing and other provisions of this Lease that specifically require Tenant to reimburse, pay or indemnify against Landlord's attorneys' fees, Tenant shall pay, as Additional Charges, all of Landlord's reasonable documented outside attorneys' fees incurred in connection with the enforcement of this Lease (except to the extent provided above), including reasonable documented attorneys' fees incurred in connection with the review, negotiation or documentation of any subletting, assignment, or management arrangement or any consent requested in connection with such enforcement, and the collection of past due Rent.

ARTICLE XXXVIII

BROKERS

Tenant warrants that it has not had any contact or dealings with any Person or real estate broker which would give rise to the payment of any fee or brokerage commission in connection with this Lease, and Tenant shall indemnify, protect, hold harmless and defend Landlord from and against any liability with respect to any fee or brokerage commission arising out of any act or omission of Tenant. Landlord warrants that it has not had any contact or dealings with any Person or real estate broker which would give rise to the payment of any fee or brokerage commission in connection with this Lease, and Landlord shall indemnify, protect, hold harmless and defend Tenant from and against any liability with respect to any fee or brokerage commission arising out of any act or omission of Landlord.

ARTICLE XXXIX

ANTI-TERRORISM REPRESENTATIONS

Each Party hereby represents and warrants to the other Party that neither such representing Party nor, to its knowledge, any persons or entities holding any Controlling legal or beneficial interest whatsoever in it are (i) the target of any sanctions program that is established by Executive Order of the President or published by the Office of Foreign Assets Control, U.S. Department of the Treasury ("OFAC"); (ii) designated by the President or OFAC pursuant to the Trading with the Enemy Act, 50 U.S.C. App. § 5, the International Emergency Economic Powers Act, 50 U.S.C. §§ 1701-06, the Patriot Act, Public Law 107-56, Executive Order 13224 (September 23, 2001) or any Executive Order of the President issued pursuant to such statutes; or (iii) named on the following list that is published by OFAC: "List of Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons" (collectively, "Prohibited Persons"). Each Party hereby represents and warrants to the other Party that no funds tendered to such other Party by such tendering Party under the terms of this Lease are or will be directly or indirectly derived from activities that may contravene U.S. federal, state or international laws and regulations, including anti-money laundering laws. Neither Party will during the Term of this Lease knowingly engage in any transactions or dealings, or knowingly be otherwise associated with, any Prohibited Persons in connection with the Leased Property.

ARTICLE XL

LANDLORD REIT PROTECTIONS

(a) The Parties intend that Rent and other amounts paid by Tenant hereunder will qualify as "rents from real property" within the meaning of Section 856(d) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto and this Lease shall be interpreted consistent with this intent. If any Rent hereunder fails to qualify as "rent from real property" within the meaning of Section 856(d) of the Code, the Parties will cooperate in good faith to amend this Lease such that no Rent fails to so qualify, provided that (i) such amendment shall not (w) increase Tenant's monetary obligations under this Lease by more than a de minimis extent, (x) increase Tenant's non-monetary obligations under this Lease in any material respect, (y) decrease Landlord's obligations under this Lease in any material respect or (z) diminish Tenant's rights under this Lease in any material respect and (ii) Landlord shall reimburse Tenant for all reasonable and actual documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable and actual documented out-of-pocket legal costs and expenses) incurred by Tenant in connection with such amendment.

(b) Anything contained in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, Tenant shall not without Landlord's advance written consent (i) sublet, assign or enter into a management arrangement for the Leased Property on any basis such that rent or other amounts to be paid by the subtenant, assignee or manager thereunder would be based, in whole or in part, on either (x) the income or profits derived by the business activities of the subtenant, assignee or manager or (y) any other formula such that any portion of any amount received by Landlord could reasonably be expected to cause any portion of the amounts to fail to qualify as "rents from real property" within the meaning of Section 856(d) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto; (ii) furnish or render any services to the subtenant, assignee or manager or manage or operate the Leased Property so subleased, assigned or managed; (iii) sublet, assign or enter into a management arrangement for the Leased Property to any Person (other than a "taxable REIT subsidiary" (within the meaning of Section 856(l) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto) of Landlord REIT) in which Landlord or PropCo owns an interest, directly or indirectly (by applying constructive ownership rules set forth in Section 856(d)(5) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto); or (iv) sublet, assign or enter into a management arrangement for the Leased Property in any other manner which could reasonably be expected to cause any portion of the amounts received by Landlord pursuant to this Lease or any Sublease to fail to qualify as "rents from real property" within the meaning of Section 856(d) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto, or which could reasonably be expected to cause any other income of Landlord to fail to qualify as income described in Section 856(c)(2) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto; provided that the parties agree that by entering into the Second Amendment, Landlord consents to a Permitted Sportsbook Sublease if and only if (I) both (A) neither WH US Holdco nor any subsidiary of WH US Holdco (including any partnership (within the meaning of the Code) in which any one of the forgoing or Tenant, directly or indirectly, is a partner described in Section 856(d)(5)(B) of the Code) owns (or in the aggregate own) any interest in Landlord REIT's stock taking into account both actual direct or indirect ownership and constructive ownership determined by applying constructive ownership rules set forth in Section 856(d)(5) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto (other than up to one percent (1%) constructive ownership of Landlord REIT's common stock), and (B) no amounts paid by Tenant hereunder are excluded from "rents from real property" by reason of Section 856(d)(2)(B) taking into account for purposes of this clause (B) stock ownership solely attributable to the application of the constructive ownership rules set forth in Section 856(d)(5) of the Code (or any similar or successor provision thereto) and by not taking into account any stock ownership that Landlord REIT or any of its subsidiaries actually owns (without taking into account the constructive ownership rules of Section 856(d)(5) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto) or that Landlord REIT constructively owns (taking into account the application of the constructive ownership rules set forth in Section 856(d)(5) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto) solely as a result of granting after the Second Amendment Date an exemption to its "ownership limits" as contemplated by Article 7 of the Articles of Amendment and Restatement of Landlord REIT dated October 6, 2017 (as may be amended, restated or amended and restated from time to time) (such exemption, an "Excepted Holder Limit"), and (II) if any Permitted Sportsbook Sublease is not identical to the CPLV Sportsbook Operating Agreement, such Permitted Sportsbook Sublease does not violate the requirement of clause (iv) (ignoring for this purpose the consent otherwise granted by this proviso). Landlord REIT and Tenant will cooperate in good faith to permit Landlord REIT to notify each Excepted Holder that has an Excepted Holder Limit on the Second Amendment Date of this transaction and request that such Excepted Holder provide information regarding its ownership, if any, of WH US Holdco or any subsidiary of WH US Holdco, taking into account the constructive ownership rules set forth in Section 856(d)(5) of the Code (or any similar or successor provision thereto). As of the end of each Fiscal Quarter during the Term, Tenant shall deliver to Landlord a certification, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit G, stating that Tenant has reviewed its transactions during such Fiscal Quarter and certifying that Tenant is in compliance with the provisions of this Article XL. The requirements of this Article XL shall likewise apply to any further sublease, assignment or management arrangement by any subtenant, assignee or manager.

(c) Anything contained in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, the Parties acknowledge and agree that Landlord, in its sole discretion, may assign this Lease or any interest herein to another Person (including without limitation, a direct or indirect subsidiary of Landlord REIT that, itself, is a REIT, or a "taxable REIT subsidiary" (within the meaning of Section 856(l) of the Code, or any similar or successor provision thereto)) in order to maintain Landlord REIT's status as a REIT; provided, however, that Landlord shall be required to (i) comply with any applicable Legal Requirements related to such transfer and (ii) give Tenant notice of any such assignment; and provided further, that any such assignment shall be subject to all of the rights of Tenant hereunder.

(d) Anything contained in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, upon request of Landlord, Tenant shall cooperate with Landlord in good faith and at no cost or expense (other than de minimis cost) to Tenant, and provide such documentation and/or information as may be in Tenant's possession or under Tenant's control and otherwise readily available to Tenant as shall be reasonably requested by Landlord in connection with verification of Landlord REIT's REIT compliance requirements. Anything contained in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, Tenant shall take such action as may be requested by Landlord from time to time in order to ensure compliance with the Internal Revenue Service requirement that Rent allocable for purposes of Section 856 of the Code to personal property, if any, at the beginning and end of a calendar year does not exceed fifteen percent (15%) of the total Rent due hereunder as long as such compliance does not (i) increase Tenant's monetary obligations under this Lease by more than a de minimis extent or (ii) materially increase Tenant's nonmonetary obligations under this Lease or (iii) materially diminish Tenant's rights under this Lease.

ARTICLE XLI

MISCELLANEOUS

41.1 Survival. Anything contained in this Lease to the contrary notwithstanding, all claims against, and liabilities, obligations and indemnities of Tenant or Landlord arising or in respect of any period prior to the Expiration Date shall survive the Expiration Date.

41.2 Severability. Subject to Section 1.2, if any term or provision of this Lease or any application thereof shall be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Lease and any other application of such term or provision shall not be affected thereby.

41.3 Non-Recourse. Tenant specifically agrees to look solely to the Leased Property for recovery of any judgment from Landlord (and Landlord's liability hereunder shall be limited solely to its interest in the Leased Property, and no recourse under or in respect of this Lease shall be had against any other assets of Landlord whatsoever). The provision contained in the foregoing sentence is not intended to, and shall not, limit any right that Tenant might otherwise have to obtain injunctive relief against Landlord, or any action not involving the personal liability of Landlord. In no event shall either Party ever be liable to the other Party for any indirect, consequential, lost profits, punitive, exemplary, statutory or treble damages suffered from whatever cause (other than, as to all such forms of damages, (i) if Landlord has terminated this Lease, any damages with respect to Rent or Additional Charges as provided under Section 16.3(a) hereof, (ii) if Landlord has not terminated this Lease, any damages with respect to Rent or Additional Charges as provided for herein, (iii) any amount of any Required Capital Expenditures not made pursuant to Section 10.5(a)(x) hereof, (iv) damages as provided under Section 16.3(c) hereof, (v) a claim (including an indemnity claim) for recovery of any such forms of damages that the claiming party is required by a court of competent jurisdiction or the expert to pay to a third party (other than any damages under or relating to any Fee Mortgage or Fee Mortgage Documents (excluding claims under Section 32.4)) other than to the extent resulting from the claiming party's gross negligence, willful misconduct or default hereunder, and (vi) to the extent expressly provided under Section 32.4), and the Parties acknowledge and agree that the rights and remedies in this Lease, and all other rights and remedies at law and in equity, will be adequate in all circumstances for any claims the parties might have with respect to damages. For the avoidance of doubt, (I) any damages of Landlord under or relating to any Fee Mortgage or Fee Mortgage Documents shall be deemed to be consequential damages hereunder, provided, however that, notwithstanding the foregoing clause (I), it is expressly agreed that the following shall constitute direct damages hereunder: (x) amounts payable by Tenant pursuant to Section 16.7 resulting from the breach by Tenant of any Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirements and (y) out of pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) incurred by a Landlord Indemnified Party (or, to the extent required to be reimbursed by a Landlord Indemnified Party under a Fee Mortgage Document, incurred by or on behalf of any other Person) to defend (but not settle or pay any judgment resulting from) any investigative, administrative or judicial proceeding commenced or threatened as a result of a breach by Tenant of any Additional Fee Mortgagee Requirement; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Tenant be required to pay any amounts to repay (or that are applied to reduce) the principal amount of any loan or debt secured by or relating to a Fee Mortgage or any interest or fees on any such loan or debt, and (II) any damages of Tenant under or relating to any Permitted Leasehold Mortgage and any related agreements or instruments shall be deemed to be consequential damages hereunder. It is specifically agreed that no constituent member, partner, owner, director, officer or employee of a Party shall ever be personally liable for any judgment (in respect of obligations under or in connection with this Lease) against, or for the payment of any monetary obligation under or in respect of this Lease, such Party, to the other Party (provided, this sentence shall not limit the obligations of Guarantor expressly set forth in the Guaranty).

41.4 Successors and Assigns. This Lease shall be binding upon Landlord and its permitted successors and assigns and, subject to the provisions of Article XXII, upon Tenant and its successors and assigns.

This Lease (including the Exhibits and Schedules hereto), together with the other Lease Related Agreements, collectively constitute the entire and final agreement of the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and may not be changed or modified except by an agreement in writing signed by the Parties. In addition to the foregoing, it is agreed to by the Parties that no modification to this Lease shall be effective without the written consent of (i) any applicable Fee Mortgagee, to the extent that such a modification would adversely affect such Fee Mortgagee and (ii) any applicable Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee, to the extent that such a modification would adversely affect such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee. Landlord and Tenant hereby agree that all prior or contemporaneous oral understandings, agreements or negotiations relative to the leasing of the Leased Property (other than the other Lease Related Agreements) are merged into and revoked by this Lease (together with the Lease Related Agreements referenced above).

41.8 Headings. All captions, titles and headings to sections, subsections, paragraphs, exhibits or other divisions of this Lease, and the table of contents, are only for the convenience of the Parties and shall not be construed to have any effect or meaning with respect to the other contents of such sections, subsections, paragraphs, exhibits or other divisions, such other content being controlling as to the agreement among the Parties.

This Lease may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be a valid and binding original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. This Lease may be effectuated by the exchange of electronic copies of signatures (e.g., .pdf), with electronic copies of this executed Lease having the same force and effect as original counterpart signatures hereto for all purposes.

41.10 Interpretation. Both Landlord and Tenant have been represented by counsel and this Lease and every provision hereof has been freely and fairly negotiated. Consequently, all provisions of this Lease shall be interpreted according to their fair meaning and shall not be strictly construed against any party.

41.12 Further Assurances. The Parties agree to promptly sign all documents reasonably requested to give effect to the provisions of this Lease. In addition, Landlord agrees to, at Tenant's sole cost and expense, reasonably cooperate with all applicable Gaming Authorities and Liquor Authorities in connection with the administration of their regulatory jurisdiction over Tenant, Tenant's direct and indirect parent(s) and their respective Subsidiaries, if any, including the provision of such documents and other information as may be requested by such Gaming Authorities or Liquor Authorities relating to Tenant, Tenant's direct and indirect parent(s) or any of their respective Subsidiaries, if any, or to this Lease and which are within Landlord's reasonable control to obtain and provide.

41.13 Gaming Regulations. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease, this Lease and any agreement formed pursuant to the terms hereof are subject to all applicable Gaming Regulations and all applicable laws involving the sale, distribution and possession of alcoholic beverages (the "Liquor Laws"). Without limiting the foregoing, each of Tenant and Landlord acknowledges that (i) it is subject to being called forward by any applicable Gaming Authority or governmental authority enforcing the Liquor Laws (the "Liquor Authority") with jurisdiction over this Lease or the Facility, in each of their discretion, for licensing or a finding of suitability or to file or provide other information, and (ii) all rights, remedies and powers under this Lease and any agreement formed pursuant to the terms hereof, including with respect to the entry into and ownership and operation of a Gaming Facility, and the possession or control of Gaming equipment, alcoholic beverages or a Gaming License or liquor license, may be exercised only to the extent that the exercise thereof does not violate any applicable provisions of the Gaming Regulations and Liquor Laws and only to the extent that required approvals (including prior approvals) are obtained from the requisite governmental authorities.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Lease or any agreement formed pursuant to the terms hereof, (subject to Section 41.12) each of Tenant, Landlord, and each of Tenant's or Landlord's successors and assigns agree to cooperate with each Gaming Authority and each Liquor Authority in connection with the administration of their regulatory jurisdiction over the Parties, including, without limitation, the provision of such documents or other information as may be requested by any such Gaming Authorities and/or Liquor Authorities relating to Tenant, Landlord, Tenant's or Landlord's successors and assigns or to this Lease or any agreement formed pursuant to the terms hereof.

If there shall occur a Licensing Event, then the Party with respect to which such Licensing Event occurs shall notify the other Party, as promptly as practicable after becoming aware of such Licensing Event (but in no event later than twenty (20) days after becoming aware of such Licensing Event). In such event, the Party with respect to which such Licensing Event has occurred, shall and shall cause any applicable Affiliates to use commercially reasonable efforts to resolve such Licensing Event within the time period required by the applicable Gaming Authorities by submitting to investigation by the relevant Gaming Authorities and cooperating with any reasonable requests made by such Gaming Authorities (including filing requested forms and delivering information to the Gaming Authorities). If the Party with respect to which such Licensing Event has occurred cannot otherwise resolve the Licensing Event within the time period required by the applicable Gaming Authorities and any aspect of such Licensing Event is attributable to any Person(s) other than such Party, then such Party shall disassociate with the applicable Persons to resolve the Licensing Event. It shall be a material breach of this Lease by Landlord if a Licensing Event with respect to Landlord shall occur and is not resolved in accordance with this Section 41.13 within the later of (i) thirty (30) days or (ii) such additional time period as may be permitted by the applicable Gaming Authorities.

41.14 Intentionally Omitted.

41.15 Intentionally Omitted.

41.16 Savings Clause. If for any reason this Lease is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid as to any space that would otherwise be a part of the Leased Property and that is subject to a pre-existing lease as of the Commencement Date (between Tenant's predecessor in interest prior to the Commencement Date, as landlord, and a third party as tenant), then Landlord shall be deemed to be the landlord under such pre-existing lease, and the Parties agree that Tenant shall be deemed to be the collection agent for Landlord for purposes of collecting rent and other amounts payable by the tenant under such pre-existing lease and shall remit the applicable collected amounts to Landlord. In such event, the Rent payable hereunder shall be deemed to be reduced by any amounts so collected by Tenant and remitted to Landlord with respect to any such pre-existing lease.

41.17 Integration with Other Documents. Each of Tenant and Landlord acknowledge and agree that certain operating efficiencies and value will be achieved as a result of Tenant's and Other Tenants' lease of the Leased Property and the Other Leased Property, respectively. Each of Tenant and Landlord acknowledge and agree that the Parties would not enter into this Lease absent the understanding and agreement of the Parties that the entire ownership, operation, management, lease and lease guaranty relationship with respect to the Leased Property, including (without limitation) the lease of the Leased Property pursuant to this Lease, the use of Managed Facilities IP and the use of the Caesars Rewards Program, together with the other related intellectual property arrangements contemplated herein and the other covenants, obligations and agreements of the Parties hereunder, form part of a single integrated transaction. Accordingly, it is the express intention and agreement of each of Tenant and Landlord that the Parties would not be entering into this Lease without entering into the Other Leases and in the event of any bankruptcy, insolvency or dissolution proceedings in respect of any Party, no Party will reject, move to reject, or join or support any other Party in attempting to reject any one of this Lease or the Other Leases without rejecting the other agreements as if each of this Lease and the Other Leases were one integrated agreement and not separable.

41.18 Intentionally Omitted.

41.19 Intentionally Omitted.

41.20 Intentionally Omitted.

41.21 Intentionally Omitted.

41.22 Confidential Information. Each Party hereby agrees to, and to cause its Representatives to, maintain the confidentiality of all non-public information received pursuant to this Lease; provided that nothing herein shall prevent any Party from disclosing any such non-public information (a) in the case of Landlord, to PropCo 1, PropCo and Landlord REIT and any Affiliate thereof, (b) in the case of Tenant, to CEOC, ERI and any Affiliate thereof, (c) in any legal, judicial or administrative proceeding or other compulsory process or otherwise as required by applicable Legal Requirements (in which case the disclosing Party shall promptly notify the other Parties, in advance, to the extent permitted by law), (d) upon the request or demand of any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over a Party or its affiliates (in which case the disclosing Party shall, other than with respect to routine, periodic inspections by such regulatory authority, promptly notify the other Parties, in advance, to the extent permitted by law), (e) to its Representatives who are informed of the confidential nature of such information and have agreed to keep such information confidential (and the disclosing Party shall be responsible for such Representatives' compliance therewith), (f) to the extent any such information becomes publicly available other than by reason of disclosure by the disclosing Party or any of its respective Representatives in breach of this Section 41.22, (g) to the extent that such information is received by such Party from a third party that is not, to such Party's knowledge, subject to confidentiality obligations owing to the other Parties or any of their respective affiliates or related parties, (h) to the extent that such information is independently developed by such Party or (i) as permitted under the first sentence of Section 23.2(a). Each of the Parties acknowledges that it and its Representatives may receive material non-public information with respect to the other Party and its Affiliates and that each such Party is aware (and will so advise its Representatives) that federal and state securities laws and other applicable laws may impose restrictions on purchasing, selling, engaging in transactions or otherwise trading in securities of the other Party and its Affiliates with respect to which such Party or its Representatives has received material non-public information so long as such information remains material non-public information.

41.23 Time of Essence. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE OF THIS LEASE AND EACH PROVISION HEREOF IN WHICH TIME OF PERFORMANCE IS ESTABLISHED.

41.24 Consents, Approvals and Notices.

(a) All consents and approvals that may be given under this Lease shall, as a condition of their effectiveness, be in writing. The granting of any consent or approval by Landlord or Tenant to the performance of any act by Tenant or Landlord requiring the consent or approval of Landlord or Tenant under any of the terms or provisions of this Lease shall relate only to the specified act or acts thereby consented to or approved and, unless otherwise specified, shall not be deemed a waiver of the necessity for such consent or approval for the same or any similar act in the future, and/or the failure on the part of Landlord or Tenant to object to any such action taken by Tenant or Landlord without the consent or approval of the other Party, shall not be deemed a waiver of their right to require such consent or approval for any further similar act; and Tenant hereby expressly covenants and agrees that as to all matters requiring Landlord's consent or approval under any of the terms of this Lease, Tenant shall secure such consent or approval for each and every happening of the event requiring such consent or approval, and shall not claim any waiver on the part of Landlord of the requirement to secure such consent or approval.

(b) Each Party acknowledges that in granting any consents, approvals or authorizations under this Lease, and in providing any advice, assistance, recommendation or direction under this Lease, neither such Party nor any Affiliates thereof guarantee success or a satisfactory result from the subject of such consent, approval, authorization, advice, assistance, recommendation or direction. Accordingly, each Party agrees that neither such Party nor any of its Affiliates shall have any liability whatsoever to any other Party or any third party by reason of: (i) any consent, approval or authorization, or advice, assistance, recommendation or direction, given or withheld; or (ii) any delay or failure to provide any consent, approval or authorization, or advice, assistance, recommendation or direction (except in the event of a breach of a covenant herein not to unreasonably withhold or delay any consent or approval); provided, however, each agrees to act in good faith when dealing with or providing any advice, consent, assistance, recommendation or direction.

(c) Any notice, report or information required to be delivered by Tenant hereunder may be delivered collectively with any other notices, reports or information required to be delivered by Tenant hereunder as part of a single report, notice or communication. Any such notice, report or information may be delivered to Landlord by Tenant providing a representative of Landlord with access to Tenant's or its Affiliate's electronic databases or other information systems containing the applicable information and notice that information has been posted on such database or system.

41.25 No Release of Guarantor. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Lease, Guarantor shall not be released from its obligations under the Guaranty, except as and to the extent expressly provided in the Guaranty.

41.26 Intentionally Omitted.

41.27 Notice of IP Infringement. Tenant shall promptly notify Landlord in writing of any action filed with any governmental authority against Services Co or Tenant alleging infringement, misappropriation, or other violation of any alleged material Intellectual Property right of any third party relating to or arising out of the use or registration of any material Managed Facilities IP over which Landlord or any of its Affiliates have been granted a lien pursuant to this Lease or otherwise.

41.28 Amendments. This Lease may not be amended except by a written agreement executed by all Parties hereto.

CEOC hereby joins in, and has executed this Lease (Joliet) for the purpose of guaranteeing: (a) eighty percent (80%) of the payment obligations of Tenant hereunder (including, without limitation, payment obligations with respect to damages arising from Tenant's failure to perform non-monetary obligations of Tenant hereunder); and (b) the performance of the non-monetary obligations of Tenant hereunder to the extent Tenant is ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction to perform specific performance with respect to such non-monetary obligations.

In connection with this joinder, CEOC hereby waives and agrees not to assert or take advantage of the following defenses: (i) any defense that may arise by reason of the incapacity, lack of authority, death or disability of any person or entity, or revocation hereof by any person or entity, or the failure of Tenant to file or enforce a claim against the estate (either in administration, bankruptcy, or any other proceeding) of any other Person; (ii) diligence, presentment, notice of acceptance, notice of dishonor, notice of presentment, or demand for payment of or performance of the obligations guaranteed under this joinder (other than as required with respect to Tenant under this Lease) and other suretyship defenses generally; (iii) any defense that may arise by reason of any action required by any statute to be taken against Tenant; (iv) the dissolution or termination of the existence of Tenant; (v) any defense that may arise by reason of the voluntary or involuntary liquidation, sale, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of Tenant; (vi) any defense that may arise by reason of the voluntary or involuntary receivership, insolvency, bankruptcy, assignment for the benefit of creditors, reorganization, assignment, composition, or readjustment of, or any similar proceeding affecting, Tenant or any of Tenant's assets; (vii) any right of subrogation, indemnity or reimbursement against Tenant or any right to enforce any remedy which Landlord may have against Tenant at any time during which a Tenant Event of Default under and as defined in this Lease has occurred and is continuing; (viii) any and all rights and defenses arising out of an election of remedies by Landlord, even though that election of remedies might impair or destroy any right, if any, of CEOC of subrogation, indemnity or reimbursement; (ix) any defense based upon Tenant's failure to disclose to CEOC any information concerning Tenant's financial condition or any other circumstances bearing on Tenant's ability to pay all sums payable under or in respect of this Lease; and (x) any defense based upon any statute or rule of law which provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in any other respects more burdensome than that of a principal.

CEOC's liability under this joinder is primary, direct and unconditional and may be enforced in full or in part, from time to time, after nonpayment or nonperformance by Tenant of any of the obligations guaranteed hereunder, in each case without requiring Landlord to resort to any other person or entity, including, without limitation, Tenant, or any other right, remedy or collateral. This joinder constitutes a guaranty of payment and performance and not of collection only. This joinder is a continuing, absolute and unconditional guaranty of the obligations guaranteed hereunder, and liability hereunder shall in no way be affected or diminished by any renewal, extension, amendment or modification of this Lease or any waiver of any of the provisions hereof. CEOC agrees that any act which tolls any statute of limitations applicable to this Lease shall similarly operate to toll the statute of limitations applicable to CEOC's liability under this joinder.

CEOC's obligations with respect to the payment and performance of the obligations guaranteed under this joinder shall survive for so long as Tenant has any obligations to Landlord under this Lease.

THIS JOINDER SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, WITHOUT GIVING EFFECT TO ANY PRINCIPLES REGARDING CONFLICT OF LAWS.

ANY LITIGATION OR OTHER COURT PROCEEDING WITH RESPECT TO ANY MATTER ARISING FROM OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS JOINDER SHALL BE CONDUCTED IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK AND ANY APPELLATE COURTS THERETO, OR IF FEDERAL JURISDICTION IS LACKING, THEN IN THE STATE COURTS OF NEW YORK STATE LOCATED IN NEW YORK COUNTY. THE PARTIES AGREE THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS FOR PURPOSES OF ANY SUCH LITIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING NEED NOT BE PERSONALLY SERVED WITHIN THE STATE OF NEW YORK, BUT MAY BE SERVED WITH THE SAME EFFECT AS IF THE PARTY IN QUESTION WERE SERVED WITHIN THE STATE OF NEW YORK, BY GIVING NOTICE CONTAINING SUCH SERVICE TO THE INTENDED RECIPIENT (WITH COPIES TO COUNSEL) IN THE MANNER PROVIDED IN Article XXXV.

Concurrently herewith, Landlord, Tenant and, solely for the purposes of the last paragraph of Section 1.1 of the Lease, Propco TRS LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, are entering into that certain Second Amendment to Lease (Joliet) ("Second Amendment"; the Prior Joliet Lease, as amended by the Second Amendment, and as may be further amended, restated, supplemented, waived or otherwise modified from time to time, collectively the "Lease"), whereby certain modifications are being made thereto. All capitalized terms used, and not otherwise defined, herein shall have the same meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

C. Guarantor owns eighty percent (80%) of the equity interests in Tenant, and Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that it will derive substantial benefits from the Lease, that this Guaranty is given in accordance with the requirements of the Lease and that Landlord would not have been willing to enter into the Second Amendment unless Guarantor was willing to execute and deliver this Guaranty.

AGREEMENTS

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of Landlord entering into the Lease with Tenant, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. In consideration of the benefit derived or to be derived by it from the Lease. Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to Landlord, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety, the following (the matters described in the following clause (a) and clause (b), collectively, the "Obligations"), whenever incurred or accrued, including, without limitation, before the date of execution of this Guaranty:

(a) the faithful, prompt and complete payment and performance in full in cash of all monetary obligations of Tenant under the Lease when due (including, without limitation, during any Transition Period), including, without limitation, (i) all Rent and Additional Charges of any nature and any and all other sums payable by Tenant under the Lease, (ii) Tenant's obligation to expend the Required Capital Expenditures in accordance with the Lease (or to deposit sums into the Cap Ex Reserve) and any other expenditures of any nature required of Tenant under the Lease, and (iii) Tenant's obligation to pay monetary damages in connection with any breach of the Lease and to pay indemnification obligations, in each case as provided in and subject to all applicable terms of the Lease; and in each case under clause (a) and clause (b), including (x) amounts that would become due but for the operation of the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code (as defined below) or similar laws, and (y) any late charges and interest provided for under the Lease (including interest accruing dining the pendency of any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or other similar proceeding, whether or not a claim for such interest is allowed or allowable in such proceeding). In the event of the failure of Tenant to pay any Rent, Additional Charges or any other sums under the Lease, or to render any other performance required of Tenant under the Lease, when due or within any applicable cure period, subject to the second (2nd) to last sentence of this Section 1. Guarantor shall forthwith (i) pay and perform or cause to be paid and performed any and all such Obligations, in each case to the full extent provided under the Lease, and (ii) pay all reasonable costs of collection or enforcement and other actual damages suffered or incurred by Landlord that result from the non-performance thereof. As to the Obligations, Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty is without limit except solely as and to the extent provided in the second (2nd) to last sentence of this Section 1 and in Section 13 hereof. Guarantor agrees that its guarantee provided herein constitutes a guarantee of payment and performance and not of collection. Subject to the second (2nd) to last sentence of this Section 1, Guarantor shall be jointly and severally liable with Tenant for the payment and performance of the Obligations.

Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, (i) except as provided in the succeeding clause (ii), in respect of any monetary Obligations that are owed under this Guaranty, Guarantor shall be required to pay eighty percent (80%), but not more than eighty percent (80%), of such Obligations; and (ii) the preceding clause (i) shall not apply with respect to (x) any Obligations in respect of Required Capital Expenditures under the Lease, (y) any Obligations under Section 1(b) of this Guaranty or (z) any Obligations under clause (ii) of the sixth (6th) to last sentence of this Section 1 comprising costs of collection under, or enforcement of, this Guaranty. For avoidance of doubt, clause (i) of the preceding sentence is not intended to, and shall not be deemed to, change, modify or otherwise reduce the "Obligations" (as such term is defined in the Guaranty in respect of the Regional Lease (the "Regional Lease Guaranty")) under the Regional Lease Guaranty or otherwise violate or supersede any of the provisions, terms and conditions of the Regional Lease Guaranty, including, without limitation, the obligations of Guarantor (as defined in the Regional Lease Guaranty) in respect of the Obligations (as defined in the Regional Lease Guaranty) in respect of the Required Capital Expenditures (as defined in the Regional Lease) under the Regional Lease.

2. Survival of Obligations. The obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty shall survive and continue in full force and effect, and shall not be released, diminished, impaired, reduced or adversely affected by any of the following, whether or not notice thereof is given to Guarantor:

(f) any limitation of Tenant's liability under the Lease or any limitation of Tenant's liability thereunder which may now or hereafter be imposed by any statute, regulation or rule of law. or any illegality, irregularity, invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of the Lease or any term thereof;

(g) subject to Section 14 hereof, any sale, lease, or transfer of all or any part of any interest in the Facility or any portion thereof or any or all of the assets of Tenant to any other Person other than to Landlord;

(h) any act or omission by Landlord with respect to any of the security instruments or any failure to file, record or otherwise perfect any of the same;

(i) any breach by (or any act or omission of any nature of) Landlord under or in respect of the Lease;

(j) any extensions of time for performance under the Lease;

(k) the release of Tenant from performance or observation of any of the agreements, covenants, terms or conditions contained in the Lease by operation of law or otherwise;

(l) the fact that Tenant may or may not be personally liable, in whole or in part, under the terms of the Lease to pay any money judgment;

(m) the failure to give Guarantor any notice of acceptance, default or otherwise;

(n) any rights, powers or privileges Landlord may now or hereafter have against any other Person or collateral;

(o) except as provided in Section 14 below, any assignment of the Lease, or any subletting or subsubletting of, or any other occupancy arrangements in respect of, all or any part of the Facility;

(p) any other defenses, other than a defense of payment or performance in full, as the case may be, of the Obligations;

(q) the existence of any claim, setoff, counterclaim, defense or other rights that may at any time be available to, or asserted by, Guarantor or Tenant against Landlord, whether in connection with the Lease, the Obligations or otherwise;

(r) any law or statute that may operate to cap, limit, or otherwise restrict the claims of a lessor of real property, including, but not limited to. Section 502(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(s) the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of all or any part of the Obligations, or of any document or agreement (including the Lease) executed in connection with the Obligations, for any reason whatsoever;

(t) the unenforceability (for any reason whatsoever) of this Guaranty, including, without limitation, as a result of rejection in any bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution or other proceeding; or

(u) any other circumstances, whether or not Guarantor had notice or knowledge thereof.

3. Primary Liability. The liability of Guarantor with respect to the Obligations shall be a primary, direct, immediate, continuing and unconditional guaranty of payment and performance and not of collection, may not be revoked by Guarantor and shall continue to be effective with respect to all of the Obligations notwithstanding any attempted revocation by Guarantor and shall not be conditional or contingent upon the genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of the Lease or any other documents or instruments relating to the Obligations, including, without limitation, any Person's lack of authority or lawful right to enter into such document on such Person's behalf, or the pursuit by Landlord of any remedies Landlord may have. Without limitation of the foregoing, Landlord may proceed against Guarantor: (a) prior to or in lieu of proceeding against Tenant, its assets, any security deposit, or any other guarantor or any other Person; and (b) prior to or in lieu of pursuing any other rights or remedies available to Landlord. All rights and remedies afforded to Landlord by reason of this Guaranty or by law are separate, independent and cumulative, and the exercise of any rights or remedies shall not in any way limit, restrict or prejudice the exercise of any other rights or remedies.

Following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default, a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against Guarantor whether or not Tenant is joined therein or a separate action or actions are brought against Tenant. Landlord may maintain successive actions for other defaults. Landlord's rights hereunder shall not be exhausted by its exercise of any of its rights or remedies or by any such action or by any number of successive actions until and unless all indebtedness and Obligations, the payment and performance of which are hereby guaranteed, have been paid and fully performed.

4. Obligations Not Affected. In such manner, upon such terms and at such times as Landlord in its sole discretion deems necessary or expedient, and without notice to Guarantor. Landlord may: (a) amend, alter, compromise, accelerate, extend or change the time or manner for the payment or the performance of any Obligation hereby guaranteed; (b) extend, amend or terminate the Lease; or (c) release Tenant by consent to any assignment (or otherwise) as to all or any portion of the Obligations hereby guaranteed, in each case pursuant to the terms of the Lease. Any exercise or non-exercise by Landlord of any right hereby given to Landlord, dealing by Landlord with Guarantor or any other guarantor. Tenant or any other Person, or change, impairment, release or suspension of any right or remedy of Landlord against any Person, including, without limitation. Tenant and any other guarantor, will not affect any of the Obligations of Guarantor hereunder or give Guarantor any recourse or offset against Landlord.

5. Waiver. With respect to the Lease. Guarantor hereby waives and relinquishes all rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to sureties and/or guarantors or any other accommodation parties, under any statutory provisions, common law or any other provision of law. custom or practice, and agrees not to assert or take advantage of any such rights or remedies including, but not limited to;

(a) any right to require Landlord to proceed against Tenant or any other Person or to proceed against or exhaust any security held by Landlord at any time or to pursue any other remedy in Landlord's power before proceeding against Guarantor or to require that Landlord cause a marshaling of Tenant's assets or any assets given as collateral for this Guaranty, or to proceed against Tenant and/or any collateral held by Landlord at any time or in any particular order;

(b) any defense that may arise by reason of the incapacity or lack of authority of any Person or Persons;

(c) notice of the existence, creation or incurring of any new or additional indebtedness or obligation or of any action or non-action on the part of Tenant, Landlord, any creditor of Tenant or Guarantor or on the part of any other Person whomsoever under this or any other instrument in connection with any obligation or evidence of indebtedness held by Landlord or in connection with any obligation hereby guaranteed;

(d) any defense based upon an election of remedies by Landlord which destroys or otherwise impairs the subrogation rights of Guarantor or the right of Guarantor to proceed against Tenant for reimbursement, or both;

(e) any defense based upon any statute or role of law which provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal;

(f) any duty on the part of Landlord to disclose to Guarantor any facts Landlord may now or hereafter know about Tenant, regardless of whether Landlord has reason to believe that any such facts materially increase the risk beyond that which Guarantor intends to assume or has reason to believe that such facts are unknown to Guarantor or has a reasonable opportunity to communicate such facts to Guarantor, it being understood and agreed that Guarantor is hilly responsible for being and keeping informed of the financial condition of Tenant and of all circumstances bearing on the risk of non-payment or non-performance of any Obligations or indebtedness hereby guaranteed;

(g) any defense arising because of Landlord's election, in any proceeding instituted under the Federal Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1978 (11 U.S.C. § 101. et seq.). as amended, reformed or modified from time to time and any rules or regulations issued from time to time thereunder (the "Bankruptcy Code") of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(h) any defense based on any borrowing or grant of a security interest under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; and

(i) all rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to guarantors, including, without limitation, any extension of time conferred by any law now or hereafter in effect and any requirement or notice of acceptance of this Guaranty or any other notice to which the undersigned may now or hereafter be entitled to the extent such waiver of notice is permitted by applicable law.

6. Enforcement.

(a) The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of the obligations of Tenant under the Lease. This Guaranty may be enforced by Landlord without the necessity at any time of resorting to or exhausting any other security (such as. for example, any security deposit of Tenant held by Landlord) or collateral and without the necessity at any time of having recourse to the remedy provisions of the Lease (such as. for example, terminating the Lease) or otherwise, and Guarantor hereby expressly waives the right to require Landlord to proceed against Tenant or any other Person, to exercise its rights and remedies under the Lease, or to pursue any other remedy whatsoever against any Person, security or collateral or enforce any other right at law or in equity. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, it shall not be necessary for Landlord (and Guarantor hereby waives any rights which it may have to require Landlord), in order to enforce any Obligation against Guarantor, first to institute suit or exhaust its remedies against any other Person, security or collateral or resort to any other means of obtaining payment of any Obligation. Nothing herein shall prevent Landlord from suing any Person to enforce the terms of the Lease or from exercising any other rights available to Landlord under the Lease or any other instrument or agreement, and the exercise of any of the aforesaid rights shall not affect the obligations of Guarantor hereunder. Guarantor understands that the exercise, or any forbearance from exercising, by Landlord of certain rights and remedies contained in the Lease may affect or eliminate Guarantor's light of subrogation against Tenant and that Guarantor may therefore incur liability hereunder that is not subject to reimbursement; nevertheless Guarantor hereby authorizes and empowers Landlord to exercise, in its sole discretion, any rights and remedies, or any combination thereof, which may then be available, it being the purpose and intent of Guarantor that its Obligations hereunder shall be absolute, independent and unconditional, in each case in accordance with its terms hereunder.

(b) No failure or delay on the part of Landlord in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Guaranty shall operate as a waiver of or otherwise affect any such right, power or privilege, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

(c) It is understood that Landlord, without impairing this Guaranty, may, subject to the terms of the Lease, apply payments from Tenant or any subtenant of the Leased Property or from any reletting of the Leased Property upon a Tenant Event of Default or from or in connection with any exercise of rights or remedies, to any due and unpaid rent or other charges or to such other Obligations owed by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to the Lease in such amounts and in such order as Landlord, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines; provided that any amount so paid and applied reduces the aggregate outstanding liabilities of Tenant under the Lease by such amount as required under the Lease.

7. Information. Guarantor (a) assumes all responsibility for being and keeping itself informed of the financial condition and assets of Tenant and its Affiliates and any other guarantor, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Obligations and the nature, scope and extent of the risks that Guarantor assumes and incurs hereunder, and (b) agrees that Landlord will not have any duty to advise Guarantor of information regarding such circumstances or risks.

8. No Subrogation. Until the Guaranty Termination Date (as defined in Section 14), Guarantor shall have no right of subrogation and waives (a) any right to enforce any remedy which Guarantor now has or may hereafter have against Tenant or any of Tenant's assets (including any such remedy of Landlord) and any benefit of, and any right to participate in, any security now or hereafter held by Landlord with respect to the Lease, (b) any rights of reimbursement, indemnity or subrogation against Tenant arising from any payment of Obligations by Guarantor, and (c) any right of contribution Guarantor may have against any other Person that is liable under the Lease arising from such payment or otherwise in connection with the Lease or this Guaranty.

9. Agreement to Comply with terms of Lease. Guarantor hereby agrees (a) to comply with all terms of the Lease applicable to it, (b) that it shall take no action, and that it shall not omit to take any action, which action or omission, as applicable, would cause a breach of the terms of the Lease, and (c) that it shall not commence an involuntary proceeding or file an involuntary petition in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking (i) relief in respect of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries, or of a substantial part of the property or assets of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries, under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, or (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries.

10. Agreement to Pay; Contribution; Subordination. Without limitation of any other provision of this Guaranty, including, without limitation, Section 8 above, or any other right of Landlord at law or in equity, subject to the second (2nd) to last sentence of Section 1 above, upon the failure of Tenant to pay any Obligation when and as the same shall become due, Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably promises to and will forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, to Landlord in cash the amount of such unpaid Obligation. Upon payment by Guarantor of any sums to Landlord as provided above, all rights of Guarantor against Tenant arising as a result thereof by way of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise shall be subject to the limitations set forth in Section 8 above and this Section 10. Guarantor further agrees that any rights of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise which Guarantor may have against Tenant or against any collateral or security, and any rights of contribution Guarantor may have against any other Person, in connection with any payment of Obligations or otherwise under this Guaranty or the Lease by Guarantor shall be junior and subordinate to any rights Landlord may have against Tenant or any such other Person, to all right, title and interest Landlord may have in any such collateral or security, and to any rights Landlord may have against Tenant or any such other Person. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of any such reimbursement, indemnity, subrogation or contribution rights at any time prior to the Guaranty Termination Date when a Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such amount shall be held in trust for Landlord and shall forthwith be paid over to Landlord to be credited and applied against the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of the Lease or any applicable security agreement. If for any reason whatsoever Tenant now or hereafter becomes indebted to Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor, such indebtedness and all interest thereon shall at all times be junior and subordinate to Tenant's obligation to Landlord to pay and perform as and when due in accordance with the terms of the Lease the guaranteed Obligations, it being understood that Guarantor and each Affiliate of Guarantor shall be permitted to receive payments from Tenant on account of such indebtedness (but subject in all events to the preceding provisions of this Section 10), except during any period that any Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing. During any such period, Guarantor agrees to make no claim for such indebtedness that does not recite that such claim is expressly junior and subordinate to Landlord's rights and remedies under the Lease. Furthermore, in the event of receivership, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, debtor's relief, or other insolvency proceedings involving Tenant as debtor, Guarantor hereby assigns to Landlord any right it may have to prove its claim in any such proceeding so as to establish its rights hereunder and receive directly from receiver, trustee or other court custodian dividends and payments which would otherwise be payable to Guarantor with respect to debts and liability owing by Tenant to Guarantor up to the amounts owed to Landlord hereunder.

11. Application of Payments. With respect to the Lease, and with or without notice to Guarantor, Landlord, in Landlord's sole discretion and at any time and from time to time and in such manner and upon such terms as Landlord deems appropriate, may (a) following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default, apply any or all payments or recoveries from Tenant or from any other guarantor under any other instrument or realized from any security, in such manner and order of priority as Landlord may determine, to any indebtedness or other obligation of Tenant with respect to the Lease and whether or not such indebtedness or other obligation is guaranteed hereby or is otherwise secured, and (b) refund to Tenant any payment received by Landlord under the Lease.

12. Guaranty Default. Upon the failure of Guarantor to pay the amounts required to be paid hereunder when due following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default under the Lease, Landlord shall have the right to bring such actions at law or in equity, including, without limitation, appropriate injunctive relief, as it deems appropriate to compel compliance, payment or deposit, and among other remedies to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees in any proceeding, including any appeal therefrom and any post judgment proceedings.

13. Maximum Liability. Each of Guarantor and, by its acceptance of the guarantees provided herein, Landlord, hereby confirms that it is the intention of such Person that the guarantees provided herein and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar foreign, federal or state law to the extent applicable to the guarantees provided herein and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder. To effectuate the foregoing intention, Landlord hereby irrevocably agrees that the obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty shall be limited to the maximum amount as will result in such obligations not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

14. Release. Guarantor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder upon the earlier to occur of either of the following: (x) (other than with respect to amounts then due and payable by Guarantor) upon the consummation of a Lease Foreclosure Transaction pursuant to clause (i) of Section 22.2 of the Lease, and (y) upon the irrevocable satisfaction and discharge in full of all of the Obligations (the date upon which such release occurs, the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided (in the case of clause (x)) that Landlord shall have received a Replacement Guaranty from a Qualified Replacement Guarantor in accordance with clause (i) of Section 22.2 of the Lease (and, in the case of such a Replacement Guaranty delivered in connection with a New Lease obtained pursuant to Section 17.1(f) of the Lease, such New Lease shall satisfy the requirements for a New Lease contained in the last sentence of Section 17.1(f), including that it be at the rent and additional rent, and upon the terms, covenants and conditions of, the Lease; it being understood that (i) the Obligations hereunder shall in no event include the obligations of the tenant under a New Lease, and (ii) the preceding clause (i) shall in no event be deemed to vitiate the Obligations hereunder in respect of the Lease).

15. Guarantor's Representations and Warranties. Guarantor represents and warrants that:

(i) Guarantor (a) is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the state of Nevada (it being understood that Guarantor is to be renamed Caesars Entertainment, Inc. and converted to a Delaware corporation on the date hereof following the making by Guarantor of this Guaranty); (b) is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires such qualification; and (c) is in compliance with all applicable Legal Requirements where the failure to comply Would reasonably be expected to have a materially adverse effect on Guarantor's ability to pay or perform the Obligations in accordance with the terms hereof;

(ii) the execution, delivery, and performance of this Guaranty (a) are within Guarantor's corporate powers, (b) have been duly authorized by all necessary or proper corporate action, (c) are not in contravention of any provision of Guarantor's articles or certificate of incorporation or by-laws, (d) will not violate any law or regulation, or any order or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, (e) will not conflict with or result in the breach of, or constitute a default under, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, lease, agreement, or other instrument to which Guarantor is a party or by which Guarantor or any of its property is bound, (f) will not result in the creation or imposition of any lien upon any of the property of Guarantor, and (g) do not require the consent or approval of any governmental body, agency, authority, or any other Person except those already obtained, except in the case of clauses (e) and (g), where such conflict, breach or failure to obtain a consent or approval, would not reasonably be expected to have a materially adverse effect on Guarantor's ability to pay or perform the Obligations in accordance with the terms hereof; and

(iii) this Guaranty is duly executed and delivered on behalf of Guarantor and constitutes a legal, valid, and binding obligation of Guarantor, enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms.

16. Guarantor's Covenants.

(a) Dividends. In addition to any other applicable restrictions hereunder, prior to the Covenant Termination Date (as defined below), Guarantor shall not, directly or indirectly, declare or pay any dividend or make any other distribution with respect to its capital stock or other equity interests with any assets other than cash unless such dividend or distribution would not reasonably be expected to result in Guarantor's inability to perform its Guaranty obligations under this Guaranty.

(b) Restricted Payments. In addition to the foregoing, prior to the Covenant Termination Date, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly (i) declare or pay, or cause to be declared or paid, any dividend, distribution or other direct or indirect payment or transfer (in each case, in cash, stock, other property, a combination thereof or otherwise) with respect to any of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests, (ii) purchase or otherwise acquire or retire for value any of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests, or (iii) engage in any other transaction with any direct or indirect holder of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests which is similar in purpose or effect to those described above (collectively, a "Restricted Payment"), except that (x) Guarantor can execute any of the transactions outlined above if Guarantor's equity market capitalization exceeds $5.5 billion, or (y) if Guarantor's equity market capitalization is less than $5.5 billion, then the Guarantor may declare or pay dividends or distributions or engage in any other transactions described in Section 16(b)(i) above in the aggregate amount of less than or equal to $200 million in any fiscal year and the Guarantor may purchase or otherwise acquire or retire for value, as described in Section 16(b)(ii) above, up to $500 million shares of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests in any fiscal year (it being understood that from and after such time that the aggregate amount of all such transactions dining any fiscal year of Guarantor exceeds $200 million or $500 million, as applicable, as provided in this clause (y), no further such transactions shall be permitted dining such fiscal year of Guarantor under this clause (y)).

(c) Survival of Covenants. As used herein, the term "Covenant Termination Date" shall mean the earliest to occur of (1) the Guaranty Termination Date, (2) October 6, 2023, and (3) the first day on which (x) the Total Net Leverage Ratio of the Guarantor is less than or equal to 5.00:1.00 and (y) the EBITDAR to Rent Ratio is equal to or greater than 3.00:1.00.

For the purpose of the foregoing:

(i) "EBITDAR to Rent Ratio" means the ratio of (a) the EBITDAR of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis during the applicable Trailing Test Period of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries (provided, that, to the extent any such Subsidiary is not wholly owned (directly or indirectly) by Guarantor, the EBITDAR of such Subsidiary shall be limited to Guarantor's pro-rata ownership interests in such Subsidiary) to (b) the sum of (w) the Rent under the Lease, plus (x) the Rent (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease), plus (y) the Rent (as defined in the Regional Lease), plus (z) actual rent (excluding additional rent such as pass-throughs of expenses) payable by Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis under all other Gaming Leases, in each case during such Trailing Test Period (the sum of clauses (w) through (z), tire "Gaming Lease Rent"),

(ii) "Gaming Lease" means a lease entered into by Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to which lease Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries occupy and use real property, vessels or similar assets for, or primarily in connection with, the operation of one or more Gaming Facilities thereon or thereat,

(iii) "EBITDAR" means for any applicable twelve (12) month period, the consolidated net income or loss of a Person on a consolidated basis for such period, determined in accordance with GAAP, provided, however, that without duplication and in each case to the extent included in calculating net income (calculated in accordance with GAAP): (i) income tax expense shall be excluded; (ii) interest expense shall be excluded: (iii) depreciation and amortization expense shall be excluded: (iv) amortization of intangible assets shall be excluded; (v) write-downs and reserves for non-recurring restructuring-related items (net of recoveries) shall be excluded; (vi) reorganization items shall be excluded; (vii) any impairment charges or asset write-offs, non-cash gains, losses, income and expenses resulting from fair value accounting required by the applicable standard under GAAP and related interpretations, and non-cash charges for deferred tax asset valuation allowances, shall be excluded; (viii) any effect of a change in accounting principles or policies shall be excluded; (ix) any non-cash costs or expense incurred pursuant to any management equity plan or stock option plan or any other management or employee benefit plan or agreement or any stock subscription or shareholder agreement shall be excluded; (x) any nonrecurring gains or losses (less all fees and expenses relating thereto) shall be excluded: (xi) rent expense shall be excluded; and (xii) the impact of any deferred proceeds resulting from failed sale accounting shall be excluded (it being understood, in connection with any EBITDAR calculation made pursuant to this Guaranty (a) promptly following request therefor. Guarantor shall provide Landlord with all supporting documentation and backup information with respect thereto as may be reasonably requested by Landlord, (b) such calculation shall be as reasonably agreed upon between Landlord and Guarantor, and (c) if Landlord and Guarantor do not agree within twenty (20) days of either party seeking to commence discussions, the same may be determined by an Expert in accordance with and pursuant to the process set forth in Section 34.2 of the Lease).

(iv) "EBITDA" means the same meaning as "EBITDAR" as defined herein but without giving effect to clause (xi) in the definition thereof (it being understood that to the extent any Gaming Lease Rent is accounted for as interest expense in accordance with GAAP, such interest expense will be accounted for as rent and thus included in clause (xi) of the definition of EBITDAR), and

WHEREAS, Tenant acknowledges that Agent will rely on this Agreement in making the Loan to the Borrower;

WHEREAS, Agent and Tenant desire to evidence their understanding with respect to the Mortgage and the Lease as hereinafter provided; and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Section 31.1 of the Lease, Tenant has agreed to deliver this Agreement and will subordinate the Lease to the Mortgage and to the hen thereof and, in consideration of Tenant's delivery of this Agreement, Agent has agreed not to disturb Tenant's possessory rights in the Property under the Lease on the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth.

NOW. THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual agreements hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Tenant covenants, stipulates and agrees that the Lease and all of Tenant's right, title and interest in and to the Property thereunder (including but not limited to any option to purchase, right of first refusal to purchase or right of first offer to purchase the Property or any portion thereof) is hereby, and shall at all times continue to be, subordinated and made secondary and inferior in each and every respect to the Mortgage and the lien thereof, to all of the terms, conditions and provisions thereof and to any and all advances made or to be made thereunder, so that at all times the Mortgage shall be and remain a lien on the Property prior to and superior to the Lease for all purposes, subject to the provisions set forth herein. Subordination is to have the same force and effect as if the Mortgage and such renewals, modifications, consolidations, replacements and extensions had been executed, acknowledged, delivered and recorded prior to the Lease, any amendments or modifications thereof and any notice thereof.

2. Agent agrees that if Agent exercises any of its rights under the Mortgage, including entry or foreclosure of the Mortgage or exercise of a power of sale under the Mortgage, Agent, or any person who acquires any portion of the Property in a foreclosure or similar proceeding or in a transfer in lieu of any such foreclosure, (a) will not terminate or disturb Tenant's right to use. occupy and possess the Property, nor any of Tenant's rights, privileges and options under the terms of the Lease, so long as there is no continuing Tenant Event of Default (as defined in the Lease) (or, if there is a continuing Tenant Event of Default, this clause (a) shall be subject to the rights granted to a Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (as defined in the Lease) as expressly set forth in the Lease) and (b) will be bound by the provisions of Article XVII of the Lease for the benefit of each Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (as defined in the Lease). In addition, Agent or any person prosecuting such rights and remedies agrees that, so long as the Lease has not been terminated on account of a Tenant Event of Default, Agent or such other person, as the case may be, shall not name or join Tenant as a defendant in any exercise of Agent's or such person's rights and remedies arising upon a default under the Mortgage unless applicable law requires Tenant to be made a party thereto as a condition to proceeding against Landlord. In the latter case, Agent or any person prosecuting such rights and remedies may join Tenant as a defendant in such action only for such purpose and not to terminate the Lease or otherwise adversely affect Tenant's rights under the Lease or this Agreement in such action. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if a Tenant Event of Default has occurred and is continuing at such time that a Successor Landlord (defined below) takes ownership and leasehold title to the Property, such Successor Landlord shall be subject to the terms and provisions in the Lease concerning the exercise of rights and remedies upon such Tenant Event of Default, including the provisions of Articles XVI, XVII and XXXVI.

3. If, at any time Agent (or any person, or such person's successors or assigns, who acquires the interest of Landlord under the Lease through foreclosure of the Mortgage, transfer in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) shall succeed to the rights of Landlord under the Lease as a result of a default or event of default under the Mortgage, Tenant shall attorn to and recognize such person so succeeding to the rights of Landlord under the Lease (herein sometimes called "Successor Landlord") as Tenant's landlord under the Lease, said attornment to be effective and self-operative without the execution of any further instruments.

4. Landlord authorizes and directs Tenant to honor any written demand or notice from Agent instructing Tenant to pay rent or other sums to Agent rather than Landlord (a "Payment Demand"), regardless of any other or contrary notice or instruction which Tenant may receive from Landlord before or after Tenant's receipt of such Payment Demand. Tenant may rely upon any notice, instruction, Payment Demand, certificate, consent or other document from, and signed by, Agent and shall have no duty to investigate the same or the circumstances under which the same was given. Any payment made by Tenant to Agent or in response to a Payment Demand shall be deemed proper payment by Tenant of such sum pursuant to the Lease.

5. (a) If Agent shall become the owner of the Property or the Property shall be sold by reason of foreclosure or other proceedings brought to enforce the Mortgage or if the Property shall be transferred by deed in lieu of foreclosure, Agent or any Successor Landlord shall be deemed to have assumed all terms and covenants of the Lease to be observed or performed by Landlord from and after the date on which such Agent or such Successor Landlord (as the case may be) succeeds to Landlord's interests under the Lease; provided, however, such Agent or Successor Landlord (as the case may be) shall not be:

(i) liable for any act or omission of any prior landlord (including Landlord) or bound by any obligation to make any payment to Tenant which was required to be made prior to the time Agent or such Successor Landlord succeeded to any prior landlord (including Landlord); or

(ii) obligated to cure any defaults of any prior landlord (including Landlord) which occurred, or to make any payment to Tenant which was required to be paid by any prior landlord (including Landlord), prior to the time that Agent or such Successor Landlord succeeded to the interest of such landlord under the Lease; or

(iii) obligated to perform any construction obligations of any prior landlord (including Landlord) under the Lease or liable for any defects (latent, patent or otherwise) in the design, workmanship, materials, construction or otherwise with respect to improvements and buildings constructed on the Property; or

(iv) subject to any offsets, defenses or counterclaims which Tenant may be entitled to assert against any prior landlord (including Landlord); or

(v) bound by any payment of rent or additional rent by Tenant to any prior landlord (including Landlord) for more than one (1) month in advance; or

(vi) bound by any amendment, modification, termination or surrender of the Lease made without the written consent of Agent (except for any amendment or modification entered into pursuant to and in accordance with the Credit Agreement which does not require the consent of Agent, so long as a copy of such amendment or modification is promptly delivered to Agent).

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, (x) Tenant reserves any right it may have to any and all claims or causes of action (i) against Landlord for prior losses or damages arising prior to, and (ii) against the Successor Landlord for all losses or damages arising from and after, the date that such Successor Landlord takes title to the Property, and (y) if (i) at any time Agent (or any person, or such person's successors or assigns, who acquires the Property or the interest of Landlord under the Lease through foreclosure of the Mortgage, transfer in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise) shall acquire the Property or succeed to the rights of Landlord under the Lease as a result of a default or event of default under the Mortgage and (ii) the Successor Landlord or the successor patty that acquires the Property acquires fewer than all of the other Facilities (as such term is defined in the Lease) under the Lease, then (A) such party, on the one hand, and Tenant, on the other hand, will enter into a Severance Lease (as defined in the Lease) in accordance with Article XVIII of the Lease (a "Severance Lease"), and references herein to the Lease shall refer to such Severance Lease from and after the time such Severance Lease is executed, and (B) such Severance Lease will constitute a Severance Lease for all purposes of the Lease (including Section 18.2 of the Lease).

6. Tenant hereby represents, warrants, covenants and agrees to and with Agent:

(a) to use commercially reasonable efforts to deliver to Agent, by certified mail, return receipt requested, a duplicate of each notice of default delivered by Tenant to Landlord at the same time as such notice is given to Landlord and no such notice of default shall be deemed given by Tenant under the Lease unless and until a copy of such notice shall have been so delivered to Agent. Agent shall have the right (but shall not be obligated) to cure such default. Tenant shall accept performance by Agent or its designee of any term, covenant, condition or agreement to be performed by Landlord under the Lease with the same force and effect as though performed by Landlord. Tenant further agrees to afford Agent or the designee a period of thirty (30) days beyond any period afforded to Landlord or its designee for the curing of such default during which period Agent or its designee may elect (but shall not be obligated) to seek to cure such default, or, if such default cannot be cured within that time, then such additional time as may be necessary to cure such default (including but not limited to commencement of foreclosure proceedings) but in no event more than ninety (90) days, during which period Agent or its designee may elect (but shall not be obligated) to seek to cure such default, prior to taking any action to terminate the Lease;

(b) that Tenant is the sole owner of the leasehold estate created by the Lease; and

(c) to promptly certify, to Tenant's knowledge, in writing to Agent, in connection with any proposed assignment of the Mortgage, whether or not any default on the part of Landlord then exists under the Lease and to deliver to Agent any tenant estoppel certificates required under the Lease.

7. Tenant acknowledges that the interest of Landlord under the Lease is assigned to Agent solely as security for the obligations of the Borrower pursuant to the Credit Agreement, and Agent shall have no duty, liability or obligation under the Lease or any extension or renewal thereof, unless Agent shall specifically undertake such liability in writing or Agent becomes and then only with respect to periods in which Agent becomes, the owner and leasehold owner of the Property.

8. This agreement was negotiated in the State of New York, which state the parties agree has a substantial relationship to the parties and to the underlying transaction embodied hereby. Accordingly, in all respects this Agreement (and any agreement formed pursuant to the terms hereof) shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the internal laws of the State of New York (without regard to principles or conflicts of law) and any applicable laws of the United States of America, except that all provisions hereof relating to the creation of the leasehold estate and all remedies set forth in Article XVI of the Lease relating to recovery of possession of the Property (such as an action for unlawful detainer, in rem action or other similar action) shall be construed and enforced according to, and governed by, the laws of the State in which the Property is located.

9. This Agreement and each and every covenant, agreement and other provisions hereof shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns (including, without limitation, any successor agent pursuant to the terms of the Credit Agreement) and may be amended, supplemented, waived or modified only by an instrument in writing executed by the party against which enforcement of the termination, amendment, supplement, waiver or modification is sought. Each Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (as defined in the Lease) (for so long as such Permitted Leasehold Mortgagee (as defined in the Lease) holds a Permitted Leasehold Mortgage (as defined in the Lease)) is an intended third party beneficiary of Section 2(b) entitled to enforce the same as if a party to this Agreement.

CPLV Landlord, as landlord, and Desert Palace LLC, a Nevada limited liability company, Caesars Entertainment Operating Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation, and CEOC, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (as successor by merger to Caesars Entertainment Operating Company, Inc.), collectively as tenant (collectively, "CPLV Tenant"), entered into that certain Lease (CPLV) dated as of October 6, 2017, as amended by that certain First Amendment to Lease (CPLV) between CPLV Landlord and CPLV Tenant dated as of December 26, 2018, and as further amended by that certain Omnibus Amendment to Leases among Landlord, Tenant, certain Affiliates of Landlord and certain Affiliates of Tenant, dated as of June 1, 2020 (collectively, the "Prior CPLV Lease").

B. HLV Landlord, as landlord, and Harrah's Las Vegas, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company, as tenant ("HLV Tenant" together with CPLV Tenant, together with their respective successors and permitted assigns, collectively, "Tenant"; it being understood that, for purposes of this Guaranty, "Tenant" shall include all entities which comprise Tenant from time to time pursuant to and in accordance with the Lease (as defined below)) entered into that certain Amended and Restated Lease dated December 22, 2017, as amended by that certain First Amendment to Amended and Restated Lease dated December 26, 2018 (collectively, the "HLV Lease").

C. Concurrently herewith, (i) the HLV Lease is being terminated, and (ii) Landlord, Tenant and, solely for the purposes of the penultimate paragraph of Section 1.1 of the Lease, Propco TRS LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, are entering into that certain Second Amendment to Lease (CPLV) ("Second Amendment"; the Prior CPLV Lease, as amended by the Second Amendment, and as may be further amended, restated, supplemented, waived or otherwise modified from time to time, collectively the "Lease"), whereby, among other things, the Leased Property (as defined in the HLV Lease) is being incorporated into the Lease and certain other modifications are being made thereto. All capitalized terms used, and not otherwise defined, herein shall have the same meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

D. Tenant is a wholly owned indirect subsidiary of Guarantor, and Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that it will derive substantial benefits from the Lease, that this Guaranty is given in accordance with the requirements of the Lease and that Landlord would not have been willing to enter into the Second Amendment unless Guarantor was willing to execute and deliver this Guaranty.

AGREEMENTS

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of Landlord entering into the Lease with Tenant, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. In consideration of the benefit derived or to be derived by it from the Lease, Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to Landlord, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety, the following (the matters described in the following clause (a), clause (b) and clause (c), collectively, the "Obligations"), whenever incurred or accrued, including, without limitation, before the date of execution of this Guaranty:

(a) the faithful, prompt and complete payment and performance in full in cash of all monetary obligations of Tenant under the Lease when due (including, without limitation, during any Transition Period), including, without limitation, (i) all Rent and Additional Charges of any nature and any and all other sums payable by Tenant under the Lease, (ii) Tenant's obligation to expend the Required Capital Expenditures in accordance with the Lease (or to deposit sums into the Cap Ex Reserve) and any other expenditures of any nature required of Tenant under the Lease, including, but not limited to, the completion of the New Tower (as defined in the Lease) and the payment of all costs and expenses incurred in connection with the construction thereof, in each case to the extent required under the Lease, and (iii) Tenant's obligation to pay monetary damages in connection with any breach of the Lease and to pay indemnification obligations, in each case as provided in and subject to all applicable terms of the Lease;

(b) the faithful, prompt and complete performance when due of (other than the monetary obligations described in clause (a) above) each and every one of the provisions, terms and conditions of the Lease and all covenants, agreements, conditions and requirements to be kept, performed and satisfied by Tenant under the Lease, including, without limitation, all obligations with respect to the operation of the Facility, all indemnification and insurance obligations, and all obligations to maintain, rebuild, restore or replace the Leased Property or any portion thereof or any facilities or improvements now or hereafter located thereat; and

(c) in furtherance of, and without limitation of, clause (a) and clause (b) above, the faithful, prompt and complete payment and performance when due of all obligations of HLV Tenant with respect to any and all claims of HLV Landlord against HLV Tenant under the HLV Lease and all obligations, liabilities and indemnities of HLV Tenant under the HLV Lease, in each case arising (or in respect of any period) prior to the termination of the HLV Lease, in each case under clause (a), clause (b) and clause (c), including (x) amounts that would become due but for the operation of the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code (as defined below) or similar laws, and (y) any late charges and interest provided for under the Lease (including interest accruing during the pendency of any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or other similar proceeding, whether or not a claim for such interest is allowed or allowable in such proceeding). In the event of the failure of Tenant to pay any Rent, Additional Charges or any other sums under the Lease, or to render any other performance required of Tenant under the Lease, when due or within any applicable cure period, Guarantor shall forthwith (i) pay and perform or cause to be paid and performed any and all such Obligations, in each case to the full extent provided under the Lease, and (ii) pay all reasonable costs of collection or enforcement and other actual damages suffered or incurred by Landlord that result from the non-performance thereof. As to the Obligations, Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty is without limit except solely as and to the extent provided in Section 13 hereof. Guarantor agrees that its guarantee provided herein constitutes a guarantee of payment and performance and not of collection. Guarantor shall be jointly and severally liable with Tenant for the payment and performance of the Obligations.

2. Survival of Obligations. The obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty shall survive and continue in full force and effect, and shall not be released, diminished, impaired, reduced or adversely affected by any of the following, whether or not notice thereof is given to Guarantor:

(a) any amendment, modification, renewal or extension of the Lease pursuant to its terms;

(b) any compromise, release, consent, extension, indulgence, forbearance or other action or inaction in respect of any terms of the Lease or any other instrument or agreement by Landlord or by any other Person;

(c) any substitution or release, in whole or in part, of any security for this Guaranty which Landlord may hold at any time;

(d) any exercise or non-exercise by Landlord of any right, power or remedy under or in respect of the Lease or any security held by Landlord with respect thereto, or any waiver of (or failure to enforce) any such right, power or remedy;

(e) any change in the existence, structure or ownership of, or any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, assignment for the benefit of creditors, receivership or trusteeship affecting, Tenant, Landlord or Guarantor or their respective successors or assigns or any of their respective Affiliates or any of their respective assets, or any actual or attempted rejection, assumption, assignment, separation, severance, or recharacterization of the Lease or any portion thereof or any obligations thereunder, or any discharge of liability thereunder, in connection with any such proceeding or otherwise;

(f) any limitation of Tenant's liability under the Lease or any limitation of Tenant's liability thereunder which may now or hereafter be imposed by any statute, regulation or rule of law, or any illegality, irregularity, invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of the Lease or any term thereof;

(g) subject to Section 14 hereof, any sale, lease, or transfer of all or any part of any interest in any Facility or any portion thereof or any or all of the assets of Tenant to any other Person other than to Landlord;

(h) any act or omission by Landlord with respect to any of the security instruments or any failure to file, record or otherwise perfect any of the same;

(i) any breach by (or any act or omission of any nature of) Landlord under or in respect of the Lease;

(j) any extensions of time for performance under the Lease;

(k) the release of Tenant from performance or observation of any of the agreements, covenants, terms or conditions contained in the Lease by operation of law or otherwise;

(l) the fact that Tenant may or may not be personally liable, in whole or in part, under the terms of the Lease to pay any money judgment;

(m) the failure to give Guarantor any notice of acceptance, default or otherwise;

(n) any rights, powers or privileges Landlord may now or hereafter have against any other Person or collateral;

(o) except as provided in Section 14 below, any assignment of the Lease, or any subletting or subsubletting of, or any other occupancy arrangements in respect of, all or any part of the Facility;

(p) any other defenses, other than a defense of payment or performance in full, as the case may be, of the Obligations;

(q) the existence of any claim, setoff, counterclaim, defense or other rights that may at any time be available to, or asserted by, Guarantor or Tenant against Landlord, whether in connection with the Lease, the Obligations or otherwise;

(r) any law or statute that may operate to cap, limit, or otherwise restrict the claims of a lessor of real property, including, but not limited to, Section 502(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(s) the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of all or any part of the Obligations, or of any document or agreement (including the Lease) executed in connection with the Obligations, for any reason whatsoever;

(t) the unenforceability (for any reason whatsoever) of this Guaranty, including, without limitation, as a result of rejection in any bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution or other proceeding; or

(u) any other circumstances, whether or not Guarantor had notice or knowledge thereof.

3. Primary Liability. The liability of Guarantor with respect to the Obligations shall be a primary, direct, immediate, continuing and unconditional guaranty of payment and performance and not of collection, may not be revoked by Guarantor and shall continue to be effective with respect to all of the Obligations notwithstanding any attempted revocation by Guarantor and shall not be conditional or contingent upon the genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of the Lease or any other documents or instruments relating to the Obligations, including, without limitation, any Person's lack of authority or lawful right to enter into such document on such Person's behalf, or the pursuit by Landlord of any remedies Landlord may have. Without limitation of the foregoing, Landlord may proceed against Guarantor: (a) prior to or in lieu of proceeding against Tenant, its assets, any security deposit, or any other guarantor or any other Person; and (b) prior to or in lieu of pursuing any other rights or remedies available to Landlord. All rights and remedies afforded to Landlord by reason of this Guaranty or by law are separate, independent and cumulative, and the exercise of any rights or remedies shall not in any way limit, restrict or prejudice the exercise of any other rights or remedies.

Following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default, a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against Guarantor whether or not Tenant is joined therein or a separate action or actions are brought against Tenant. Landlord may maintain successive actions for other defaults. Landlord's rights hereunder shall not be exhausted by its exercise of any of its rights or remedies or by any such action or by any number of successive actions until and unless all indebtedness and Obligations, the payment and performance of which are hereby guaranteed, have been paid and fully performed.

4. Obligations Not Affected. In such manner, upon such terms and at such times as Landlord in its sole discretion deems necessary or expedient, and without notice to Guarantor, Landlord may: (a) amend, alter, compromise, accelerate, extend or change the time or manner for the payment or the performance of any Obligation hereby guaranteed; (b) extend, amend or terminate the Lease; or (c) release Tenant by consent to any assignment (or otherwise) as to all or any portion of the Obligations hereby guaranteed, in each case pursuant to the terms of the Lease. Any exercise or non-exercise by Landlord of any right hereby given to Landlord, dealing by Landlord with Guarantor or any other guarantor, Tenant or any other Person, or change, impairment, release or suspension of any right or remedy of Landlord against any Person, including, without limitation, Tenant and any other guarantor, will not affect any of the Obligations of Guarantor hereunder or give Guarantor any recourse or offset against Landlord.

5. Waiver. With respect to the Lease, Guarantor hereby waives and relinquishes all rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to sureties and/or guarantors or any other accommodation parties, under any statutory provisions, common law or any other provision of law, custom or practice, and agrees not to assert or take advantage of any such rights or remedies including, but not limited to:

(a) any right to require Landlord to proceed against Tenant or any other Person or to proceed against or exhaust any security held by Landlord at any time or to pursue any other remedy in Landlord's power before proceeding against Guarantor or to require that Landlord cause a marshaling of Tenant's assets or any assets given as collateral for this Guaranty, or to proceed against Tenant and/or any collateral held by Landlord at any time or in any particular order;

(b) any defense that may arise by reason of the incapacity or lack of authority of any Person or Persons;

(c) notice of the existence, creation or incurring of any new or additional indebtedness or obligation or of any action or non-action on the part of Tenant, Landlord, any creditor of Tenant or Guarantor or on the part of any other Person whomsoever under this or any other instrument in connection with any obligation or evidence of indebtedness held by Landlord or in connection with any obligation hereby guaranteed;

(d) any defense based upon an election of remedies by Landlord which destroys or otherwise impairs the subrogation rights of Guarantor or the right of Guarantor to proceed against Tenant for reimbursement, or both;

(e) any defense based upon any statute or rule of law which provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal;

(f) any duty on the part of Landlord to disclose to Guarantor any facts Landlord may now or hereafter know about Tenant, regardless of whether Landlord has reason to believe that any such facts materially increase the risk beyond that which Guarantor intends to assume or has reason to believe that such facts are unknown to Guarantor or has a reasonable opportunity to communicate such facts to Guarantor, it being understood and agreed that Guarantor is fully responsible for being and keeping informed of the financial condition of Tenant and of all circumstances bearing on the risk of non-payment or non-performance of any Obligations or indebtedness hereby guaranteed;

(g) any defense arising because of Landlord's election, in any proceeding instituted under the Federal Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1978 (11 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.), as amended, reformed or modified from time to time and any rules or regulations issued from time to time thereunder (the "Bankruptcy Code") of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(h) any defense based on any borrowing or grant of a security interest under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; and

(i) all rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to guarantors, including, without limitation, any extension of time conferred by any law now or hereafter in effect and any requirement or notice of acceptance of this Guaranty or any other notice to which the undersigned may now or hereafter be entitled to the extent such waiver of notice is permitted by applicable law.

6. Enforcement.

(a) The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of the obligations of Tenant under the Lease. This Guaranty may be enforced by Landlord without the necessity at any time of resorting to or exhausting any other security (such as, for example, any security deposit of Tenant held by Landlord) or collateral and without the necessity at any time of having recourse to the remedy provisions of the Lease (such as, for example, terminating the Lease) or otherwise, and Guarantor hereby expressly waives the right to require Landlord to proceed against Tenant or any other Person, to exercise its rights and remedies under the Lease, or to pursue any other remedy whatsoever against any Person, security or collateral or enforce any other right at law or in equity. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, it shall not be necessary for Landlord (and Guarantor hereby waives any rights which it may have to require Landlord), in order to enforce any Obligation against Guarantor, first to institute suit or exhaust its remedies against any other Person, security or collateral or resort to any other means of obtaining payment of any Obligation. Nothing herein shall prevent Landlord from suing any Person to enforce the terms of the Lease or from exercising any other rights available to Landlord under the Lease or any other instrument or agreement, and the exercise of any of the aforesaid rights shall not affect the obligations of Guarantor hereunder. Guarantor understands that the exercise, or any forbearance from exercising, by Landlord of certain rights and remedies contained in the Lease may affect or eliminate Guarantor's right of subrogation against Tenant and that Guarantor may therefore incur liability hereunder that is not subject to reimbursement; nevertheless Guarantor hereby authorizes and empowers Landlord to exercise, in its sole discretion, any rights and remedies, or any combination thereof, which may then be available, it being the purpose and intent of Guarantor that its Obligations hereunder shall be absolute, independent and unconditional, in each case in accordance with its terms hereunder.

(b) No failure or delay on the part of Landlord in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Guaranty shall operate as a waiver of or otherwise affect any such right, power or privilege, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

(c) It is understood that Landlord, without impairing this Guaranty, may, subject to the terms of the Lease, apply payments from Tenant or any subtenant of the Leased Property or from any reletting of the Leased Property upon a Tenant Event of Default or from or in connection with any exercise of rights or remedies, to any due and unpaid rent or other charges or to such other Obligations owed by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to the Lease in such amounts and in such order as Landlord, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines; provided that any amount so paid and applied reduces the aggregate outstanding liabilities of Tenant under the Lease by such amount as required under the Lease.

7. Information. Guarantor (a) assumes all responsibility for being and keeping itself informed of the financial condition and assets of Tenant and its Affiliates and any other guarantor, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Obligations and the nature, scope and extent of the risks that Guarantor assumes and incurs hereunder, and (b) agrees that Landlord will not have any duty to advise Guarantor of information regarding such circumstances or risks.

8. No Subrogation. Until the Guaranty Termination Date (as defined in Section 14), Guarantor shall have no right of subrogation and waives (a) any right to enforce any remedy which Guarantor now has or may hereafter have against Tenant or any of Tenant's assets (including any such remedy of Landlord) and any benefit of, and any right to participate in, any security now or hereafter held by Landlord with respect to the Lease, (b) any rights of reimbursement, indemnity or subrogation against Tenant arising from any payment of Obligations by Guarantor, and (c) any right of contribution Guarantor may have against any other Person that is liable under the Lease arising from such payment or otherwise in connection with the Lease or this Guaranty.

9. Agreement to Comply with terms of Lease. Guarantor hereby agrees (a) to comply with all terms of the Lease applicable to it, (b) that it shall take no action, and that it shall not omit to take any action, which action or omission, as applicable, would cause a breach of the terms of the Lease, and (c) that it shall not commence an involuntary proceeding or file an involuntary petition in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking (i) relief in respect of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries, or of a substantial part of the property or assets of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries, under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, or (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries.

10. Agreement to Pay; Contribution; Subordination. Without limitation of any other provision of this Guaranty, including, without limitation, Section 8 above, or any other right of Landlord at law or in equity, upon the failure of Tenant to pay any Obligation when and as the same shall become due, Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably promises to and will forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, to Landlord in cash the amount of such unpaid Obligation. Upon payment by Guarantor of any sums to Landlord as provided above, all rights of Guarantor against Tenant arising as a result thereof by way of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise shall be subject to the limitations set forth in Section 8 above and this Section 10. Guarantor further agrees that any rights of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise which Guarantor may have against Tenant or against any collateral or security, and any rights of contribution Guarantor may have against any other Person, in connection with any payment of Obligations or otherwise under this Guaranty or the Lease by Guarantor shall be junior and subordinate to any rights Landlord may have against Tenant or any such other Person, to all right, title and interest Landlord may have in any such collateral or security, and to any rights Landlord may have against Tenant or any such other Person. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of any such reimbursement, indemnity, subrogation or contribution rights at any time prior to the Guaranty Termination Date when a Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such amount shall be held in trust for Landlord and shall forthwith be paid over to Landlord to be credited and applied against the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of the Lease or any applicable security agreement. If for any reason whatsoever Tenant now or hereafter becomes indebted to Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor, such indebtedness and all interest thereon shall at all times be junior and subordinate to Tenant's obligation to Landlord to pay and perform as and when due in accordance with the terms of the Lease the guaranteed Obligations, it being understood that Guarantor and each Affiliate of Guarantor shall be permitted to receive payments from Tenant on account of such indebtedness (but subject in all events to the preceding provisions of this Section 10), except during any period that any Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing. During any such period, Guarantor agrees to make no claim for such indebtedness that does not recite that such claim is expressly junior and subordinate to Landlord's rights and remedies under the Lease. Furthermore, in the event of receivership, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, debtor's relief, or other insolvency proceedings involving Tenant as debtor, Guarantor hereby assigns to Landlord any right it may have to prove its claim in any such proceeding so as to establish its rights hereunder and receive directly from receiver, trustee or other court custodian dividends and payments which would otherwise be payable to Guarantor with respect to debts and liability owing by Tenant to Guarantor up to the amounts owed to Landlord hereunder.

11. Application of Payments. With respect to the Lease, and with or without notice to Guarantor, Landlord, in Landlord's sole discretion and at any time and from time to time and in such manner and upon such terms as Landlord deems appropriate, may (a) following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default, apply any or all payments or recoveries from Tenant or from any other guarantor under any other instrument or realized from any security, in such manner and order of priority as Landlord may determine, to any indebtedness or other obligation of Tenant with respect to the Lease and whether or not such indebtedness or other obligation is guaranteed hereby or is otherwise secured, and (b) refund to Tenant any payment received by Landlord under the Lease.

12. Guaranty Default. Upon the failure of Guarantor to pay the amounts required to be paid hereunder when due following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default under the Lease, Landlord shall have the right to bring such actions at law or in equity, including, without limitation, appropriate injunctive relief, as it deems appropriate to compel compliance, payment or deposit, and among other remedies to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees in any proceeding, including any appeal therefrom and any post judgment proceedings.

13. Maximum Liability. Each of Guarantor and, by its acceptance of the guarantees provided herein, Landlord, hereby confirms that it is the intention of such Person that the guarantees provided herein and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar foreign, federal or state law to the extent applicable to the guarantees provided herein and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder. To effectuate the foregoing intention, Landlord hereby irrevocably agrees that the obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty shall be limited to the maximum amount as will result in such obligations not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

14. Release. Guarantor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder upon the earlier to occur of either of the following: (x) (other than with respect to amounts then due and payable by Guarantor) upon the consummation of a Lease Foreclosure Transaction pursuant to clause (i) of Section 22.2 of the Lease, and (y) upon the irrevocable satisfaction and discharge in full of all of the Obligations (the date upon which such release occurs, the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided (in the case of clause (x)) that Landlord shall have received a Replacement Guaranty from a Qualified Replacement Guarantor in accordance with clause (i) of Section 22.2 of the Lease (and, in the case of such a Replacement Guaranty delivered in connection with a New Lease obtained pursuant to Section 17.1(f) of the Lease, such New Lease shall satisfy the requirements for a New Lease contained in the last sentence of Section 17.1(f), including that it be at the rent and additional rent, and upon the terms, covenants and conditions of, the Lease; it being understood that (i) the Obligations hereunder shall in no event include the obligations of the tenant under a New Lease, and (ii) the preceding clause (i) shall in no event be deemed to vitiate the Obligations hereunder in respect of the Lease).

15. Guarantor's Representations and Warranties. Guarantor represents and warrants that:

(i) Guarantor (a) is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the state of Nevada (it being understood that Guarantor is to be renamed Caesars Entertainment, Inc. and converted to a Delaware corporation on the date hereof following the making by Guarantor of this Guaranty); (b) is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires such qualification; and (c) is in compliance with all applicable Legal Requirements where the failure to comply would reasonably be expected to have a materially adverse effect on Guarantor's ability to pay or perform the Obligations in accordance with the terms hereof;

(ii) the execution, delivery, and performance of this Guaranty (a) are within Guarantor's corporate powers, (b) have been duly authorized by all necessary or proper corporate action, (c) are not in contravention of any provision of Guarantor's articles or certificate of incorporation or by-laws, (d) will not violate any law or regulation, or any order or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, (e) will not conflict with or result in the breach of, or constitute a default under, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, lease, agreement, or other instrument to which Guarantor is a party or by which Guarantor or any of its property is bound, (f) will not result in the creation or imposition of any lien upon any of the property of Guarantor, and (g) do not require the consent or approval of any governmental body, agency, authority, or any other Person except those already obtained, except in the case of clauses (e) and (g), where such conflict, breach or failure to obtain a consent or approval, would not reasonably be expected to have a materially adverse effect on Guarantor's ability to pay or perform the Obligations in accordance with the terms hereof; and

(iii) this Guaranty is duly executed and delivered on behalf of Guarantor and constitutes a legal, valid, and binding obligation of Guarantor, enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms.

16. Guarantor's Covenants.

(a) Dividends. In addition to any other applicable restrictions hereunder, prior to the Covenant Termination Date (as defined below), Guarantor shall not, directly or indirectly, declare or pay any dividend or make any other distribution with respect to its capital stock or other equity interests with any assets other than cash unless such dividend or distribution would not reasonably be expected to result in Guarantor's inability to perform its Guaranty obligations under this Guaranty.

(b) Restricted Payments. In addition to the foregoing, prior to the Covenant Termination Date, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly (i) declare or pay, or cause to be declared or paid, any dividend, distribution or other direct or indirect payment or transfer (in each case, in cash, stock, other property, a combination thereof or otherwise) with respect to any of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests, (ii) purchase or otherwise acquire or retire for value any of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests, or (iii) engage in any other transaction with any direct or indirect holder of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests which is similar in purpose or effect to those described above (collectively, a "Restricted Payment"), except that (x) Guarantor can execute any of the transactions outlined above if Guarantor's equity market capitalization exceeds $5.5 billion, or (y) if Guarantor's equity market capitalization is less than $5.5 billion, then the Guarantor may declare or pay dividends or distributions or engage in any other transactions described in Section 16(b)(i) above in the aggregate amount of less than or equal to $200 million in any fiscal year and the Guarantor may purchase or otherwise acquire or retire for value, as described in Section 16(b)(ii) above, up to

$500 million shares of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests in any fiscal year (it being understood that from and after such time that the aggregate amount of all such transactions during any fiscal year of Guarantor exceeds $200 million or $500 million, as applicable, as provided in this clause (y), no further such transactions shall be permitted during such fiscal year of Guarantor under this clause (y)).

(c) Survival of Covenants. As used herein, the term "Covenant Termination Date" shall mean the earliest to occur of (1) the Guaranty Termination Date, (2) October 6, 2023, and (3) the first day on which (x) the Total Net Leverage Ratio of the Guarantor is less than or equal to 5.00:1.00 and (y) the EBITDAR to Rent Ratio is equal to or greater than 3.00:1.00.

For the purpose of the foregoing:

(i) "EBITDAR to Rent Ratio" means the ratio of (a) the EBITDAR of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis during the applicable Trailing Test Period of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries (provided, that, to the extent any such Subsidiary is not wholly owned (directly or indirectly) by Guarantor, the EBITDAR of such Subsidiary shall be limited to Guarantor's pro-rata ownership interests in such Subsidiary) to (b) the sum of (w) the Rent under the Lease, plus (x) the Rent (as defined in the Regional Lease), plus (y) the Rent (as defined in the Joliet Lease), plus (z) actual rent (excluding additional rent such as pass-throughs of expenses) payable by Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis under all other Gaming Leases, in each case during such Trailing Test Period (the sum of clauses (w) through (z), the "Gaming Lease Rent"),

(ii) "Gaming Lease" means a lease entered into by Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to which lease Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries occupy and use real property, vessels or similar assets for, or primarily in connection with, the operation of one or more Gaming Facilities thereon or thereat,

(iii) "EBITDAR" means for any applicable twelve (12) month period, the consolidated net income or loss of a Person on a consolidated basis for such period, determined in accordance with GAAP, provided, however, that without duplication and in each case to the extent included in calculating net income (calculated in accordance with GAAP): (i) income tax expense shall be excluded; (ii) interest expense shall be excluded; (iii) depreciation and amortization expense shall be excluded; (iv) amortization of intangible assets shall be excluded; (v) write-downs and reserves for non-recurring restructuring-related items (net of recoveries) shall be excluded; (vi) reorganization items shall be excluded; (vii) any impairment charges or asset write-offs, non-cash gains, losses, income and expenses resulting from fair value accounting required by the applicable standard under GAAP and related interpretations, and non-cash charges for deferred tax asset valuation allowances, shall be excluded; (viii) any effect of a change in accounting principles or policies shall be excluded; (ix) any non-cash costs or expense incurred pursuant to any management equity plan or stock option plan or any other management or employee benefit plan or agreement or any stock subscription or shareholder agreement shall be excluded; (x) any nonrecurring gains or losses (less all fees and expenses relating thereto) shall be excluded; (xi) rent expense shall be excluded; and (xii) the impact of any deferred proceeds resulting from failed sale accounting shall be excluded (it being understood, in connection with any EBITDAR calculation made pursuant to this Guaranty (a) promptly following request therefor, Guarantor shall provide Landlord with all supporting documentation and backup information with respect thereto as may be reasonably requested by Landlord, (b) such calculation shall be as reasonably agreed upon between Landlord and Guarantor, and (c) if Landlord and Guarantor do not agree within twenty (20) days of either party seeking to commence discussions, the same may be determined by an Expert in accordance with and pursuant to the process set forth in Section 34.2 of the Lease),

(iv) "EBITDA" means the same meaning as "EBITDAR" as defined herein but without giving effect to clause (xi) in the definition thereof (it being understood that to the extent any Gaming Lease Rent is accounted for as interest expense in accordance with GAAP, such interest expense will be accounted for as rent and thus included in clause (xi) of the definition of EBITDAR), and

(v) "Total Net Leverage Ratio" means, with respect to Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, on any date, the ratio of (i) (a) the aggregate principal amount of (without duplication) all indebtedness consisting of indebtedness for borrowed money, unreimbursed obligations in respect of drawn letters of credit (but excluding contingent obligations under outstanding letters of credit) and other purchase money indebtedness and guarantees of any of the foregoing obligations, of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries determined on a consolidated basis on such date in accordance with GAAP (it being understood that neither the Lease nor the Regional Lease, nor the Joliet Lease nor any other Gaming Lease shall be treated as indebtedness regardless of how they are treated under GAAP) less (b) the aggregate amount of all cash or cash equivalents of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries that would not appear "restricted" on a consolidated balance sheet of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries to (ii) EBITDA.

AGREEMENTS

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of Landlord entering into the Lease with Tenant, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. In consideration of the benefit derived or to be derived by it from the Lease and the Golf Course Use Agreement, Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to Landlord and Golf Course Owner (as applicable), as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety, the following (the matters described in the following clause (a) and clause (b), collectively, the "Obligations"), whenever incurred or accrued, including, without limitation, before the date of execution of this Guaranty:

(a) the faithful, prompt and complete payment and performance in full in cash of all monetary obligations of (x) Tenant under the Lease and (y) Golf Course User under the Golf Course Use Agreement when due (including, without limitation, during any Transition Period), including, without limitation, (i) all Rent and Additional Charges of any nature and any and all other sums payable by Tenant under the Lease, (ii) Golf Course User's payment obligations of any nature under the Golf Course Use Agreement (including all Golf Course Use Payments (as defined in the Golf Course Use Agreement)) (including under any Severance Agreement (as defined in the Golf Course Use Agreement) entered into pursuant to the Golf Course Use Agreement), (iii) Tenant's obligation to expend the Required Capital Expenditures in accordance with the Lease (or to deposit sums into the Cap Ex Reserve) and any other expenditures of any nature required of Tenant under the Lease, (iv) Tenant's obligations under Section 10.6(b) of the Lease and (v) Tenant's obligation to pay monetary damages in connection with any breach of the Lease or the Golf Course Use Agreement and to pay indemnification obligations, in each case as provided in and subject to all applicable terms of the Lease and the Golf Course Use Agreement; and

In the event of the failure of (I) Tenant to pay any Rent, Additional Charges or any other sums under the Lease, or to render any other performance required of Tenant under the Lease, or (II) Golf Course User to pay any Golf Course Use Payments or any other sums under any Golf Course Agreement, when due or within any applicable cure period, Guarantor shall forthwith (A) pay and perform or cause to be paid and performed any and all such Obligations, in each case to the full extent provided under the Lease or the applicable Golf Course Agreement, and (B) pay all reasonable costs of collection or enforcement and other actual damages suffered or incurred by Landlord or Golf Course Owner, as applicable, that result from the non-performance thereof. As to the Obligations, Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty is without limit except solely as and to the extent provided in Section 13 hereof. Guarantor agrees that its guarantee provided herein constitutes a guarantee of payment and performance and not of collection. Guarantor shall be jointly and severally liable with Tenant and Golf Course User, as applicable, for the payment and performance of the Obligations.

2. Survival of Obligations. The obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty shall survive and continue in full force and effect, and shall not be released, diminished, impaired, reduced or adversely affected by any of the following, whether or not notice thereof is given to Guarantor:

(a) any amendment, modification, renewal or extension of the Lease pursuant to its terms;

(b) any compromise, release, consent, extension, indulgence, forbearance or other action or inaction in respect of any terms of the Lease or any other instrument or agreement by Landlord or by any other Person;

(c) any substitution or release, in whole or in part, of any security for this Guaranty which Landlord may hold at any time;

(d) any exercise or non-exercise by Landlord of any right, power or remedy under or in respect of the Lease or any security held by Landlord with respect thereto, or any waiver of (or failure to enforce) any such right, power or remedy;

(e) any change in the existence, structure or ownership of, or any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, assignment for the benefit of creditors, receivership or trusteeship affecting, Tenant, Landlord or Guarantor or their respective successors or assigns or any of their respective Affiliates or any of their respective assets, or any actual or attempted rejection, assumption, assignment, separation, severance, or recharacterization of the Lease or any portion thereof or any obligations thereunder, or any discharge of liability thereunder, in connection with any such proceeding or otherwise;

(f) any limitation of Tenant's liability under the Lease or any limitation of Tenant's liability thereunder which may now or hereafter be imposed by any statute, regulation or rule of law, or any illegality, irregularity, invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of the Lease or any term thereof;

(g) subject to Section 14 hereof, any sale, lease, or transfer of all or any part of any interest in any Facility or any portion thereof or any or all of the assets of Tenant to any other Person other than to Landlord;

(h) any act or omission by Landlord with respect to any of the security instruments or any failure to file, record or otherwise perfect any of the same;

(i) any breach by (or any act or omission of any nature of) Landlord under or in respect of the Lease;

(j) any extensions of time for performance under the Lease;

(k) the release of Tenant from performance or observation of any of the agreements, covenants, terms or conditions contained in the Lease by operation of law or otherwise;

(l) the fact that Tenant may or may not be personally liable, in whole or in part, under the terms of the Lease to pay any money judgment;

(m) the failure to give Guarantor any notice of acceptance, default or otherwise;

(n) any rights, powers or privileges Landlord may now or hereafter have against any other Person or collateral;

(o) except as provided in Section 14 below, any assignment of the Lease, or any subletting or subsubletting of, or any other occupancy arrangements in respect of, all or any part of the Facility;

(p) any other defenses, other than a defense of payment or performance in full, as the case may be, of the Obligations;

(q) the existence of any claim, setoff, counterclaim, defense or other rights that may at any time be available to, or asserted by, Guarantor or Tenant against Landlord, whether in connection with the Lease, the Obligations or otherwise;

(r) any law or statute that may operate to cap, limit, or otherwise restrict the claims of a lessor of real property, including, but not limited to, Section 502(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(s) the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of all or any part of the Obligations, or of any document or agreement (including the Lease) executed in connection with the Obligations, for any reason whatsoever;

(t) the unenforceability (for any reason whatsoever) of this Guaranty, including, without limitation, as a result of rejection in any bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution or other proceeding; or

(u) any other circumstances, whether or not Guarantor had notice or knowledge thereof.

3. Primary Liability. The liability of Guarantor with respect to the Obligations shall be a primary, direct, immediate, continuing and unconditional guaranty of payment and performance and not of collection, may not be revoked by Guarantor and shall continue to be effective with respect to all of the Obligations notwithstanding any attempted revocation by Guarantor and shall not be conditional or contingent upon the genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of the Lease or any other documents or instruments relating to the Obligations, including, without limitation, any Person's lack of authority or lawful right to enter into such document on such Person's behalf, or the pursuit by Landlord of any remedies Landlord may have. Without limitation of the foregoing, Landlord may proceed against Guarantor: (a) prior to or in lieu of proceeding against Tenant, its assets, any security deposit, or any other guarantor or any other Person; and (b) prior to or in lieu of pursuing any other rights or remedies available to Landlord. All rights and remedies afforded to Landlord by reason of this Guaranty or by law are separate, independent and cumulative, and the exercise of any rights or remedies shall not in any way limit, restrict or prejudice the exercise of any other rights or remedies.

Following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default, a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against Guarantor whether or not Tenant is joined therein or a separate action or actions are brought against Tenant. Landlord may maintain successive actions for other defaults. Landlord's rights hereunder shall not be exhausted by its exercise of any of its rights or remedies or by any such action or by any number of successive actions until and unless all indebtedness and Obligations, the payment and performance of which are hereby guaranteed, have been paid and fully performed.

4. Obligations Not Affected. In such manner, upon such terms and at such times as Landlord in its sole discretion deems necessary or expedient, and without notice to Guarantor, Landlord may: (a) amend, alter, compromise, accelerate, extend or change the time or manner for the payment or the performance of any Obligation hereby guaranteed; (b) extend, amend or terminate the Lease; or (c) release Tenant by consent to any assignment (or otherwise) as to all or any portion of the Obligations hereby guaranteed, in each case pursuant to the terms of the Lease. Any exercise or non-exercise by Landlord of any right hereby given to Landlord, dealing by Landlord with Guarantor or any other guarantor, Tenant or any other Person, or change, impairment, release or suspension of any right or remedy of Landlord against any Person, including, without limitation, Tenant and any other guarantor, will not affect any of the Obligations of Guarantor hereunder or give Guarantor any recourse or offset against Landlord.

5. Waiver. With respect to the Lease, Guarantor hereby waives and relinquishes all rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to sureties and/or guarantors or any other accommodation parties, under any statutory provisions, common law or any other provision of law, custom or practice, and agrees not to assert or take advantage of any such rights or remedies including, but not limited to:

(a) any right to require Landlord to proceed against Tenant or any other Person or to proceed against or exhaust any security held by Landlord at any time or to pursue any other remedy in Landlord's power before proceeding against Guarantor or to require that Landlord cause a marshaling of Tenant's assets or any assets given as collateral for this Guaranty, or to proceed against Tenant and/or any collateral held by Landlord at any time or in any particular order;

(b) any defense that may arise by reason of the incapacity or lack of authority of any Person or Persons;

(c) notice of the existence, creation or incurring of any new or additional indebtedness or obligation or of any action or non-action on the part of Tenant, Landlord, any creditor of Tenant or Guarantor or on the part of any other Person whomsoever under this or any other instrument in connection with any obligation or evidence of indebtedness held by Landlord or in connection with any obligation hereby guaranteed;

(d) any defense based upon an election of remedies by Landlord which destroys or otherwise impairs the subrogation rights of Guarantor or the right of Guarantor to proceed against Tenant for reimbursement, or both;

(e) any defense based upon any statute or rule of law which provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal;

(f) any duty on the part of Landlord to disclose to Guarantor any facts Landlord may now or hereafter know about Tenant, regardless of whether Landlord has reason to believe that any such facts materially increase the risk beyond that which Guarantor intends to assume or has reason to believe that such facts are unknown to Guarantor or has a reasonable opportunity to communicate such facts to Guarantor, it being understood and agreed that Guarantor is fully responsible for being and keeping informed of the financial condition of Tenant and of all circumstances bearing on the risk of non-payment or non-performance of any Obligations or indebtedness hereby guaranteed;

(g) any defense arising because of Landlord's election, in any proceeding instituted under the Federal Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1978 (11 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.), as amended, reformed or modified from time to time and any rules or regulations issued from time to time thereunder (the "Bankruptcy Code") of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(h) any defense based on any borrowing or grant of a security interest under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; and

(i) all rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to guarantors, including, without limitation, any extension of time conferred by any law now or hereafter in effect and any requirement or notice of acceptance of this Guaranty or any other notice to which the undersigned may now or hereafter be entitled to the extent such waiver of notice is permitted by applicable law.

6. Enforcement.

(a) The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of the obligations of Tenant under the Lease. This Guaranty may be enforced by Landlord without the necessity at any time of resorting to or exhausting any other security (such as, for example, any security deposit of Tenant held by Landlord) or collateral and without the necessity at any time of having recourse to the remedy provisions of the Lease (such as, for example, terminating the Lease) or otherwise, and Guarantor hereby expressly waives the right to require Landlord to proceed against Tenant or any other Person, to exercise its rights and remedies under the Lease, or to pursue any other remedy whatsoever against any Person, security or collateral or enforce any other right at law or in equity. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, it shall not be necessary for Landlord (and Guarantor hereby waives any rights which it may have to require Landlord), in order to enforce any Obligation against Guarantor, first to institute suit or exhaust its remedies against any other Person, security or collateral or resort to any other means of obtaining payment of any Obligation. Nothing herein shall prevent Landlord from suing any Person to enforce the terms of the Lease or from exercising any other rights available to Landlord under the Lease or any other instrument or agreement, and the exercise of any of the aforesaid rights shall not affect the obligations of Guarantor hereunder. Guarantor understands that the exercise, or any forbearance from exercising, by Landlord of certain rights and remedies contained in the Lease may affect or eliminate Guarantor's right of subrogation against Tenant and that Guarantor may therefore incur liability hereunder that is not subject to reimbursement; nevertheless Guarantor hereby authorizes and empowers Landlord to exercise, in its sole discretion, any rights and remedies, or any combination thereof, which may then be available, it being the purpose and intent of Guarantor that its Obligations hereunder shall be absolute, independent and unconditional, in each case in accordance with its terms hereunder.

(b) No failure or delay on the part of Landlord in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Guaranty shall operate as a waiver of or otherwise affect any such right, power or privilege, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

(c) It is understood that Landlord, without impairing this Guaranty, may, subject to the terms of the Lease, apply payments from Tenant or any subtenant of the Leased Property or from any reletting of the Leased Property upon a Tenant Event of Default or from or in connection with any exercise of rights or remedies, to any due and unpaid rent or other charges or to such other Obligations owed by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to the Lease in such amounts and in such order as Landlord, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines; provided that any amount so paid and applied reduces the aggregate outstanding liabilities of Tenant under the Lease by such amount as required under the Lease.

7. Information. Guarantor (a) assumes all responsibility for being and keeping itself informed of the financial condition and assets of Tenant and its Affiliates and any other guarantor, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Obligations and the nature, scope and extent of the risks that Guarantor assumes and incurs hereunder, and (b) agrees that Landlord will not have any duty to advise Guarantor of information regarding such circumstances or risks.

8. No Subrogation. Until the Guaranty Termination Date (as defined in Section 14), Guarantor shall have no right of subrogation and waives (a) any right to enforce any remedy which Guarantor now has or may hereafter have against Tenant or any of Tenant's assets (including any such remedy of Landlord) and any benefit of, and any right to participate in, any security now or hereafter held by Landlord with respect to the Lease, (b) any rights of reimbursement, indemnity or subrogation against Tenant arising from any payment of Obligations by Guarantor, and (c) any right of contribution Guarantor may have against any other Person that is liable under the Lease arising from such payment or otherwise in connection with the Lease or this Guaranty.

9. Agreement to Comply with terms of Lease. Guarantor hereby agrees (a) to comply with all terms of the Lease applicable to it, (b) that it shall take no action, and that it shall not omit to take any action, which action or omission, as applicable, would cause a breach of the terms of the Lease, and (c) that it shall not commence an involuntary proceeding or file an involuntary petition in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking (i) relief in respect of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries, or of a substantial part of the property or assets of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries, under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, or (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries.

10. Agreement to Pay; Contribution; Subordination. Without limitation of any other provision of this Guaranty, including, without limitation, Section 8 above, or any other right of Landlord at law or in equity, upon the failure of Tenant to pay any Obligation when and as the same shall become due, Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably promises to and will forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, to Landlord in cash the amount of such unpaid Obligation. Upon payment by Guarantor of any sums to Landlord as provided above, all rights of Guarantor against Tenant arising as a result thereof by way of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise shall be subject to the limitations set forth in Section 8 above and this Section 10. Guarantor further agrees that any rights of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise which Guarantor may have against Tenant or against any collateral or security, and any rights of contribution Guarantor may have against any other Person, in connection with any payment of Obligations or otherwise under this Guaranty or the Lease by Guarantor shall be junior and subordinate to any rights Landlord may have against Tenant or any such other Person, to all right, title and interest Landlord may have in any such collateral or security, and to any rights Landlord may have against Tenant or any such other Person. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of any such reimbursement, indemnity, subrogation or contribution rights at any time prior to the Guaranty Termination Date when a Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such amount shall be held in trust for Landlord and shall forthwith be paid over to Landlord to be credited and applied against the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of the Lease or any applicable security agreement. If for any reason whatsoever Tenant now or hereafter becomes indebted to Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor, such indebtedness and all interest thereon shall at all times be junior and subordinate to Tenant's obligation to Landlord to pay and perform as and when due in accordance with the terms of the Lease the guaranteed Obligations, it being understood that Guarantor and each Affiliate of Guarantor shall be permitted to receive payments from Tenant on account of such indebtedness (but subject in all events to the preceding provisions of this Section 10), except during any period that any Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing. During any such period, Guarantor agrees to make no claim for such indebtedness that does not recite that such claim is expressly junior and subordinate to Landlord's rights and remedies under the Lease. Furthermore, in the event of receivership, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, debtor's relief, or other insolvency proceedings involving Tenant as debtor, Guarantor hereby assigns to Landlord any right it may have to prove its claim in any such proceeding so as to establish its rights hereunder and receive directly from receiver, trustee or other court custodian dividends and payments which would otherwise be payable to Guarantor with respect to debts and liability owing by Tenant to Guarantor up to the amounts owed to Landlord hereunder.

11. Application of Payments. With respect to the Lease, and with or without notice to Guarantor, Landlord, in Landlord's sole discretion and at any time and from time to time and in such manner and upon such terms as Landlord deems appropriate, may (a) following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default, apply any or all payments or recoveries from Tenant or from any other guarantor under any other instrument or realized from any security, in such manner and order of priority as Landlord may determine, to any indebtedness or other obligation of Tenant with respect to the Lease and whether or not such indebtedness or other obligation is guaranteed hereby or is otherwise secured, and (b) refund to Tenant any payment received by Landlord under the Lease.

12. Guaranty Default. Upon the failure of Guarantor to pay the amounts required to be paid hereunder when due following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default under the Lease, Landlord shall have the right to bring such actions at law or in equity, including, without limitation, appropriate injunctive relief, as it deems appropriate to compel compliance, payment or deposit, and among other remedies to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees in any proceeding, including any appeal therefrom and any post judgment proceedings.

13. Maximum Liability. Each of Guarantor and, by its acceptance of the guarantees provided herein, Landlord, hereby confirms that it is the intention of such Person that the guarantees provided herein and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar foreign, federal or state law to the extent applicable to the guarantees provided herein and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder. To effectuate the foregoing intention, Landlord hereby irrevocably agrees that the obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty shall be limited to the maximum amount as will result in such obligations not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

14. Release. Guarantor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder upon the earlier to occur of either of the following: (x) (other than with respect to amounts then due and payable by Guarantor) upon the consummation of a Lease Foreclosure Transaction pursuant to clause (i) of Section 22.2 of the Lease, and (y) upon the irrevocable satisfaction and discharge in full of all of the Obligations (the date upon which such release occurs, the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided (in the case of clause (x)) that Landlord shall have received a Replacement Guaranty from a Qualified Replacement Guarantor in accordance with clause (i) of Section 22.2 of the Lease (and, in the case of such a Replacement Guaranty delivered in connection with a New Lease obtained pursuant to Section 17.1(f) of the Lease, such New Lease shall satisfy the requirements for a New Lease contained in the last sentence of Section 17.1(f), including that it be at the rent and additional rent, and upon the terms, covenants and conditions of, the Lease; it being understood that (i) the Obligations hereunder shall in no event include the obligations of the tenant under a New Lease, and (ii) the preceding clause (i) shall in no event be deemed to vitiate the Obligations hereunder in respect of the Lease).

15. Guarantor's Representations and Warranties. Guarantor represents and warrants that:

(i) Guarantor (a) is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the state of Nevada (it being understood that Guarantor is to be renamed Caesars Entertainment, Inc. and converted to a Delaware corporation on the date hereof following the making by Guarantor of this Guaranty); (b) is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires such qualification; and (c) is in compliance with all applicable Legal Requirements where the failure to comply would reasonably be expected to have a materially adverse effect on Guarantor's ability to pay or perform the Obligations in accordance with the terms hereof;

(ii) the execution, delivery, and performance of this Guaranty (a) are within Guarantor's corporate powers, (b) have been duly authorized by all necessary or proper corporate action, (c) are not in contravention of any provision of Guarantor's articles or certificate of incorporation or by-laws, (d) will not violate any law or regulation, or any order or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, (e) will not conflict with or result in the breach of, or constitute a default under, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, lease, agreement, or other instrument to which Guarantor is a party or by which Guarantor or any of its property is bound, (f) will not result in the creation or imposition of any lien upon any of the property of Guarantor, and (g) do not require the consent or approval of any governmental body, agency, authority, or any other Person except those already obtained, except in the case of clauses (e) and (g), where such conflict, breach or failure to obtain a consent or approval, would not reasonably be expected to have a materially adverse effect on Guarantor's ability to pay or perform the Obligations in accordance with the terms hereof; and

(iii) this Guaranty is duly executed and delivered on behalf of Guarantor and constitutes a legal, valid, and binding obligation of Guarantor, enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms.

16. Guarantor's Covenants.

(a) Dividends. In addition to any other applicable restrictions hereunder, prior to the Covenant Termination Date (as defined below), Guarantor shall not, directly or indirectly, declare or pay any dividend or make any other distribution with respect to its capital stock or other equity interests with any assets other than cash unless such dividend or distribution would not reasonably be expected to result in Guarantor's inability to perform its Guaranty obligations under this Guaranty.

(b) Restricted Payments. In addition to the foregoing, prior to the Covenant Termination Date, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly (i) declare or pay, or cause to be declared or paid, any dividend, distribution or other direct or indirect payment or transfer (in each case, in cash, stock, other property, a combination thereof or otherwise) with respect to any of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests, (ii) purchase or otherwise acquire or retire for value any of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests, or (iii) engage in any other transaction with any direct or indirect holder of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests which is similar in purpose or effect to those described above (collectively, a "Restricted Payment"), except that (x) Guarantor can execute any of the transactions outlined above if Guarantor's equity market capitalization exceeds $5.5 billion, or (y) if Guarantor's equity market capitalization is less than $5.5 billion, then the Guarantor may declare or pay dividends or distributions or engage in any other transactions described in Section 16(b)(i) above in the aggregate amount of less than or equal to $200 million in any fiscal year and the Guarantor may purchase or otherwise acquire or retire for value, as described in Section 16(b)(ii) above, up to $500 million shares of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests in any fiscal year (it being understood that from and after such time that the aggregate amount of all such transactions during any fiscal year of Guarantor exceeds $200 million or $500 million, as applicable, as provided in this clause (y), no further such transactions shall be permitted during such fiscal year of Guarantor under this clause (y)).

(c) Survival of Covenants. As used herein, the term "Covenant Termination Date" shall mean the earliest to occur of (1) the Guaranty Termination Date, (2) October 6, 2023, and (3) the first day on which (x) the Total Net Leverage Ratio of the Guarantor is less than or equal to 5.00:1.00 and (y) the EBITDAR to Rent Ratio is equal to or greater than 3.00:1.00.

For the purpose of the foregoing:

(i) "EBITDAR to Rent Ratio" means the ratio of (a) the EBITDAR of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis during the applicable Trailing Test Period of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries (provided, that, to the extent any such Subsidiary is not wholly owned (directly or indirectly) by Guarantor, the EBITDAR of such Subsidiary shall be limited to Guarantor's pro-rata ownership interests in such Subsidiary) to (b) the sum of (w) the Rent under the Lease, plus (x) the Rent (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease), plus (y) the Rent (as defined in the Joliet Lease), plus (z) actual rent (excluding additional rent such as pass-throughs of expenses) payable by Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis under all other Gaming Leases, in each case during such Trailing Test Period (the sum of clauses (w) through (z), the "Gaming Lease Rent"),

(ii) "Gaming Lease" means a lease entered into by Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to which lease Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries occupy and use real property, vessels or similar assets for, or primarily in connection with, the operation of one or more Gaming Facilities thereon or thereat,

(iii) "EBITDAR" means for any applicable twelve (12) month period, the consolidated net income or loss of a Person on a consolidated basis for such period, determined in accordance with GAAP, provided, however, that without duplication and in each case to the extent included in calculating net income (calculated in accordance with GAAP): (i) income tax expense shall be excluded; (ii) interest expense shall be excluded; (iii) depreciation and amortization expense shall be excluded; (iv) amortization of intangible assets shall be excluded; (v) write-downs and reserves for non-recurring restructuring-related items (net of recoveries) shall be excluded; (vi) reorganization items shall be excluded; (vii) any impairment charges or asset write-offs, non-cash gains, losses, income and expenses resulting from fair value accounting required by the applicable standard under GAAP and related interpretations, and non-cash charges for deferred tax asset valuation allowances, shall be excluded; (viii) any effect of a change in accounting principles or policies shall be excluded; (ix) any non-cash costs or expense incurred pursuant to any management equity plan or stock option plan or any other management or employee benefit plan or agreement or any stock subscription or shareholder agreement shall be excluded; (x) any nonrecurring gains or losses (less all fees and expenses relating thereto) shall be excluded; (xi) rent expense shall be excluded; and (xii) the impact of any deferred proceeds resulting from failed sale accounting shall be excluded (it being understood, in connection with any EBITDAR calculation made pursuant to this Guaranty (a) promptly following request therefor, Guarantor shall provide Landlord with all supporting documentation and backup information with respect thereto as may be reasonably requested by Landlord, (b) such calculation shall be as reasonably agreed upon between Landlord and Guarantor, and (c) if Landlord and Guarantor do not agree within twenty (20) days of either party seeking to commence discussions, the same may be determined by an Expert in accordance with and pursuant to the process set forth in Section 34.2 of the Lease),

(iv) "EBITDA" means the same meaning as "EBITDAR" as defined herein but without giving effect to clause (xi) in the definition thereof (it being understood that to the extent any Gaming Lease Rent is accounted for as interest expense in accordance with GAAP, such interest expense will be accounted for as rent and thus included in clause (xi) of the definition of EBITDAR), and

(v) "Total Net Leverage Ratio" means, with respect to Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, on any date, the ratio of (i) (a) the aggregate principal amount of (without duplication) all indebtedness consisting of indebtedness for borrowed money, unreimbursed obligations in respect of drawn letters of credit (but excluding contingent obligations under outstanding letters of credit) and other purchase money indebtedness and guarantees of any of the foregoing obligations, of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries determined on a consolidated basis on such date in accordance with GAAP (it being understood that neither the Lease nor the Las Vegas Lease, nor the Joliet Lease nor any other Gaming Lease shall be treated as indebtedness regardless of how they are treated under GAAP) less (b) the aggregate amount of all cash or cash equivalents of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries that would not appear "restricted" on a consolidated balance sheet of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries to (ii) EBITDA.

17. Notices. 18. Miscellaneous.

(a) No term, condition or provision of this Guaranty may be amended, waived or modified except by an express written instrument to that effect signed by Landlord and Guarantor. No waiver of any term, condition or provision of this Guaranty will be deemed a waiver of any other term, condition or provision, irrespective of similarity, or constitute a continuing waiver of the same term, condition or provision, unless otherwise expressly provided.

(b) If any one or more of the terms, conditions or provisions contained in this Guaranty is found in a final award or judgment rendered by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining terms, conditions and provisions of this Guaranty shall not in any way be affected or impaired thereby, and this Guaranty shall be interpreted and construed as if the invalid, illegal, or unenforceable term, condition or provision had never been contained in this Guaranty.

(c) THIS GUARANTY SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, EXCEPT THAT THE LAWS OF THE STATE WHERE THE LEASED PROPERTY IS LOCATED SHALL GOVERN THIS AGREEMENT TO THE EXTENT NECESSARY (I) TO OBTAIN THE BENEFIT OF THE RIGHTS AND REMEDIES SET FORTH HEREIN WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE LEASED PROPERTY AND (II) FOR PROCEDURAL REQUIREMENTS WHICH MUST BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF SUCH STATE. GUARANTOR CONSENTS TO IN PERSONAM JURISDICTION BEFORE THE STATE AND FEDERAL COURTS OF NEW YORK AND AGREES THAT ALL DISPUTES CONCERNING THIS GUARANTY SHALL BE HEARD IN THE STATE AND FEDERAL COURTS LOCATED IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK. GUARANTOR FURTHER CONSENTS TO IN PERSONAM JURISDICTION BEFORE THE STATE AND FEDERAL COURTS OF EACH STATE WITH RESPECT TO ANY ACTION COMMENCED BY LANDLORD SEEKING TO RETAKE POSSESSION OF

GUARANTOR AGREES THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS MAY BE EFFECTED UPON IT UNDER ANY METHOD PERMISSIBLE UNDER THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK AND IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION TO VENUE IN THE STATE AND FEDERAL COURTS LOCATED IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(d) GUARANTOR, BY ITS EXECUTION OF THIS GUARANTY, AND LANDLORD, BY ITS ACCEPTANCE OF THIS GUARANTY, HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY AND THE RIGHT THERETO IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING OF ANY KIND ARISING ON, UNDER, OUT OF, BY REASON OF OR RELATING IN ANY WAY TO THIS GUARANTY OR THE INTERPRETATION, BREACH OR ENFORCEMENT THEREOF.

(e) In the event of any suit, action, arbitration or other proceeding to interpret this Guaranty, or to determine or enforce any right or obligation created hereby, the prevailing party in the action shall recover such party's reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of appeal, post judgment enforcement proceedings (if any) and bankruptcy proceedings (if any). Any court, arbitrator or panel of arbitrators shall, in entering any judgment or making any award in any such suit, action, arbitration or other proceeding, in addition to any and all other relief awarded to such prevailing party, include in such judgment or award such party's reasonable costs and expenses as provided in this Section 18(e).

(f) Guarantor (i) represents that it has been represented and advised by counsel in connection with the execution of this Guaranty; (ii) acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Lease; and (iii) further represents that Guarantor has been advised by counsel with respect thereto. This Guaranty shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the plain meaning of its language, and not for or against Guarantor or Landlord, and as a whole, giving effect to all of the terms, conditions and provisions hereof.

(g) Except as provided in any other written agreement now or at any time hereafter in force between Landlord and Guarantor, this Guaranty shall constitute the entire agreement of Guarantor with Landlord with respect to the subject matter hereof, and no representation, understanding, promise or condition concerning the subject matter hereof will be binding upon Landlord or Guarantor unless expressed herein.

Section captions or headings used in this Guaranty are for convenience and reference only, and shall not affect the construction thereof.

(j) This Guaranty may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be a valid and binding original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

(k) For the avoidance of doubt, Guarantor consents to the collateral assignment of this Guaranty to any Fee Mortgagee and agrees that any Person that is a permitted successor to, and/or assignee of, Landlord's interest under the Lease in accordance with the terms thereof shall constitute a permitted successor and/or assignee and intended beneficiary hereof (and shall become, be recognized by Guarantor as, and have all of the rights of, "Landlord" hereunder).

GUARANTY

This GUARANTY OF LEASE (this "Guaranty"), is made and entered into as of the 20th day of July, 2020 by and between ELDORADO RESORTS, INC., a Nevada corporation (to be renamed Caesars Entertainment, Inc. and converted to a Delaware corporation on the date hereof, following the making by Guarantor of this Guaranty) (together with its successors and permitted assigns, "Guarantor"), and Harrah's Joliet LandCo LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ("Landlord").

RECITALS

A. Landlord, as landlord, and Des Plaines Development Limited Partnership, as tenant ("Tenant"; it being understood that, for purposes of this Guaranty, "Tenant" shall include all entities which comprise Tenant from time to time pursuant to and in accordance with the Lease (as defined below)), entered into that certain Lease (Joliet) dated as of October 6, 2017, as amended by that certain First Amendment to Lease (Joliet) between Landlord and Tenant dated as of December 26, 2018, and as further amended by that certain Omnibus Amendment to Leases among Landlord, Tenant, certain Affiliates of Landlord and certain Affiliates of Tenant, dated as of June 1, 2020 (collectively, the "Prior Joliet Lease").

B. Concurrently herewith, Landlord, Tenant and, solely for the purposes of the last paragraph of Section 1.1 of the Lease, Propco TRS LLC, a Delaware limited liability company, are entering into that certain Second Amendment to Lease (Joliet) ("Second Amendment"; the Prior Joliet Lease, as amended by the Second Amendment, and as may be further amended, restated, supplemented, waived or otherwise modified from time to time, collectively the "Lease"), whereby certain modifications are being made thereto. All capitalized terms used, and not otherwise defined, herein shall have the same meanings ascribed to such terms in the Lease.

C. Guarantor owns eighty percent (80%) of the equity interests in Tenant, and Guarantor acknowledges and agrees that it will derive substantial benefits from the Lease, that this Guaranty is given in accordance with the requirements of the Lease and that Landlord would not have been willing to enter into the Second Amendment unless Guarantor was willing to execute and deliver this Guaranty.

AGREEMENTS

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of Landlord entering into the Lease with Tenant, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, Guarantor agrees as follows:

1. Guaranty. In consideration of the benefit derived or to be derived by it from the Lease, Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to Landlord, as a primary obligor and not merely as a surety, the following (the matters described in the following clause (a) and clause (b), collectively, the "Obligations"), whenever incurred or accrued, including, without limitation, before the date of execution of this Guaranty:

(a) the faithful, prompt and complete payment and performance in full in cash of all monetary obligations of Tenant under the Lease when due (including, without limitation, during any Transition Period), including, without limitation, (i) all Rent and Additional Charges of any nature and any and all other sums payable by Tenant under the Lease, (ii) Tenant's obligation to expend the Required Capital Expenditures in accordance with the Lease (or to deposit sums into the Cap Ex Reserve) and any other expenditures of any nature required of Tenant under the Lease, and (iii) Tenant's obligation to pay monetary damages in connection with any breach of the Lease and to pay indemnification obligations, in each case as provided in and subject to all applicable terms of the Lease; and in each case under clause (a) and clause (b), including (x) amounts that would become due but for the operation of the automatic stay under Section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code (as defined below) or similar laws, and (y) any late charges and interest provided for under the Lease (including interest accruing during the pendency of any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or other similar proceeding, whether or not a claim for such interest is allowed or allowable in such proceeding). In the event of the failure of Tenant to pay any Rent, Additional Charges or any other sums under the Lease, or to render any other performance required of Tenant under the Lease, when due or within any applicable cure period, subject to the second (2nd) to last sentence of this Section 1, Guarantor shall forthwith (i) pay and perform or cause to be paid and performed any and all such Obligations, in each case to the full extent provided under the Lease, and (ii) pay all reasonable costs of collection or enforcement and other actual damages suffered or incurred by Landlord that result from the non-performance thereof. As to the Obligations, Guarantor's liability under this Guaranty is without limit except solely as and to the extent provided in the second (2nd) to last sentence of this Section 1 and in Section 13 hereof. Guarantor agrees that its guarantee provided herein constitutes a guarantee of payment and performance and not of collection. Subject to the second (2nd) to last sentence of this Section 1, Guarantor shall be jointly and severally liable with Tenant for the payment and performance of the Obligations.

Notwithstanding any provision herein to the contrary, (i) except as provided in the succeeding clause (ii), in respect of any monetary Obligations that are owed under this Guaranty, Guarantor shall be required to pay eighty percent (80%), but not more than eighty percent (80%), of such Obligations; and (ii) the preceding clause (i) shall not apply with respect to (x) any Obligations in respect of Required Capital Expenditures under the Lease, (y) any Obligations under Section 1(b) of this Guaranty or (z) any Obligations under clause (ii) of the sixth (6th) to last sentence of this Section 1 comprising costs of collection under, or enforcement of, this Guaranty. For avoidance of doubt, clause (i) of the preceding sentence is not intended to, and shall not be deemed to, change, modify or otherwise reduce the "Obligations" (as such term is defined in the Guaranty in respect of the Regional Lease (the "Regional Lease Guaranty")) under the Regional Lease Guaranty or otherwise violate or supersede any of the provisions, terms and conditions of the Regional Lease Guaranty, including, without limitation, the obligations of Guarantor (as defined in the Regional Lease Guaranty) in respect of the Obligations (as defined in the Regional Lease Guaranty) in respect of the Required Capital Expenditures (as defined in the Regional Lease) under the Regional Lease.

2. Survival of Obligations. The obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty shall survive and continue in full force and effect, and shall not be released, diminished, impaired, reduced or adversely affected by any of the following, whether or not notice thereof is given to Guarantor:

(a) any amendment, modification, renewal or extension of the Lease pursuant to its terms;

(b) any compromise, release, consent, extension, indulgence, forbearance or other action or inaction in respect of any terms of the Lease or any other instrument or agreement by Landlord or by any other Person;

(c) any substitution or release, in whole or in part, of any security for this Guaranty which Landlord may hold at any time;

(d) any exercise or non-exercise by Landlord of any right, power or remedy under or in respect of the Lease or any security held by Landlord with respect thereto, or any waiver of (or failure to enforce) any such right, power or remedy;

(e) any change in the existence, structure or ownership of, or any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, arrangement, assignment for the benefit of creditors, receivership or trusteeship affecting, Tenant, Landlord or Guarantor or their respective successors or assigns or any of their respective Affiliates or any of their respective assets, or any actual or attempted rejection, assumption, assignment, separation, severance, or recharacterization of the Lease or any portion thereof or any obligations thereunder, or any discharge of liability thereunder, in connection with any such proceeding or otherwise;

(f) any limitation of Tenant's liability under the Lease or any limitation of Tenant's liability thereunder which may now or hereafter be imposed by any statute, regulation or rule of law, or any illegality, irregularity, invalidity or unenforceability, in whole or in part, of the Lease or any term thereof;

(g) subject to Section 14 hereof, any sale, lease, or transfer of all or any part of any interest in the Facility or any portion thereof or any or all of the assets of Tenant to any other Person other than to Landlord;

(h) any act or omission by Landlord with respect to any of the security instruments or any failure to file, record or otherwise perfect any of the same;

(i) any breach by (or any act or omission of any nature of) Landlord under or in respect of the Lease;

(j) any extensions of time for performance under the Lease;

(k) the release of Tenant from performance or observation of any of the agreements, covenants, terms or conditions contained in the Lease by operation of law or otherwise;

(l) the fact that Tenant may or may not be personally liable, in whole or in part, under the terms of the Lease to pay any money judgment;

(m) the failure to give Guarantor any notice of acceptance, default or otherwise;

(n) any rights, powers or privileges Landlord may now or hereafter have against any other Person or collateral;

(o) except as provided in Section 14 below, any assignment of the Lease, or any subletting or subsubletting of, or any other occupancy arrangements in respect of, all or any part of the Facility;

(p) any other defenses, other than a defense of payment or performance in full, as the case may be, of the Obligations;

(q) the existence of any claim, setoff, counterclaim, defense or other rights that may at any time be available to, or asserted by, Guarantor or Tenant against Landlord, whether in connection with the Lease, the Obligations or otherwise;

(r) any law or statute that may operate to cap, limit, or otherwise restrict the claims of a lessor of real property, including, but not limited to, Section 502(b)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(s) the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of all or any part of the Obligations, or of any document or agreement (including the Lease) executed in connection with the Obligations, for any reason whatsoever;

(t) the unenforceability (for any reason whatsoever) of this Guaranty, including, without limitation, as a result of rejection in any bankruptcy, insolvency, dissolution or other proceeding; or

(u) any other circumstances, whether or not Guarantor had notice or knowledge thereof.

3. Primary Liability. The liability of Guarantor with respect to the Obligations shall be a primary, direct, immediate, continuing and unconditional guaranty of payment and performance and not of collection, may not be revoked by Guarantor and shall continue to be effective with respect to all of the Obligations notwithstanding any attempted revocation by Guarantor and shall not be conditional or contingent upon the genuineness, validity, regularity or enforceability of the Lease or any other documents or instruments relating to the Obligations, including, without limitation, any Person's lack of authority or lawful right to enter into such document on such Person's behalf, or the pursuit by Landlord of any remedies Landlord may have. Without limitation of the foregoing, Landlord may proceed against Guarantor: (a) prior to or in lieu of proceeding against Tenant, its assets, any security deposit, or any other guarantor or any other Person; and (b) prior to or in lieu of pursuing any other rights or remedies available to Landlord. All rights and remedies afforded to Landlord by reason of this Guaranty or by law are separate, independent and cumulative, and the exercise of any rights or remedies shall not in any way limit, restrict or prejudice the exercise of any other rights or remedies.

Following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default, a separate action or actions may be brought and prosecuted against Guarantor whether or not Tenant is joined therein or a separate action or actions are brought against Tenant. Landlord may maintain successive actions for other defaults. Landlord's rights hereunder shall not be exhausted by its exercise of any of its rights or remedies or by any such action or by any number of successive actions until and unless all indebtedness and Obligations, the payment and performance of which are hereby guaranteed, have been paid and fully performed.

4. Obligations Not Affected. In such manner, upon such terms and at such times as Landlord in its sole discretion deems necessary or expedient, and without notice to Guarantor, Landlord may: (a) amend, alter, compromise, accelerate, extend or change the time or manner for the payment or the performance of any Obligation hereby guaranteed; (b) extend, amend or terminate the Lease; or (c) release Tenant by consent to any assignment (or otherwise) as to all or any portion of the Obligations hereby guaranteed, in each case pursuant to the terms of the Lease. Any exercise or non-exercise by Landlord of any right hereby given to Landlord, dealing by Landlord with Guarantor or any other guarantor, Tenant or any other Person, or change, impairment, release or suspension of any right or remedy of Landlord against any Person, including, without limitation, Tenant and any other guarantor, will not affect any of the Obligations of Guarantor hereunder or give Guarantor any recourse or offset against Landlord.

5. Waiver. With respect to the Lease, Guarantor hereby waives and relinquishes all rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to sureties and/or guarantors or any other accommodation parties, under any statutory provisions, common law or any other provision of law, custom or practice, and agrees not to assert or take advantage of any such rights or remedies including, but not limited to:

(a) any right to require Landlord to proceed against Tenant or any other Person or to proceed against or exhaust any security held by Landlord at any time or to pursue any other remedy in Landlord's power before proceeding against Guarantor or to require that Landlord cause a marshaling of Tenant's assets or any assets given as collateral for this Guaranty, or to proceed against Tenant and/or any collateral held by Landlord at any time or in any particular order;

(b) any defense that may arise by reason of the incapacity or lack of authority of any Person or Persons;

(c) notice of the existence, creation or incurring of any new or additional indebtedness or obligation or of any action or non-action on the part of Tenant, Landlord, any creditor of Tenant or Guarantor or on the part of any other Person whomsoever under this or any other instrument in connection with any obligation or evidence of indebtedness held by Landlord or in connection with any obligation hereby guaranteed;

(d) any defense based upon an election of remedies by Landlord which destroys or otherwise impairs the subrogation rights of Guarantor or the right of Guarantor to proceed against Tenant for reimbursement, or both;

(e) any defense based upon any statute or rule of law which provides that the obligation of a surety must be neither larger in amount nor in other respects more burdensome than that of the principal;

(f) any duty on the part of Landlord to disclose to Guarantor any facts Landlord may now or hereafter know about Tenant, regardless of whether Landlord has reason to believe that any such facts materially increase the risk beyond that which Guarantor intends to assume or has reason to believe that such facts are unknown to Guarantor or has a reasonable opportunity to communicate such facts to Guarantor, it being understood and agreed that Guarantor is fully responsible for being and keeping informed of the financial condition of Tenant and of all circumstances bearing on the risk of non-payment or non-performance of any Obligations or indebtedness hereby guaranteed;

(g) any defense arising because of Landlord's election, in any proceeding instituted under the Federal Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1978 (11 U.S.C. § 101, et seq.), as amended, reformed or modified from time to time and any rules or regulations issued from time to time thereunder (the "Bankruptcy Code") of the application of Section 1111(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code;

(h) any defense based on any borrowing or grant of a security interest under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; and

(i) all rights and remedies accorded by applicable law to guarantors, including, without limitation, any extension of time conferred by any law now or hereafter in effect and any requirement or notice of acceptance of this Guaranty or any other notice to which the undersigned may now or hereafter be entitled to the extent such waiver of notice is permitted by applicable law.

6. Enforcement.

(a) The obligations of Guarantor hereunder are independent of the obligations of Tenant under the Lease. This Guaranty may be enforced by Landlord without the necessity at any time of resorting to or exhausting any other security (such as, for example, any security deposit of Tenant held by Landlord) or collateral and without the necessity at any time of having recourse to the remedy provisions of the Lease (such as, for example, terminating the Lease) or otherwise, and Guarantor hereby expressly waives the right to require Landlord to proceed against Tenant or any other Person, to exercise its rights and remedies under the Lease, or to pursue any other remedy whatsoever against any Person, security or collateral or enforce any other right at law or in equity. Without limitation of the generality of the foregoing, it shall not be necessary for Landlord (and Guarantor hereby waives any rights which it may have to require Landlord), in order to enforce any Obligation against Guarantor, first to institute suit or exhaust its remedies against any other Person, security or collateral or resort to any other means of obtaining payment of any Obligation. Nothing herein shall prevent Landlord from suing any Person to enforce the terms of the Lease or from exercising any other rights available to Landlord under the Lease or any other instrument or agreement, and the exercise of any of the aforesaid rights shall not affect the obligations of Guarantor hereunder. Guarantor understands that the exercise, or any forbearance from exercising, by Landlord of certain rights and remedies contained in the Lease may affect or eliminate Guarantor's right of subrogation against Tenant and that Guarantor may therefore incur liability hereunder that is not subject to reimbursement; nevertheless Guarantor hereby authorizes and empowers Landlord to exercise, in its sole discretion, any rights and remedies, or any combination thereof, which may then be available, it being the purpose and intent of Guarantor that its Obligations hereunder shall be absolute, independent and unconditional, in each case in accordance with its terms hereunder.

(b) No failure or delay on the part of Landlord in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Guaranty shall operate as a waiver of or otherwise affect any such right, power or privilege, nor shall any single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

(c) It is understood that Landlord, without impairing this Guaranty, may, subject to the terms of the Lease, apply payments from Tenant or any subtenant of the Leased Property or from any reletting of the Leased Property upon a Tenant Event of Default or from or in connection with any exercise of rights or remedies, to any due and unpaid rent or other charges or to such other Obligations owed by Tenant to Landlord pursuant to the Lease in such amounts and in such order as Landlord, in its sole and absolute discretion, determines; provided that any amount so paid and applied reduces the aggregate outstanding liabilities of Tenant under the Lease by such amount as required under the Lease.

7. Information. Guarantor (a) assumes all responsibility for being and keeping itself informed of the financial condition and assets of Tenant and its Affiliates and any other guarantor, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Obligations and the nature, scope and extent of the risks that Guarantor assumes and incurs hereunder, and (b) agrees that Landlord will not have any duty to advise Guarantor of information regarding such circumstances or risks.

8. No Subrogation. Until the Guaranty Termination Date (as defined in Section 14), Guarantor shall have no right of subrogation and waives (a) any right to enforce any remedy which Guarantor now has or may hereafter have against Tenant or any of Tenant's assets (including any such remedy of Landlord) and any benefit of, and any right to participate in, any security now or hereafter held by Landlord with respect to the Lease, (b) any rights of reimbursement, indemnity or subrogation against Tenant arising from any payment of Obligations by Guarantor, and (c) any right of contribution Guarantor may have against any other Person that is liable under the Lease arising from such payment or otherwise in connection with the Lease or this Guaranty.

9. Agreement to Comply with terms of Lease. Guarantor hereby agrees (a) to comply with all terms of the Lease applicable to it, (b) that it shall take no action, and that it shall not omit to take any action, which action or omission, as applicable, would cause a breach of the terms of the Lease, and (c) that it shall not commence an involuntary proceeding or file an involuntary petition in any court of competent jurisdiction seeking (i) relief in respect of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries, or of a substantial part of the property or assets of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries, under the Bankruptcy Code, or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, or (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries or for a substantial part of the property or assets of Tenant or any of its Subsidiaries.

10. Agreement to Pay; Contribution; Subordination. Without limitation of any other provision of this Guaranty, including, without limitation, Section 8 above, or any other right of Landlord at law or in equity, subject to the second (2nd) to last sentence of Section 1 above, upon the failure of Tenant to pay any Obligation when and as the same shall become due, Guarantor hereby unconditionally and irrevocably promises to and will forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, to Landlord in cash the amount of such unpaid Obligation. Upon payment by Guarantor of any sums to Landlord as provided above, all rights of Guarantor against Tenant arising as a result thereof by way of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise shall be subject to the limitations set forth in Section 8 above and this Section 10. Guarantor further agrees that any rights of subrogation, contribution, reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise which Guarantor may have against Tenant or against any collateral or security, and any rights of contribution Guarantor may have against any other Person, in connection with any payment of Obligations or otherwise under this Guaranty or the Lease by Guarantor shall be junior and subordinate to any rights Landlord may have against Tenant or any such other Person, to all right, title and interest Landlord may have in any such collateral or security, and to any rights Landlord may have against Tenant or any such other Person. If any amount shall be paid to Guarantor on account of any such reimbursement, indemnity, subrogation or contribution rights at any time prior to the Guaranty Termination Date when a Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, such amount shall be held in trust for Landlord and shall forthwith be paid over to Landlord to be credited and applied against the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with the terms of the Lease or any applicable security agreement. If for any reason whatsoever Tenant now or hereafter becomes indebted to Guarantor or any Affiliate of Guarantor, such indebtedness and all interest thereon shall at all times be junior and subordinate to Tenant's obligation to Landlord to pay and perform as and when due in accordance with the terms of the Lease the guaranteed Obligations, it being understood that Guarantor and each Affiliate of Guarantor shall be permitted to receive payments from Tenant on account of such indebtedness (but subject in all events to the preceding provisions of this Section 10), except during any period that any Tenant Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing. During any such period, Guarantor agrees to make no claim for such indebtedness that does not recite that such claim is expressly junior and subordinate to Landlord's rights and remedies under the Lease. Furthermore, in the event of receivership, bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, debtor's relief, or other insolvency proceedings involving Tenant as debtor, Guarantor hereby assigns to Landlord any right it may have to prove its claim in any such proceeding so as to establish its rights hereunder and receive directly from receiver, trustee or other court custodian dividends and payments which would otherwise be payable to Guarantor with respect to debts and liability owing by Tenant to Guarantor up to the amounts owed to Landlord hereunder.

11. Application of Payments. With respect to the Lease, and with or without notice to Guarantor, Landlord, in Landlord's sole discretion and at any time and from time to time and in such manner and upon such terms as Landlord deems appropriate, may (a) following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default, apply any or all payments or recoveries from Tenant or from any other guarantor under any other instrument or realized from any security, in such manner and order of priority as Landlord may determine, to any indebtedness or other obligation of Tenant with respect to the Lease and whether or not such indebtedness or other obligation is guaranteed hereby or is otherwise secured, and (b) refund to Tenant any payment received by Landlord under the Lease.

12. Guaranty Default. Upon the failure of Guarantor to pay the amounts required to be paid hereunder when due following the occurrence of a Tenant Event of Default under the Lease, Landlord shall have the right to bring such actions at law or in equity, including, without limitation, appropriate injunctive relief, as it deems appropriate to compel compliance, payment or deposit, and among other remedies to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees in any proceeding, including any appeal therefrom and any post judgment proceedings.

13. Maximum Liability. Each of Guarantor and, by its acceptance of the guarantees provided herein, Landlord, hereby confirms that it is the intention of such Person that the guarantees provided herein and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder not constitute a fraudulent transfer or conveyance for purposes of the United States Bankruptcy Code or any other federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law, the Uniform Fraudulent Conveyance Act, the Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act or any similar foreign, federal or state law to the extent applicable to the guarantees provided herein and the obligations of Guarantor hereunder. To effectuate the foregoing intention, Landlord hereby irrevocably agrees that the obligations of Guarantor under this Guaranty shall be limited to the maximum amount as will result in such obligations not constituting a fraudulent transfer or conveyance.

14. Release. Guarantor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder upon the earlier to occur of either of the following: (x) (other than with respect to amounts then due and payable by Guarantor) upon the consummation of a Lease Foreclosure Transaction pursuant to clause (i) of Section 22.2 of the Lease, and (y) upon the irrevocable satisfaction and discharge in full of all of the Obligations (the date upon which such release occurs, the "Guaranty Termination Date"); provided (in the case of clause (x)) that Landlord shall have received a Replacement Guaranty from a Qualified Replacement Guarantor in accordance with clause (i) of Section 22.2 of the Lease (and, in the case of such a Replacement Guaranty delivered in connection with a New Lease obtained pursuant to Section 17.1(f) of the Lease, such New Lease shall satisfy the requirements for a New Lease contained in the last sentence of Section 17.1(f), including that it be at the rent and additional rent, and upon the terms, covenants and conditions of, the Lease; it being understood that (i) the Obligations hereunder shall in no event include the obligations of the tenant under a New Lease, and (ii) the preceding clause (i) shall in no event be deemed to vitiate the Obligations hereunder in respect of the Lease).

15. Guarantor's Representations and Warranties. Guarantor represents and warrants that:

(i) Guarantor (a) is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the state of Nevada (it being understood that Guarantor is to be renamed Caesars Entertainment, Inc. and converted to a Delaware corporation on the date hereof following the making by Guarantor of this Guaranty); (b) is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where its ownership or lease of property or the conduct of its business requires such qualification; and (c) is in compliance with all applicable Legal Requirements where the failure to comply would reasonably be expected to have a materially adverse effect on Guarantor's ability to pay or perform the Obligations in accordance with the terms hereof;

(ii) the execution, delivery, and performance of this Guaranty (a) are within Guarantor's corporate powers, (b) have been duly authorized by all necessary or proper corporate action, (c) are not in contravention of any provision of Guarantor's articles or certificate of incorporation or by-laws, (d) will not violate any law or regulation, or any order or decree of any court or governmental instrumentality, (e) will not conflict with or result in the breach of, or constitute a default under, any indenture, mortgage, deed of trust, lease, agreement, or other instrument to which Guarantor is a party or by which Guarantor or any of its property is bound, (f) will not result in the creation or imposition of any lien upon any of the property of Guarantor, and (g) do not require the consent or approval of any governmental body, agency, authority, or any other Person except those already obtained, except in the case of clauses (e) and (g), where such conflict, breach or failure to obtain a consent or approval, would not reasonably be expected to have a materially adverse effect on Guarantor's ability to pay or perform the Obligations in accordance with the terms hereof; and

(iii) this Guaranty is duly executed and delivered on behalf of Guarantor and constitutes a legal, valid, and binding obligation of Guarantor, enforceable against Guarantor in accordance with its terms.

16. Guarantor's Covenants.

(a) Dividends. In addition to any other applicable restrictions hereunder, prior to the Covenant Termination Date (as defined below), Guarantor shall not, directly or indirectly, declare or pay any dividend or make any other distribution with respect to its capital stock or other equity interests with any assets other than cash unless such dividend or distribution would not reasonably be expected to result in Guarantor's inability to perform its Guaranty obligations under this Guaranty.

(b) Restricted Payments. In addition to the foregoing, prior to the Covenant Termination Date, Guarantor shall not directly or indirectly (i) declare or pay, or cause to be declared or paid, any dividend, distribution or other direct or indirect payment or transfer (in each case, in cash, stock, other property, a combination thereof or otherwise) with respect to any of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests, (ii) purchase or otherwise acquire or retire for value any of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests, or (iii) engage in any other transaction with any direct or indirect holder of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests which is similar in purpose or effect to those described above (collectively, a "Restricted Payment"), except that (x) Guarantor can execute any of the transactions outlined above if Guarantor's equity market capitalization exceeds $5.5 billion, or (y) if Guarantor's equity market capitalization is less than $5.5 billion, then the Guarantor may declare or pay dividends or distributions or engage in any other transactions described in Section 16(b)(i) above in the aggregate amount of less than or equal to $200 million in any fiscal year and the Guarantor may purchase or otherwise acquire or retire for value, as described in Section 16(b)(ii) above, up to $500 million shares of Guarantor's capital stock or other equity interests in any fiscal year (it being understood that from and after such time that the aggregate amount of all such transactions during any fiscal year of Guarantor exceeds $200 million or $500 million, as applicable, as provided in this clause (y), no further such transactions shall be permitted during such fiscal year of Guarantor under this clause (y)).

(c) Survival of Covenants. As used herein, the term "Covenant Termination Date" shall mean the earliest to occur of (1) the Guaranty Termination Date, (2) October 6, 2023, and (3) the first day on which (x) the Total Net Leverage Ratio of the Guarantor is less than or equal to 5.00:1.00 and (y) the EBITDAR to Rent Ratio is equal to or greater than 3.00:1.00.

For the purpose of the foregoing:

(i) "EBITDAR to Rent Ratio" means the ratio of (a) the EBITDAR of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis during the applicable Trailing Test Period of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries (provided, that, to the extent any such Subsidiary is not wholly owned (directly or indirectly) by Guarantor, the EBITDAR of such Subsidiary shall be limited to Guarantor's pro-rata ownership interests in such Subsidiary) to (b) the sum of (w) the Rent under the Lease, plus (x) the Rent (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease), plus (y) the Rent (as defined in the Regional Lease), plus (z) actual rent (excluding additional rent such as pass-throughs of expenses) payable by Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis under all other Gaming Leases, in each case during such Trailing Test Period (the sum of clauses (w) through (z), the "Gaming Lease Rent"),

(ii) "Gaming Lease" means a lease entered into by Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to which lease Guarantor or any of its Subsidiaries occupy and use real property, vessels or similar assets for, or primarily in connection with, the operation of one or more Gaming Facilities thereon or thereat,

(iii) "EBITDAR" means for any applicable twelve (12) month period, the consolidated net income or loss of a Person on a consolidated basis for such period, determined in accordance with GAAP, provided, however, that without duplication and in each case to the extent included in calculating net income (calculated in accordance with GAAP): (i) income tax expense shall be excluded; (ii) interest expense shall be excluded; (iii) depreciation and amortization expense shall be excluded; (iv) amortization of intangible assets shall be excluded; (v) write-downs and reserves for non-recurring restructuring-related items (net of recoveries) shall be excluded; (vi) reorganization items shall be excluded; (vii) any impairment charges or asset write-offs, non-cash gains, losses, income and expenses resulting from fair value accounting required by the applicable standard under GAAP and related interpretations, and non-cash charges for deferred tax asset valuation allowances, shall be excluded; (viii) any effect of a change in accounting principles or policies shall be excluded; (ix) any non-cash costs or expense incurred pursuant to any management equity plan or stock option plan or any other management or employee benefit plan or agreement or any stock subscription or shareholder agreement shall be excluded; (x) any nonrecurring gains or losses (less all fees and expenses relating thereto) shall be excluded; (xi) rent expense shall be excluded; and (xii) the impact of any deferred proceeds resulting from failed sale accounting shall be excluded (it being understood, in connection with any EBITDAR calculation made pursuant to this Guaranty (a) promptly following request therefor, Guarantor shall provide Landlord with all supporting documentation and backup information with respect thereto as may be reasonably requested by Landlord, (b) such calculation shall be as reasonably agreed upon between Landlord and Guarantor, and (c) if Landlord and Guarantor do not agree within twenty (20) days of either party seeking to commence discussions, the same may be determined by an Expert in accordance with and pursuant to the process set forth in Section 34.2 of the Lease),

(iv) "EBITDA" means the same meaning as "EBITDAR" as defined herein but without giving effect to clause (xi) in the definition thereof (it being understood that to the extent any Gaming Lease Rent is accounted for as interest expense in accordance with GAAP, such interest expense will be accounted for as rent and thus included in clause (xi) of the definition of EBITDAR), and

(v) "Total Net Leverage Ratio" means, with respect to Guarantor and its Subsidiaries on a consolidated basis, on any date, the ratio of (i) (a) the aggregate principal amount of (without duplication) all indebtedness consisting of indebtedness for borrowed money, unreimbursed obligations in respect of drawn letters of credit (but excluding contingent obligations under outstanding letters of credit) and other purchase money indebtedness and guarantees of any of the foregoing obligations, of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries determined on a consolidated basis on such date in accordance with GAAP (it being understood that neither the Lease nor the Las Vegas Lease, nor the Regional Lease nor any other Gaming Lease shall be treated as indebtedness regardless of how they are treated under GAAP) less (b) the aggregate amount of all cash or cash equivalents of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries that would not appear "restricted" on a consolidated balance sheet of Guarantor and its Subsidiaries to (ii) EBITDA.

(d) GUARANTOR, BY ITS EXECUTION OF THIS GUARANTY, AND LANDLORD, BY ITS ACCEPTANCE OF THIS GUARANTY, HEREBY WAIVES TRIAL BY JURY AND THE RIGHT THERETO IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING OF ANY KIND ARISING ON, UNDER, OUT OF, BY REASON OF OR RELATING IN ANY WAY TO THIS GUARANTY OR THE INTERPRETATION, BREACH OR ENFORCEMENT THEREOF.

(e) In the event of any suit, action, arbitration or other proceeding to interpret this Guaranty, or to determine or enforce any right or obligation created hereby, the prevailing party in the action shall recover such party's reasonable costs and expenses incurred in connection therewith, including, but not limited to, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of appeal, post judgment enforcement proceedings (if any) and bankruptcy proceedings (if any). Any court, arbitrator or panel of arbitrators shall, in entering any judgment or making any award in any such suit, action, arbitration or other proceeding, in addition to any and all other relief awarded to such prevailing party, include in such judgment or award such party's reasonable costs and expenses as provided in this Section 18(e).

(f) Guarantor (i) represents that it has been represented and advised by counsel in connection with the execution of this Guaranty; (ii) acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Lease; and (iii) further represents that Guarantor has been advised by counsel with respect thereto. This Guaranty shall be construed and interpreted in accordance with the plain meaning of its language, and not for or against Guarantor or Landlord, and as a whole, giving effect to all of the terms, conditions and provisions hereof.

(g) Except as provided in any other written agreement now or at any time hereafter in force between Landlord and Guarantor, this Guaranty shall constitute the entire agreement of Guarantor with Landlord with respect to the subject matter hereof, and no representation, understanding, promise or condition concerning the subject matter hereof will be binding upon Landlord or Guarantor unless expressed herein.

to Propco in the Propco Sale Opportunity Package, and (ii) in the event such definitive agreement is executed in such one hundred fifty (150) day period, an additional period of two hundred seventy (270) days from the execution thereof in which to consummate the Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction (provided, that such two hundred seventy (270) day period may be extended by Eldorado for an additional ninety (90) days, if at the time of extension Eldorado and/or its Affiliate and the applicable purchaser are diligently proceeding to close their transaction and reasonably expect that such transaction will close within such period). If, at the end of the one hundred fifty (150) day period or the two hundred seventy (270) day period (subject to extension as set forth above), as applicable, such definitive agreement has not been executed or the Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction has not been consummated, as applicable, then the provisions of this Section 3 shall be reinstated with respect to such Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction, and Eldorado shall be required to deliver to Propco a new Propco Sale Opportunity Package and otherwise comply once again with the procedures set forth herein prior to consummating such Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction.

(f) If Propco exercises the Propco Sale ROFR with respect to a Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction, then Propco may select one of the Operators with which to pursue the exercise of the Propco Sale ROFR (such Operator, the "Designated Operator") and Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party) and Propco shall proceed with the Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction and shall structure the Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction in a manner that allows the applicable ROFR Property to be owned by an Affiliate of Propco and operated by the Designated Operator; provided that the structure of the Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction as an asset sale or sale of equity interests shall be as mutually agreed between Eldorado and Propco; and provided further, that if structured as a sale of equity interests, the equity shall be of a newly formed entity disregarded as separate from Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party) for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the only assets of which are the applicable ROFR Property and the only liabilities of which are customary property related liabilities. Eldorado and Propco shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts, for a period of one hundred twenty (120) days following the date on which Propco exercises the Propco Sale ROFR, which such period may be extended upon the mutual agreement of Eldorado and Propco (the "Propco Sale ROFR Discussion Period"), to (i) negotiate and enter into (or cause their applicable Affiliates to enter into) a Purchase Agreement with respect to the applicable ROFR Property and any other agreements to be executed in connection with the foregoing and (ii) complete due diligence of the applicable ROFR Property. Propco shall be permitted to share with the Designated Operator customary due diligence and other information regarding the ROFR Property that Eldorado and its Affiliates provided to Propco and its Affiliates prior to or in connection with the Propco Sale ROFR Discussion Period, which information shall be subject to the non-disclosure agreement previously executed between Eldorado and/or its Affiliates and the Designated Operator. If, despite the good faith, commercially reasonable efforts of Propco and Eldorado, the parties are unable to reach agreement on the terms and conditions of such Purchase Agreement or any other agreements to be executed in connection with the foregoing prior to the expiration of the Propco Sale ROFR Discussion Period, then, upon the expiration of the Propco Sale ROFR Discussion Period, either (1) the terms and conditions of the applicable Purchase Agreement shall be established pursuant to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 4 (other than the specific terms thereof which were expressly set forth in the applicable Propco Sale Opportunity Package which shall not be subject to arbitration), or (2) solely with the written consent of Propco (which may be granted or withheld in Propco's sole and absolute discretion), Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party) shall be free to consummate the Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction without Propco's (or its Affiliates') involvement, in accordance with, and subject to the conditions of, Section 3(e) (and Propco shall be deemed to have waived the Propco Sale ROFR with respect to the applicable Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction only). For the avoidance of doubt, in the event arbitration is commenced during the Propco Sale ROFR Discussion Period, the Propco Sale ROFR Discussion Period shall be tolled for the duration of such arbitration.

(g) Following the expiration of the Propco Sale ROFR Discussion Period (or, if later, receipt of a final decision by the Arbitration Panel, as applicable), Eldorado, Propco, the Designated Operator and their respective Affiliates (as applicable) shall have two hundred seventy (270) days, to obtain all applicable licenses, qualifications or approvals from all Gaming Authorities necessary for Eldorado and its Affiliates (as applicable) to sell the applicable ROFR Property, Propco and its Affiliates (as applicable) to own the applicable ROFR Property and lease the applicable ROFR Property to the Designated Operator and its Affiliates (as applicable), and for the Designated Operator and its Affiliates (as applicable) to lease the applicable ROFR Property from Propco and its Affiliates and to operate the ROFR Property (the "Propco Sale Licensing Period"); provided that such period may be extended by Eldorado, Propco, the Designated Operator or their respective Affiliates, as applicable, by up to an additional ninety (90) days if, in its reasonable discretion, it is reasonably likely that it or its Affiliates will obtain such licenses, qualifications or approvals during such period. Eldorado, Propco and their respective Affiliates shall cooperate with each other and with the Designated Operator and its Affiliates during the Propco Sale Licensing Period in promptly seeking to obtain all such licenses, qualifications or approvals (including supplying the other party with any information which may be required in order to obtain such licenses, qualifications or approvals, and responding as promptly as practicable to any inquiry or request received from any Gaming Authority for additional information or documentation). If, on or prior to the expiration of the Propco Sale Licensing Period, as extended pursuant to the foregoing, Propco and its Affiliates (as applicable) are unable to obtain all such necessary licenses, qualifications and approvals, then Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party) shall be free to consummate the Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction without Propco's (or its Affiliates') involvement (and Propco shall be deemed to have waived the Propco Sale ROFR with respect to the applicable Propco Sale Opportunity Transaction only). For the avoidance of doubt, in the event arbitration is commenced during the Propco Sale Licensing Period, the Propco Sale Licensing Period shall be tolled for the duration of such arbitration.

The Arbitration Panel shall determine the appropriate terms and conditions of the applicable ROFR Lease or the applicable Purchase Agreement, as applicable, in each case, in accordance with this Agreement and otherwise based on the Arbitration Panel's determination of fair market terms relative to the applicable ROFR Property. The Arbitration Panel shall make its decision within twenty (20) days after the later of (i) the submission of such written statements, and (ii) the conclusion of any evidentiary hearing on the merits (if any). The Arbitration Panel shall reach its decision by majority vote and shall communicate its decision by written notice to Eldorado and Propco.

(d) The decision by the Arbitration Panel shall be final, binding and conclusive and shall be non-appealable and enforceable in any court having jurisdiction. All hearings and proceedings held by the Arbitration Panel shall take place in New York, New York.

(e) The resolution procedure described herein shall be governed by the Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association and the Procedures for Large, Complex, Commercial Disputes in effect as of the date hereof.

For the avoidance of doubt, upon the effectiveness of the Regional Lease Amendment, the existing guaranty by Eldorado to Propco Landlord with

2. Right of First Refusal in Favor of Propco.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, Eldorado shall not, and shall cause the Eldorado Related Parties not to, consummate or, to the extent within their control, permit the consummation of any Propco Opportunity Transaction, without first providing to Propco an opportunity to cause Affiliates of Propco to own and lease, as applicable, the ROFR Property and cause the ROFR Property to be leased or sub-leased, as applicable, to Affiliates of Eldorado in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.

(b) Prior to Eldorado or any Eldorado Related Party consummating, or to the extent within their control, permitting the consummation of, any Propco Opportunity Transaction, Eldorado shall deliver to Propco a package of information describing such Propco Opportunity Transaction and the terms upon which Affiliates of Eldorado would lease or sub-lease the ROFR Property (the "Propco Opportunity Package"), including, without limitation, the following information (subject to execution of a customary non-disclosure agreement): (i) whether the ROFR Property is owned by Eldorado, an Affiliate of Eldorado or CBAC, CRBH or a Subsidiary thereof in fee or leased from a third party; (ii) the material acquisition terms, including, without limitation, the purchase price and the expected timeline for and a description of the proposed structure of such Propco Opportunity Transaction; (iii) three (3) years of audited (to the extent reasonably available; otherwise unaudited) financial statements of the ROFR Property or the owner of the ROFR Property, as applicable (the "Financial Information"); (iv) a description of the regulatory framework applicable to the ROFR Property, including the amount and timing of any licensing fees and gaming taxes with respect thereto; and (v) a term sheet setting forth proposed terms of the ROFR Lease, which term sheet shall include, without limitation, Eldorado's proposal for the initial ROFR Property Rent and Eldorado's proposal for ROFR Property Rent adjustments thereafter (including annual escalations and allocations of fixed and variable rent if applicable) and, if the ROFR Lease is a lease under clause (i) of the definition of ROFR Lease, the other items set forth on Exhibit A (the "Term Sheet"). Promptly upon Propco's reasonable request therefor, Eldorado shall provide to Propco additional information related to the Propco Opportunity Transaction, to the extent such information is reasonably available to Eldorado.

(c) Propco may elect, in its sole and absolute discretion, to exercise its right to cause its Affiliate to own or lease the ROFR Property and cause the ROFR Property to be leased or sub-leased to Affiliates of Eldorado or CBAC, CRBH or a Subsidiary thereof in accordance with the terms set forth in the Propco Opportunity Package (the "Propco ROFR"), which Propco ROFR shall be exercisable by written notice thereof from Propco to Eldorado prior to the expiration of the Propco Election Period. If Propco does not so exercise the Propco ROFR prior to the expiration of the Propco Election Period, then Propco shall be deemed to have waived the Propco ROFR with respect to the applicable Propco Opportunity Transaction only.

(d) If Propco waives (or is deemed to have waived) the Propco ROFR with respect to a Propco Opportunity Transaction, then Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party) shall be free to consummate (or permit the consummation of) the Propco Opportunity Transaction without Propco's (or its Affiliates') involvement, and, if applicable, upon terms not materially more favorable to the applicable purchaser/lessor of the ROFR Property (if any) than those presented to Propco in the Propco Opportunity Package. If at any time following Propco's waiver (or deemed waiver) of such Propco Opportunity Transaction, Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party) desires to consummate (or permit the consummation of) such Propco Opportunity Transaction with a purchaser/lessor upon terms that are materially more favorable to the applicable purchaser/lessor than those presented to Propco in the Propco Opportunity Package (the "Alternate Propco ROFR Terms"), then the provisions of this Section 2 shall be reinstated with respect to such Propco Opportunity Transaction, and Eldorado shall be required to deliver to Propco a new Propco Opportunity Package (except that such Propco Opportunity Package shall reflect the Alternate Propco ROFR Terms in lieu of the ROFR Property Rent and other Propco ROFR terms initially included in the Propco Opportunity Package) and otherwise comply once again with the procedures set forth herein prior to consummating (or permitting the consummation of) such Propco Opportunity Transaction, except that the Propco Election Period will be twenty (20) days in lieu of thirty (30) days. If Propco waives (or is deemed to have waived) the Propco ROFR, Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party or CBAC, CRBH or a Subsidiary thereof) shall have (i) a period of one hundred twenty (120) days (the "Eldorado Marketing and Negotiation Period") following such waiver or deemed waiver, as applicable, in which to execute definitive purchase and lease agreements with a third party on terms not materially more favorable than those presented to Propco in the Propco Opportunity Package, and (ii) in the event such definitive agreements are executed in such one hundred twenty (120) day period, an additional period of one hundred eighty (180) days (the "Eldorado Closing Period") from the execution thereof in which to consummate the Propco Opportunity Transaction (provided, that the Eldorado Closing Period may be extended by Eldorado for an additional ninety (90) days, if at the time of extension Eldorado and/or its Affiliates and/or CBAC, CRBH or a Subsidiary thereof and the applicable purchaser/lessor are diligently proceeding to close their transaction and reasonably expect that such transaction will close within such period). If, at the end of the Eldorado Marketing and Negotiation Period or the Eldorado Closing Period (subject to extension as set forth above), as applicable, such definitive agreements have not been executed or the Propco Opportunity Transaction has not been consummated, as applicable, then the provisions of this Section 2 shall be reinstated with respect to such Propco Opportunity Transaction, and Eldorado shall be required to deliver to Propco a new Propco Opportunity Package and otherwise comply once again with the procedures set forth herein prior to consummating such Propco Opportunity Transaction.

(e) If Propco exercises the Propco ROFR with respect to a Propco Opportunity Transaction, then Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party) and Propco shall proceed with the Propco Opportunity Transaction and shall structure the Propco Opportunity Transaction in a manner that allows the ROFR Property to be owned or leased (in the event the ROFR Property is then leased by Eldorado or its Affiliates as tenant from a third party ("Third Party Lease")), as applicable, by an Affiliate of Propco and leased or sub-leased, as applicable, to Affiliates of Eldorado or CBAC, CRBH or a Subsidiary thereof pursuant to the ROFR Lease; provided that the structure of the Propco Opportunity Transaction as an asset sale or a sale of equity interests shall be as mutually agreed between Eldorado and Propco; and provided further, that if structured as a sale of equity interests, the equity shall be of a newly formed entity disregarded as separate from Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party) for U.S. federal income tax purposes and the only assets of which are the ROFR Property and the only liabilities of which are customary property related liabilities. Eldorado and Propco shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts, for a period of ninety (90) days following the date on which Propco exercises the Propco ROFR, which such period may be extended upon the mutual agreement of Eldorado and Propco (the "Propco ROFR Discussion Period"), to (i) negotiate and enter into (or cause their applicable Affiliates or CBAC, CRBH or a Subsidiary thereof to enter into) a purchase and sale agreement for the ROFR Property (the "Purchase Agreement"), the ROFR Lease and any other agreements to be executed in connection with the foregoing and (ii) complete due diligence of the ROFR Property. If, despite the good faith, commercially reasonable efforts of Propco and Eldorado, the parties are unable to reach agreement on the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, the ROFR Lease or any other agreements to be executed in connection with the foregoing prior to the expiration of the Propco ROFR Discussion Period, then, upon the expiration of the Propco ROFR Discussion Period, either (1) the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement and the ROFR Lease shall be established pursuant to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 3 (other than the specific terms thereof which were expressly set forth in the Propco Opportunity Package and the Term Sheet which shall not be subject to arbitration), or (2) solely with the written consent of Propco (which may be granted or withheld in Propco's sole and absolute discretion), Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party) shall be free to consummate or permit the consummation of the Propco Opportunity Transaction without Propco's (or its Affiliates') involvement, in accordance with, and subject to the conditions of, Section 2(d) (and Propco shall be deemed to have waived the Propco ROFR with respect to the applicable Propco Opportunity Transaction only). For the avoidance of doubt, in the event arbitration is commenced during the Propco ROFR Discussion Period, the Propco ROFR Discussion Period shall be tolled for the duration of such arbitration.

(f) Following the expiration of the Propco ROFR Discussion Period (or receipt of a final decision by the Arbitration Panel, as applicable), Eldorado, Propco and their respective Affiliates (as applicable) shall have one hundred eighty (180) days, to obtain all applicable licenses, qualifications or approvals from all Gaming Authorities necessary for Propco and its Affiliates (as applicable) to own the ROFR Property and lease the ROFR Property to Eldorado or its Affiliates or CBAC, CRBH or Subsidiary thereof, as applicable, and for Eldorado and its Affiliates or CBAC, CRBH or a Subsidiary thereof, as applicable, to sell the ROFR Property (including the Third Party Lease, if applicable) to and lease the ROFR Property from Propco and its Affiliates (the "Licensing Period"), provided that such period may be extended by Eldorado or Propco or their respective Affiliates, as applicable, by up to an additional ninety (90) days if, in such party's reasonable discretion, it is reasonably likely that such party or its Affiliates will obtain such licenses, qualifications or approvals during such period. Eldorado, Propco and their respective Affiliates shall cooperate during the Licensing Period in promptly seeking to obtain all such licenses, qualifications or approvals (including supplying the other party with any information which may be required in order to obtain such licenses, qualifications or approvals, and responding as promptly as practicable to any inquiry or request received from any Gaming Authority for additional information or documentation). If, on or prior to the expiration of the Licensing Period, as extended pursuant to the foregoing, Propco and its Affiliates (as applicable) are unable to obtain all such necessary licenses, qualifications and approvals, then Eldorado (or the applicable Eldorado Related Party) shall be free to consummate the Propco Opportunity Transaction without Propco's (or its Affiliates') involvement (and Propco shall be deemed to have waived the Propco ROFR with respect to the applicable Propco Opportunity Transaction only). For the avoidance of doubt, in the event arbitration is commenced during the Licensing Period, the Licensing Period shall be tolled for the duration of such arbitration.

3. Arbitration.

(a) Any dispute regarding establishing (but not interpreting) the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement or the ROFR Lease (other than any such terms expressly set forth in the Term Sheet or the Propco Opportunity Package) or the implementation of the terms of this Agreement so as to give full force and effect to the purpose and intent hereof, as applicable, shall be submitted to and determined by an arbitration panel comprised of three members (the "Arbitration Panel"). No more than one panel member may be with the same firm, and no panel member may have an economic interest in the outcome of the arbitration. In addition, each panel member shall have at least twenty (20) years of experience as an arbitrator and at least ten (10) years of experience in a profession that directly relates to the ownership, operation, financing or leasing of gaming facilities.

(b) The Arbitration Panel shall be selected as set forth in this Section 3(b). Within five (5) Business Days after the expiration of the Propco ROFR Discussion Period, Eldorado shall select and identify to Propco a panel member that meets the criteria set forth in Section 3(a) (the "Eldorado Panel Member") and Propco shall select and identify to Eldorado a panel member that meets the criteria set forth in Section 3(a) (the "Propco Panel Member"). If a party fails to timely select its respective panel member, the other party may notify such party in writing of such failure, and if such party fails to select its respective panel member within three (3) Business Days after receipt of such notice, then such other party may select and identify to such party such panel member on such party's behalf. Within five (5) Business Days after the selection of the Eldorado Panel Member and the Propco Panel Member, the Eldorado Panel Member and the Propco Panel Member shall jointly select a third panel member that meets the criteria set forth in Section 3(a) (the "Third Panel Member"). If the Eldorado Panel Member and the Propco Panel Member fail to timely select the Third Panel Member and such failure continues for more than three (3) Business Days after written notice of such failure is delivered to the Eldorado Panel Member and Propco Panel Member by either Eldorado or Propco, then Eldorado and Propco shall cause the Third Panel Member to be appointed by the managing officer of the American Arbitration Association.

(c) Within ten (10) Business Days after the selection of the Arbitration Panel, Eldorado and Propco each shall submit to the Arbitration Panel a written statement identifying its summary of the issues. Either of Eldorado or Propco may also request an evidentiary hearing on the merits in addition to the submission of written statements, such request to be made in writing within such ten (10) Business Day period. The Arbitration Panel shall determine the appropriate terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement and the ROFR Lease in accordance with this Agreement and otherwise based on the Arbitration Panel's determination of fair market terms relative to the ROFR Property. The Arbitration Panel shall make its decision within twenty (20) days after the later of (i) the submission of such written statements, and (ii) the conclusion of any evidentiary hearing on the merits (if any). The Arbitration Panel shall reach its decision by majority vote and shall communicate its decision by written notice to Eldorado and Propco.

(d) The decision by the Arbitration Panel shall be final, binding and conclusive and shall be non-appealable and enforceable in any court having jurisdiction. All hearings and proceedings held by the Arbitration Panel shall take place in New York, New York.

(e) The resolution procedure described herein shall be governed by the Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association and the Procedures for Large, Complex, Commercial Disputes in effect as of the date hereof.

(f) Eldorado and Propco shall bear equally the fees, costs and expenses of the Arbitration Panel in conducting any arbitration described in this Section 3.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of Eldorado and Propco and their respective successors and assigns, and shall remain in full force and effect in the event of a change of control of either party. This Agreement shall, to the extent within the control of the Eldorado Related Parties (and, if at any time not within their control, they shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts to procure such control), "run with the land" and remain in full force and effect in the event of a sale, directly or indirectly, of the ROFR Property or any interests therein, or the equity of any entity that owns, directly or indirectly, the ROFR Property or any portion thereof and the parties shall, promptly following closing of the Merger (as defined in the Master Transaction Agreement), take such actions as reasonably requested by Propco to memorialize the same, including Eldorado to the extent within the control of the Eldorado Related Parties (and, if at any time not within their control, they shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts to procure such control) causing the owner of the ROFR Property to join this Agreement and execute and deliver a memorandum of this Agreement, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Propco, which will be recorded in the applicable real estate records. Neither Eldorado nor Propco shall have the right to assign its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party; provided, that Propco may assign its rights (but not its obligations) under this Agreement to VICI Properties Inc., or an Affiliate thereof without such prior written consent; provided, further, that if Eldorado sells its indirect interest in the ROFR Property it shall cause (and shall be permitted to cause) the buyer thereof to assume its rights and obligations under this Agreement and Eldorado shall thereafter be released from its obligations hereunder.

(c) Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Agreement, together with the Master Transaction Agreement, the Ancillary Agreements (as defined in the Master Transaction Agreement), the exhibits hereto and any other documents and instruments executed pursuant hereto, constitute the entire and final agreement of the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and no provision of this Agreement may be waived, modified, amended, discharged or terminated except by an agreement in writing signed by the parties. Eldorado and Propco hereby agree that all prior or contemporaneous oral understandings, agreements or negotiations relative to the subject matter hereof are merged into and revoked by this Agreement.

(d) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, which State the parties agree has a substantial relationship to the parties and to the underlying transaction embodied hereby. This Agreement is the product of joint drafting by the parties and shall not be construed against either party as the drafter hereof.

(e) Venue. With respect to any action relating to this Agreement, Eldorado and Propco each irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of the State of New York sitting in the borough of Manhattan and the United States District Court having jurisdiction over New York County, New York, and Eldorado and Propco each waives: (a) any objection to the laying of venue of any suit or action brought in any such court; (b) any claim that such suit or action has been brought in an inconvenient forum; (c) any claim that the enforcement of this Section 4(e) is unreasonable, unduly oppressive, and/or unconscionable; and (d) the right to claim that such court lacks jurisdiction over that party.

(f) Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO, KNOWINGLY AND VOLUNTARILY, AND FOR THEIR MUTUAL BENEFIT, WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION REGARDING THE PERFORMANCE OR ENFORCEMENT OF, OR IN ANY WAY RELATED TO, THIS AGREEMENT.

(g) Severability. If any term or provision of this Agreement or any application thereof shall be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement and any other application of such term or provision shall not be affected thereby.

(h) Third-Party Beneficiaries. This Agreement is solely for the benefit of the parties hereto and is not enforceable by any other persons.

(i) Time of Essence. TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE OF THIS AGREEMENT AND EACH PROVISION HEREOF IN WHICH TIME OF PERFORMANCE IS ESTABLISHED.

(j) Further Assurances. The parties agree to promptly sign all documents reasonably requested to give effect to the provisions of this Agreement. In addition, Propco agrees to, at Eldorado's sole cost and expense, reasonably cooperate with all applicable Gaming Authorities in connection with the administration of their regulatory jurisdiction over Eldorado and its Subsidiaries, if any, including the provision of such documents and other information as may be requested by such Gaming Authorities relating to Eldorado or any of its Subsidiaries, if any, or to this Agreement and which are within Propco's control to obtain and provide.

(k) Counterparts; Originals. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be a valid and binding original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Facsimile or digital copies of this Agreement, including the signature page hereof, shall be deemed originals for all purposes.

(l) Termination. This Agreement shall automatically terminate and be of no further force or effect from and after the earliest of such time as (i) both of the Regional Lease and that certain Lease (CPLV), dated as of October 6, 2017 (as amended, restated or otherwise modified from time to time, and which Lease was renamed, effective as of the date hereof, the "Las Vegas Lease") shall have been terminated or have expired in accordance with the express terms thereof, (ii) Propco or any of its Affiliates shall have acquired the ROFR Property or (iii) Eldorado or any of its Affiliates shall have sold the ROFR Property to a third party in accordance with, and not in contravention of, the terms and conditions of this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, a transaction or event resulting in a change of control of either Eldorado or Propco shall not result in a termination of this Agreement; provided, that Eldorado may be released from its obligations hereunder upon the assumption by a buyer of its indirect interest as provided in Section 4(b) above.

(m) Gaming Regulations; Licensing Events; Termination.

(i) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, this Agreement and any agreement formed pursuant to the terms hereof are subject to all applicable Gaming Laws and all rights, remedies and powers under this Agreement and any agreement formed pursuant to the terms hereof may be exercised only to the extent that required approvals (including prior approvals) are obtained from the requisite Gaming Authorities.

(ii) If there shall occur a Propco Licensing Event and any aspect of such Propco Licensing Event is attributable to a member of the Propco Subject Group, then Eldorado shall notify Propco as promptly as practicable after becoming aware of such Propco Licensing Event (but in no event later than twenty (20) days after becoming aware of such Propco Licensing Event). In such event, Propco shall, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the other members of the Propco Subject Group to, use commercially reasonable efforts to assist Eldorado and its Affiliates in resolving such Propco Licensing Event within the time period required by the applicable Gaming Authorities by submitting to investigation by the relevant Gaming Authorities and cooperating with any reasonable requests made by such Gaming Authorities (including filing requested forms and delivering information to the Gaming Authorities). If, despite these efforts, such Propco Licensing Event cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of the applicable Gaming Authorities within the time period required by such Gaming Authorities, Eldorado shall have the right, at its election in its sole discretion, either to (A) terminate this Agreement or (B) cause this Agreement to temporarily cease to be in force or effect, until such time, if any, as the Propco Licensing Event is resolved to the satisfaction of the applicable Gaming Authorities and Eldorado in its sole discretion, upon no less than ninety (90) days' written notice thereof to Propco following a Propco Licensing Event which is not cured within the period required by the applicable Gaming Authorities (or such lesser time as required by any applicable Gaming Authority).

(iii) If there shall occur a Eldorado Licensing Event and any aspect of such Eldorado Licensing Event is attributable to a member of the Eldorado Subject Group, then Propco shall notify Eldorado as promptly as practicable after becoming aware of such Eldorado Licensing Event (but in no event later than twenty (20) days after becoming aware of such Eldorado Licensing Event). In such event, Eldorado shall, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the other members of the Eldorado Subject Group to, use commercially reasonable efforts to assist Propco and its Affiliates in resolving such Eldorado Licensing Event within the time period required by the applicable Gaming Authorities by submitting to investigation by the relevant Gaming Authorities and cooperating with any reasonable requests made by such Gaming Authorities (including filing requested forms and delivering information to the Gaming Authorities). If, despite these efforts, such Eldorado Licensing Event cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of the applicable Gaming Authorities within the time period required by such Gaming Authorities, Propco shall have the right, at its election in its sole discretion, either to (A) terminate this Agreement or (B) cause this Agreement to temporarily cease to be in force or effect, until such time, if any, as the Eldorado Licensing Event is resolved to the satisfaction of the applicable Gaming Authorities and Propco in its sole discretion, upon no less than ninety (90) days' written notice thereof to Eldorado following a Eldorado Licensing Event which is not cured within the period required by the applicable Gaming Authorities (or such lesser time as required by any applicable Gaming Authority).

(n) Certain Covenants. Eldorado will use its good faith commercially reasonable efforts to take any and all actions necessary (including without limitation good faith commercially reasonable efforts to (i) obtain the consents or approvals of any partners in CRBH and CBAC and (ii) effectuate any amendments to the Horseshoe Baltimore Operating Agreements necessary, if any) to give effect to this Agreement and the purpose and intent hereof.

(o) Guaranty. In the event Eldorado and/or its Affiliates and Propco and/or its Affiliates enter into a stand-alone lease pursuant to this Agreement, Eldorado will guaranty the performance of the lessee under such lease to the same extent as it guarantees the performance of the applicable lessees under the Regional Lease, such guaranty to be substantially similar in form and substance as the form of Eldorado guaranty entered into with respect to the Regional Lease with such other changes as may be mutually agreed between Propco and Eldorado acting in good faith in a commercially reasonable manner.

(p) Remedies. Each party hereto expressly acknowledges and agrees that it would be difficult to measure the damages that might result from any actual or threatened breach of this Agreement, that any actual or threatened breach by such party of any of the provisions of this Agreement might result in immediate, irreparable and continuing injury to the other party hereto and that a remedy at law for any such actual or threatened breach by any such party of the provisions of this Agreement might be inadequate. Each party hereto therefore agrees that the other party shall be entitled, without the posting of a bond, to temporary, preliminary and permanent injunctive relief or other equitable relief, issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, in the case of any such actual or threatened breach by such party.

(q) REIT Protection. This Agreement shall be interpreted in a manner that is consistent with the continued qualification of VICI Properties Inc., a Maryland corporation ("VICI REIT") as a "real estate investment trust" under Section 856(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any similar or successor provisions thereto (a "REIT"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, VICI REIT shall not be required to take any action or refrain from taking any action that would, in either case, reasonably be expected to cause VICI REIT to fail to qualify as a REIT.

(r) Opco/Propco Transaction. In the event that Eldorado or the Eldorado Related Parties desire to sell the ROFR Property together with the operating and other assets related thereto, in an opco/propco structure or in a situation in which parties may bid or otherwise participate in an opco/propco structure, in each case, that constitutes a Propco Opportunity Transaction (an "Opco/Propco Transaction"), the terms of this Agreement shall apply to the proposed Opco/Propco Transaction except as follows: (i) the Propco Election Period shall be extended from thirty (30) to forty-five (45) days (or from twenty (20) to thirty (30) days, in the case of Alternative Propco ROFR Terms as provided for in Section 2(d)), in order to permit Propco and its Affiliates to find an operator with which to exercise the Propco ROFR, (ii) the Propco ROFR Discussion Period shall be extended to one hundred twenty (120) days and the Licensing Period shall be extended to two hundred seventy (270) days with respect to the Opco/Propco Transaction; (iii) the Eldorado Marketing and Negotiation Period shall be extended to one hundred fifty (150) days and the Eldorado Closing Period shall be extended to two hundred seventy (270) days with respect to the Opco/Propco Transaction, (iv) prior to its exercise of the Propco ROFR, Propco may designate one or more bona fide operators to receive Financial Information and the proposed purchase price for the ROFR Property from Eldorado regarding the ROFR Property (but not any other information regarding the ROFR Property, and subject to execution by such operators of a customary non-disclosure agreement with Eldorado), (v) upon its exercise of the Propco ROFR, Propco may select one of the foregoing operators with which to pursue the exercise of the Propco ROFR and Propco shall thereafter be permitted to share customary due diligence information with respect to the ROFR Property with such designated operator pursuant to the terms of the aforementioned non-disclosure agreement, (vi) the terms of this Agreement that are specific to a sale leaseback structure involving Eldorado, including the Regional Lease Amendment and the guaranty by Eldorado of the performance thereunder, shall not apply, (vii) the parties will work in good faith to resolve any issues related to the implementation of this ROFR with respect to an Opco/Propco Transaction that are not specifically addressed herein, and (viii) to the extent, after the exercise of such good faith efforts, the parties cannot so agree, any matters remaining unresolved at the end of the Propco Election Period or the Propco ROFR Discussion Period, as applicable, shall be established pursuant to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth herein.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Eldorado and Propco have executed this Right of First Refusal Agreement as of the date first set forth above.

GRANT OF LICENSE; TERM

2.1 Golf Courses; Rights and Privileges; Minimum Rounds; Trademark License.

(a) User and Owner Rights and Privileges.

(i) Upon and subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth, Owner grants to User, and User accepts from Owner, certain priority rights and privileges with respect to access and use of the golf course properties described on Exhibit A-1 attached hereto (each, a "Golf Course"; collectively, the "Golf Courses") as more particularly set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto (collectively, the "User Rights and Privileges"). Such User Rights and Privileges are granted subject to all covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements and other matters of any nature, whether or not of record, affecting the Golf Courses or any portion thereof as of the Commencement Date and such subsequent covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements and other matters of any nature, whether or not of record, affecting the Golf Courses or any portion thereof that do not materially and adversely affect User's rights under this Agreement or as may otherwise be agreed to in writing by Owner and User, whether or not of record, including any matters which would be disclosed by an inspection or accurate survey of the Golf Courses or any portion thereof. With respect to each Golf Course, Owner shall have the right to enter into any covenants, conditions, restrictions, easements and other matters of any nature, whether or not of record, affecting such Golf Course or any portion thereof without having agreed to same in writing with User but Owner may do so only if and to the extent the same does not render such Golf Course Unsuitable for Its Primary Intended Use. In addition, Owner shall have the right to develop, alter and/or improve portions of the property on which any Golf Course is situated for other uses but Owner may do so only if and to the extent that doing so does not render such Golf Course Unsuitable for Its Primary Intended Use.

(ii) In consideration of the foregoing grant of the User Rights and Privileges, User shall (A) pay to Owner the Membership Fee and the CES Use Fee (as more particularly described in Article III), (B) provide to Owner (or cause User's Affiliates to provide to Owner) the rights and privileges set forth on Exhibit C attached hereto (collectively, the "Owner Rights and Privileges") and (C) sponsor (i.e., pay for, and use commercially reasonable efforts to refer to Owner), on a monthly basis, the Aggregate Minimum Rounds Per Month and, on an annual basis, the Aggregate Minimum Rounds Per Year (as more particularly described in Section 2.1(b) below).

(b) Minimum Rounds.

(i) User agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to refer to Owner, at each Golf Course, a minimum number of Complimentary Golf Rounds per calendar year as more particularly set forth on Exhibit E-1 attached hereto (collectively, the "Minimum Rounds Per Year"), which Minimum Rounds Per Year shall be apportioned among each calendar month during each such calendar year as more particularly set forth on Exhibit E-1 attached hereto (collectively, the "Minimum Rounds Per Month"), in each case as such amounts may be reduced by the applicable Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount as described in Section 7.3, Section 11.2(a), Section 11.2(b), Section 12.1(a), Section 12.1(b), Section 12.3 and Article XVI.

(ii) In consideration of the tee times that will be reserved (i.e., set aside) by Owner in order to accommodate the Aggregate Minimum Rounds Per Year and any Other Sponsored Rounds For The Year (as applicable), User shall pay to Owner the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee (as more particularly described in Article III). For the avoidance of doubt, User's failure to refer to Owner, at each Golf Course, the Minimum Rounds Per Year shall in no way affect User's obligation to pay to Owner the portion of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee attributable to the aggregate of the Annual Minimum Rounds Fees for all of the Golf Courses.

(c) Trademark License. Subject to the terms and provisions set forth in this Agreement, CLC hereby grants to Owner, and Owner hereby accepts, a worldwide, royalty-free and non-transferable right and sublicense, for a term of eight (8) years from the Commencement Date (the "License Term"), to use the Licensed Trademarks solely (x) in connection with the operation, advertising, marketing and promotion of the Rio Secco Golf Course and (y) on or in connection with the use, manufacture, marketing, promotion, distribution, offer for sale and sale of Products and Materials. Owner acknowledges and agrees that the Licensed Trademarks are owned by Rio and licensed to CLC. Owner therefore agrees to comply with the terms and conditions applicable to sublicensees of the Licensed Trademarks, as set forth on Exhibit H hereto. The sublicense granted pursuant to this Section 2.1(c) shall be non-exclusive, except that such license shall be exclusive as to CES and its subsidiaries (including CLC); provided, that CES and its subsidiaries (including CLC) may continue to use the Licensed Trademarks and reference the Rio Secco Golf Course as necessary to comply with the terms and conditions of this Agreement (including, e.g., for promotional purposes in connection with the User Rights and Privileges set forth on Exhibit B hereto).

2.2 Term. The term of this Agreement (the "Term") shall commence on the Commencement Date and expire on the Expiration Date (i.e., the Term shall consist of the Initial Term plus all Renewal Terms, to the extent exercised as set forth in Section 2.3 below, subject to any earlier termination of the Term pursuant to the terms hereof). The initial stated term of this Agreement (the "Initial Term") shall commence on October 6, 2017 (the "Commencement Date") and expire on July 31, 2035 (the "Initial Stated Expiration Date"). The "Stated Expiration Date" means the Initial Stated Expiration Date or the expiration date of the most recently exercised Renewal Term, as the case may be. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein, (a) if all of the Leases terminate in accordance with their respective terms, then, simultaneously with such termination of the Lease that terminates last, this Agreement shall automatically terminate, and (b) this Agreement may be terminated by User with respect to one or more Golf Courses, provided that any such termination pursuant to this clause (b) shall not relieve or diminish User's obligation to pay the full amount of the Membership Fee as provided herein, which obligation shall survive the termination of this Agreement until all of the Leases have terminated in accordance with their respective terms, nor relieve or diminish Guarantor's obligations under the Guaranty.

2.3 Renewal Terms. The Term may be extended for four (4) separate "Renewal Terms" of five (5) years each if (a) at least twelve (12), but not more than eighteen (18), months prior to the then current Stated Expiration Date, User delivers to Owner a "Renewal Notice" stating that it is irrevocably exercising its right to extend this Agreement for one (1) Renewal Term; and (b) no User Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing on the date Owner receives the Renewal Notice or on the last day of the then current Term (other than an User Event of Default that is in the process of being cured by a Permitted User Lender in compliance in all respects with Section 17.2). Subject to the provisions, terms and conditions of this Agreement, upon User's timely delivery to Owner of a Renewal Notice, the Term shall be extended for the then applicable Renewal Term. During any such Renewal Term, except as specifically provided for herein, all of the provisions, terms and conditions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. After the last Renewal Term, User shall have no further right to renew or extend the Term. If User fails to validly and timely exercise any right to extend this Agreement, then all subsequent rights to extend the Term shall terminate. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein, (i) if any right to extend the term of any of the Leases is validly and timely exercised pursuant to Section 1.4 of such Lease, then (A) User shall be required to exercise the corresponding right to extend this Agreement for the corresponding Renewal Term hereunder, (B) User shall be deemed to have validly and timely exercised such right to extend this Agreement described in the foregoing clause (A), and (C) this Agreement shall automatically be extended for the applicable Renewal Term without any further action by User, and (ii) if all of the rights to extend the terms of the Leases fail to be validly and timely exercised pursuant to Section 1.4 of each of the Leases, then all corresponding and subsequent rights to extend the Term hereunder shall terminate and User shall not have any right to extend this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

GOLF COURSE USE PAYMENTS

3.1 Payment of Membership Fee and CES Use Fee.

(a) Generally. During the Term, User will pay to Owner each of the Golf Course Use Payments and Additional Charges in lawful money of the United States of America and legal tender for the payment of public and private debts, in the manner provided in Section 3.3. On the Commencement Date, a prorated portion of the first monthly installment of the Membership Fee shall be paid by User for the period from the Commencement Date until the last day of the calendar month in which the Commencement Date occurs, based on the number of days during such period. Thereafter, the Membership Fee shall be payable by User in consecutive monthly installments equal to one-twelfth (1/12th) of the Membership Fee amount for the applicable Usage Year on the first (1st) day of each calendar month (or the immediately preceding Business Day if the first (1st) day of the month is not a Business Day), in advance for such calendar month, during that Usage Year. With respect to the CES Use Fee, (i) on the Commencement Date, a prorated portion of the first quarterly installment of the CES Use Fee shall be paid by User for the period from the Commencement Date until the last day of the calendar quarter in which the Commencement Date occurs, based on the number of days during such period, and (ii) thereafter, the CES Use Fee shall be payable by User in consecutive quarterly installments equal to one-fourth (1/4th) of the CES

Use Fee amount for the applicable Usage Year on the first (1st) day of each calendar quarter (or the immediately preceding Business Day if the first (1st) day of the quarter is not a Business Day), in advance for such calendar quarter, during that Usage Year. The Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be payable in accordance with the terms and provisions of Section 3.5 below.

(b) Proration for Partial Usage Year. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing, the Golf Course Use Payments shall each be prorated on a per diem basis as to any Usage Year containing less than twelve (12) full calendar months, and with respect to any installment thereof due for any partial months at the beginning and end of the Term.

3.2 Late Payment. User hereby acknowledges that the late payment by User to Owner of any of the Golf Course Use Payments or Additional Charges will cause Owner to incur costs not contemplated hereunder, the exact amount of which is presently anticipated to be extremely difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, if any installment of any of the Golf Course Use Payments or Additional Charges payable directly to Owner shall not be paid within four (4) days after its due date, User shall pay to Owner on demand a late charge equal to the lesser of (a) five percent (5%) of the amount of such installment or Additional Charges and (b) the maximum amount permitted by law. The Parties agree that this late charge represents a fair and reasonable estimate of the costs that Owner will incur by reason of late payment by User. The Parties further agree that any such late charge constitutes Golf Course Use Payments or Additional Charges (as applicable), and not interest, and such assessment does not constitute a lender or borrower/creditor relationship between Owner and User. If any installment of any of the Golf Course Use Payments (or Additional Charges payable directly to Owner) shall not be paid within nine (9) days after its due date, the amount unpaid, including any late charges previously accrued and unpaid, shall bear interest at the Overdue Rate (from such ninth (9th) day after the due date of such installment until the date of payment thereof) (including interest accruing during the pendency of any bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or other similar proceeding, whether or not a claim for such interest is allowed or allowable in such proceeding), and User shall pay such interest to Owner on demand. The payment of such late charge or such interest shall not constitute a waiver of, nor excuse or cure, any default under this Agreement, nor prevent Owner from exercising any other rights and remedies available to Owner. No failure by Owner to insist upon strict performance by User of User's obligation to pay late charges and interest on sums overdue shall constitute a waiver by Owner of its right to enforce the provisions, terms and conditions of this Section 3.2. No payment by User nor receipt by Owner of a lesser amount than may be required to be paid hereunder shall be deemed to be other than on account of any such payment, nor shall any endorsement or statement on any check or any letter accompanying any check tendered as payment be deemed an accord and satisfaction and Owner, in its sole discretion, may accept such check or payment without prejudice to Owner's right to recover the balance of such payment due or pursue any other right or remedy in this Agreement provided.

3.3 Method of Payment. Each of the Golf Course Use Payments and Additional Charges to be paid to Owner shall be paid by electronic funds transfer debit transactions through wire transfer, ACH or direct deposit of immediately available federal funds and shall be initiated by User for settlement on or before the applicable Payment Date in each case (or, in respect of Additional Charges, as applicable, such other date as may be applicable hereunder); provided, however, if the Payment Date is not a Business Day, then settlement shall be made on the preceding Business Day. Owner shall provide User with appropriate wire transfer, ACH and direct deposit information in a Notice from Owner to User. If Owner directs User to pay any of the Golf Course Use Payments or any Additional Charges to any party other than Owner, User shall send to Owner, simultaneously with such payment, a copy of the transmittal letter or invoice and a check whereby such payment is made or such other evidence of payment as Owner may reasonably require. No amounts due and payable under this Agreement may be offset against any amounts due and payable under any other agreement.

3.4 Monthly Invoice. Within ten (10) Business Days after the end of each calendar month during the Term, Owner shall furnish to User an invoice for all Monthly Minimum Rounds Fees, Monthly Other Sponsored Rounds Fees and Additional Charges (if any) which are then payable hereunder (each, a "Monthly Invoice"). For the avoidance of doubt, each Monthly Invoice will be based solely on activities at the Golf Courses for the calendar month to which such Monthly Invoice relates, and any reconciliation credits or refunds will be applied against the invoiced amounts only after the corresponding end-of-quarter reconciliation (as more particularly described below) has been completed. Within thirty (30) days following the date of the giving of a Monthly Invoice (which shall be determined in accordance with Article XXIV hereof), User shall pay to Owner all amounts set forth on such Monthly Invoice. No delay by Owner in providing any statement, invoice or billing (including, without limitation, any Monthly Invoice or any Owner's Statement) to User shall be deemed a default by Owner or a waiver of amounts due to Owner. User's failure to object to any statement, invoice or billing by Owner (including, without limitation, any Monthly Invoice or any Owner's Statement) within ninety (90) days after the date of the giving thereof (which shall be determined in accordance with Article XXIV hereof) shall constitute User's approval of, and waiver of any objection to, such statement, invoice or billing and shall conclusively establish such statement, invoice or billing as being in accordance with this Agreement.

3.5 Payment of Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein, the provisions of this Section 3.5 shall be applicable with respect to the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee, and in the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Section 3.5 and the other provisions of this Article III, the provisions of this Section 3.5 shall govern. Payments in respect of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be made by User to Owner, in consecutive monthly installments on or before the thirtieth (30th) day following the date of the giving of each Monthly Invoice (which shall be determined in accordance with Article XXIV hereof) (in arrears for the calendar month to which such Monthly Invoice relates), and each such payment shall include the applicable Monthly Minimum Rounds Fees and the applicable Monthly Other Sponsored Rounds Fees for all of the Golf Courses (subject to quarterly reconciliation as set forth below). Within forty-five (45) days after the end of each calendar quarter during the Term, Owner shall furnish to User a statement showing (a) the number of Complimentary Golf Rounds attributable to such calendar quarter, (b) the year-to-date (as of the end of such calendar quarter) number of Complimentary Golf Rounds attributable to the calendar year of which such calendar quarter is a part, and (c) a calculation of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Reimbursement Amount (if any) which is then owing hereunder (each, an "Owner's Statement"). Within thirty (30) days following the date of the giving of an Owner's Statement (which shall be determined in accordance with Article XXIV hereof), Owner shall provide to User a credit against payments in respect of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee next coming due (or a refund if at the end of the Term, subject to Article XIII) in the amount of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Reimbursement Amount (if any) set forth on such Owner's Statement. For purposes hereof, the term "Complimentary Golf Rounds Reimbursement Amount" shall mean an amount equal to the difference of (i) the aggregate amount of the installment payments theretofore made by User to Owner in respect of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee pursuant to this Section 3.5 during the applicable calendar year, minus (ii) the sum of (A) the aggregate amount of all Monthly Minimum Rounds Fees for all of the Golf Courses, on a year-to-date basis, payable for all of the months during such calendar year, through and including such calendar quarter, plus (B) the aggregate amount of the following for all of the Golf Courses: with respect to each Golf Course, the product of (1) the greater of (x) zero (0), and (y) the difference of (I) for such Golf Course, as applicable, the aggregate number of Complimentary Golf Rounds at such Golf Course, on a year-to-date basis, for such calendar year, through and including such calendar quarter, minus (II) for such Golf Course, as applicable, the aggregate number of Minimum Rounds Per Month for such Golf Course for all of the months during such calendar year, through and including such calendar quarter, multiplied by (2) the applicable Other Sponsored Rounds Charge for such Golf Course. For the avoidance of doubt, in performing any end-of-quarter reconciliation, with respect to each Golf Course, (aa) the aggregate year-to-date number of Complimentary Golf Rounds at such Golf Course will be applied first towards satisfaction of each of the Minimum Rounds Per Month for such Golf Course through and including the applicable calendar quarter (and, in connection therewith, some or all of the Other Sponsored Rounds For The Month at such Golf Course during the applicable calendar quarter may ultimately be applied to satisfy the Minimum Rounds Per Month of a preceding, or subsequent, month in the calendar year of which the applicable calendar quarter is a part); and (bb) if the aggregate year-to-date number of Other Sponsored Rounds For The Month for such Golf Course exceeds the aggregate year-to-date number of unsatisfied Minimum Rounds Per Month for such Golf Course, then the reconciliation will include an adjustment of the rate applicable to such excess for purposes of calculating the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee (i.e., the applicable rate with respect to such excess will be the applicable Minimum Rounds Rate for such Golf Course (rather than the then applicable Tee Sheet Rate)).

ARTICLE IV

ADDITIONAL CHARGES

Owner and User acknowledge and agree that the Golf Course Use Payments are in consideration of the User Rights and Privileges and the tee times to be reserved (i.e., set aside) to accommodate the Aggregate Minimum Rounds Per Year and any Other Sponsored Rounds For The Year (as applicable). In addition to the Golf Course Use Payments, User shall (a) pay Owner for charges for goods and services (other than greens fees) provided by Owner at the Golf Courses (e.g., food, beverages and pro shop merchandise) to, or at the written request (which may be via electronic mail) of, User, in each case in a manner consistent with past practice, and (b) be responsible for other Additional Charges in accordance with the applicable terms hereof.

ARTICLE V

NO TERMINATION, ABATEMENT, ETC.

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, User shall remain bound by this Agreement in accordance with its terms. The obligations of Owner and User hereunder shall be separate and independent covenants and agreements and each of the Golf Course Use Payments and all other sums payable by User hereunder shall continue to be payable in all events unless the obligations to pay the same shall be terminated pursuant to the express provisions of this Agreement or by termination of this Agreement as to all of the Golf Courses as a result of all of the Leases having been terminated in accordance with their respective terms other than a termination of this Agreement by Owner pursuant to Section 13.2. Without limitation of the preceding sentence, the respective obligations of Owner and User shall not be affected by reason of, except as expressly set forth in Articles XI and XII, (a) any damage to or destruction of the Golf Courses or any portion thereof from whatever cause, or any Condemnation of the Golf Courses or any portion thereof or, discontinuance of any service or utility servicing the same; (b) the lawful or unlawful prohibition of, or restriction upon, User's use of the Golf Courses or any portion thereof or the interference with such use by any Person; (c) any claim that User has or might have against Owner by reason of any default or breach of any warranty by Owner hereunder or under any other agreement between Owner and User or to which Owner and User are parties; (d) any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, consolidation, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution, winding up or other proceedings affecting Owner or any assignee or transferee of Owner; or (e) for any other cause, whether similar or dissimilar to any of the foregoing. User hereby specifically waives all rights arising from any occurrence whatsoever which may now or hereafter be conferred upon it by law (i) to modify, surrender or terminate this Agreement, or (ii) which may entitle User to any abatement, deduction, reduction, suspension or deferment of or defense, counterclaim, claim or set-off against any of the Golf Course Use Payments or other sums payable by User hereunder, except in each case as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI

OWNERSHIP OF GOLF COURSES

Owner and User acknowledge and agree that they have executed and delivered this Agreement with the understanding that (i) the Golf Courses are the property of Owner, (ii) User has only the right to access and use the Golf Courses upon the terms and conditions of this Agreement, (iii) during the Term, each Golf Course is an amenity relating to the Leased Property under the Leases as well as a third-party business open to the public, (iv) the business relationship created by this Agreement and any related documents is and at all times shall remain that of licensor and licensee, (v) this Agreement has been entered into by each Party in reliance upon the mutual covenants, conditions and agreements contained herein, and (vi) none of the agreements contained herein is intended, nor shall the same be deemed or construed, to create a partnership between Owner and User, to make them joint venturers, to make User an agent, legal representative, partner, subsidiary or employee of Owner, or to make Owner in any way responsible for the debts, obligations or losses of User.

ARTICLE VII

PRESENT CONDITION & USE

7.1 Condition of the Golf Courses. User confirms that User has examined and otherwise has knowledge of the condition of the Golf Courses prior to and as of the execution and delivery of this Agreement and has found the same to be satisfactory for its purposes hereunder, it being understood and acknowledged by User that, immediately prior to Owner's acquisition of the Golf Courses and contemporaneous entry into this Agreement, User (or its Affiliates) was the owner of all of Owner's interest in and to the Golf Courses and, accordingly, User is charged with, and deemed to have, full and complete knowledge of all aspects of the condition and state of the Golf Courses as of the Commencement Date. Without limitation of the foregoing and regardless of any examination or inspection made by User, and whether or not any patent or latent defect or condition was revealed or discovered thereby, User is using the Golf Courses "as is" in its present condition. Without limitation of the foregoing, User waives any claim or action against Owner in respect of the condition of the Golf Courses including any defects or adverse conditions not discovered or otherwise known by User as of the Commencement Date. OWNER MAKES NO WARRANTY OR REPRESENTATION OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IN RESPECT OF THE GOLF COURSES OR ANY PART THEREOF, INCLUDING AS TO ITS FITNESS FOR USE, DESIGN OR CONDITION FOR ANY PARTICULAR USE OR PURPOSE OR OTHERWISE. This Section 7.1 shall not be construed to limit Owner's express indemnities made hereunder.

7.2 Use of the Golf Courses. During the Term, each Golf Course shall be used for the Primary Intended Use.

7.3 Ground Leases.

(a) Subject to Section 7.3(b) and Section 7.3(c) below, in the event of cancellation or termination of any Ground Lease for any reason whatsoever whether voluntary or involuntary (by operation of law or otherwise) prior to the Expiration Date (other than the cancellation or termination of a Ground Lease entered into in connection with a sale-leaseback transaction by Owner (other than if such cancellation or termination resulted from User's default under this Agreement), which cancellation or termination results in the Golf Course leased under such Ground Lease no longer being subject to this Agreement), then this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and User's obligation to pay each of the Golf Course Use Payments (excluding the portion of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee attributable to such Ground Leased Golf Course) and all Additional Charges required by this Agreement, and all other obligations of User hereunder (other than such obligations of User hereunder that concern solely the applicable Ground Leased Golf Course demised under the affected Ground Lease (including, without limitation, the obligations of User hereunder with respect to the portion of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee attributable to such Ground Leased Golf Course), which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall under no circumstances include or be deemed to include the obligations of User hereunder with respect to all or any portion of the Membership Fee), shall continue unabated (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Minimum Rounds Per Month and the Minimum Rounds Per Year shall each be adjusted in accordance with the Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be re-determined in connection therewith)); provided that if Owner enters into a replacement lease with respect to the applicable Ground Leased Golf Course on substantially similar terms to those of such cancelled or terminated Ground Lease, then such replacement lease shall automatically become a Ground Lease hereunder and such Ground Leased Golf Course shall remain part of the Golf Courses hereunder. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall create, or be construed as creating, any privity of contract or privity of estate between the lessor under any applicable Ground Lease (in each case, the "Ground Lessor") and User.

(b) With respect to any Ground Leased Golf Course, the Ground Lease for which has an expiration date (taking into account any renewal options exercised thereunder as of the Commencement Date or hereafter exercised) prior to the Expiration Date, this Agreement shall expire solely with respect to such Ground Leased Golf Course concurrently with such Ground Lease expiration date (taking into account the following sentences of this Section 7.3(b)). There shall be no reduction in any of the Golf Course Use Payments by reason of such expiration with respect to, and the corresponding removal from this Agreement of, any such Ground Leased Golf Course, except that the portion of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee attributable to such Ground Leased Golf Course shall no longer constitute a part of the Golf Course Use Payments (and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Minimum Rounds Per Month and the Minimum Rounds Per Year shall each be adjusted in accordance with the Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be re-determined in connection therewith)). Unless all of the rights to extend the terms of the Leases fail to be validly and timely exercised pursuant to Section 1.4 of each of the Leases, Owner (as ground lessee) shall be required to (at the appropriate times) exercise all renewal options contained in each Ground Lease so as to extend the term thereof, and Owner shall provide User with a copy of Owner's exercise of such renewal option.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Agreement, in the event that, despite any cancellation or termination of any Ground Lease for any reason whatsoever whether voluntary or involuntary (by operation of law or otherwise), Owner continues to be able to make available to User use of the applicable Ground Leased Golf Course demised under the affected Ground Lease for the Primary Intended Use, then all rights and obligations of Owner and User with respect to such Ground Leased Golf Course shall continue in full force and effect.

(d) Nothing contained in this Agreement amends, or shall be construed to amend, any provision of the Ground Leases.

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Each Party represents and warrants to the other that as of the Commencement Date: (i) this Agreement has been duly authorized and shall be binding upon it; (ii) it is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the laws of the state of its formation and, as applicable, is duly authorized and qualified to perform this Agreement within the States where the Golf Courses are located; and (iii) neither this Agreement nor any other document executed or to be executed in connection herewith violates the terms of any other agreement of such Party.

ARTICLE IX

MAINTENANCE, REPAIR AND OPERATIONS

Subject to the following provisions of this Article IX, Owner shall, at Owner's sole cost and expense, (a) operate, maintain, repair and replace the Golf Courses, and every portion thereof, including, without limitation, undertaking and performing capital improvements, in each case (i) in a manner substantially consistent with the prior operating history of the Golf Courses and/or applicable portion thereof, and (ii) in conformity in all material respects with all Legal Requirements, and (b) be responsible for all taxes, utilities, and other costs of ownership of the Golf Courses. Except to the extent necessary during restoration after a Casualty Event, Taking or Condemnation, or necessary or appropriate for purposes of performing maintenance and repairs and/or renovations in Owner's (and only Owner's) business judgment, Owner shall keep the Golf Courses continuously open for business and operating in the ordinary course. In the event that a Golf Course closes as a result of any restoration or renovation, User's obligation to pay each of the Golf Course Use Payments and all Additional Charges required by this Agreement shall remain unabated during the period that such Golf Course is closed; except, however, if such Golf Course remains closed for six (6) consecutive calendar months, then, during the period commencing on the day immediately after the expiration of such six (6)-month period and ending on the day immediately preceding the date on which such Golf Course reopens, User shall not be required to (i) sponsor any portion of the Aggregate Minimum Rounds Per Month and/or Aggregate Minimum Rounds Per Year that would have been attributable to such Golf Course for such period had such Golf Course not been closed during such period, or (ii) pay any portion of the Monthly Minimum Rounds Fee and/or Annual Minimum Rounds Fee that would have been attributable to such Golf Course for such period had such Golf Course not been closed during such period. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, (A) to the extent not paid in full on or before the Commencement Date, User shall pay (or cause to be paid) in full all costs and expenses for completing those capital improvements for the Golf Courses (notwithstanding the amounts provided for on Exhibit F attached hereto) that have either (1) commenced on or before the Commencement Date or (2) been approved by User as of the Commencement Date (collectively, the "Approved Capital Improvements"), which Approved Capital Improvements are more particularly described on Exhibit F attached hereto, promptly following User's receipt of an invoice for the same, and (B) to the extent not complete on or before the date hereof, User shall diligently prosecute completion of the Approved Capital Improvements. User hereby represents and warrants to Owner that, as of the Commencement Date, User paid One Million Eight Hundred Ninety-Two Thousand Eight Hundred Thirty-Nine and 36/100 Dollars ($1,892,839.36) with respect to the Approved Capital Improvements.

ARTICLE X

INSURANCE

During the Term, Owner shall, at its own cost and expense, maintain the minimum kinds and amounts of insurance described on Exhibit I attached hereto. Such insurance shall apply to the ownership, maintenance, use and operations related to the Golf Courses and all property located in or on the Golf Courses. All policies shall be written with insurers authorized to do business in all States where the Golf Courses are located and shall maintain A.M. Best ratings of not less than "A-" "VII" or better in the most recent version of Best's Key Rating Guide. In the event that any of the insurance companies' ratings fall below the requirements set forth above, Owner shall have one hundred eighty (180) days within which to replace such insurance company with an insurance company that qualifies under the requirements set forth above. It is understood that Owner may utilize so called Surplus lines companies and will adhere to the standard above. In furtherance of the foregoing, Owner shall maintain, with financially sound and reputable insurance companies, insurance (subject to customary deductibles and retentions) in such amounts and against such risks as are reasonable and customarily maintained by similarly situated companies engaged in the same or similar businesses operating in the same or similar locations. Certificates of insurance, evidencing the insurance coverage required by this Article X shall be delivered to User as described on Exhibit I attached hereto. The Parties hereby confirm that the amounts and types of insurance that Owner has in effect as of the Commencement Date satisfies the requirements of this Article X.

ARTICLE XI

CASUALTY

11.1 Property Insurance Proceeds. All proceeds payable by reason of any property loss or damage to the Golf Courses, or any portion thereof, under any property policy of insurance required to be carried hereunder or otherwise maintained by Owner shall be paid to Owner or as otherwise agreed between Owner and Fee Mortgagee and, subject to the limitations set forth in this Article XI, used for the repair of any damage to or restoration or reconstruction of the Golf Courses, provided that the Golf Courses are rebuilt in a manner that is substantially the same condition as existed immediately prior to the applicable casualty or otherwise reasonably satisfactory to Owner. Any excess proceeds of insurance remaining after the completion of the restoration or reconstruction of the Golf Courses to substantially the same condition as existed immediately before the damage or destruction and with materials and workmanship of like kind and quality or otherwise to Owner's reasonable satisfaction shall be paid to Owner.

11.2 Owner's Obligations Following Casualty

(a) Subject to Section 11.2(b) below, in the event of a Casualty Event with respect to any individual Golf Course, (i) Owner shall restore such Golf Course to substantially the same condition as existed immediately before such damage or otherwise in a manner reasonably satisfactory to Owner and (ii) the damage caused by the applicable Casualty Event shall not terminate this Agreement; provided, however, that if the applicable Casualty Event shall occur not more than two (2) years prior to the then-Stated Expiration Date and the cost to restore the applicable Golf Course to the condition immediately preceding the Casualty Event, as determined by a mutually approved contractor or architect, would equal or exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of the fair market value (as reasonably determined by the parties) of such Golf Course immediately prior to the time of such damage or destruction, then each of Owner and User shall have the option, exercisable in such Party's sole and absolute discretion, to terminate this Agreement with respect to such Golf Course, upon written notice to the other Party hereto delivered to such other Party within thirty (30) days of the determination of the amount of damage and the fair market value (as reasonably determined by the parties) of such Golf Course and, if such option is exercised by either Owner or User, (i) this Agreement shall terminate with respect to such Golf Course and Owner shall not be required to restore such Golf Course and any insurance proceeds payable as a result of the damage or destruction shall be payable in accordance with Section 11.2(c), and (ii) commencing upon the date of such termination, (A) the CES Use Fee shall be adjusted in accordance with the CES Use Fee Reduction Amount and (B) the Minimum Rounds Per Month and the Minimum Rounds Per Year shall each be adjusted in accordance with the Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be re-determined in connection therewith). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, if a Casualty Event occurs (and/or if the determination of the amount of damage and/or the thirty (30) day period referred to in the preceding sentence is continuing) at a time when User could send a Renewal Notice (provided, for this purpose, User shall be permitted to send a Renewal Notice under Section 2.3 not more than twenty-four (24) months (rather than not more than eighteen (18) months) prior to the then current Stated Expiration Date), if User has elected or elects to exercise the same at any time following User's receipt of such notice of termination from Owner, neither Owner nor User may terminate this Agreement under this Section 11.2(a).

(b) If the cost to restore any individual Golf Course exceeds the amount of proceeds received from the insurance required to be carried hereunder, then (i) Owner shall not be obligated to restore such Golf Course, and (ii) Owner shall, by written notice to User delivered to User within thirty (30) days of the final determination of the amount of proceeds received from the insurance required to be carried hereunder or otherwise maintained by Owner, elect to either (A) restore such Golf Course to substantially the same condition as existed immediately before such damage or otherwise in a manner reasonably satisfactory to Owner (in which event this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect) or (B) terminate this Agreement with respect to such Golf Course (in which event (1) this Agreement shall terminate with respect to such Golf Course and any insurance proceeds payable as a result of the damage or destruction shall be payable in accordance with Section 11.2(c), and (2) commencing upon the date of such termination, (x) the CES Use Fee shall be adjusted in accordance with the CES Use Fee Reduction Amount and (y) the Minimum Rounds Per Month and the Minimum Rounds Per Year shall each be adjusted in accordance with the Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be re-determined in connection therewith)).

(c) In the event Owner is not required to, and does not elect to, repair and restore any applicable Golf Course, all insurance proceeds shall be paid to and retained by Owner free and clear of any claim.

11.3 No Abatement of Golf Course Use Payments. Except as expressly provided in Article IX or this Article XI, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect and User's obligation to pay each of the Golf Course Use Payments and all Additional Charges required by this Agreement shall remain unabated during any period following a Casualty Event. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, for the avoidance of doubt, under no scenario, including, without limitation, the termination of this Agreement as a result of a Casualty Event or otherwise, shall User be relieved of its obligation to pay the Membership Fee before all of the Leases have terminated in accordance with their respective terms.

11.4 Waiver. User waives any statutory rights of termination which may arise by reason of any damage or destruction of any applicable Golf Course but such waiver shall not affect any contractual rights granted to User under this Agreement.

ARTICLE XII

EMINENT DOMAIN

12.1 Condemnation. Owner shall promptly give User written notice of the actual or threatened Condemnation or any Condemnation proceeding affecting any Golf Course of which Owner has knowledge and shall deliver to User copies of any and all papers served in connection with the same.

(a) Total Taking. If all of any individual Golf Course is subject to a permanent Taking, then (i) this Agreement shall automatically terminate with respect to such Golf Course as of the day before the date of such Taking, and (ii) commencing upon the date of such termination, (A) the CES Use Fee shall be adjusted in accordance with the CES Use Fee Reduction Amount and (B) the Minimum Rounds Per Month and the Minimum Rounds Per Year shall each be adjusted in accordance with the Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be re-determined in connection therewith).

(b) Partial Taking. If a portion (but not all) of any individual Golf Course is subject to a permanent Taking ("Partial Taking"), then (i) this Agreement shall remain in effect so long as such Golf Course is not thereby rendered Unsuitable for Its Primary Intended Use, and (ii) none of the Golf Course Use Payments shall be adjusted; provided, however, that if the applicable Golf Course is rendered Unsuitable for Its Primary Intended Use, then (A) this Agreement shall terminate with respect to such Golf Course as of the day before the date of such Partial Taking, and (B) commencing upon the date of such termination, (1) the CES Use Fee shall be adjusted in accordance with the CES Use Fee Reduction Amount and (2) the Minimum Rounds Per Month and the Minimum Rounds Per Year shall each be adjusted in accordance with the Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be re-determined in connection therewith).

(c) Restoration. If there is a Partial Taking and this Agreement remains in full force and effect, the Award shall be paid to Owner. In such event, (i) subject to receiving such Award, Owner shall accomplish all necessary restoration in accordance with the following sentence (whether or not the amount of the Award received by Owner is sufficient), and (ii) none of the Golf Course Use Payments shall be adjusted. Owner shall restore the affected Golf Course as nearly as reasonably possible under the circumstances to a complete architectural unit of the same general character and condition as existed immediately prior to the applicable Partial Taking or otherwise reasonably satisfactory to Owner (but in any case consistent with the Primary Intended Use).

12.2 Award Distribution. The Award resulting from any Taking or Condemnation shall be paid to and retained by Owner free and clear of any claim.

12.3 Temporary Taking. The taking of any individual Golf Course, or any part thereof, shall constitute a Taking by Condemnation only when the use and occupancy by the taking authority has continued for longer than one hundred eighty (180) consecutive days. During any shorter period, which shall be a temporary taking, all the provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect (except that (a) the CES Use Fee shall be adjusted in accordance with the CES Use Fee Reduction Amount and (b) the Minimum Rounds Per Month and the Minimum Rounds Per Year shall each be adjusted in accordance with the Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be re-determined in connection therewith), in each case in proportion to the duration of such temporary taking) and the Award shall be paid to Owner.

12.4 No Abatement of Membership Fee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, for the avoidance of doubt, under no scenario, including, without limitation, the termination of this Agreement as a result of a Taking, Partial Taking or otherwise, shall User be relieved of its obligation to pay the Membership Fee before all of the Leases have terminated in accordance with their respective terms.

ARTICLE XIII

DEFAULTS & REMEDIES

13.1 User Events of Default. Any one or more of the following shall constitute a "User Event of Default":

(a) User shall fail to pay any installment of any of the Golf Course Use Payments when due and such failure is not cured within ten (10) days after written notice from Owner of User's failure to pay such installment when due (and such notice of failure from Owner may be given any time after such installment payment is one (1) day late);

(b) User shall fail to pay any Additional Charge within ten (10) days after written notice from Owner of User's failure to pay such Additional Charge when due (and such notice of failure from Owner may be given any time after such Additional Charge payment is one (1) day late);

(c) User shall:

(i) file a petition in bankruptcy or a petition to take advantage of any insolvency law or statute under Federal law, specifically including Title 11, United States Code, §§ 101-1532, or analogous state law;

(ii) make an assignment for the benefit of its creditors; or

(iii) consent to the appointment of a receiver of itself or of the whole or substantially all of its property;

(d) User shall be adjudicated as bankrupt or a court of competent jurisdiction shall enter an order or decree appointing, without the consent of User, a receiver of User or of all or substantially all of User's property, or approving a petition filed against User seeking reorganization or arrangement of User under Federal law, specifically including Title 11, United States Code, §§ 101-1532, or analogous state law, and such judgment, order or decree shall not be vacated or set aside or stayed within sixty (60) days from the date of the entry thereof;

(e) entry of an order or decree liquidating or dissolving User, provided that the same shall not constitute an User Event of Default if such order or decree shall be vacated, set aside or stayed within ninety (90) days from the date of the entry thereof;

(f) a transfer of User's interest in this Agreement (including pursuant to a Change of Control) shall have occurred without the consent of Owner to the extent such consent is required under Article XVII or User is otherwise in default of the provisions set forth in Section 17.1 below;

(g) User shall fail to observe or perform any other term, covenant or condition of this Agreement and such failure is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from Owner, provided, however, if such failure cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period and User shall have commenced to cure such failure within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently proceeds to cure the same, then such thirty (30) day period shall be extended for such time as is reasonably necessary for User in the exercise of due diligence to cure such failure, provided that, with respect to any failure to perform (i) that is still continuing on or after the first day of the sixth (6th) Usage Year such cure period shall not extend beyond the later of such first day of the sixth (6th) Usage Year or one hundred eighty (180) days in the aggregate, and (ii) that is first arising on or after the first day of the sixth (6th) Usage Year, such cure period shall not exceed one hundred eighty (180) days in the aggregate; provided, further, however, that no User Event of Default under this clause (g) or under clause (h) below shall be deemed to exist under this Agreement during any time the curing thereof is prevented by an Unavoidable Delay, provided that upon the cessation of the Unavoidable Delay, User remedies the default within the time periods otherwise required hereunder; and

(h) the occurrence of any Tenant Event of Default under the Regional Lease.

13.2 Owner Remedies. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an User Event of Default, Owner may, subject to the terms of Section 13.4 below, do any one or more of the following: (a) terminate this Agreement by giving User no less than ten (10) days' notice of such termination and the Term shall terminate and all rights and obligations of User under this Agreement shall cease, subject to any provisions that expressly survive the Expiration Date, (b) seek damages as provided in Section 13.4 hereof, or (c) except to the extent expressly otherwise provided under this Agreement, exercise any other right or remedy hereunder, at law or in equity available to Owner as a result of any User Event of Default. User shall pay as Additional Charges all costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of Owner, including reasonable and documented attorneys' fees and expenses, as a result of any User Event of Default hereunder.

13.3 Owner Events of Default; User Remedies.

(a) An "Owner Event of Default" shall have occurred if Owner shall fail to observe or perform any term, covenant or condition of this Agreement, which failure materially and adversely affects User, and such failure is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice thereof from User, provided, however, if such failure cannot reasonably be cured within such thirty (30) day period and Owner shall have commenced to cure such failure within such thirty (30) day period and thereafter diligently proceeds to cure the same, then such thirty (30) day period shall be extended for such time as is reasonably necessary for Owner in the exercise of due diligence to cure such failure, provided that, with respect to any failure to perform (i) that is still continuing on or after the first day of the sixth (6th) Usage Year such cure period shall not extend beyond the later of such first day of the sixth (6th) Usage Year or one hundred eighty (180) days in the aggregate, and (ii) that is first arising on or after the first day of the sixth (6th) Usage Year, such cure period shall not exceed one hundred eighty (180) days in the aggregate; provided, further, however, that no Owner Event of Default under this clause (a) shall be deemed to exist under this Agreement during any time the curing thereof is prevented by an Unavoidable Delay, provided that upon the cessation of the Unavoidable Delay, Owner remedies the default within the time periods otherwise required hereunder.

(b) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Owner Event of Default, User may, except to the extent expressly otherwise provided in this Agreement, exercise any right or remedy hereunder, at law or in equity available to User as a result of any Owner Event of Default, including, without limitation, seeking the remedy of specific performance.

13.4 Damages. If Owner elects to terminate this Agreement in writing upon an User Event of Default during the Term, User shall forthwith (x) pay to Owner all Golf Course Use Payments due and payable under this Agreement to and including the date of such termination (together with interest thereon at the Overdue Rate from the date the applicable amount was due), and (y) pay on demand all damages to which Owner shall be entitled at law or in equity, which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall include the aggregate amounts of the Membership Fee and the CES Use Fee that would have been due and payable under this Agreement throughout the Term (including all Renewal Terms) but for such termination; provided, however, Owner's damages with regard to unpaid Golf Course Use Payments from and after the date of termination shall equal, as liquidated and agreed current damages in respect thereof, the sum of: (A) the worth at the time of award of the amount by which the unpaid Golf Course Use Payments (excluding the portion of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee attributable to the aggregate of the Annual Other Sponsored Rounds Fees for all of the Golf Courses) that (if this Agreement had not been terminated) would have been payable hereunder after termination until the time of award exceeds the amount of such Golf Course Use Payments (excluding the portion of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee attributable to the aggregate of the Annual Other Sponsored Rounds Fees for all of the Golf Courses) loss that User proves could have been reasonably avoided; plus (B) (x) the Golf Course Use Payments (excluding the portion of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee attributable to the aggregate of the Annual Other Sponsored Rounds Fees for all of the Golf Courses) which (if this Agreement had not been terminated) would have been payable hereunder from the time of award until the then Stated Expiration Date, discounted to present value by applying a discount rate equal to the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York at the time of award, plus one percent (1%), less (y) the Golf Course Use Payments (excluding the portion of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee attributable to the aggregate of the Annual Other Sponsored Rounds Fees for all of the Golf Courses) loss from the time of the award until the then Stated Expiration Date that User proves could be reasonably avoided, discounted to present value by applying a discount rate equal to the discount rate of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York at the time of award, plus one percent (1%) (it being understood the foregoing calculation of damages for unpaid Golf Course Use Payments applies only to the amount of unpaid Golf Course Use Payments damages owed to Owner pursuant to User's obligation to pay Golf Course Use Payments hereunder and does not prohibit or otherwise shall not limit Owner from seeking damages for any indemnification or any other obligations of User hereunder, with all such rights of Owner reserved). As used in clause (A), the "worth at the time of award" shall be computed by allowing interest at the Overdue Rate from the date the applicable amount was due.

13.5 Application of Funds. Any payments received by Owner under any of the provisions of this Agreement during the existence or continuance of any User Event of Default which are made to Owner rather than User due to the existence of an User Event of Default shall be applied to User's obligations in the order which Owner may reasonably determine or as may be prescribed by applicable Legal Requirements.

13.6 Owner's Right to Cure User's Default. If User shall fail to make any payment or to perform any act required to be made or performed hereunder when due, in all cases, after the expiration of any cure period provided for herein, Owner, without waiving or releasing any obligation or default, may, but shall be under no obligation to, make such payment or perform such act for the account and at the expense of User. All sums so paid by Owner and all costs and expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, so incurred, together with interest thereon at the Overdue Rate from the date on which such sums or expenses are paid or incurred by Owner, shall be paid by User to Owner on demand as an Additional Charge.

13.7 Reduction of Minimum Rounds Per Month and Minimum Rounds Per Year. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if Owner breaches its obligations under Schedule 1 to Exhibit B attached hereto to reserve (i.e., set aside) tee times for User's (or User's Affiliates') guests' use, then the applicable Minimum Rounds Per Month and the applicable Minimum Rounds Per Year shall each be reduced by the applicable number of tee times which Owner fails to reserve (i.e., set aside) for User's (or User's Affiliates') guests' use in accordance with Schedule 1 to Exhibit B attached hereto (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be re-determined in connection therewith).

13.8 Miscellaneous.

(a) Suit or suits for the recovery of damages, or for a sum equal to any installment or installments of Golf Course Use Payments payable hereunder, or for any other sums payable by User to Owner pursuant to this Agreement, may be brought by Owner from time to time at Owner's election, and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to require Owner to await the date whereon this Agreement and the Term would have expired by limitation had there been no User Event of Default or termination.

(b) No failure by either Party to insist upon the strict performance of any agreement, term, covenant or condition of this Agreement or to exercise any right or remedy consequent upon a breach thereof, and no acceptance by Owner of full or partial payment of any Golf Course Use Payments during the continuance of any such breach, shall constitute a waiver of any such breach or of such agreement, term, covenant or condition. No agreement, term, covenant or condition of this Agreement to be performed or complied with by either Party, and no breach thereof, shall be or be deemed to be waived, altered or modified except by a written instrument executed by the Parties. No waiver of any breach shall affect or alter this Agreement, but each and every agreement, term, covenant and condition of this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect with respect to any other then existing or subsequent breach thereof. In the event Owner claims in good faith that User has breached any of the agreements, terms, covenants or conditions contained in this Agreement, Owner shall be entitled to seek to enjoin such breach or threatened breach and shall have the right to invoke any rights and remedies allowed at law or in equity or by statute or otherwise as though summary proceedings or other remedies were not provided for in this Agreement.

(c) Except to the extent otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, each right and remedy of a Party provided for in this Agreement shall be cumulative and shall be in addition to every other right or remedy provided for in this Agreement or now or hereafter existing at law or in equity (subject to the limitations on the calculation of unpaid Golf Course Use Payments set forth in Section 13.4 above).

(d) Nothing contained in this Article XIII or otherwise shall vitiate or limit User's or Owner's obligation to pay the other Party's attorneys' fees as and to the extent provided in Article XXV hereof, or any indemnification obligations under any express indemnity made by User of Owner or of any Owner Indemnified Parties or by Owner of User or of any User Indemnified Parties as contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

LICENSING EVENTS

14.1 Owner Licensing Event. If there shall occur an Owner Licensing Event and any aspect of such Owner Licensing Event is attributable to a member of the Owner Subject Group, then User shall notify Owner as promptly as practicable after becoming aware of such Owner Licensing Event (but in no event later than twenty (20) days after becoming aware of such Owner Licensing Event). In such event, Owner shall, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the other members of the Owner Subject Group to, use commercially reasonable efforts to assist User and its Affiliates in resolving such Owner Licensing Event within the time period required by the applicable Gaming Authorities by submitting to investigation by the relevant Gaming Authorities and cooperating with any reasonable requests made by such Gaming Authorities (including filing requested forms and delivering information to the Gaming Authorities). If, despite these efforts, such Owner Licensing Event cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of the applicable Gaming Authorities within the time period required by such Gaming Authorities, User shall have the right, at its election in its sole discretion, either to (a) terminate this Agreement or (b) cause this Agreement to temporarily cease to be in force or effect, until such time, if any, as the Owner Licensing Event is resolved to the satisfaction of the applicable Gaming Authorities and User in its sole discretion, upon no less than ninety (90) days' written notice thereof to Owner following an Owner Licensing Event which is not cured within the period required by the applicable Gaming Authorities (or such lesser time as required by any applicable Gaming Authority).

14.2 User Licensing Event. If there shall occur a User Licensing Event and any aspect of such User Licensing Event is attributable to a member of the User Subject Group, then Owner shall notify User as promptly as practicable after becoming aware of such User Licensing Event (but in no event later than twenty (20) days after becoming aware of such User Licensing Event). In such event, User shall, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause the other members of the User Subject Group to, use commercially reasonable efforts to assist Owner and its Affiliates in resolving such User Licensing Event within the time period required by the applicable Gaming Authorities by submitting to investigation by the relevant Gaming Authorities and cooperating with any reasonable requests made by such Gaming Authorities (including filing requested forms and delivering information to the Gaming Authorities). If, despite these efforts, such User Licensing Event cannot be resolved to the satisfaction of the applicable Gaming Authorities within the time period required by such Gaming Authorities, Owner shall have the right, at its election in its sole discretion, either to (a) terminate this Agreement or (b) cause this Agreement to temporarily cease to be in force or effect, until such time, if any, as the User Licensing Event is resolved to the satisfaction of the applicable Gaming Authorities and Owner in its sole discretion, upon no less than ninety (90) days' written notice thereof to User following a User Licensing Event which is not cured within the period required by the applicable Gaming Authorities (or such lesser time as required by any applicable Gaming Authority).

ARTICLE XV

INDEMNIFICATION

In addition to the other indemnities contained herein, and notwithstanding the existence of any insurance carried by or for the benefit of Owner or User, and without regard to the policy limits of any such insurance, (a) User shall protect, indemnify, save harmless and defend Owner and its principals, partners, officers, members, directors, shareholders, employees, managers, agents and servants (collectively, the "Owner Indemnified Parties"; each individually, an "Owner Indemnified Party"), from and against all liabilities, obligations, claims, damages, penalties, causes of action, suits, criminal or civil actions or similar proceedings, costs and expenses, including reasonable documented attorneys', consultants' and experts' fees and expenses, imposed upon or incurred by or asserted against any Owner Indemnified Party (excluding any indirect, special, punitive or consequential damages as provided in Section 27.3) by reason of any gross negligence or willful misconduct of any User Indemnified Party (as hereinafter defined); and (b) Owner shall protect, indemnify, save harmless and defend User and its principals, partners, officers, members, directors, shareholders, employees, managers, agents and servants (collectively, the "User Indemnified Parties"; each individually, a "User Indemnified Party") from and against all liabilities, obligations, claims, damages, penalties, causes of action, suits, criminal or civil actions or similar proceedings, costs and expenses, including reasonable documented attorneys', consultants' and experts' fees and expenses, imposed upon or incurred by or asserted against any User Indemnified Party (excluding any indirect, special, punitive or consequential damages as provided in Section 27.3) by reason of any gross negligence or willful misconduct of any Owner Indemnified Party. Any amounts which become payable by Owner or User under this Article XV shall be paid within ten (10) days after liability therefor is determined by a final non appealable judgment or settlement or other agreement of the Parties, and if not timely paid shall bear interest at the Overdue Rate from the date of such determination to the date of payment. Owner, with its counsel and at its sole cost and expense, shall contest, resist and defend any such claim, action or proceeding asserted or instituted against the User Indemnified Parties; and User, with its counsel and at its sole cost and expense, shall contest, resist and defend any such claim, action or proceeding asserted or instituted against the Owner Indemnified Parties. For purposes of this Article XV, any acts or omissions of Owner, or by employees, agents, assignees, contractors, subcontractors or others acting for or on behalf of Owner, shall be strictly attributable to Owner; and any acts or omissions of User, or by employees, agents, assignees, contractors, subcontractors or others acting for or on behalf of User, shall be strictly attributable to User.

ARTICLE XVI

TRANSFERS BY OWNER

16.1 Transfers Generally. Owner may sell, assign, transfer or convey, without User's consent, all of the Golf Courses, any individual Golf Course or any portion of any Golf Course, or any interest therein. If the subject transaction involves a sale, assignment, transfer or conveyance of all of the Golf Courses, then this Agreement shall be assigned to the applicable transferee such that such transferee shall become successor Owner as if an original party to this Agreement. If the subject transaction involves a sale, assignment, transfer or conveyance of any individual Golf Course (or several Golf Courses but not all of the Golf Courses), then (a) subject to Section 16.2 below, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect with respect to the Golf Course(s) not transferred to the applicable transferee, and (b) a Severance Agreement with such transferee shall be entered into with respect to the Golf Course(s) transferred to the applicable transferee as described in Section 16.2 below. If the subject transaction involves a sale, assignment, transfer or conveyance of a portion (but not all) of any individual Golf Course, then (i) this Agreement shall remain in effect so long as such Golf Course is not thereby rendered Unsuitable for Its Primary Intended Use, and (ii) none of the Golf Course Use Payments shall be adjusted; provided, however, that if the applicable Golf Course is rendered Unsuitable for Its Primary Intended Use, then (A) this Agreement shall terminate with respect to such Golf Course as of the closing of such transaction, and (B) commencing upon the date of such termination, (1) the CES Use Fee shall be adjusted in accordance with the CES Use Fee Reduction Amount and (2) the Minimum Rounds Per Month and the Minimum Rounds Per Year shall each be adjusted in accordance with the Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee shall be re-determined in connection therewith). If Owner (including any successor Owner) shall convey all of the Golf Courses, any individual Golf Course or any portion of any Golf Course, then Owner shall be released from all future liabilities and obligations of Owner under this Agreement with respect to the Golf Course(s) or the applicable portion of a Golf Course (provided such conveyance of such portion of the Golf Course does not affect the Primary Intended Use of the remaining portion of such Golf Course as an eighteen (18) hole golf course) transferred to the applicable transferee upon the later of (x) such conveyance and (y) the applicable transferee's (A) express assumption of all liabilities and obligations of Owner under this Agreement relating to such transferred Golf Course(s) arising after such conveyance and (B) in the event at least one (1), but less than all, of the Golf Courses are so conveyed, execution of a Severance Agreement, and all liabilities and obligations of Owner hereunder relating to such transferred Golf Course(s) shall thereafter be binding upon such transferee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Owner shall not sell, assign, transfer or convey any of the Golf Courses, or assign this Agreement, to (1) a Tenant Prohibited Person (as defined in the Regional Lease) or (2) any Person that is associated with a Person who has been found "unsuitable", denied a Gaming License or otherwise precluded from participation in the gaming industry by any Gaming Authority, where such association may adversely affect any of User's or its Affiliates' Gaming Licenses or User's or its Affiliates' then-current standing with any Gaming Authority. Any assignment or transfer under this Article XVI shall be subject to all applicable Legal Requirements, and no such assignment or transfer shall be effective until any applicable approvals, if applicable, are obtained.

16.2 Severance Agreements. In the event Owner desires to sell or otherwise transfer at least one (1), but less than all, of the Golf Courses (in whole but not in part) to a third party or to an affiliate of Owner, then the Parties shall enter into a Severance Agreement with respect to such Golf Course, in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) Owner shall give User not less than fifteen (15) days' advance written notice of a Severance Agreement, and User shall thereafter, within said fifteen (15)-day period (or such longer period of time as Owner may require; it being understood that Owner may delay or cancel a Severance Agreement in the event that the underlying sale or transfer of a Golf Course is delayed or cancelled for any reason), execute, acknowledge and deliver a Severance Agreement to the new owner of the applicable Golf Course for the remaining Term and on substantially the same terms and conditions as this Agreement (except for appropriate adjustments (including to Exhibits and Schedules), including such adjustments as are described in this Article XVI), and in any case no less favorable to User than the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(b) In the event a Severance Agreement is entered into, Owner may, before the Severance Agreement is executed, elect, in its sole discretion, for the Membership Fee that was in effect under this Agreement immediately prior to the effective date of such Severance Agreement to remain in full force and effect under this Agreement (a "Membership Fee Retainage Election"). If Owner timely makes a Membership Fee Retainage Election (which election may be included in the notice provided pursuant to Section 16.2(a) above), then the Severance Agreement shall provide that no amount is payable under such Severance Agreement in respect of any Membership Fee and the Membership Fee payable under this Agreement shall not be reduced. If Owner does not timely make a Membership Fee Retainage Election, then (i) the Membership Fee payable under the Severance Agreement at the time of the commencement of such Severance Agreement shall be equal to the amount of the Membership Fee Reduction Amount for the applicable Golf Course to be subject to such Severance Agreement, and (ii) correspondingly, upon the effective date of the Severance Agreement, the Membership Fee payable hereunder shall be reduced by such Membership Fee Reduction Amount.

(c) The CES Use Fee payable under the Severance Agreement at the time of the commencement of such Severance Agreement shall be equal to the amount of the CES Use Fee Reduction Amount for the applicable Golf Course to be subject to such Severance Agreement. Correspondingly, upon the effective date of the Severance Agreement, the CES Use Fee payable hereunder shall be reduced by such CES Use Fee Reduction Amount.

(d) The Minimum Rounds Per Month and Minimum Rounds Per Year under the Severance Agreement at the time of the commencement of such Severance Agreement shall be determined in accordance with the Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount for the applicable Golf Course to be subject to such Severance Agreement (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee payable under such Severance Agreement shall be determined in connection therewith). Correspondingly, upon the effective date of the Severance Agreement, the Minimum Rounds Per Month and Minimum Rounds Per Year hereunder shall each be adjusted in accordance with such Minimum Rounds Reduction Amount (and the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee payable hereunder shall be re-determined in connection therewith).

(e) This Agreement shall automatically terminate with respect to the applicable Golf Course that is subject to such Severance Agreement as of the effective date of such Severance Agreement.

(f) User shall take such actions and execute and deliver such documents, including, without limitation, amended Memorandum(s) of Agreement and, if requested by Owner, an amendment to this Agreement, as are reasonably necessary and appropriate to effectuate fully the provisions and intent of this Article XVI, and as Owner may reasonably request to evidence such removal of the applicable Golf Course from this Agreement.

(g) All reasonable, documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses actually incurred relating to a Severance Agreement (including reasonable, documented attorneys' fees and other reasonable, documented out-of-pocket costs incurred by User for outside counsel, if any) shall (i) be borne by Owner and not User and (ii) be reimbursed to User by Owner within ten (10) days after Owner's receipt of written demand therefor from User.

(h) At the option of such new owner, a Severance Agreement may provide that the new owner of the applicable Golf Course shall have the right to terminate such Severance Agreement on or after the date that is five (5) years after the commencement of such Severance Agreement (the date on which such Severance Agreement terminates pursuant to such new owner's exercise of such termination right, the "Severance Agreement Termination Date"), in which event such Severance Agreement and the obligations of User to pay the Golf Course Use Payments payable thereunder shall continue through (and including) the Severance Agreement Termination Date.

16.3 No Release of Owner's Obligations; Exception. The liability of Owner and any immediate and remote successor in interest of Owner (by assignment or otherwise), and the due performance of the obligations of this Agreement on Owner's part to be performed or observed, shall not in any way be discharged, released or impaired by any (i) stipulation which extends the time within which an obligation under this Agreement is to be performed, (ii) waiver of the performance of an obligation required under this Agreement that is not entered into by User in a writing executed by User and expressly stated to be for the benefit of Owner or such successor, or (iii) failure to enforce any of the obligations set forth in this Agreement, provided that Owner shall not be responsible for any additional obligations or liability arising as the result of any modification or amendment of this Agreement by User and any assignee of Owner that is not an Affiliate of Owner.

ARTICLE XVII
TRANSFERS BY USER

17.1 Assignment. Other than as expressly provided herein (including the permitted assignments described in this Article XVII), User shall not, without Owner's prior written consent (which, except as specifically set forth herein, may be withheld in Owner's sole and absolute discretion), voluntarily or by operation of law assign (which term includes any transfer, sale, encumbering, pledge or other transfer or hypothecation), directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, this Agreement. Any Change of Control of User (or, subject to Section 17.2 below, any transfer of direct or indirect interests in User that results in a Change of Control) shall constitute an assignment of User's interest in this Agreement within the meaning of this Article XVII and the provisions requiring consent contained herein shall apply thereto. Any assignment or transfer under this Article XVII shall be subject to all applicable Legal Requirements, and no such assignment or transfer shall be effective until any applicable approvals, if applicable, are obtained.

17.2 Permitted Assignments and Transfers. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary contained herein, (i) the assignments, transfers and other actions or transactions (excluding Subleases (as such term is defined in the Regional Lease)) permitted under Section 22.2 of the Regional Lease shall be permitted hereunder, and (ii) this Agreement may be assigned or transferred by User to the Person(s) to whom the Regional Tenant assigns or transfers its interest in the Regional Lease in accordance with the terms thereof. Further, any Permitted User Lender shall have the same right to receive any notice of a default by User under this Agreement or termination of this Agreement and the same right to cure such default or act or omission which gave rise to such default as such Permitted User Lender would have with respect to a default by the Regional Tenant under the Regional Lease or termination of the Regional Lease as set forth in Article XVII of the Regional Lease, as if such provisions were set forth in this Agreement mutatis mutandis.

17.3 Costs. User shall reimburse Owner for Owner's reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses actually incurred in conjunction with the processing and documentation of any assignment or transfer of this Agreement by User, including reasonable documented attorneys', architects', engineers' or other consultants' fees whether or not such assignment or transfer is actually consummated.

17.4 No Release of User's Obligations; Exception. No assignment shall relieve User of its obligation to pay each of the Golf Course Use Payments and to perform all of the other obligations to be performed by User hereunder. The liability of User and any immediate and remote successor in interest of User (by assignment or otherwise), and the due performance of the obligations of this Agreement on User's part to be performed or observed, shall not in any way be discharged, released or impaired by any (i) stipulation which extends the time within which an obligation under this Agreement is to be performed, (ii) waiver of the performance of an obligation required under this Agreement that is not entered into by Owner in a writing executed by Owner and expressly stated to be for the benefit of User or such successor, or (iii) failure to enforce any of the obligations set forth in this Agreement, provided that User shall not be responsible for any additional obligations or liability arising as the result of any modification or amendment of this Agreement by Owner and any assignee of User that is not an Affiliate of User.

17.5 Merger of CEOC. The Parties acknowledge that, immediately following the execution of this Agreement on the Commencement Date, Caesars Entertainment Operating Company, Inc., a Delaware corporation, merged into CEOC, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Owner consents to such merger.

17.6 Merger of CEC. The Parties acknowledge that: (i) on or before the Fifth Amendment Date, CEC caused (a) in a series of steps, CEOC to be transferred from CEC to Caesars Resort Collection, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary of CEC, and (b) the Las Vegas Restructuring (as defined in the Regional Lease) to be completed; and (ii) contemporaneously with the Fifth Amendment Date, (a) Colt Merger Sub, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of ERI, merged with and into CEC, with CEC surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of ERI, (b) ERI was renamed Caesars Entertainment, Inc. and converted to a Delaware corporation and (c) CEC was renamed Caesars Holdings, Inc.. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Owner consents to, and waives all notice requirements with respect to, such transfer, restructuring, renaming, conversion and merger.

ARTICLE XVIII

ESTOPPEL CERTIFICATES

Each of Owner and User shall, at any time and from time to time upon receipt of not less than ten (10) Business Days' prior written request from the other Party, furnish a certificate (an "Estoppel Certificate") certifying (i) that this Agreement is unmodified and in full force and effect, or that this Agreement is in full force and effect and, if applicable, setting forth any modifications; (ii) each of the Golf Course Use Payments and Additional Charges payable hereunder and the dates to which each of the Golf Course Use Payments and Additional Charges payable have been paid; (iii) that the address for notices to be sent to the Party furnishing such Estoppel Certificate is as set forth in this Agreement (or, if such address for notices has changed, the correct address for notices to such Party); (iv) whether or not, to its actual knowledge, such Party or the other Party is in default in the performance of any covenant, agreement or condition contained in this Agreement (together with back-up calculations and information reasonably necessary to support such determination) and, if so, specifying each such default of which such Party may have knowledge; and (v) responses to such other questions or statements of fact as such other Party may reasonably request. Any such Estoppel Certificate may be relied upon by the receiving Party and any current or prospective Fee Mortgagee (and their successors and assigns) or purchaser of one or more Golf Courses or any portion of a Golf Course, as applicable.

ARTICLE XIX

NO WAIVER

No delay, omission or failure by Owner to insist upon the strict performance of any term hereof or to exercise any right, power or remedy hereunder and no acceptance of full or partial payment of any Golf Course Use Payments during the continuance of any default or User Event of Default shall impair any such right or constitute a waiver of any such breach or of any such term. No waiver of any breach shall affect or alter this Agreement, which shall continue in full force and effect with respect to any other then existing or subsequent breach.

ARTICLE XX

REMEDIES CUMULATIVE

To the extent permitted by law, each legal, equitable or contractual right, power and remedy of Owner now or hereafter provided either in this Agreement or by statute or otherwise shall be cumulative and concurrent and shall be in addition to every other right, power and remedy and the exercise or beginning of the exercise by Owner of any one or more of such rights, powers and remedies shall not preclude the simultaneous or subsequent exercise by Owner of any or all of such other rights, powers and remedies.

ARTICLE XXI

ACCEPTANCE OF SURRENDER

No surrender to Owner of this Agreement or of the Golf Courses or any part thereof, or of any interest therein, shall be valid or effective unless agreed to and accepted in writing by Owner, and no act by Owner or any representative or agent of Owner, other than such written acceptance by Owner, shall constitute an acceptance of any such surrender.

ARTICLE XXII

If, in connection with obtaining any Fee Mortgage or entering into any agreement relating thereto, Owner shall request in writing (a) reasonable cooperation from User or (b) reasonable amendments or modifications to this Agreement, in each case required to comply with any reasonable request made by a Fee Mortgagee, User shall reasonably cooperate with such request, so long as (i) no default in any material respect by Owner beyond applicable cure periods is continuing, (ii) all reasonable documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by User in connection with such cooperation, including, but not limited to, its reasonable documented attorneys' fees, shall be paid by Owner and (iii) any requested action, including any amendments or modifications of this Agreement, shall not (A) increase User's monetary obligations under this Agreement by more than a de minimis extent, or increase User's non-monetary obligations under this Agreement in any material respect, or decrease Owner's obligations under this Agreement in any material respect, (B) diminish User's rights under this Agreement in any material respect, (C) adversely impact the value of the Golf Courses by more than a de minimis extent or otherwise have a more than de minimis adverse effect on the Golf Courses, User or Owner, or (D) result in a default under any Permitted User Security Instrument.

Neither Party will during the Term knowingly engage in any transactions or dealings, or knowingly be otherwise associated with, any Prohibited Persons in connection with the Golf Courses.

ARTICLE XXVII

MISCELLANEOUS

27.1 Survival. Anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, all claims against, and liabilities, obligations and indemnities of User or Owner arising or in respect of any period prior to the Expiration Date shall survive the Expiration Date.

Severability. Subject to Section 27.17, if any term or provision of this Agreement or any application thereof shall be held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement and any other application of such term or provision shall not be affected thereby.

27.2 Non-Recourse. User specifically agrees to look solely to the Golf Courses for recovery of any judgment from Owner (and Owner's liability hereunder shall be limited solely to its interest in the Golf Courses, and no recourse under or in respect of this Agreement shall be had against any other assets of Owner whatsoever). The provision contained in the foregoing sentence is not intended to, and shall not, limit any right that User might otherwise have to obtain injunctive relief against Owner, or any action not involving the personal liability of Owner. In no event shall either Party ever be liable to the other Party for any indirect, consequential, lost profits, punitive, exemplary, statutory or treble damages suffered from whatever cause (other than, as to all such forms of damages, (i) if Owner has terminated this Agreement, any damages as provided under Section 13.4 hereof, (ii) if Owner has not terminated this Agreement, any damages as provided for herein, and (iii) a claim (including an indemnity claim) for recovery of any such damages that the claiming party is required by a court of competent jurisdiction or the expert to pay to a third party

(other than to the extent resulting from the claiming Party's gross negligence, willful misconduct or default hereunder), and the Parties acknowledge and agree that the rights and remedies in this Agreement, and all other rights and remedies at law and in equity, will be adequate in all circumstances for any claims the Parties might have with respect to damages. It is specifically agreed that no constituent member, partner, owner, director, officer or employee of a Party shall ever be personally liable for any judgment (in respect of obligations under or in connection with this Agreement) against, or for the payment of any monetary obligation under or in respect of this Agreement, such Party, to the other Party.

27.3 Successors and Assigns. This Agreement shall be binding upon Owner and its permitted successors and assigns and, subject to the provisions of Article XVII, upon User and its successors and assigns.

27.4 Arbitration. In the event of a dispute with respect to this Agreement, or in any case when this Agreement expressly provides for the settlement or determination of a dispute or question by an Expert pursuant to this Section 27.5 (in any such case, a "Section 27.5 Dispute"), such dispute shall be determined in accordance with an arbitration proceeding as set forth in this Section 27.5.

(a) Any Section 27.5 Dispute shall be determined by an arbitration panel comprised of three members, each of whom shall be an Expert (the "Arbitration Panel"). No more than one panel member may be with the same firm and no panel member may have an economic interest in the outcome of the arbitration.

(b) The Arbitration Panel shall be selected as set forth in this Section 27.5(b). If a Section 27.5 Dispute arises and if Owner and User are not able to resolve such dispute after at least fifteen (15) days of good faith negotiations, then either Party shall each have the right to submit the dispute to the Arbitration Panel, upon written notice to the other Party (the "Arbitration Notice"). The Arbitration Notice shall identify one member of the Arbitration Panel who meets the criteria of the above paragraph. Within five (5) Business Days after the receipt of the Arbitration Notice, the Party receiving such Arbitration Notice shall respond in writing identifying one member of the Arbitration Panel who meets the criteria of the above paragraph. Such notices shall include the name, address and other pertinent contact information, and qualifications of its member of the Arbitration Panel. If a Party fails to timely select its respective panel member, the other Party may notify such Party in writing of such failure, and if such Party fails to select its respective panel member within three (3) Business Days after receipt of such notice, then such other Party may select and identify to such Party such panel member on such Party's behalf. The third (3rd) member of the Arbitration Panel will be selected by the two (2) members of the Arbitration Panel who were selected by Owner and User; provided, that if, within five (5) Business Days after they are identified, they fail to select a third (3rd) member, or if they are unable to agree on such selection, Owner and User shall cause the third (3rd) member of the Arbitration Panel to be appointed by the managing officer of the American Arbitration Association.

Single, Indivisible Agreement. This Agreement constitutes one indivisible usage agreement with respect to the Golf Courses and not separate usage agreements governed by similar terms. The Golf Courses constitute one economic unit, and each of the Golf Course Use Payments and all other provisions have been negotiated and agreed upon based on usage of all of the Golf Courses by User as a single, composite, inseparable transaction and would have been substantially different had separate usage agreements or a divisible usage agreement been intended. Section 365, or any successor or replacement thereof or any analogous state law, this is one indivisible and non-severable usage agreement and executory contract dealing with one legal and economic unit and that this Agreement must be assumed, rejected or assigned as a whole with respect to all (and only as to all) of the Golf Courses. The Parties may elect (in each Party's respective sole discretion, but subject to the applicable terms of this Agreement) to amend this Agreement from time to time to exclude one or more components or portions of, and/or to include one or more additional components as part of, the Golf Courses, and any such future exclusion of or addition to the Golf Courses shall not in any way change the indivisible and nonseverable nature of this Agreement and all of the foregoing provisions shall continue to apply in full force. Furthermore, under certain circumstances as more particularly and expressly provided in this Agreement above, one or more of the Golf Courses hereunder may, subject to the provisions of this Agreement, be removed from this Agreement and no longer be part of the Golf Courses and such reduction of the Golf Courses shall not in any way change the indivisible and nonseverable nature of this Agreement and all of the foregoing provisions shall continue to apply in full force with respect to the balance of the Golf Courses.

Termination of this Agreement. Wherever in this Agreement the action of terminating this Agreement with respect to any Golf Course (or action of similar import) is discussed, such action shall mean the termination of User's rights in and to the use of such Golf Course and the termination of such obligations of User hereunder that concern solely such Golf Course (including, without limitation, the obligations of User hereunder with respect to the portion of the Complimentary Golf Rounds Fee attributable to such Golf Course), which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall under no circumstances include or be deemed to include the obligations of User hereunder with respect to all or any portion of the Membership Fee). Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, if this Agreement is terminated with respect to any Golf Course, such termination shall not affect the applicable Term of this Agreement with respect to the balance of the Golf Courses with respect to which this Agreement is not so terminated, and this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect with respect to such balance of the Golf Courses, and User shall remain obligated to pay the entirety of the Membership Fee (subject to the third (3rd) sentence of Section 16.2(b)). Following any such termination, the Parties shall execute an amendment to this Agreement to memorialize such termination; provided, however the failure to do so will not affect the effectiveness of such termination.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, during the Lockout Period, Owner shall be prohibited from selling, disposing, conveying or otherwise transferring all or any portion of the Eastside Convention Center Land or permitting the sale, disposition, conveyance or other transfer of any direct or indirect membership, partnership or other equity interest in Owner, including, without limitation, pursuant to a lease of the Eastside Convention Center Land and/or the Eastside Convention Center (other than the granting of any Use Rights) (collectively, "Transfers"), except such prohibition shall not apply to (i) Transfers to Affiliates of Owner, (ii) Transfers to a Person which is not an Affiliate of Owner that acquires (or whose Affiliate acquires) HLV Tenant's interest in the HLV Property, including, without limitation, any direct or indirect membership, partnership or other equity interest in HLV Tenant so long as, during the Lockout Period, the owner of the Eastside Convention Center Property and the tenant with respect to the HLV Property under the Las Vegas Lease shall be the same Person or Affiliates of each other, or (iii) Transfers (including pursuant to a deed of trust) to VICI or any of its Affiliates; provided, however, the foregoing does not prohibit Owner from granting a deed of trust on any portion of the Eastside Convention Center Property as security for any indebtedness obtained in a bona fide third-party financing that is also secured by a deed of trust on HLV Tenant's interest in the HLV Property in accordance with the terms of the Las Vegas Lease; provided that a memorandum of this Agreement is recorded in the Clark County real estate records as contemplated in Section 7(m) prior to the execution of each such deed of trust.

3. Put Right in Favor of Owner.

(a) Put Right. Provided that (i) the Put/Call Convention Center Conditions have been satisfied, (ii) the Eastside Convention Center shall have been operating and is capable of fully operating at the time the Put Right is exercised, and there shall be Financial Statements for no less than four (4) consecutive Fiscal Quarters, (iii) the Las Vegas Lease shall be in full force and effect, no Tenant Event of Default (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) shall exist, and no event or circumstance, which with the passage of time would result in a Tenant Event of Default (a "Tenant Default"), shall exist, (iv) neither Owner nor any Affiliate of Owner shall then be in material default hereunder, and (v) there is no Material Adverse Effect, then at any time during the Owner Election Period, Owner shall have the right to exercise the Put Right in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 3 (all of the foregoing, collectively, the "Put Exercise Conditions"). If any or all of the Put Exercise Conditions are not satisfied, then Owner shall not be entitled to exercise the Put Right.

(b) Requirements of Put Right Property Package. In order to duly and timely exercise the Put Right, subject to satisfaction of the Put Exercise Conditions, Owner shall deliver to VICI a notice (the "Put Right Election Notice") of Owner's election to exercise the Put Right, which shall include a package of information (the "Put Right Property Package"), which shall set forth all material information with respect to the Eastside Convention Center Property and the Put Right including, without limitation, the following:

(i) reasonable evidence that the Put Exercise Conditions have been satisfied;

(ii) the proposed Sale Agreement, in the condition required by this Agreement, which shall include the Put-Call Purchase Price and Closing Date;

(iii) the proposed Las Vegas Lease Amendment, in the condition required by this Agreement;

(iv) delivery of Financial Statements for the most recently ended four (4) consecutive Fiscal Quarter period for which Financial Statements are available as of the date of Owner's exercise of the Put Right; and

(v) the proposed Put-Call Purchase Price and Las Vegas Lease Amendment Rent; and

(vi) due diligence materials of a type that would customarily be provided to a purchaser of properties such as the Eastside Convention Center Property and produced by reputable third-party companies reasonably acceptable to VICI, including in any event a recent title report, survey, environmental reports, current tax status and any assessments owed, and information regarding any known litigation or judgment (collectively, "Diligence Materials").

Promptly upon VICI's reasonable request therefor, Owner shall provide to VICI additional information reasonably related to the Put Right Property Package, to the extent such information is reasonably available to Owner. Further, following delivery of the Put Right Election Notice, VICI and its consultants and representatives shall have access to the Eastside Convention Center Property pursuant to, and VICI, and its consultants and representatives, shall comply with, the Access Provisions.

(c) Put Right Deadline. If Owner does not deliver a Put Right Election Notice to VICI in accordance with the provisions of Section 3(b) prior to the expiration of the Owner Election Period, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE, the Put Right shall automatically terminate and be deemed null and void.

(d) Dispute Regarding Put Right Property Package; Material Adverse Effect. If a Put Right Election Notice and Put Right Property Package are timely delivered by Owner to VICI but VICI either (1) has comments or revisions to the draft Las Vegas Lease Amendment or Sale Agreement that are required to cause same to comply with the provisions of this Agreement, (2) believes that a condition exists (evidenced through the Diligence Materials or otherwise) that has a Material Adverse Effect, or (3) believes that any or all of the Put Exercise Conditions have not been satisfied, then VICI shall notify Owner thereof within twenty (20) days of VICI's receipt of the Put Right Property Package (or, if later, such evidence of an alleged Material Adverse Effect, Tenant Event of Default or Tenant Default). In such event, Owner and VICI shall negotiate in good faith up to a period of thirty (30) days in an effort to reconcile the applicable issue(s). If Owner and VICI are unable to resolve the subject dispute, then Owner may withdraw the Put Right Election Notice (in which case the Put Right may not be exercised again for a period of six (6) months (but in no event after the end of the Owner Election Period)), and if Owner does not withdraw the Put Right Election Notice, the Parties agree that such dispute shall be resolved pursuant to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof.

(e) Finalization of Put Right Documents. If a Put Right Election Notice and Put Right Property Package are timely delivered, and (if applicable) any disputes under Section 3(d) above have been resolved, Owner and VICI shall, as soon as reasonably practicable (but in all events within ten (10) days thereafter), enter into the Sale Agreement (with a Las Vegas Lease Amendment attached thereto as an exhibit, which Las Vegas Lease Amendment shall be executed upon the consummation of the closing under the Sale Agreement).

(f) Gaming Approvals. If a Gaming Approval Failure occurs, the Put Right shall automatically terminate and be deemed null and void. Each Party shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts in order to timely obtain the Requisite Gaming Approvals that it must obtain for the Put Right transaction, and the other Party shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts in order to assist such Party in its efforts to timely obtain such Requisite Gaming Approvals. If there is a dispute among the Parties as to whether good faith, commercially reasonable efforts were used throughout the Regulatory Period, such dispute shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof, and such matter shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof within twenty (20) days after the expiration of the Regulatory Period. Each Party, at no material unreimbursed expense to such Party, agrees to reasonably cooperate with the other Party and use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Regulatory Approval Supporting Information that is reasonably requested by the other Party, in such Party's efforts to obtain any necessary regulatory approvals (including, if necessary, Requisite Gaming Approvals).

(g) Closing. The closing of the Put Right transaction shall occur in accordance with the terms of the Sale Agreement. In the event that a Put Right transaction fails to close for any reason other than Owner's breach or default under this Agreement or under the Sale Agreement or because of a failure of one or more representations or warranties by Seller under the Sale Agreement to be true and correct in all material respects as of the Closing Date (a "Rep Condition Failure"), or due to a Gaming Approval Failure and the Sale Agreement is terminated (any such failure to close for a reason other than such breach or default by Owner, a Rep Condition Failure or Gaming Approval Failure, a "Put Right Closing Failure"), Owner shall have the right to exercise the HLV Repurchase Right in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 4 hereof. Either VICI or Owner shall have the right, to be exercised within twenty (20) days after the date the alleged Put Right Closing Failure occurs, to submit any dispute related to the failure to close to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof in order to obtain a determination of the reason for such failure to close. If the Sale Agreement has been executed between the Parties, from and after such execution the terms and conditions of such Sale Agreement shall govern all disputes between the Parties (other than the reason for such failure to close), rather than the arbitration procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof.

(h) Failure to Execute Sale Agreement Due To VICI's Breach. Prior to entering into this transaction, Owner and VICI have discussed the fact that substantial damages will be suffered by Owner if VICI shall breach or default in its obligations under this Section 3 to execute a Sale Agreement if and when required under this Section 3 (a "VICI LD Default"); accordingly, the Parties agree that a reasonable estimate of Owner's damages in such event is the amount of Nine Million and 00/100 Dollars ($9,000,000.00) (the "Owner Liquidated Damages Amount"). In the event of a VICI LD Default, then, as Owner's sole and exclusive remedy hereunder, at law, in equity or otherwise (but for the avoidance of doubt, without limiting Owner's rights to exercise the HLV Repurchase Right in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 4 hereof) VICI shall pay the Owner Liquidated Damages Amount to Owner as liquidated damages. VICI's obligation to pay the Owner Liquidated Damages Amount if and when payable hereunder shall survive the termination of this Agreement. In the event of an alleged VICI LD Default, Owner shall provide notice to VICI of same, setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such VICI LD Default (a "VICI LD Default Notice"). VICI shall have the right, to be exercised within twenty (20) days after the date Owner gives a VICI LD Default Notice, to submit any dispute related to such alleged VICI LD Default to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof in order to obtain a determination as to whether a VICI LD Default occurred. In the event the Arbitration Panel's determination is that a VICI LD Default occurred, VICI shall have a period of twenty (20) days from the date of such determination to cure such default, failure of which shall result in VICI being required to pay the Owner Liquidated Damages Amount.

(i) Termination of Agreement. Upon closing of the Put Right transaction, this Agreement shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect.

4. HLV Repurchase Right in Favor of Owner.

(a) HLV Repurchase Right. If and only if Owner duly exercises the Put Right in accordance with the terms and conditions of Section 3, but a Put Right transaction fails to close by the outside date by which the closing could occur under the Sale Agreement (as described as the "Closing Date" in Exhibit D) due to a Put Right Closing Failure, then, during the HLV

Repurchase Election Period, Owner shall have the right to exercise the HLV Repurchase Right subject to and in accordance with the further terms and provisions of this Section 4. Under no circumstances shall Owner have the right to exercise the HLV Repurchase Right in the event Owner withdraws its Put Right pursuant to the terms and provisions of Section 3(d) (unless Owner subsequently duly exercises its Put Right again within the Owner Election Period and otherwise in accordance with the terms and conditions of Section 3, and thereafter a Put Right transaction again fails to close by the outside date by which the closing could occur under the Sale Agreement due to a Put Right Closing Failure and otherwise in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Agreement).

(b) Requirements of HLV Repurchase Right Property Package Request. As a condition to exercising the HLV Repurchase Right, Owner shall deliver to VICI during the HLV Repurchase Election Period a notice of Owner's intention to exercise the HLV Repurchase Right and a request for the HLV Repurchase Right Property Package from VICI (collectively, the "HLV Repurchase Right Property Package Request"). As promptly as practicable after receipt of the HLV Repurchase Right Property Package Request, but in no event later than the date occurring thirty (30) days after VICI's receipt of the HLV Repurchase Right Property Package Request, VICI shall provide to Owner a package of information (the "HLV Repurchase Right Property Package"), which shall include the following:

(i) the proposed HLV Repurchase Sale Agreement, in the condition required by this Agreement, which shall include the HLV Repurchase Right Purchase Price and Closing Date;

(ii) the computation of the proposed HLV Repurchase Right Purchase Price; and

(iii) Diligence Materials (if and to the extent VICI has such materials in its possession and Lessee does not already have same at the time the HLV Repurchase Right Property Package Request was received).

Promptly upon Owner's reasonable request therefor, VICI shall provide to Owner additional information reasonably related to the HLV Repurchase Right, to the extent such information is in its possession and Lessee does not already have same.

VICI and Owner agree to use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts, for a period of thirty (30) days after VICI's receipt of the HLV Repurchase Right Property Package Request to negotiate, prepare and finalize the HLV Removal Amendment, including all exhibits and schedules thereto. If, despite such efforts, the Parties are unable to reach agreement on the final form of the HLV Removal Amendment prior to the expiration of such thirty (30) day period, then, upon the expiration of such thirty (30) day period, the terms and conditions of the HLV Removal Amendment that remain unresolved shall be established pursuant to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof.

(c) Call Right Deadline. If Owner does not deliver a HLV Repurchase Right Property Package Request to VICI in accordance with the provisions of Sections 4(a) and 4(b) prior to the expiration of the HLV Repurchase Election Period, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE, the HLV Repurchase Right shall automatically terminate and be deemed null and void.

(d) Dispute Regarding HLV Repurchase Right Property Package. If Owner, after reviewing the HLV Repurchase Right Property Package, either (1) disagrees with VICI's computation of the HLV Repurchase Right Purchase Price or (2) has comments or revisions to the draft HLV Repurchase Sale Agreement that are required to cause same to comply with the provisions of this Agreement, Owner shall notify VICI thereof within twenty (20) days of Owner's receipt of the HLV Repurchase Right Property Package. In such event, Owner and VICI shall negotiate in good faith up to a period of thirty (30) days in an effort to reconcile the applicable issue(s). If Owner and VICI are unable to resolve the subject dispute, such dispute shall be resolved pursuant to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof.

(e) Finalization of HLV Repurchase Right Documents. If the HLV Repurchase Right Property Package is timely delivered, and (if applicable) any disputes under Section 4(b) or Section 4(d) above have been resolved, Owner and VICI shall, as soon as reasonably practicable (but in all events within ten (10) days thereafter), enter into the HLV Repurchase Sale Agreement (with the HLV Removal Amendment attached thereto as an exhibit, which HLV Removal Amendment shall be executed upon the consummation of the closing under the HLV Repurchase Sale Agreement).

(f) Gaming Approvals. If a Gaming Approval Failure occurs, the HLV Repurchase Right shall automatically terminate and be deemed null and void. Each party shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts in order to timely obtain the Requisite Gaming Approvals that it must obtain for the HLV Repurchase Right transaction, and the other party shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts in order to assist such party in its efforts to timely obtain such Requisite Gaming Approvals. If there is a dispute among the Parties as to whether good faith, commercially reasonable efforts were used throughout the Regulatory Period, such dispute shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof, and such matter shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof within twenty (20) days after the expiration of the Regulatory Period. Each Party, at no material unreimbursed expense to such Party, agrees to reasonably cooperate with the other Party and use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Regulatory Approval Supporting Information that is reasonably requested by the other Party, in such Party's efforts to obtain any necessary regulatory approvals (including, if necessary, Requisite Gaming Approvals).

(g) Closing. The closing of the HLV Repurchase Right transaction shall occur in accordance with the terms of the HLV Repurchase Sale Agreement. In the event that a HLV Repurchase Right transaction fails to close as aforesaid, either VICI or Owner shall have the right, to be exercised within twenty (20) days after the date the alleged failure occurs, to submit any dispute related to such failure to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof; provided, however, that, if the HLV Repurchase Sale Agreement has been executed between the Parties, from and after such execution, the terms and conditions of such HLV Repurchase Sale Agreement shall govern all disputes between the Parties.

5. Call Right in Favor of VICI.

(a) Call Right. Provided that (i) clauses (1), (2) and (3) (excluding clauses (x) and (y) thereof) of the Put/Call Convention Center Conditions have been satisfied, (ii) the Las Vegas Lease shall be in full force and effect, (iii) Landlord (as defined in the Las Vegas Lease) shall not be in material uncured default under the Las Vegas Lease, and (iv) VICI is not in material default hereunder (and, for the avoidance of doubt, it shall not be deemed a material default if a VICI LD Default occurred and thereafter VICI paid the Owner Liquidated Damages Amount), then, at any time during the VICI Election Period, VICI shall have the right to exercise the Call Right in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 5.

(b) Requirements of Call Right Election Notice and Call Right Property Package Request. As a condition to exercising the Call Right, VICI shall deliver to Owner a notice of VICI's intention to exercise the Call Right and a request for the Call Right Property Package from Owner (collectively, the "Call Right Property Package Request"). As promptly as practicable after receipt of the Call Right Property Package Request, but in no event later than the date occurring thirty (30) days after Owner's receipt of the Call Right Property Package Request, Owner shall provide to VICI a package of information (the "Call Right Property Package"), which shall set forth all material information with respect to the Eastside Convention Center Property and the Call Right including, without limitation, the following:

(i) reasonable evidence that the Put/Call Convention Center Conditions have been satisfied;

(ii) the proposed Sale Agreement, in the condition required by this Agreement, which shall include the Put-Call Purchase Price and Closing Date;

(iii) the proposed Las Vegas Lease Amendment, in the condition required by this Agreement;

(iv) delivery of the Financial Statements for the most recently ended four (4) consecutive Fiscal Quarter period for which Financial Statements are available as of the date of VICI's exercise of the Call Right, as the case may be;

(v) the proposed Put-Call Purchase Price and Las Vegas Lease Amendment Rent; and

(vi) Diligence Materials.

Promptly upon VICI's reasonable request therefor, Owner shall provide to VICI additional information reasonably related to the Call Right, to the extent such information is reasonably available to Owner. Further, following delivery of the Call Right Property Package Request, VICI and its consultants and representatives shall have access to the Eastside Convention Center Property pursuant to, and VICI, and its consultants and representatives, shall comply with, the Access Provisions.

(c) Call Right Deadline. If VICI does not deliver a Call Right Property Package Request to Owner in accordance with Section 5(b) prior to the expiration of the VICI Election Period, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE, this Agreement shall automatically terminate on the expiration of such period.

(d) Failure of Put/Call Convention Center Conditions. If upon VICI's delivering of the Call Right Property Package Request to Owner, the Put/Call Convention Center Conditions have not been satisfied (a "Call Right Condition Failure"), then this Agreement shall automatically terminate at the conclusion of the VICI Election Period unless following a Call Right Condition Failure, VICI again exercises its Call Right within the VICI Election Period and at the time of delivering of the Call Right Property Package Request to Owner, clause (1), (2) and (3) (excluding clauses (x) and (y) thereof) of the Put/Call Convention Center Conditions are then satisfied.

(e) Dispute Regarding Call Right Property Package. If VICI, after reviewing the Call Right Property Package, still wishes to exercise the Call Right but VICI has comments or revisions to the draft Las Vegas Lease Amendment and/or Sale Agreement required to cause the same to comply with the provisions of this Agreement, VICI shall notify Owner thereof within twenty (20) days of VICI's receipt of the Call Right Property Package. In such event, Owner and VICI shall negotiate in good faith up to a period of thirty (30) days in an effort to reconcile the applicable issue(s). If Owner and VICI are unable to resolve the subject dispute, such dispute shall be resolved pursuant to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the event that (x) the Call Right Property Package discloses that any of the Put/Call Convention Center Conditions is not satisfied, (y) a Tenant Event of Default or Tenant Default exists, and/or (z) a condition exists or an event occurred (evidenced through the Diligence Materials or otherwise) that has a Material Adverse Effect, then, with respect to clauses (x) or (y), Owner may terminate this Agreement to be effective at the conclusion of the VICI Election Period, subject to the provisions of Section 5(d), and if Owner does not so terminate this Agreement, and with respect to clause (z), VICI shall have the right to retract its exercise of the Call Right by providing notice to Owner thereof within twenty (20) days of VICI's receipt of the Call Right Property Package (or, if later, in the case of any item described in either clauses (y) or (z) above, twenty (20) days following the occurrence of such event). In such case, this Agreement shall automatically terminate at the conclusion of the VICI Election Period, subject to the provisions of Section 5(d).

(f) Finalization of Call Right Documents. If the Call Right Property Package is timely delivered, and (if applicable) any disputes under Section 5(e) above have been resolved, if VICI still wishes to exercise the Call Right, Owner and VICI shall as soon as reasonably practicable (but in all events within ten (10) days thereafter) enter into the Sale Agreement (with a Las Vegas Lease Amendment attached thereto as an exhibit, which Las Vegas Lease Amendment shall be executed upon the consummation of the closing under the Sale Agreement).

(g) Gaming Approvals. If a Gaming Approval Failure occurs, then this Agreement shall automatically terminate. Each Party shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts in order to timely obtain the Requisite Gaming Approvals that it must obtain for the Call Right Transaction, and the other Party shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts in order to assist such Party in its efforts to timely obtain such Requisite Gaming Approvals.

If there is a dispute among the Parties as to whether good faith, commercially reasonable efforts were used throughout the Regulatory Period, such dispute shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof, and such matter shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof within twenty (20) days after the expiration of the Regulatory Period. Each Party, at no material unreimbursed expense to such Party, agrees to reasonably cooperate with the other Party and use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Regulatory Approval Supporting Information that is reasonably requested by the other Party, in such Party's efforts to obtain any necessary regulatory approvals (including, if necessary, Requisite Gaming Approvals).

(h) Closing. The closing of the Call Right transaction shall occur in accordance with the terms of the Sale Agreement. In the event that the Parties fail to execute a Sale Agreement, either VICI or Owner shall have the right, to be exercised within twenty (20) days after the date the alleged failure occurs, to submit any dispute related to such failure to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof; provided, however, that if the Sale Agreement has been executed between the Parties, from and after such execution the terms and conditions of such Sale Agreement shall govern all disputes between the Parties.

(i) Failure to Execute Sale Agreement Due To Owner Breach. Prior to entering into this transaction, Owner and VICI have discussed the fact that substantial damages will be suffered by VICI if Owner shall breach or default in its obligations under this Section 5 to execute a Sale Agreement when required under this Section 5 (an "Owner LD Default"); accordingly, the Parties agree that a reasonable estimate of VICI's damages in such event is the amount of Nine Million and 00/100 Dollars ($9,000,000.00) (the "VICI Liquidated Damages Amount"). In the event of an Owner LD Default, then, as VICI's sole and exclusive remedy hereunder, at law, in equity or otherwise, Owner shall pay the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount to VICI as liquidated damages, and thereafter, the Parties shall have no further rights or obligations hereunder except for other obligations which expressly survive the termination of this Agreement. Owner's obligation to pay the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount if and when payable hereunder shall survive the termination of this Agreement. In the event of an alleged Owner LD Default, VICI shall provide notice to Owner of same, setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Owner LD Default (an "Owner LD Default Notice"). Owner shall have the right, to be exercised within twenty (20) days after the date VICI gives an Owner LD Default Notice, to submit any dispute related to such alleged Owner LD Default to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof in order to obtain a determination as to whether an Owner LD Default occurred. In the event the Arbitration Panel's determination is that an Owner LD Default occurred, Owner shall have a period of twenty (20) days from the date of such determination to cure such default, failure of which shall result in Owner being required to pay the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount.

(j) Financial Statements and Access to Eastside Convention Center Property. At any time and from time to time after January 1, 2026, within thirty (30) days after request therefor by VICI, Owner shall provide: (x) to VICI, Financial Statements for the then most recent period of four (4) consecutive Fiscal Quarters ended at least ninety (90) days prior to such date, and (y) to VICI and its consultants and representatives, access to the Eastside Convention Center Property pursuant to, and VICI, and its consultants and representatives, shall comply with, the Access Provisions.

If a Party fails to timely select its respective panel member, the other Party may notify such Party in writing of such failure, and if such Party fails to select its respective panel member within three (3) Business Days after receipt of such notice, then such other Party may select and identify to such Party such panel member on such Party's behalf. Within ten (10) Business Days after the selection of the Owner Panel Member and the VICI Panel Member, the Owner Panel Member and the VICI Panel Member shall jointly select a third panel member meeting the criteria of the above paragraph (the "Third Panel Member"). If the Owner Panel Member and the VICI Panel Member fail to timely select the Third Panel Member and such failure continues for more than three (3) Business Days after written notice of such failure is delivered to the Owner Panel Member and VICI Panel Member by either Owner or VICI, then Owner and VICI shall cause the Third Panel Member to be appointed by the managing officer of the American Arbitration Association.

(c) Arbitration Procedure. Within twenty (20) Business Days after the selection of the Arbitration Panel, Owner and VICI each shall submit to the Arbitration Panel a written statement identifying its summary of the issues. Owner and VICI may also request an evidentiary hearing on the merits in addition to the submission of written statements, such request to be made in writing within such twenty (20) Business Day period. The Arbitration Panel shall determine the appropriate terms and conditions of the documents or other matters in question in accordance with this Agreement. The Arbitration Panel shall make its decision within twenty (20) days after the later of (i) the submission of such written statements, and (ii) the conclusion of any evidentiary hearing on the merits (if any). The Arbitration Panel shall reach its decision by majority vote and shall communicate its decision by written notice to Owner and VICI.

(d) Determinations by Arbitration Panel. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) any damages payable hereunder shall be payable only in cash or cash equivalents or, in the discretion

(e) Binding Decision. The decision by the Arbitration Panel shall be final, binding and conclusive and shall be non-appealable and enforceable in any court having jurisdiction. All hearings and proceedings held by the Arbitration Panel shall take place in New York, New York.

"Affiliate" means, with respect to any Person, any other Person that, directly or indirectly, Controls, is Controlled by or is under common Control with such Person. For purposes of this definition, an "Affiliate" of Owner includes any Person for which Owner or its Affiliate is providing management or consulting services with respect to Gaming Activities. For the avoidance of doubt, it shall not be a VICI Licensing Event if (x) VICI can resolve or cure the VICI Licensing Event within applicable timeframes (for purposes of illustration and not limitation, by terminating any responsible employee) and (y) VICI acts timely to cure the VICI Licensing Event.

3. Put Right in Favor of Owner.

(a) Put Right. Provided that (1) there shall be Financial Statements of Centaur for no less than four consecutive Fiscal Quarters, (2) the Non-CPLV Lease shall be in full force and effect, no Tenant Event of Default (as defined in the Non-CPLV Lease) shall exist, and no event or circumstance, which with the passage of time would result in a Tenant Event of Default (a "Tenant Default"), shall exist, (3) Owner shall not be in material default hereunder (and, for the avoidance of doubt, it shall not be deemed a material default if an Owner LD Default occurred and thereafter Owner paid the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount), and (4) there is no Material Adverse Effect at such time, then at any time during the Election Period, Owner shall have the right to exercise the Put Right in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 3 (all of the foregoing, collectively, the "Put Exercise Conditions"). If any or all of the Put Exercise Conditions are not satisfied, then Owner shall not be entitled to exercise the Put Right.

(b) Requirements of Put Right Property Package. In order to duly and timely exercise the Put Right, subject to satisfaction of the Put Exercise Conditions, Owner shall deliver to VICI a notice (the "Put Right Election Notice") of Owner's election to exercise the Put Right, which shall include a package of information (the "Put Right Property Package"), which shall set forth all material information with respect to the Centaur Facilities, the Subject Property and the Put Right including, without limitation, the following:

(i) reasonable evidence that the Put Exercise Conditions have been satisfied;

(ii) the proposed Sale Agreement, in the condition required by this Agreement, which shall include the Put Right Purchase Price and Closing Date;

(iii) the proposed Non-CPLV Lease Amendment, in the condition required by this Agreement;

(iv) delivery of the Financial Statements referenced in Section 3(a); together with such other Financial Statements of Centaur for such other fiscal periods and such other financial information reasonably necessary in order to calculate the anticipated rent adjustments under the Non-CPLV Lease as provided in Exhibit B hereto (the "Additional Rent Support Information"));

(v) delivery of all organizational documents of Owner;

(vi) a reasonably detailed explanation of the computation of the proposed Put Right Purchase Price and the Call/Put Right Incremental Non-CPLV Rent, together with any related Financial Statements used as the basis therefor; and

(vii) due diligence materials of a type that would customarily be provided to a purchaser of equity or properties such as the Subject Property and the Centaur Facilities and produced by reputable third-party companies reasonably acceptable to VICI, including in any event organizational documents, material contracts, a recent title report, property condition reports, survey, environmental reports, current tax status and any assessments owed, tax returns and other material tax documentation and information regarding any known litigation or judgment (collectively, "Diligence Materials").

Promptly upon VICI's reasonable request therefor, Owner shall provide to VICI additional information reasonably related to the Put Right Property Package, to the extent such information is reasonably available to Owner. Further, following delivery of the Put Right Election Notice, VICI and its consultants and representatives shall have access to the Centaur Facilities pursuant to, and VICI, and its consultants and representatives, shall comply with, the Access Provisions.

(c) Put Right Deadline. If Owner does not deliver a Put Right Election Notice to VICI in accordance with the provisions of Section 3(b) prior to the expiration of the Election Period, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE, the Put Right shall automatically terminate and be deemed null and void.

(d) Dispute Regarding Put Right Property Package; Material Adverse Effect. If a Put Right Election Notice and Put Right Property Package are timely delivered by Owner to VICI but VICI either (1) disagrees with Owner's computation of the Call/Put Right Incremental Non-CPLV Rent and/or the Put Right Purchase Price, (2) has comments or revisions to the draft Non-CPLV Lease Amendment or Sale Agreement that are required to cause same to comply with the provisions of this Agreement (or with respect to proposals therein that are not required in order to comply with the provisions of this Agreement), (3) believes that a condition exists (evidenced through the Diligence Materials or otherwise) that constitutes a Material Adverse Effect or (4) believes that any or all of the Put Exercise Conditions have not been satisfied, then VICI shall notify Owner thereof within sixty (60) days of VICI's receipt of the Put Right Property Package (or, if later, such evidence of a Tenant Event of Default or Tenant Default). In such event, Owner and VICI shall negotiate in good faith up to a period of thirty (30) days in an effort to reconcile the applicable issue(s). If Owner and VICI are unable to resolve the subject dispute, then Owner may withdraw the Put Right Election Notice (in which case the Put Right may not be exercised again for a period of six (6) months (but in no event after the end of the Election Period)), and if Owner does not withdraw the Put Right Election Notice, the Parties agree that such dispute shall be resolved pursuant to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof.

(e) Finalization of Put Right Documents. If a Put Right Election Notice and Put Right Property Package are timely delivered, and (if applicable) any disputes under Section 3(d) above have been resolved, Owner and VICI shall as soon as reasonably practicable (but in all events within sixty (60) days thereafter) enter into the Sale Agreement (with a Non-CPLV Lease Amendment attached thereto as an exhibit, which Non-CPLV Lease Amendment shall be executed upon the consummation of the closing under the Sale Agreement).

(f) Gaming Approvals. If a Gaming Approval Failure occurs, the Put Right shall automatically terminate and be deemed null and void. Each Party shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts in order to timely obtain the Requisite Gaming Approvals that it must obtain for the Put Right transaction, and the other Party shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts in order to assist such Party in its efforts to timely obtain such Requisite Gaming Approvals. If there is a dispute among the Parties as to whether good faith, commercially reasonable efforts were used throughout the Regulatory Period, such dispute shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof, and such matter shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof within twenty (20) days after the expiration of the Regulatory Period. Each Party, at no material unreimbursed expense to such Party, agrees to reasonably cooperate with the other Party and use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Regulatory Approval Supporting Information to any applicable Gaming Authorities in pursuit of the Requisite Gaming Approvals.

(g) Closing. The closing of the Put Right transaction shall occur in accordance with the terms of the Sale Agreement. In the event that the Parties fail to execute a Sale Agreement, either VICI or Owner shall have the right, to be exercised within twenty (20) days after the date the alleged failure occurs, to submit any dispute related to such failure to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof; provided, however, that if the Sale Agreement has been executed between the Parties, from and after such execution the terms and conditions of such Sale Agreement shall govern all disputes between the Parties.

(h) Failure to Execute Sale Agreement Due To VICI's Breach. Prior to entering into this transaction, Owner and VICI have discussed the fact that substantial damages will be suffered by Owner if VICI shall breach or default in its obligations under this Section 3 to execute a Sale Agreement if and when required under this Section 3 (a "VICI LD Default"); accordingly, the Parties agree that a reasonable estimate of Owner's damages in such event is the amount of $30,000,000 (the "Owner Liquidated Damages Amount"). In the event of a VICI LD Default, then, as Owner's sole and exclusive remedy hereunder, at law, in equity or otherwise VICI shall pay the Owner Liquidated Damages Amount to Owner as liquidated damages. VICI's obligation to pay the Owner Liquidated Damages Amount if and when payable hereunder shall survive the termination of this Agreement. In the event of an alleged VICI LD Default, Owner shall provide notice to VICI of same, setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such VICI LD Default (a "VICI LD Default Notice"). VICI shall have the right, to be exercised within twenty (20) days after the date Owner gives a VICI LD Default Notice, to submit any dispute related to such alleged VICI LD Default to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof in order to obtain a determination as to whether a VICI LD Default occurred. In the event the Arbitration Panel's determination is that a VICI LD Default occurred, VICI shall have a period of twenty (20) days from the date of such determination to cure such default, failure of which shall result in VICI being required to pay the Owner Liquidated Damages Amount.

(i) Termination of Agreement. Upon closing of the Put Right transaction this Agreement shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect.

4. [Intentionally Omitted].

5. Call Right in Favor of VICI.

(a) Call Right. Provided that the Non-CPLV Lease shall be in full force and effect, Landlord (as defined in the Non-CPLV Lease) shall not be in material uncured default under the Non-CPLV Lease, and VICI is not in material default hereunder (and, for the avoidance of doubt, it shall not be deemed a material default if a VICI LD Default occurred and thereafter VICI paid the Owner Liquidated Damages Amount), then, at any time during the Election Period, VICI shall have the right to exercise the Call Right in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 5.

(b) Requirements of Call Right Election Notice and Call Right Property Package Request. As a condition to exercising the Call Right, VICI shall deliver to Owner a notice of VICI's intention to exercise the Call Right, and a request for the Call Right Property Package from Owner (collectively, the "Call Right Property Package Request"). As promptly as practicable after receipt of the Call Right Property Package Request, but in no event later than the date occurring thirty (30) days after Owner's receipt of the Call Right Property Package Request, Owner shall provide to VICI a package of information (the "Call Right Property Package"), which shall set forth all material information with respect to the Centaur Facilities and the Call Right including, without limitation, the following:

(i) the proposed Sale Agreement, in the condition required by this Agreement, which shall include the Call Right Purchase Price and Closing Date;

(ii) the proposed Non-CPLV Lease Amendment, in the condition required by this Agreement;

(iii) delivery of the Financial Statements referenced in Section 3(a), together with the Additional Rent Support Information;

(iv) a reasonably detailed explanation of the computation of the proposed Call Right Purchase Price and the Call/Put Right Incremental Non-CPLV Rent, together with any related Financial Statements used as the basis therefor; and

(v) Diligence Materials.

Promptly upon VICI's reasonable request therefor, Owner shall provide to VICI additional information reasonably related to the Call Right, to the extent such information is reasonably available to Owner. Further, following delivery of the Call Right Property Package Request VICI and its consultants and representatives shall have access to the Centaur Facilities pursuant to, and VICI, and its consultants and representatives, shall comply with, the Access Provisions.

(c) Call Right Deadline. If VICI does not deliver a Call Right Property Package Request to Owner in accordance with Section 5(b) prior to the expiration of the Election Period, TIME BEING OF THE ESSENCE, this Agreement shall automatically terminate on the expiration of such period.

(d) [Intentionally Omitted].

(e) Dispute Regarding Call Right Property Package. If VICI, after reviewing the Call Right Property Package, still wishes to exercise the Call Right but VICI either (1) disagrees with Owner's computation of the Call Right Purchase Price and/or the Call/Put Right Incremental Non-CPLV Rent, or (2) has comments or revisions to the draft Non-CPLV Lease Amendment and/or Sale Agreement required to cause the same to comply with the provisions of this Agreement, VICI shall notify Owner thereof within sixty (60) days of VICI's receipt of the Call Right Property Package. In such event, Owner and VICI shall negotiate in good faith up to a period of thirty (30) days in an effort to reconcile the applicable issue(s). If Owner and VICI are unable to resolve the subject dispute, such dispute shall be resolved pursuant to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in the event that a condition exists or an event occurred (evidenced through the Diligence Materials or otherwise) that has a Material Adverse Effect, then, VICI shall have the right to retract its exercise of the Call Right by providing notice to Owner thereof within sixty (60) days of VICI's receipt of the Call Right Property Package (or, if later, in the case of any condition or event described in this sentence, sixty (60) days following the occurrence of such event). In such case, this Agreement shall automatically terminate at the conclusion of the Election Period.

(f) Finalization of Call Right Documents. If the Call Right Property Package is timely delivered, and (if applicable) any disputes under Section 5(e) above have been resolved, if VICI still wishes to exercise the Call Right, Owner and VICI shall as soon as reasonably practicable (but in all events within sixty (60) days thereafter) enter into the Sale Agreement (with a Non-CPLV Lease Amendment attached thereto as an exhibit, which Non-CPLV Lease Amendment shall be executed upon the consummation of the closing under the Sale Agreement).

(g) Gaming Approvals. If a Gaming Approval Failure occurs, then this Agreement shall automatically terminate. Each Party shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts in order to timely obtain the Requisite Gaming Approvals that it must obtain for the Call Right Transaction, and the other Party shall use good faith, commercially reasonable efforts in order to assist such Party in its efforts to timely obtain such Requisite Gaming Approvals. If there is a dispute among the Parties as to whether good faith, commercially reasonable efforts were used throughout the Regulatory Period, such dispute shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof, and such matter shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof within twenty (20) days after the expiration of the Regulatory Period. Each Party, at no material unreimbursed expense to such Party, agrees to reasonably cooperate with the other Party and use commercially reasonable efforts to provide Regulatory Approval Supporting Information that is reasonably requested by the other Party, in such Party's efforts to obtain any necessary regulatory approvals (including, if necessary Requisite Gaming Approvals).

(h) Closing. The closing of the Call Right transaction shall occur in accordance with the terms of the Sale Agreement. In the event that the Parties fail to execute a Sale Agreement, either VICI or Owner shall have the right, to be exercised within twenty (20) days after the date the alleged failure occurs, to submit any dispute related to such failure to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof; provided, however, that if the Sale Agreement has been executed between the Parties, from and after such execution the terms and conditions of such Sale Agreement shall govern all disputes between the Parties.

(i) Failure to Execute Sale Agreement Due To Owner Breach. Prior to entering into this transaction, Owner and VICI have discussed the fact that substantial damages will be suffered by VICI if Owner shall breach or default in its obligations under this Section 5 to execute a Sale Agreement when and as required under this Section 5 (an "Owner LD Default"); accordingly, the Parties agree that a reasonable estimate of VICI's damages in such event is the amount of $30,000,000 (the "VICI Liquidated Damages Amount"). In the event of an Owner LD Default, then, as VICI's sole and exclusive remedy hereunder, at law, in equity or otherwise, Owner shall pay the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount to VICI as liquidated damages, and thereafter, the Parties shall have no further rights or obligations hereunder except for other obligations which expressly survive the termination of this Agreement. Owner's obligation to pay the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount if and when payable hereunder shall survive the termination of this Agreement. In the event of an alleged Owner LD Default, VICI shall provide notice to Owner of same, setting forth in reasonable detail the nature of such Owner LD Default (an "Owner LD Default Notice"). Owner shall have the right, to be exercised within twenty (20) days after the date VICI gives an Owner LD Default Notice, to submit any dispute related to such alleged Owner LD Default to arbitration in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 6 hereof in order to obtain a determination as to whether an Owner LD Default occurred. In the event the Arbitration Panel's determination is that an Owner LD Default occurred, Owner shall have a period of twenty (20) days from the date of such determination to cure such default, failure of which shall result in Owner being required to pay the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount shall not exceed the maximum amount, if any, that can be paid to VICI without causing VICI REIT (as defined below) to fail to meet the requirements of Sections 856(c)(2) and (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "REIT Requirements") for such year, determined as if the payment of such amount did not constitute income described in the REIT Requirements ("Qualifying Income"), as determined by independent accountants to VICI (taking into account any known or anticipated income of VICI which is not Qualifying Income and any appropriate "cushion" as determined by such accountants). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event VICI receives a reasoned opinion from counsel or other tax advisor or a ruling from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service providing that VICI's receipt of the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount would either constitute Qualifying Income of VICI REIT or would be excluded from gross income of VICI REIT within the meaning of the REIT Requirements, the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount shall be an amount equal to the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount and Owner shall, upon receiving a written notification from VICI regarding such opinion or ruling, pay to VICI the unpaid VICI Liquidated Damages Amount within five Business Days. In the event that VICI is not able to receive the full VICI Liquidated Damages Amount immediately upon a termination due to the above limitations, Owner shall place the unpaid amount in escrow by wire transfer within three days of termination and shall not release any portion thereof to VICI unless and until VICI receives a reasoned opinion from counsel or other tax advisor or a ruling from the U.S. Internal Revenue Service providing that VICI's receipt of the unpaid VICI Liquidated Damages Amount would either constitute Qualifying Income of VICI REIT or would be excluded from gross income of VICI REIT within the meaning of the REIT Requirements, in which event Owner shall pay to VICI the unpaid VICI Liquidated Damages Amount within five Business Days after Owner has been notified thereof. The obligation of Owner to pay any unpaid portion of the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount shall terminate on the December 31 following the date which is five years from the date the Owner LD Default. Amounts remaining in escrow after the obligation of Owner to pay the VICI Liquidated Damages Amount terminates shall be released to Owner.

(j) Financial Statements and Access to Centaur Facilities. Commencing on October 1, 2022 and at any time during the Election Period and, if the Call Right is exercised during the Election Period, continuing until the termination of this Agreement while VICI is exercising its Call Right hereunder, Owner shall provide, upon VICI's reasonable advance written request: (x) to VICI, Financial Statements of Centaur for the then most recent period of four consecutive Fiscal Quarters ended at least 90 days prior to such date, and (y) to VICI and its consultants and representatives, access to the Centaur Facilities pursuant to, and VICI, and its consultants and representatives, shall comply with, the Access Provisions.

(k) Termination of Agreement. Upon closing of the Call Right transaction this Agreement shall automatically terminate and be of no further force and effect.

6. Arbitration.

(a) Arbitrator Qualifications. Any dispute required pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement to be resolved by arbitration shall be submitted to and determined by an arbitration panel comprised of three (3) members (the "Arbitration Panel"). No more than one (1) panel member may be with the same firm, and no panel member may have an economic interest in the outcome of the arbitration. In addition, each panel member shall have (i) at least ten (10) years of experience as an arbitrator and at least one (1) year of experience in a profession that directly relates to the ownership, operation, financing or leasing of gaming, racing or other hospitality facilities similar to the Centaur Facilities, as applicable, or (ii) at least one (1) year of experience as an arbitrator and at least ten (10) years of experience in a profession that directly relates to the ownership, operation, financing or leasing of gaming, racing or other hospitality facilities similar to the Centaur Facilities.

(b) Arbitrator Appointment. The Arbitration Panel shall be selected as set forth in this Section 6(b). Within fifteen (15) Business Days after the expiration of the applicable date identified in this Agreement, Owner shall select and identify to VICI a panel member meeting the criteria of the above paragraph (the "Owner Panel Member") and VICI shall select and identify to Owner a panel member meeting the criteria of the above paragraph (the "VICI Panel Member"). If a Party fails to timely select its respective panel member, the other Party may notify such Party in writing of such failure, and if such Party fails to select its respective panel member within three (3) Business Days after receipt of such notice, then such other Party may select and identify to such Party such panel member on such Party's behalf. Within ten (10) Business Days after the selection of the Owner Panel Member and the VICI Panel Member, the Owner Panel Member and the VICI Panel Member shall jointly select a third panel member meeting the criteria of the above paragraph (the "Third Panel Member"). If the Owner Panel Member and the VICI Panel Member fail to timely select the Third Panel Member and such failure continues for more than three (3) Business Days after written notice of such failure is delivered to the Owner Panel Member and VICI Panel Member by either Owner or VICI, then Owner and VICI shall cause the Third Panel Member to be appointed by the managing officer of the American Arbitration Association.

(c) Arbitration Procedure. Within twenty (20) Business Days after the selection of the Arbitration Panel, Owner and VICI each shall submit to the Arbitration Panel a written statement identifying its summary of the issues. Owner and VICI may also request an evidentiary hearing on the merits in addition to the submission of written statements, such request to be made in writing within such twenty (20) Business Day period. The Arbitration Panel shall determine the appropriate terms and conditions of the documents or other matters in question in accordance with this Agreement. The Arbitration Panel shall make its decision within twenty (20) days after the later of (i) the submission of such written statements, and (ii) the conclusion of any evidentiary hearing on the merits (if any). The Arbitration Panel shall reach its decision by majority vote and shall communicate its decision by written notice to Owner and VICI.

(d) Determinations by Arbitration Panel. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) any damages payable hereunder shall be payable only in cash or cash equivalents or, in the discretion of both Parties acting reasonably, equity securities or debt with at least the same value as a cash award or, in the sole discretion of each Party, such other form of consideration as may be agreed between them; and (ii) in making any determination of an issue with respect to Gaming Laws or involving the Gaming Authorities, the Arbitration Panel shall be limited to determining whether the Owner acted in good faith and/or a commercially reasonable manner with respect to this Agreement and its obligations hereunder.

(e) Binding Decision. The decision by the Arbitration Panel shall be final, binding and conclusive and shall be non-appealable and enforceable in any court having jurisdiction. All hearings and proceedings held by the Arbitration Panel shall take place in New York, New York.

(f) Determination Rules. The resolution procedure described herein shall be governed by the Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association and the Procedures for Large, Complex, Commercial Disputes in effect as of the date hereof.

(g) Liability for Costs. Owner and VICI shall bear equally the fees, costs and expenses of the Arbitration Panel in conducting any arbitration described in this Section 6.

7. Miscellaneous.

(a) Notices.
