

Dear Eldorado Resorts Team Members:

We are writing to share some tremendous news with you that speaks to Eldorado's ongoing ascent to prominence in the gaming industry. Earlier this morning we announced that we reached an agreement to acquire Caesars Entertainment Corporation ("Caesars") in a cash and stock transaction valued at approximately $17.3 billion. The acquisition of Caesars is a transformational growth opportunity for Eldorado Resorts, as it will expand our scale and geographic diversification to approximately 60 domestic casino resorts and gaming facilities across 16 states. Our expanded property portfolio will feature approximately 71,000 slot machines or VLTs, approximately 4,000 table games and approximately 51,000 hotel rooms. For more information on this transaction, its terms and required approvals, please see the attached press release we issued this morning.

Over the last five years our Board of Directors and management team have pursued a strategy of increasing the scale and geographic footprint of our company while staying true to our core operating disciplines and unwavering commitment to providing our guests with the best gaming, lodging, entertainment and dining experiences and amenities. As a result we have generated phenomenal growth in our operating results and created value for all of our stakeholders.

Following the close of this transaction, we will leverage the iconic brand power and worldwide recognition of the Caesars name and change the company name to Caesars Entertainment while maintaining our corporate headquarters in Reno. Our senior management and operating teams will retain their current positions and responsibilities for the combined company. While our company's name will change, our mission to combine excellence in guest service with financial discipline will not. We will continue to focus on providing our guests leading gaming, hotel and food and beverage offerings and top-tier "family-style" service, all of which are hallmarks of the guest experience at our properties, while we simultaneously focus on our core operating strategies to continuously grow operating margins. We are confident that your commitment to excellence, which has been a critical factor in our ability to achieve our corporate goals, will continue to help us perform at the top of the industry both prior to and following the completion of this transaction.

Next Steps

We expect to close the transaction in the first half of 2020, subject to approval by Eldorado Resorts and Caesars shareholders, gaming authorities and other regulatory and customary approvals. Until that time, Eldorado Resorts and Caesars will remain two separate companies and it is business as usual.

Over the coming weeks we expect to assemble a transition team comprised of leaders from both Eldorado Resorts and Caesars that will formulate a plan to best combine and integrate the companies following completion of the transaction. As this process moves forward, we will communicate with you regularly in a timely manner. Please find attached a list of FAQs to help answer some of the questions you may have about this announcement. If you have additional questions, please reach out to your supervisor or General Manager. In the event you receive inquiries from external parties, it is important that we continue to speak with one voice. To that end, any such inquiries must be forwarded to Anthony Carano, President and Chief Operating Officer at acarano@eldoradoresorts.com.

We are proud to share this exciting development with you and we are grateful for the work each of you has done, and will continue to do, to ensure our ongoing success. We hope you share our excitement for the Company's future as we bring together two industry leaders with strong businesses that will generate significant opportunities for our team members, customers, partners and shareholders.

Sincerely,

Gary Carano
Executive Chairman
